FLAT EARTH AND THE OERA LINDA BOOK

By Kat the Fryan

This work is dedicated to my true Fryands who have stuck by me and supported me in my endeavors to get the truth out about our world and our place in it. Thank you.

PART ONE ~ SOME GENERAL IDEAS

If you are a follower of the Oera Linda Book (OLB), then you would know that we've had Magy deceivers with us since at least that time. And we know subsequently, they wrote a book of Babel, called their Bible, to deceive us further.

In it we read,

John 1:1~ In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Well, we know that in the beginning was WRALDA, and the Word was WITH WRALDA, and the Word WAS WRALDA. Wralda is God, and the Word is the World, His Creation.

It is no coincidence that the word WORD is in WORLD and that WORLD is in WRALDA. The WORD is the living breath given to all living beings in the WORLD BY WRALDA. His BREATH, His CREATION.

WRALDA ~ WORLD ~ WORD

And His name can be broken down into WAHR ALDA, which means TRUE ELDER. Another way to say this is ALVATER, the ALL FATHER. He is the ALL FATHER and the ALL FEEDER.

And we have WALD in Wralda, which means FOREST (Nature). Again, His Creation.

Now let's plug in WALD into that Bible verse and see what we get.

In the beginning was the WALD, and the WALD was with WRALDA, and the WALD was WRALDA.

It is saying that Nature and God are one and the same. Did they write this verse with WORD in mind, so that the Magy SAY it was the WORD of God to dupe us?

He gave man ONE language, Wralda's language, with which to communicate, because by speaking His language, one could not lie without giving it away.

In the OLB we read, Here is the writing with Gosa's Counsel.

*When Wralda gave children to the Mooders (Mothers) of the human sort (mankind), he laid* one language in all the tongues *and on everyone's lips. This gift Wralda gave to the people, so that they can make known to each other with that, what one must avoid and what one must hunt for (pursue) in order to find blessings and to keep blessings in all eternity. Wralda is wise and good and all foreseeing. Because he now knew that luck (happiness) and blessings must flee from Earth, when evilness can deceive virtue, thus he has tied to that language a righteous ownership (attribute). This ownership lies in the fact* that with it one cannot tell lies *nor speak deceptive words, without voice-suffering (stammering and stuttering) nor without becoming red for shame, by which one can recognize the evil of heart instantly. Because our language thus leads to luck (happiness) and to blessings, and thus watches along against evil inclinations, therefore it is with all right* (rightfully*) named Good's (God's) language, and all those who keep it in honor have profit from it.*

But what happened?

*As soon as deceptors arose among our half-sisters and half-brothers, who presented themselves as God his stalks (thinkers), so quickly that changed. The deceitful priests and the bitter-cruel principals who always held together, wanted to live at will and do without God's Ewa (laws). In their jodishness (insidiousness) they went on and have made up other languages, so that they could speak secretly in the presence of all others, about all evil things and about all unworthy things, without that voice-suffering could betray them, nor red for shame could mess up their face.*

But what is born out of this?

The degenerate girls and the unmanly fellows who fornicated with the foul priests and principals unlocked the new languages in their lovers. In this way they spread among the Folks, until they have completely forgotten God's language.

It spins the Tower of Babel story on its head.

Ancient Tower of Babel, Babylon Iraq

Modern Day Tower of Babel, European Union Parliament Building

Babel back then. Babel now.

So instead of God- Wralda, confusing the languages as written in the Magy's Bible story, it was the MAGY who confused WRALDA'S language, God's language, so that they could hide their evil schemes.

See how the Magy love to invert the truth? From God making one into many, it is MAN in the form of the MAGY, who made one into many. The ONE language was to protect us. The MANY languages were to manipulate us, because then we couldn't discern truth from lies, and thus turning us into slaves.

The Tower of Babel is THEIR tower. And the EU Parliament is just a modern-day version of it.

And what do we notice about the Tower? It was built in a SPIRAL. It goes round and round. Just like Wralda's wheel. It represents the WHIRLED. Which is the WORLD in motion.

WRALDA ~ WORLD ~ WHIRLED

Here, Nimrod with his men, depicted in a way so that we can see it goes ROUND. In a spiral- WHIRLED.

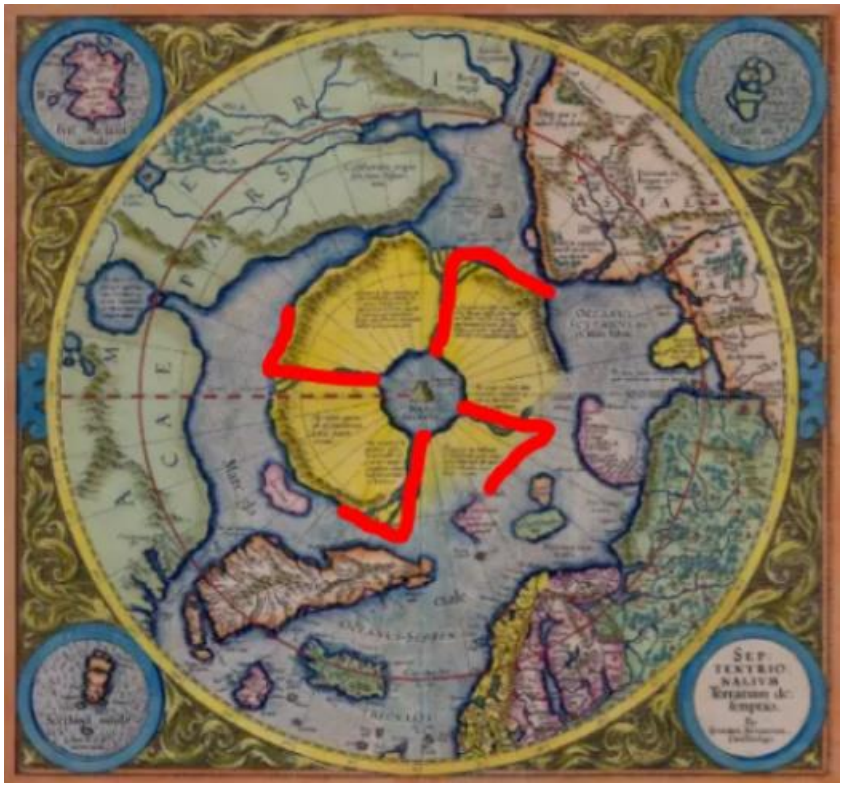
The WHIRLED was also known to other countries in the ancient world and symbolized in the Swastika.

In Japan, the Swastika is called the Manji.

Japanese Temple with Manji incorporated into the design.

And here we have the Buddha with a Swastika, known as the Yung Drung, on his chest.

Although the Tibetan and Japanese versions are COUNTER-Clockwise. The Swastika is portrayed properly, going in a CLOCKWISE direction, the direction in which Wralda's WORLD is set in motion.



It is centered at the North Pole, where the four-indrawing seas are located.

WHEEL ~ YULE

Tell me the National Socialists didn't know. If you spin a VW hubcap, like this one, it makes the swastika. They KNEW the swastika represents the WHEEL IN MOTION~ the WHIRLED. They literally made a WHEEL IN MOTION. How brilliant is that?!

The Tower of Babel is also shown in the Tower card of the Tarot. You can see the tower hit by a lightning bolt from the heavens.

In their Magy Bible it states at Luke 10:18, And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as a lightning fall from heaven.

Notice the clouds, there is even one at the bottom of the card. So, we know this tower goes all the way up to heaven. And the tower is on a giant tree cut. The tree stump is symbolic of Yggdrasil, the Tree of Life in the center of the earth, at the North Pole.

Satan means the adversary. But the adversary of whom? Who has been trying to rule the earth?

The crown being knocked from its position implies the fall of man, along with actual men falling to signify this.

We have their Tower of Babel in the Magy Bible, located in BABYLON, Iraq, and we have their new Tower of Babel EU Parliament building, located in BRUSSELS, Belgium. So, you see it SYMBOLIZES the real Tower, NOT its real location.

The real Tower is located at the center of the Earth at the NORTH Pole.

Or the NORSE Pole. The original home of the Norse people, also known as the Fryans, the White race.

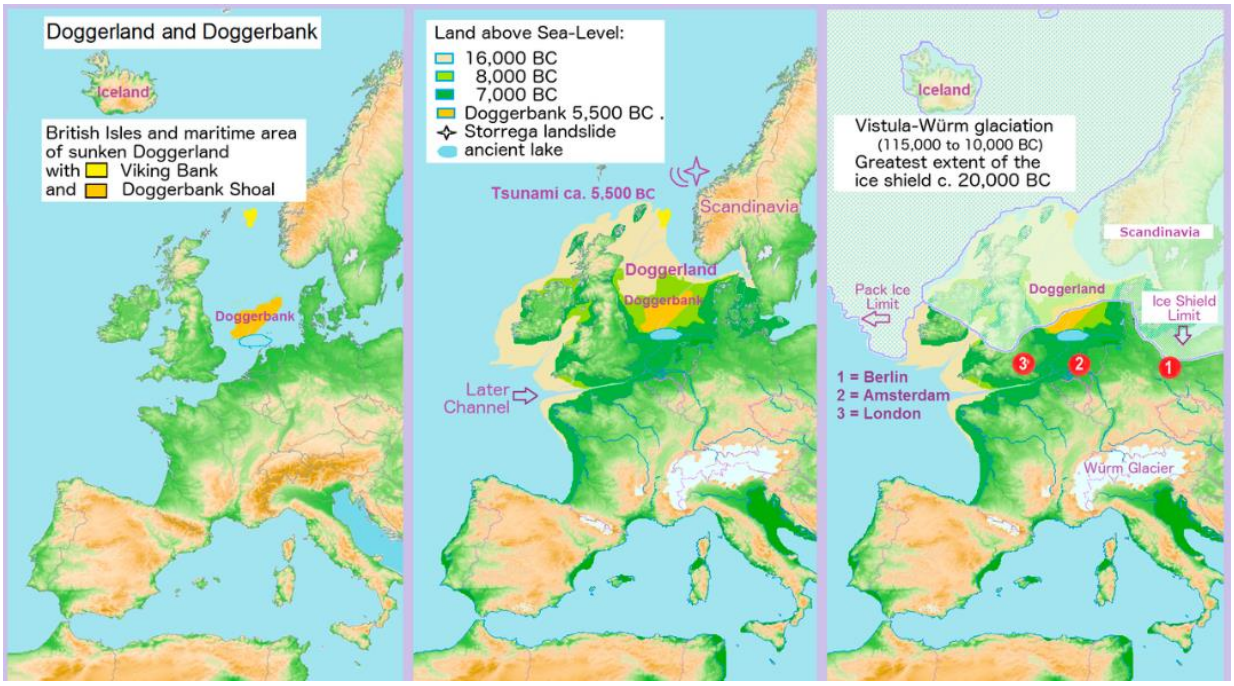
So, the Babel story has some truth, but they always mix it with untruths. Just like the story about the Garden of Eden. This Garden was located at the North Pole, but we'll get to that in a bit.

So, there WAS a calamity where the Tower stood, where the Garden was, that made the Fryans flee. This was the first of many calamities that befell the Fryans.

They most likely fled to the Doggerlands.

In the name, Doggerlands, we can scramble the DOGGER portion and get GODDER. It becomes GOD'S LAND, or GOOD LANDS. Always hiding the truth in plain sight.

DOGGERLANDS ~ GODDERLANDS ~ GOD'S LAND ~ GOOD LANDS



Atlantis means OLD LAND in Latin. In the OLB it is referred to as ALDLAND, again OLD LAND. This is most likely the land that sunk in the second calamity at the DOGGERLANDS. GOD'S LAND is the OLD LAND.

In the name for GOD, WRALDA, we have ALDA, which means ELDER.

ALDA ~ ALD

Elder and Old. The ELDER LAND, the OLD LAND.

Here is a good map showing the Doggerlands. You can see how shallow it is at the Dogger Bank, and even so past there for many miles north. Aldland was here, with an enclosed lake, known as the Fli lake.

Now let's go back to the tree, cut, on the Tarot card. What if it WAS a giant tree cut? And then the tree died. Eventually, since it is carbon based, it would turn into coal. And coal is a necessary compound needed to make iron. And iron is magnetic. So, the tree in the middle, also called Rupis Nigra, which means Black ROCK, COULD be the tree now calcified. Or otherwise known as petrified or even fossilized. Trees can live for hundreds of years, maybe even thousands. But eventually the tree in the middle could have died. Does it go through a cycle similar to what we go through? A Golden Age for the tree, then Silver, Bronze and finally Iron?

Now let's look at the name for the Tower, Yggdrasil, a little closer.

YGGDRASIL ~ ODIN'S HORSE

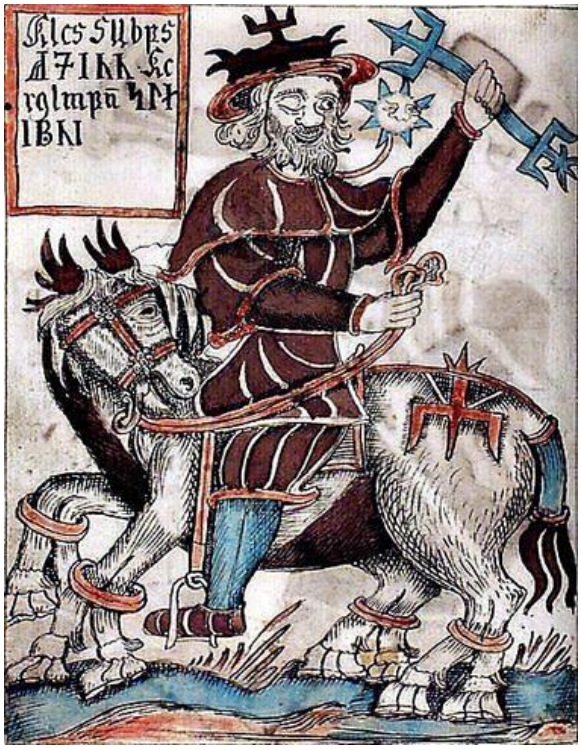
If Odin represents God, Wralda, and his horse is SLEIPNIR, who has the ability to fly in the air and over the sea, we can see how the "horse" represents movement once again.

YGG ~ EGG

And the Egg represents Life.

Motion around the Ygg. Remember that Yggdrasil is also known as the Tree of Life. We need the motion, Wralda's breath, for life.

The Tjängvide stone depicts Odin arriving in Valhalla on his horse Sleipnir. Sleipnir means the sliding one.



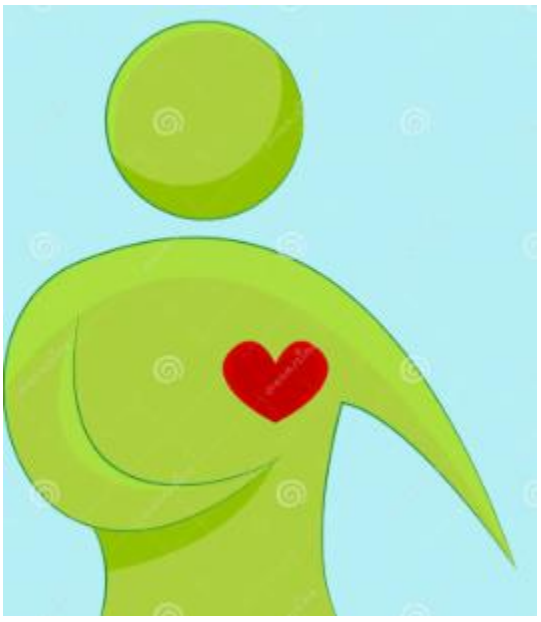
Here's Odin on his horse Sleipnir, holding a lightning bolt.

And we know the Earth is a special place to Wralda because its hidden in the actual word. Earth is a perfect anagram for Heart.

EARTH ~ HEART

Our home is the HEART of His world. Now where is the heart located in our body? In the CENTER. And so, the Earth is in the CENTER. And we know this because we know that man is a Microcosm to the Macrocosm- our world. Put in other ways, the as above, so below, and as without, so within.

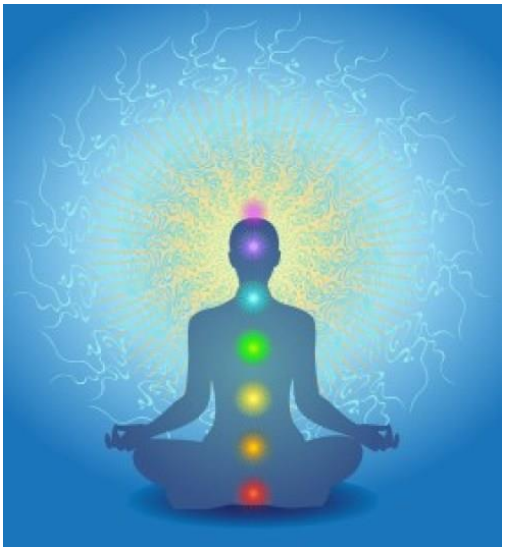
Now knowing that the Earth is in the CENTER, we know that the Sun cannot possibly be in the center.



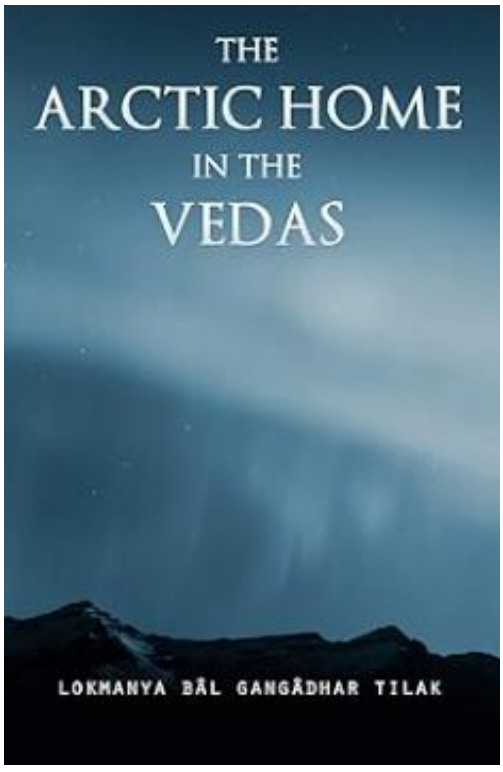
Micro

Macro

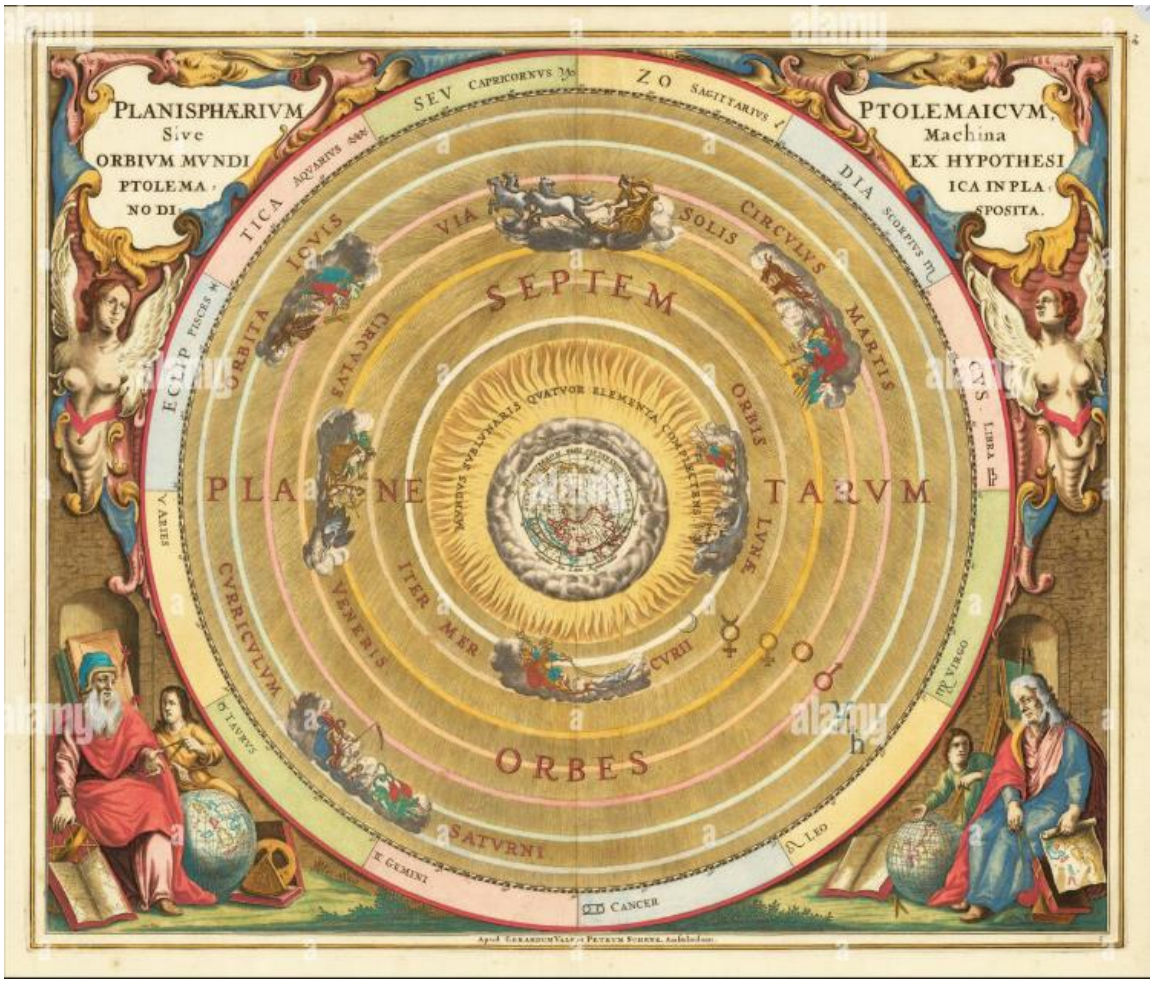
From the Ancient Vedas we get the Chakra system. And what do we notice about the CENTER chakra? It is the HEART chakra, called Anahata, and it is GREEN. Green is the color for the Earth.



And although the Vedas do not explicitly mention the North Pole as the home of the Fryans, it is inferred. In the 1903 book The Arctic Home in the Vedas, suggests that the Fryans migrated southward FROM the North Pole due to “climate change” around 8000 BC.



Now throughout ancient history, it was commonly known that our Earth was in the CENTER. It was called the Geocentric system. With the Sun revolving around the Earth.



It wasn't until approximately 500 years ago that a Jesuit priest named Nicolaus Copernicus told us otherwise.

Copernicus came up with the theory that the Sun was in the center. But even he was reluctant to publish it. (Because he knew it wasn't true perhaps?)

From the Wiki, About 1532 AD, Copernicus had basically completed his work on the manuscript of De Revolutionibus Orbium Coelestium; but despite urging by his closest friends, he resisted openly publishing his views, not wishing—as he confessed—to risk the scorn to which he would expose himself on account of the novelty and incomprehensibility of his theses.

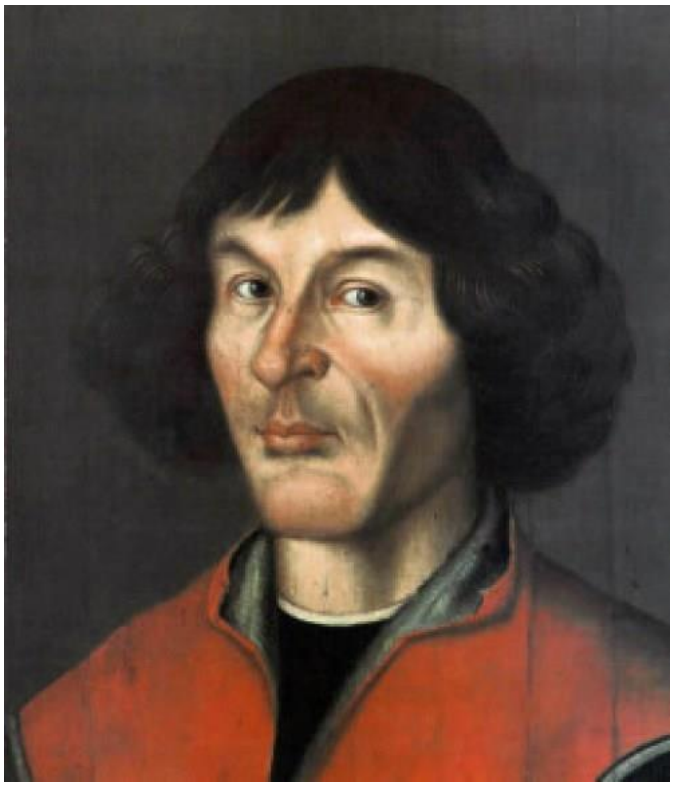
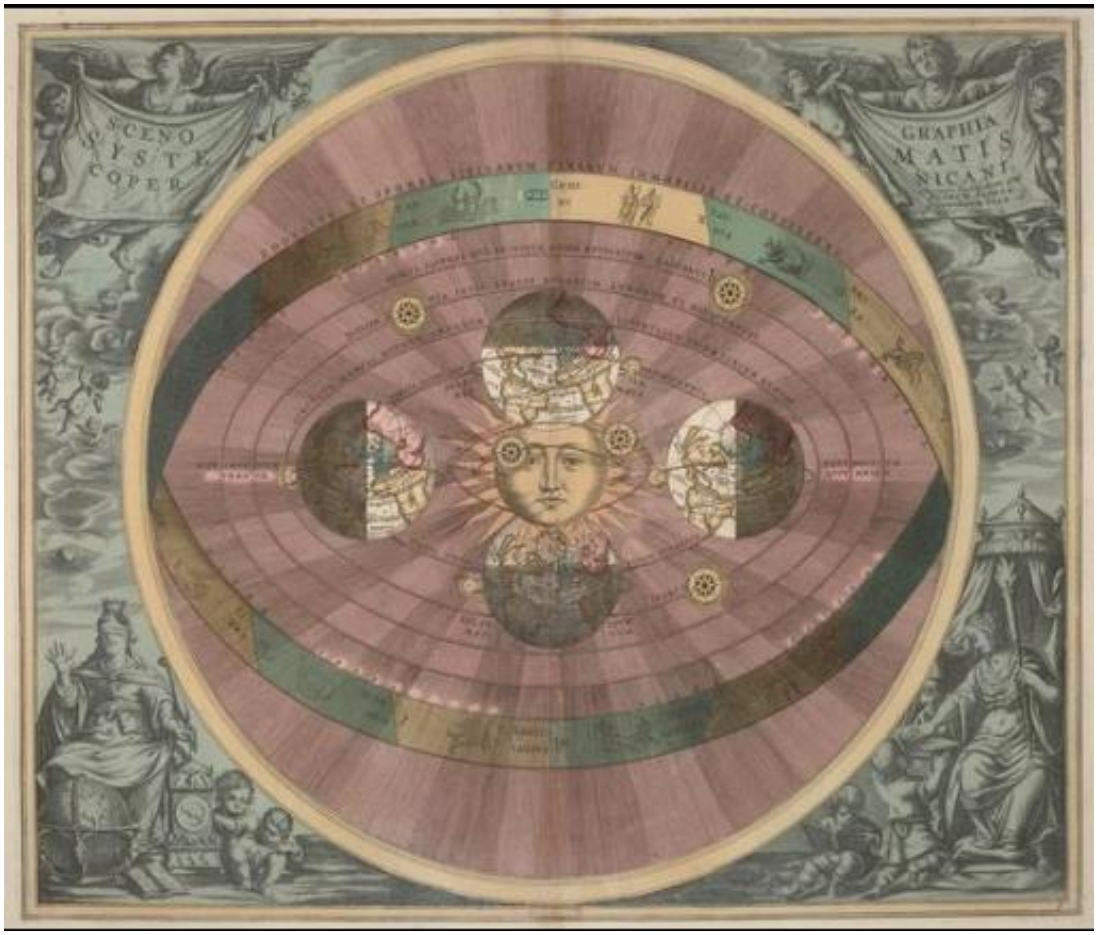
Notice Copernicus is looking to the LEFT. He is a follower of the Left-hand path. And he is wearing orange. Orange is the only color that represents 33 in numerology. Thirty-three is code for being a Magy (Mason).



Let me just note here that there are Magy by blood, and then there are men who become Magy because they are service-to-self traitors. Magy and Mason are synonymous. When you become a Mason, moving up in the ranks, eventually you have to do your Great Work. This Great Work furthers the Magy agenda and is against humanity as a whole. Such is the Heliocentric THEORY.



Andreas Cellarius's illustration of the Copernican system, from the Harmonia Macrocosmica.

And remember in school they taught us there were NINE planets. In Norse Mythology we learn of the NINE worlds. The NINE planets were taken from this and made into floating balls in space.

From Danish scholar Finnur Magnusson in 1825. His attempt at drawing the Nine Worlds of Norse Mythology.

And the same number NINE is used in their Tower of Babel.

If we look at the Tower of Babel, both old and new, we see there are NINE levels to the Tower. (Although you can find paintings with various levels of the Tower of Babel, in various stages of construction. But when they use it for the NEW building, NINE is of significance.)

NINE on the old.

NINE on the new.

Just like in Dante's Inferno and the NINE circles of hell.

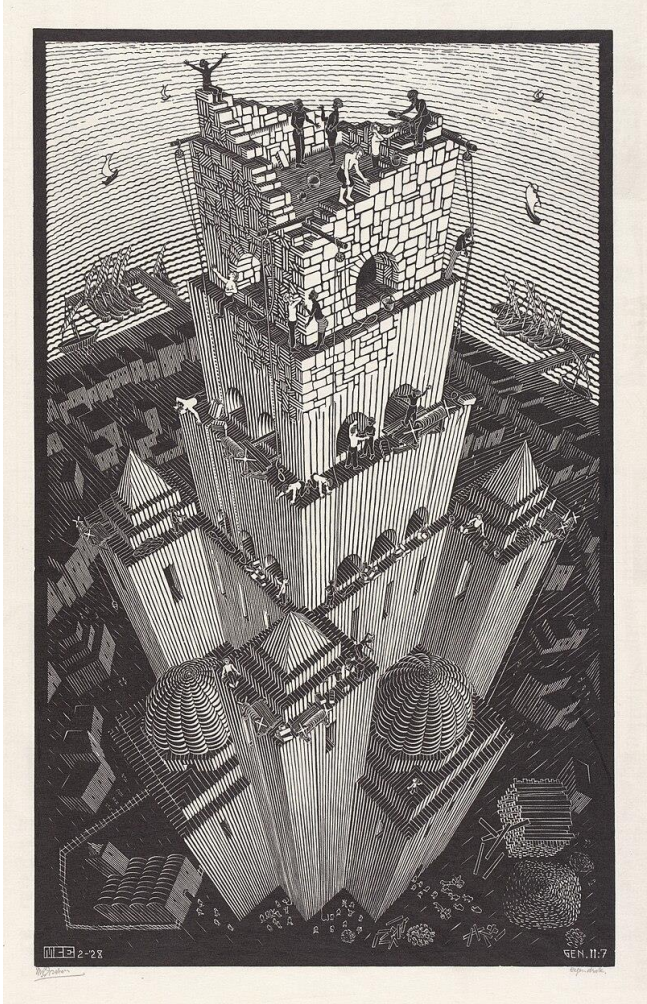
Remember that the Fryans in the OLB discussed how they have towers in the center of each of their burghs.

Here is a good example of what they might have looked like.



By M.C. Escher, called Tower of Babel, a woodcut, made in 1928.

From the OLB we read, *My burgh lies near the north end of the Luidgarda. The TOWER has six sides. (like Wralda's wheel) It is three times thirty feet high; flat on top, with a small house upon it from where they study the stars (observatory). On either side of the TOWER is a house three hundred feet long, three times seven feet wide and as high, apart from the roof which is round. All this is built of hard-baked bricks, and on the outside, there is nothing else. Around the burgh is a ring dyke, with a moat three times seven feet deep and three times twelve feet wide. If one looks down from the TOWER, he sees the shape of the YULE.*

So, this tower is 90 feet high, the equivalent of a NINE-story building today. Impressive but not "biblical" in proportion. That is, until we read, All the other citadels are the same shape as ours, only not so large; but the largest of all is that in Texland. The TOWER of Fryasburgh is SO HIGHT THAT IT RENDS THE SKY, and the rest is in proportion to the TOWER.

So high that it rends the sky.

And if one looks down from the TOWER, he sees the shape of the YULE. Because they knew the Earth was in the shape of a WHEEL.

WHEEL ~ YULE

Now let's look closer at the NINE Worlds or Realms.

The realm directly above Earth is called Asgard (Heaven) and Earth is called Midgard. These are the only two realms with the base of "gard". Gard means garden. So Asgard is the upper garden, and Midgard is the MIDDLE garden or CENTER garden.

ASGARD~ AS GARD

MIDGARD~ MID GARD

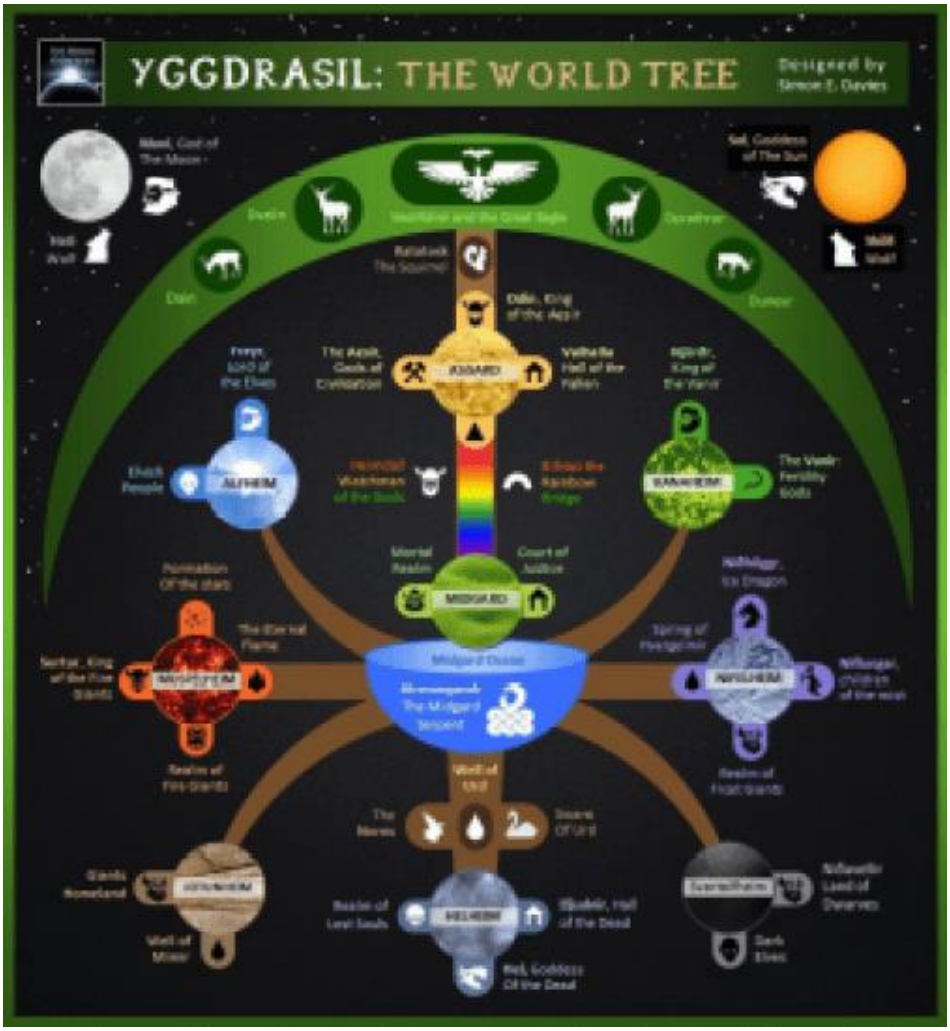
And remember GREEN is the color for the Earth, the Heart in the chakra Anahata.



Green and in the CENTER.

The Waters Above Meet the Fires Below.

From the Wiki, Ginnungagap appears as the primordial void in the Norse creation account, the Gylfaginning, which states:

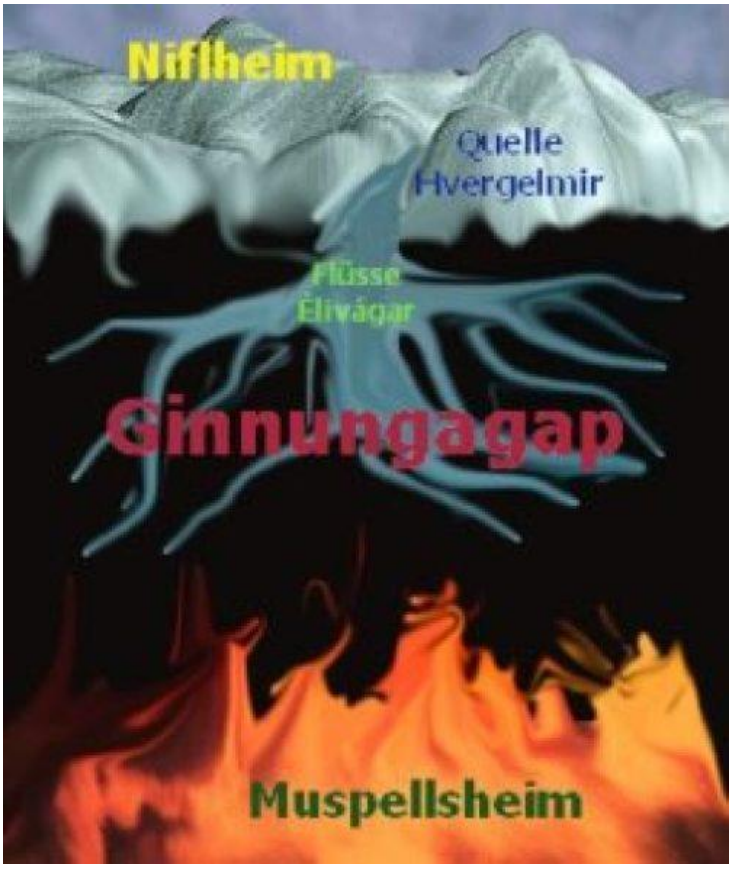
Ginnungagap, the Yawning Void ... which faced toward the northern quarter, became filled with heaviness, and masses of ice and rime, and from within, drizzling rain and gusts; but the southern part of the Yawning Void was lighted by those sparks and glowing masses which flew out of Múspellheim.

In the northern part of Ginnungagap lay the intense cold of Niflheim, and to the southern part lay the equally intense heat of Muspelheim. The cosmogonic process began when the effulgence of the two met in the MIDDLE of Ginnungagap.

They met in the CENTER!

GINNUNGAP ~ EARTH ~ THE CENTER



Now why would Copernicus want us to think the Sun was in the center and not the Earth? Because he and the rest of the Magy, don't want us to know how special Earth is and how special WE are. That we are actually in the CENTER of CREATION. They would rather us believe that Earth is a minute speck in a sea of a billion planets. That we are not significant in any way.

You either control people by fear, or by love. They choose fear.

They made us insignificant and made the Sun the destroyer, instead of the life giver it is. They tell us how HUGE it is, and one coronal mass ejection could wipe us out at any time. Rule by FEAR.

Fake CGI Coronal Mass Ejections to Scare the Living Daylights Out of Us.

Now if you don’t want to believe the hidden language that the Earth is in the center, you can directly observe for yourself. Lay down in a field on a clear night and watch the stars. You will see that they are moving around a central point. This central point is called the North Star.

The North Star is the only immoveable star.

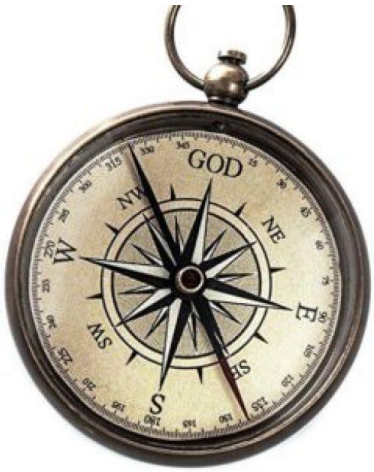
This is the CENTER POINT of our CENTER world.

The North Star is the “All-Seeing Eye”. It is “all-seeing” because it never closes. The star is always “alight”. So, the true All-Seeing Eye is GOOD, is GOD, but the Magy always usurps good and uses it for bad.

They take the All-Seeing Eye and use it for bad covering the RIGHT EYE and showing allegiance to the LEFT. (Although you do see some here with the right showing, it most likely is the image flipped.) Do these celebrities even know what it really stands for? They do as they are told. They swore their allegiance to the MAGY overlords.

And the NORTH Pole is directly below the NORTH Star.

The North Pole is also known as the Magnetic North because all compasses are drawn to this location. (Well, they like to say there is a wandering Magnetic North, but is there really? Doesn't it make much more sense that there is a point that is magnetic that is stationary that compasses are drawn to?)



And the NORSE are the people of the NORTH. Throne is almost a perfect anagram for North. The North Star is the seat of Wralda who looks down on His World and can see all.

NORSE~NORTH~THRONE

In the HBO series, Game of THRONes, or Game of the NORTHes, is about who will rule the Iron Throne. Game Of Thrones* is abbreviated as GOT. GOT is short for GOTT, the Germanic word for GOD. So, it's a game of GOD, right? Because the Magy want to BE God.

GOD ~ GOT ~ GOTT

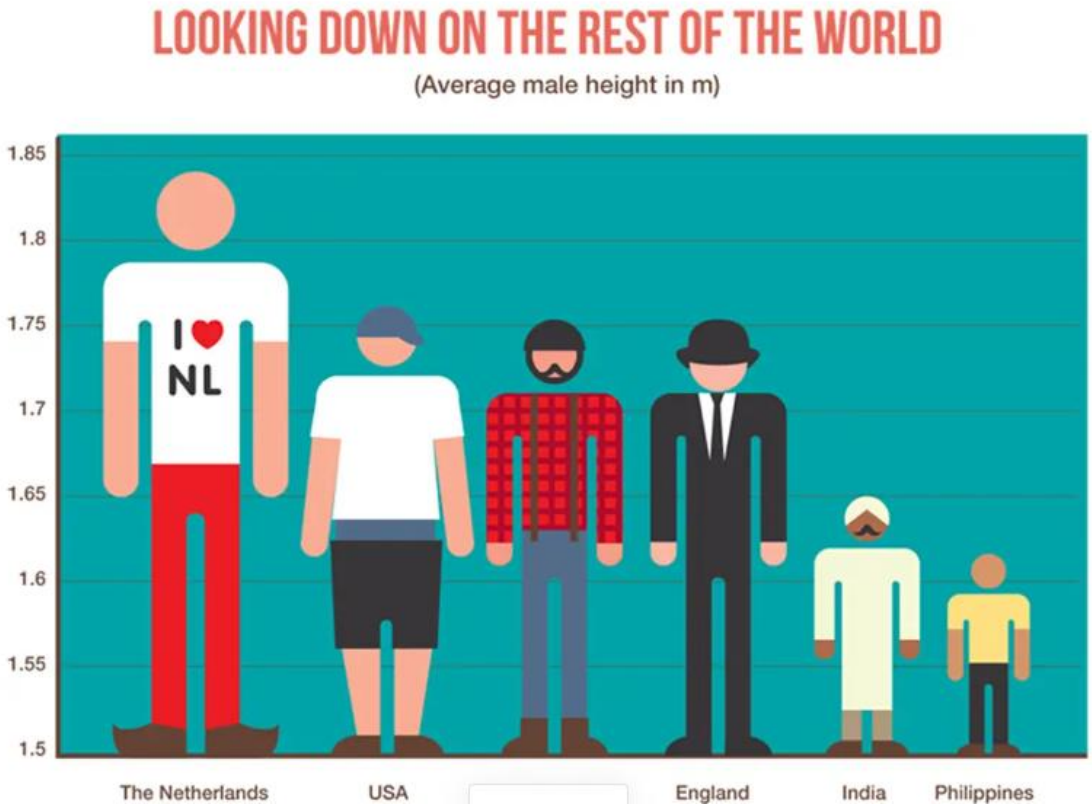
Notice too that they have a giant ice wall. This would represent the rim of very tall mountains surrounding the North Pole. The Wildlings are from the North and would live north, up to the Arctic Circle. Remember the Arctic circle and surrounding areas are teeming with animal life and Wooly Mammoths have been uncovered from the ice in this area. Unlike Antarctica, that only has penguins that traverse the land down there.

This is the real wall that encircles our world and is represented by the Ouroboros. One circle around the North Pole, one circle around the Earth. And it has a three-fold meaning really, because it also represents the cyclical nature of our world. We'll get more into that aspect in later parts.

Notice too in Game of Thrones that they have giants. They come from the land over the wall. Could this be the land of Jotunheim as in Norse mythology? Jotunheim literally means Land of the Giants.

Or the Giants could be us. Adela in the OLB was described as over 7 feet tall. In the OLB it says, seven earth-feet she was tall and her whip as many.

And the tallest people in the world today are the people of the North, in the land of Frya, in the Netherlands. Where the average height for a Dutch woman is 5 feet 7 inches and 6 feet for a Dutch man.



Giant remains have been discovered all over our world, even in North America. These Giants were found to be of the White Race. The Smithsonian gathered them up and kept them from the public ever since.

MONSTER SKULLS AND BONES.

CARTERSVILLE, Ga., April 4.—The water has receded from the Tumlin Mound Field, and has left uncovered acres of skulls and bones. Some of these are gigantic. If the whole frame is in proportion to two thigh bones that were found, their owner must have stood 14 feet high. Many curious ornaments of shell, brass, and stone have been found. Some of the bodies were buried in small vaults built of stones. The whole makes a mine of archæological wealth. A representative of the Smithsonian Institution is here investigating the curious relics.

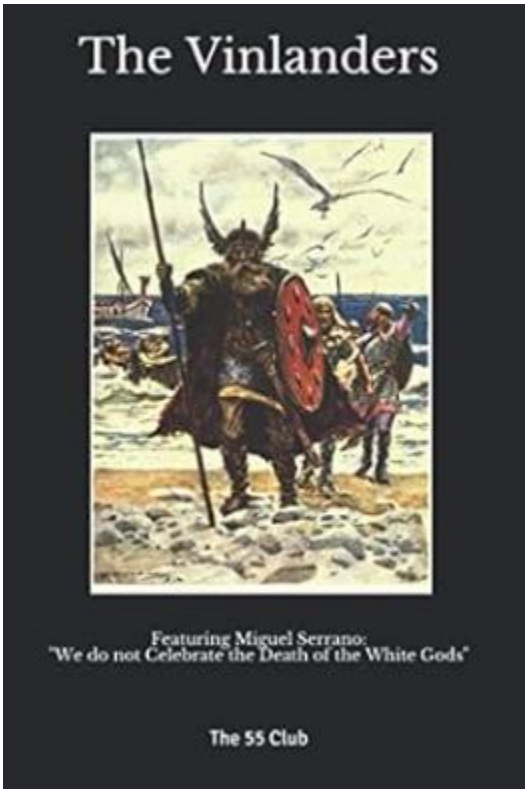
Read the book The Vinlanders, by the 55 Club, if you want to find out the TRUE history of North America and the Giants.



Not only are there physical remains, but many stories in Norse mythology of the interactions between the Gods and the Giants.

So, even in the Magy Bible they hide some truth. In 1 Chronicles 16:30 it says, He has fixed the earth firm, immovable.

And then we have the Masonic question, Are you on the level? Being level would imply being Flat. Notice the All-Seeing Eye directly in the center and above. One triangle up and another one connected and pointing down, as above, so below. Notice it's not sitting on a ball. It is firm and immovable.

In their symbol, the square represents the level Earth, and the compass represents the circular shape of it. Notice the Ouroboros on the outer rim, the white rim represents the ice wall, the G is in the center, where God resides. The circle at the top of the compass represents the All-Seeing Eye, Wralda's throne and also represents "as above", whereas the level represents "as below". We can see how the compass and square represent triangles and if completed it would make the Star of David.

Notice how the Flat Earth is also represented in the United Nations flag. It has 32 sections with a 33rd section in the very CENTER. Is it a coincidence that the Masons can only attain the 33rd degree by invitation? Thirty-three is the melting point of water, where the ones in the know reside. Do they also reside in the CENTER? Notice that the image is encircled with a Roman laurel wreath. This shows that the Roman Empire never died, it was just replaced by the Holy Roman Empire represented by the Vatican and the Jesuits. This Holy Roman Empire is ruled over by the Magy.

In ancient Asian cultures the center of the Earth was called Mount Meru and was a tall mountain where the “gods” resided.

From the Wiki on Mount Meru, Ancient Buddhists imagined the universe as essentially flat, with Mount Meru at the CENTER of all things. Surrounding this universe was a vast expanse of water, and surrounding the water was a vast expanse of wind.

This universe was made of thirty-one planes of existence, stacked in layers, and three realms, or dhatus. The three realms were Ārūpyadhātu, the formless realm; Rūpadhātu, the realm of form; and Kāmadhātu, the realm of desire.

Each of these was further divided into multiple worlds that were the homes of many sorts of beings. This cosmos was thought to be one of a succession of universes coming into and going out of existence through infinite time*.*

Our world was thought to be a wedge-shaped island continent in a vast sea south of Mount Meru, called Jambudvipa, in the realm of Kāmadhātu. The earth, then, was thought to be flat and surrounded by ocean.

Notice how the Buddhist view on our World is very similar to the Norse view. Part of that of course, could be because as stated in the OLB, the Gertmanna settled in India for over a thousand years, in the Punjab region, and taught the Indians about Fryan history and the history of our world.

From the OLB it states, After we had sat at the 'Five Waters' for 12 times 100 and twice 12 years, while our sea combatants had sailed all the seas to be found... That would be twelve hundred and twenty-four years.

Here is the United Nations General Assembly room. It looks like a depiction of our Flat Earth as well. Do you think they know something that they are not telling us? The CENTER pillar reminds me of the mountain in the CENTER aka Mount Meru.

How about the fact that we are not allowed to fly over the North Pole? Is it because we would know the truth of our Earth if we did? We are not allowed to fly over the South Pole either.

I think this is because

1) There is no “South” Pole. The south is the ring of ice surrounding our Earth. So, we would see that it is actually a ring.

and

2) They do not want us to discover what is on the other side of the ring.

I believe it is because we are under some sort of DOME.

Now let's look at some more words that carry the truth in plain sight, in PLANE SITE.

PLAINS ~ PLANES

It is called that because it is FLAT.

AirPLANES fly over the PLANE.

This is also encoded in our Seas. Sea Level (SEE LEVEL).

SEA LEVEL ~ SEE LEVEL

From the Wiki, Sea level is generally used to refer to mean sea level*, an average* level for the surface of one or more of Earth's oceans from which heights such as elevations may be measured.

And even the Horizon is HORIZONTAL.

HORIZON ~ HORIZONtal

So, our Flat Earth is covered over with a Dome because it is showing in the language as well. We live in the kingDOME. The United KingDOME is ruled over by a monARCHY. And ARCH is synonymous with DOME.

kingDOME ~ monARCHy

Noah's ARK (Arc) is Noah's Dome. The animals in Noah's Ark are the animals of our world. The Zodiac is the Zoo of the Arc. Noah's Arc. And is symbolized by the 12 signs of the Zodiac that enCIRCLE our sky.

NOAH'S ARK ~ ARC

ZODIAC ~ ZOO D ARC

Here is the Chinese Zodiac. Notice the animals encircling the Flat Earth with the Yin Yang in the middle. The Yin Yang represents the Sun and the Moon, day and night, but also positive and negative, the two charges needed to run the battery of our Earth.

Here is the Western version that coincides with the 12 months of the year. Each symbol is tied into the four seasons and the energy pattern of the Sun.

Notice the Last Supper we have the 12 Apostles in sets of three to depict the seasons and the Zodiac. Christ's robe is half red and half blue. The positive charge and the negative charge.

Also notice the "arc" right above Jesus' head.

You can see there is an arc in the CENTER of the table below Jesus as well. On other renditions they fail to show this arc. The arc is very important. This is to show that the table is actually ROUND. A ROUND TABLE.

Arthur and the 12 Knights of the ROUND TABLE are the same as Jesus and his 12 Disciples. Arthur/Jesus is the one in the CENTER. The center of a FLAT ROUND TABLE. The flat round table is Earth, the center is the POLE, the North Pole.

Directly above the North Pole is the North Star, POLARIS. Polaris is of the Bear constellation, also known as Arthur. Notice they depict Arthur in RED, and he is holding a SPEAR in his RIGHT hand. German or GER MAN, means SPEAR man. The Fryans are depicted in the Arthur constellation. (Red is the color of the RIGHT, Blue is of the LEFT.)

GERMAN ~ GER MAN ~ SPEAR MAN

We also see the true nature of our world depicted in film. In The Giver we have God sitting with Jonas (Jonas means Son of Truth) with what appears to be a dome over them.

Here is an episode of The Simpson's called Under the Dome.

Which is very similar to Stephen King's Under the Dome.

And then we can't forget The Truman Show or the TRUE MAN Show.

We have Christof (of Christ or God) monitoring from above with the background very similar to the one we see in The Giver.

TRUMAN~ TRUE MAN

CHRISTOF~ OF CHRIST

Notice he is in the CENTER, under the dome.

We can see how flat Truman's world is.

After braving the stormy seas Truman reaches the edge of the world at the dome. (They have him literally run into it.) In actuality, he would be roughing the seas until he reached the rim of ice (Antarctica).

The great wall of ice that surrounds our world.

And we see now who Truman really represents, Christ. But what is Christ? Illuminated man. The TRUE man who has reached his potential here on Earth.

He has his arms held out making the cross. The black door opening behind him represents the Black Monolith.

The same Black Monolith that is seen here in The Giver.

And seen here in 2001 A Space Odyssey.

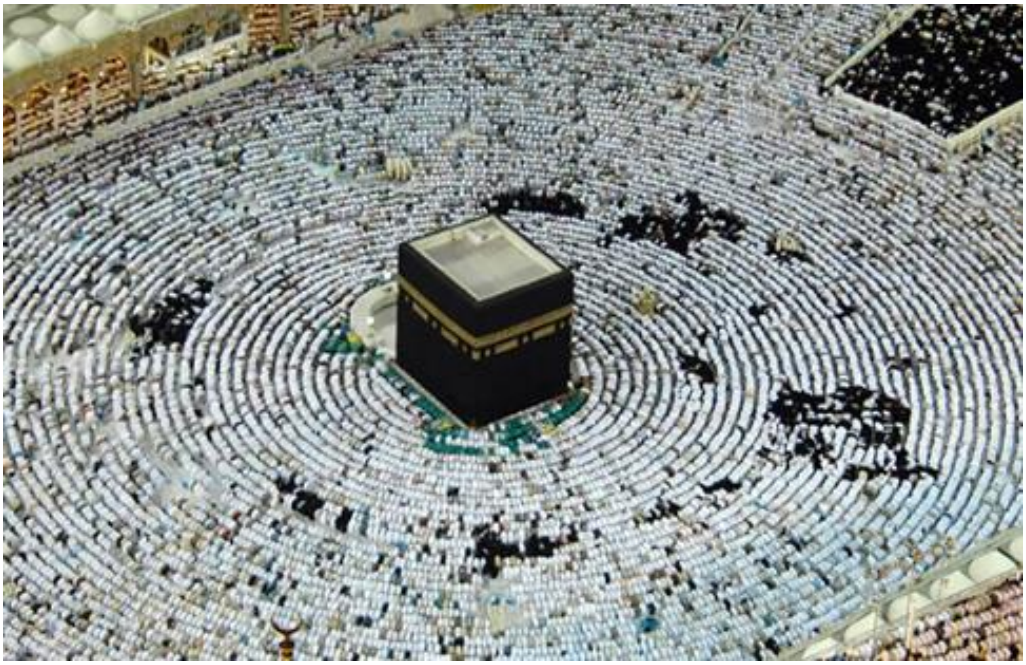
And seen here as the Black Cube, Kaaba stone at Mecca. Remember the COUNTERCLOCKWISE Swastika of the Findans? When the Findans go around the Cube, they also travel COUNTERCLOCKWISE. This is in OPPOSITION to Wralda.

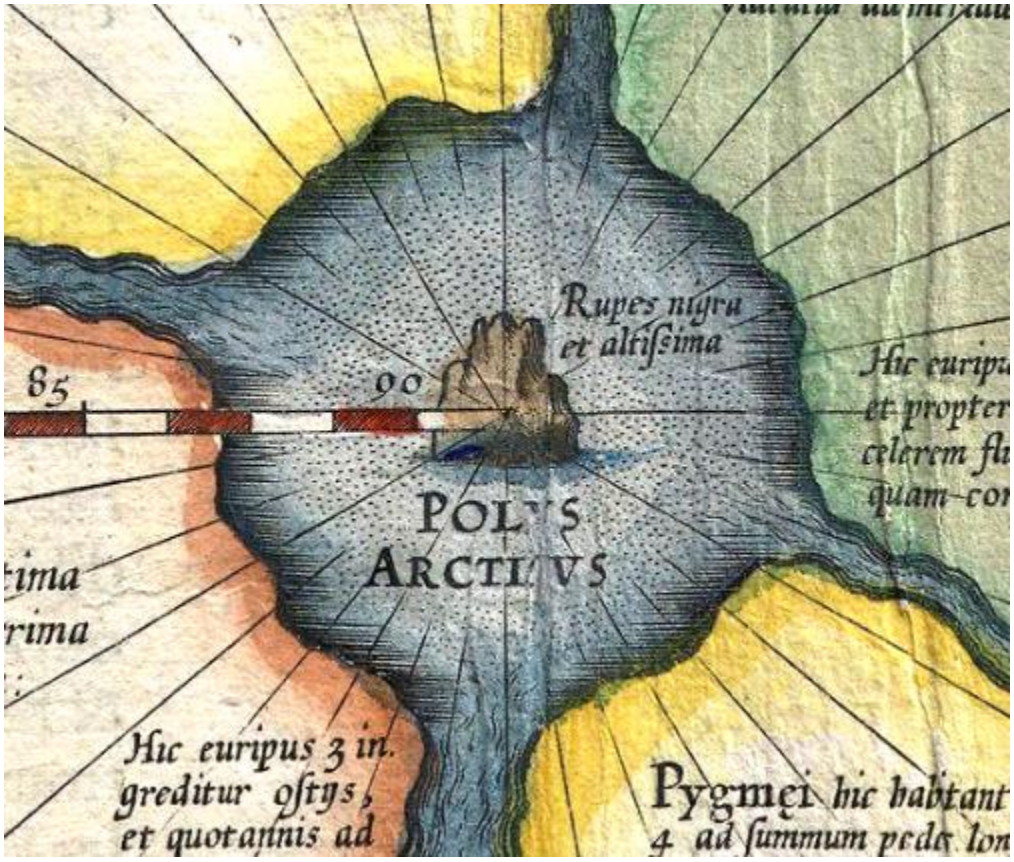


And the Black Cube, or Black Monolith, is also represented in the Findan United Nations building.

And there is even one in Antarctica at this NOAA site. (Noah of the Ark)

NOAA ~ NOAH

But what DOES the Black Monolith represent? The Rupis Nigra, the Black Rock, located at the CENTER. The Tree of Life, the Magnetic Mountain, Mount Meru, they are all one and the same. If True Man could SEE the Black Rock, then they would have PROOF of God. They would be illuminated.



PART TWO ~ NORTH POLE THE BIGGEST SECRET, PROOF OF EDEN

In 2015, I thought the biggest secret being kept from humanity was that the Earth is Flat.

Six months later I learned of the Giant Trees that once inhabited our world and thought THAT was the biggest secret.

But then I discovered there is one even greater! And of course this might not be the last. And each breakthrough compliments the last. Each breakthrough resonates with the last and therefore, to me, we are on the right path.

On the RIGHT path, right?

So, what is the next biggest secret?

That the North Pole is the True Location of Eden.

So let's prove this.

MACRO

Let's start with the Macro and work our way down to the Micro. So, in the first part you will have noticed I was getting warm, very warm, but not quite red hot. I mentioned how the North Star, also called Arthur, is the one immovable star in our night's sky. How all the other stars revolve around it.

That King Arthur and his 12 Knights of the Round Table symbolize this.

The Round Table is the Zodiac or Zoo De Arc, Zoo of the Arch, 12 Constellations, 12 Knights of the Round Table.

The Round Table is exactly that, a flat round table, a flat round Earth, our Earth.

King Arthur is in the CENTER, represented by POLARIS above and the NORTH POLE below. The pole being the Black Mountain also known as Mount Meru.

Notice he is wearing both blue and red. The positive and the negative charged in the middle.

Then we have JESUS with his 12 Disciples. If you look at the picture of the Last Supper, they hide the fact that the table is actually ROUND. (See the arch in the CENTER?) It is a ROUND TABLE. Again, Arthur/Jesus, in the CENTER with his 12 Disciples revolving around him. Notice too that the 12 Disciples are broken into groups of three, representing the four seasons.

So, like King Arthur, Jesus is wearing the blue AND the red, to represent the positive and negative, charged at the CENTER, Tree of Life, iron mountain, Rupis Nigra.

Now we have the Chinese Zodiac doing the same thing. The animals of the Zoo circle the CENTER.

And we also have TIME with 12 hours in the day, revolving around the CENTER or pole as well.

The CENTER is the point of magnetism- the Magnetic North. The four seasons are represented in the As Below as well, four islands, four seasons, four colors of Alchemy.

You can see on the Hopi Flat Earth model the four colors of Alchemy being depicted as well - black, white, yellow and red. And the four islands make up the land of Eden, which I will explain in a bit.

Heaven is at the North Star. The true All-Seeing Eye of God. Always lit, always open, where God sits seeing all. So, the All-Seeing Eye is a good symbol but usurped by the Magy as well.

Now Gerard Mercator, Geographer and Cartographer, made a trip to the North Pole…

Notice that Mercator has MOUNT MERU on his head.

and wrote a letter about it to his friend John Dee, the Adviser to Queen Elizabeth, in the mid 1500's.

His beard is in the style of the Goatee. That is in homage to the GOAT. Remember the letters G-O-A-T stand for Greatest of All Time, another nickname for Lucifer.

Notice too that he is looking to his LEFT. The SINister path, the Left Hand Path.

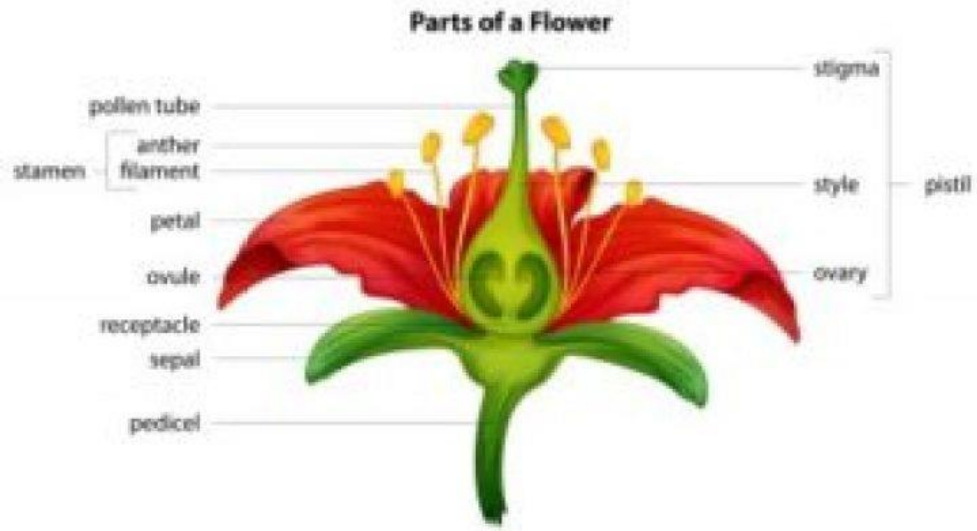
In Mercator's letter he describes the land at the North Pole. He says that it is surrounded on all sides, except for the North, with very tall mountains that reach the clouds and are free from vegetation. On the North side the land is skirted by the ocean. Now the land is divided by four rivers that flow with a very strong current northwards.

When looking at the map we can see that it resembles a flower. That each island is shaped like a petal and the mountain in the middle would be the stigma.

Map of the Arctic by Gerardus Mercator. First print 1595 AD, this edition 1623.

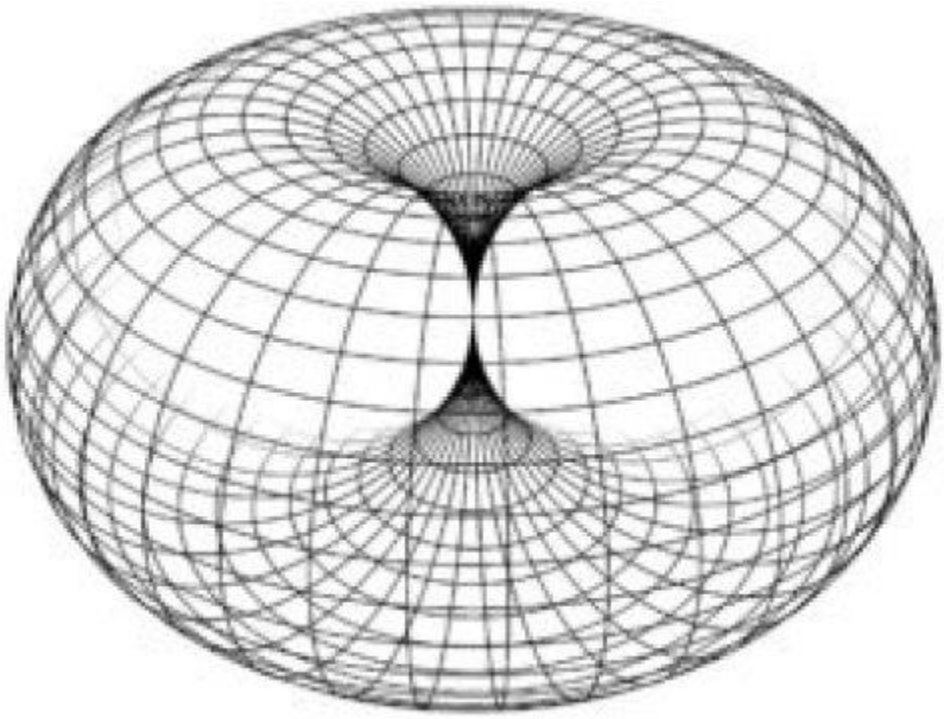
It reminds me of the HIBISCUS, which is very close to HYPERBISCUS, HYPERBOREA. Notice how the petals are lighter going towards the CENTER and resemble water entering a whirlpool at the “pole”.

So, the stigma of the Hibiscus is the obelisk and represents the male portion and the petals would represent the female.



It reminds me of the Bulls-Eye symbol. Now isn't that an interesting name? How in the world does it resemble a Bull's eye? It doesn't.

BUT it is a clever way to disguise that it has a TORUS in the middle because TAURUS is the BULL constellation. Torus is how the energy flows in our enclosed system. The water gets drawn to the center to the magnetic tower (black mountain) and drawn into a whirlpool that leads to the center of the Earth. It keeps going and eventually gets drawn back out at the perimeter or ice ring otherwise known as Antarctica.



TOR-US would be the Bull, the male energy, and LOT-US would be the flower, or the female energy.

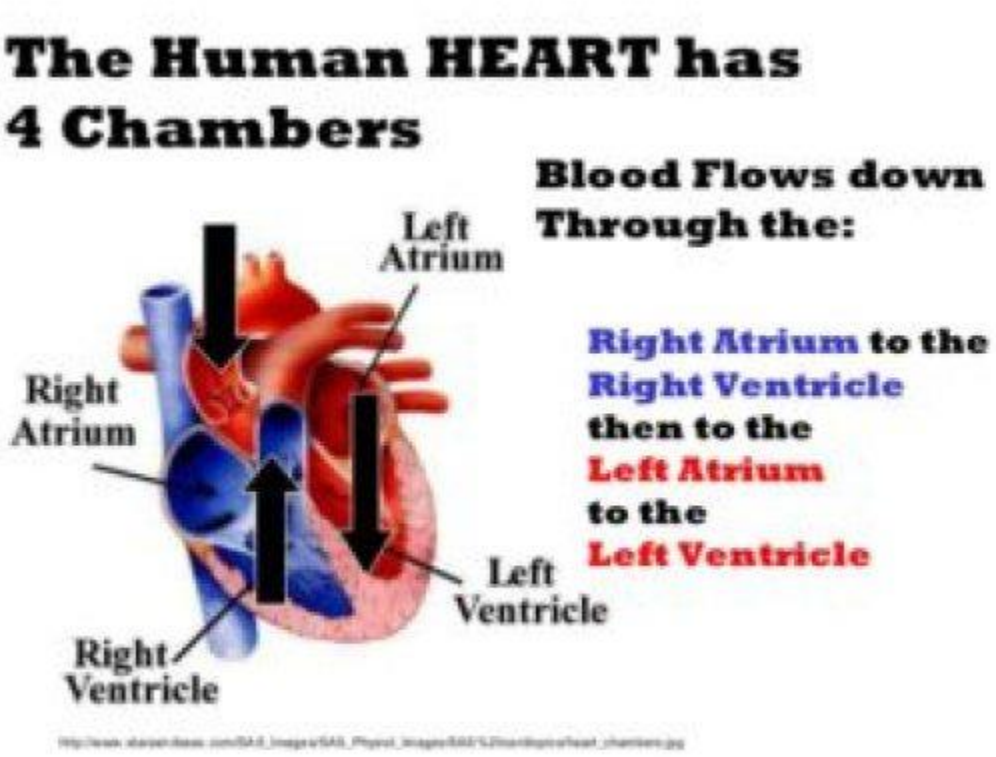
TOR US ~ LOT US

Vishnu with Lotus Flowers

MICRO

And we can't forget that the HEART, which is an anagram for EARTH, has FOUR chambers and looks an awful lot like Eden as well. Saltwater flows INTO the Heart of the Earth just as blood flows into the Heart of our Bodies. If a human has experienced loss of blood and no blood is available for a transfusion, what do hospitals use instead? Salt water. As above, so below.

Notice they even color the Heart red and blue. (Although they should be switched, right is red- positive, and left is blue- negative.)



Just like on Jesus's robe. It's all about the positive and negative charge and the magnetic pole at the CENTER. Right, red and positive, left, blue and negative.

Remember too that the Masons worship the East, South and West and consider the North evil! Because they know that the North is the Throne of God! Throne is an anagram for North and is phonetically similar to the Norse, as in the people of the North.

THRONE ~ NORTH

Now we know Santa resides at the North Pole. And Santa is how they usurp God. Santa of course is an anagram of Satan. Look. He's even doing the "shhh of Horus."

SANTA~SATAN

The Christmas Tree as we know it has been usurped as well and is actually symbolic of the Tree of Life, a good symbol.

Hyperborea means Hyper (beyond) and Borea (north wind). And then we have the Aurora Borealis, which means Aurora (lights) and Borealis (northern). So, they mean “beyond north wind” and “lights of the north”.

Notice Aurora Borealis is very similar to Ouroboros. And Ouro means (ring) and Boros (northern) – so “northern ring”. The Northern Ring would be the mountains that encircle the North Pole. Notice here it is encircling the Tree of Life, or the World Tree, found in the Garden of Eden at the North Pole.

AURORA BOREALIS ~ OUROBOROS

OUROBOROS ~ NORTHERN RING

The ice wall shown in Game of Thrones does NOT represent Antarctica, but actually the Arctic Circle. Mercator said the North Pole is RINGED WITH VERY TALL MOUNTAINS. This is the wall of ice in the NORTH, where the Wildlings are, at the ARCTIC CIRCLE.

And if we go just south of the Arctic Circle, we have some more clues.

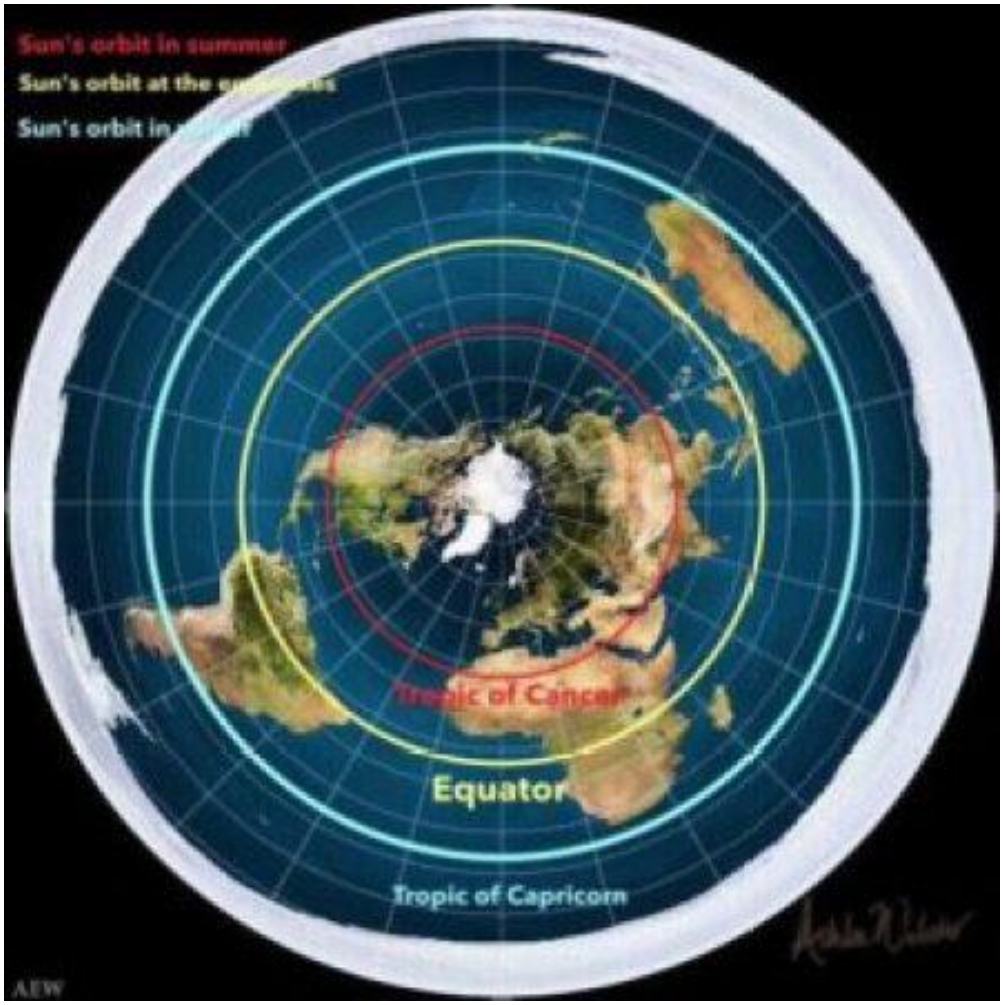
Most people are familiar with the city in Scotland called Edinburgh. Edinburgh literally means “Eden home”. So, home of Eden. And Scotland was on the outer border of the North Pole lands. If we look at Edinburgh, we can see how green and lush it is. Like a garden.

EDINBURGH ~ HOME OF EDEN

And it is very similar to the modern green and lush environment nicknamed the Paradise Isles known as Hawaii. Named after the original Paradise Isle at the North Pole?

HAWAII ~ PARADISE ISLES

Now before the “fall of Adam and Eve”, living in the Garden of Eden was considered the Golden Age, with perpetual spring. This was due to the path of the Sun and Moon being tighter then. Over the years it has slowly widened to where it is now between the Tropic of Cancer in the North and the Tropic of Capricorn in the South. When the Sun is closest to the Tropic of Cancer the countries above the equator are in summer and the ones below the equator feel “summer” as winter. When the Sun is on its path at the Tropic of Capricorn the opposite is true, above the equator it is considered winter and below would feel like “summer”. So, when the Sun first circuited the Earth’s plane, it had a much tighter path and must have traveled a path nearer to the Tropic of Cancer throughout the year to cause eternal spring in the Garden.



Now Eden goes by other names as well, Mount Meru, Mariah, Mount Olympus for the Greeks, and Sumeru. Remember that Sumeria is supposed to be the first recorded civilization. So, could Sumeria be named after Sumeru? Then we have Thrace, which is a civilization supposedly 2000 years older than Sumeria, that is another name for Eden.

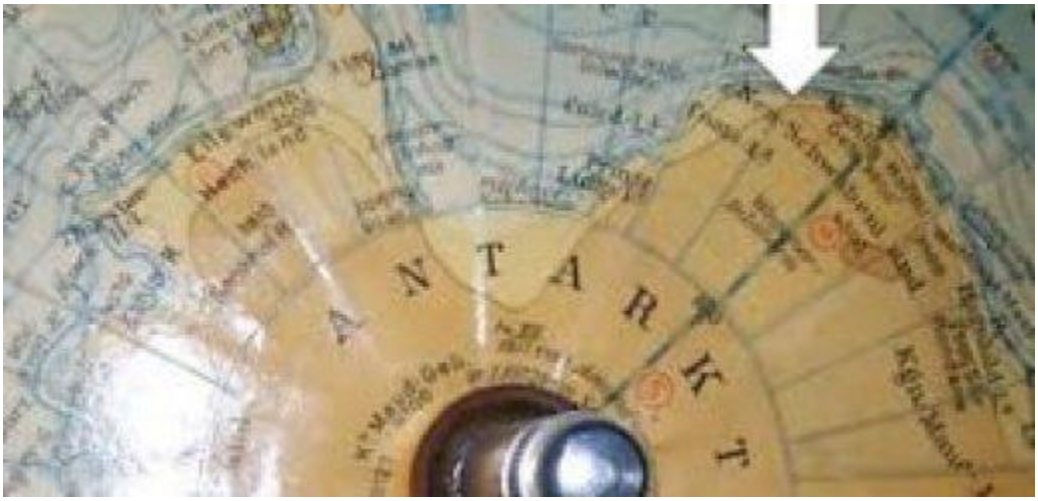
Thule, shown as TILE on the Carta Marina of 1539 AD, by Olaus Magnus, where it is shown to be northwest of the Orkney Islands.

A local stamp from Greenland from 1936 mentioning THULE.

There is an island named Thule at Antarctica as well. Now was this to divert our attention from the real location of Thule? Being at the North Pole?

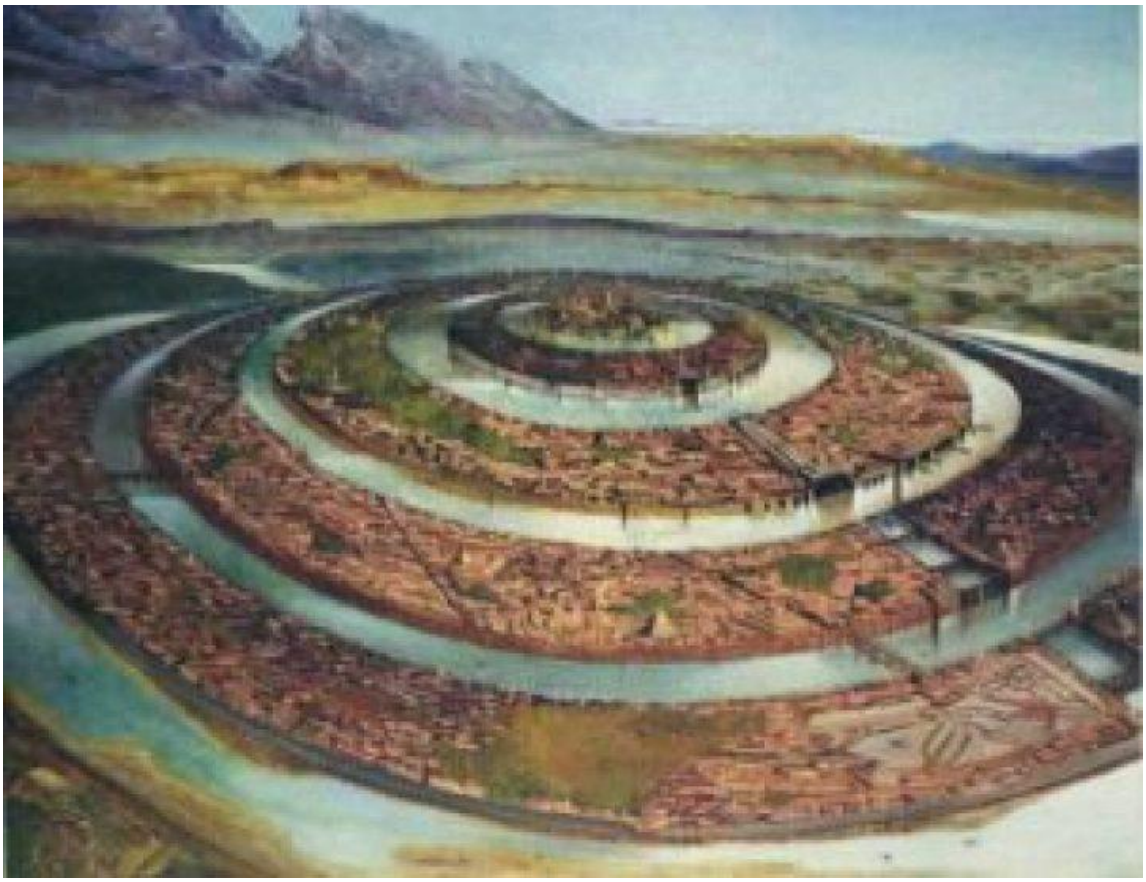
Thule: region of land at the NORTHERNMOST part of the world. Six days sailing from the north of Britain.



Notice too that Antarctica means opposite of the Arctic. Ant as in Anti. So, if the Arctic is the seat of God, that would make the Ant-arctic the place farthest from God. So, the rim would be as far away from God as you can go on the Earth plane.

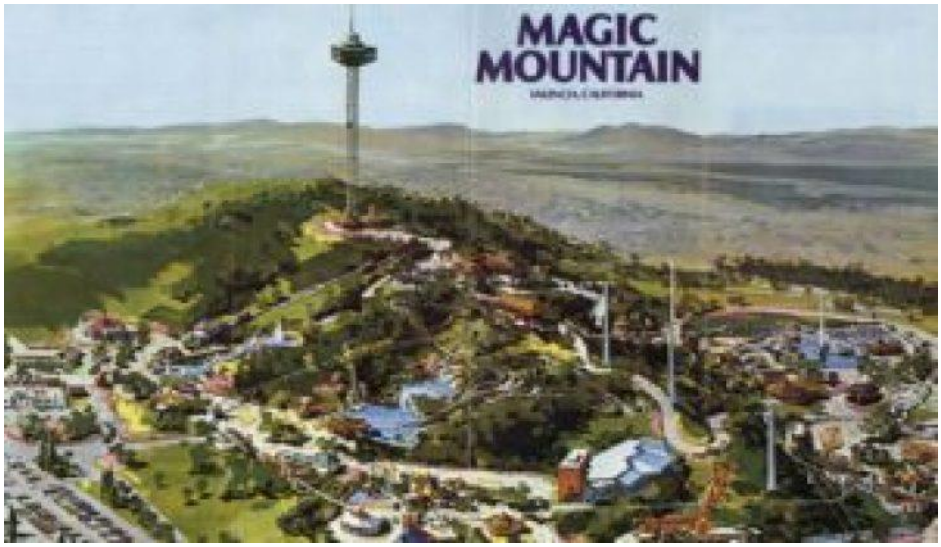
ARCTIC (CHRIST) ~ ANTARCTICA (ANTI-CHRIST)

Now there is speculation also that Atlantis, the lost civilization, was really Eden as well! The description of Atlantis, having rings of land with water between them leading to a CENTRAL city, is very similar to the description of the lands at the North Pole from Mercator's letter.



And we learn from Mercator's letter that the Magic Mountain is 33 miles in circumference. Now the Sun and the Moon are ALSO 33 miles in circumference. How amazing is that? Do you think the Masons are aware of this?

Well, Walt Disney was a 33-degree Freemason, and he had Magic Mountain built at Disneyland. Remember that M is a 3 on its side. So, MM equals 33. The “Magic Mountain” would be the magnetic mountain, the obelisk at the CENTER of the park. Mount Meru. Magic Mountain.



The United Nations uses the Flat Earth map as their symbol and what is the number in the middle? 33 of course. Also note that UN, the abbreviation for the United Nations, is an ancient name for Lucifer. UN is also a prefix that means “against” or “anti” so we have against God (Christ), or Anti-Christ. They worship the UN, the Anti-Christ, and are trying to usurp God’s throne.

THE UN ~ LUCIFER

Back to Walt's World and we find out it is home not only to Magic Mountain, but also an exclusive club called Club 33.

Now the land surrounding Mount Meru is lush like a garden and in Norse Mythology we have TWO gardens. Asgard is the name for the Home of the Gods, or Heaven, and is the Garden above. As-Gard, As Garden. Midgard is the name for Earth. Mid-Gard or Middle Garden, the Garden below, or Eden. In Norse Mythology there are NINE realms, but only two, Asgard and Midgard, have "garden" in their names.

ASGARD ~ UPPER GARDEN ~ HEAVEN

MIDGARD ~ MIDDLE GARDEN ~ EARTH

And Yggdrasil, a GIANT Tree, connects these realms. Here it is depicted in the movie Avatar.

Also known as the World Tree, showing it is being threatened.

They show a different version of the World Tree in Game of Thrones. Notice the Tree is in the FAR NORTH.

Now, in Greek Mythology, we learn that the ocean that surrounds and flows into Midgard is called Oceana. It flows into the Earth where there is subterranean land. The land is divided into the Place of Righteous and the Place of Wicked. These are places (symbolically) where souls go waiting for judgement, otherwise known as Purgatory. The Archurian Gulf divides them and keeps them separated.

The main river that flows from Oceana into the CENTER, is called Eridanus. This river is lined by AMBER bearing Poplar trees.

Now in the series called Westworld, Dolores remarks, They say great beasts once roamed this world. As big as mountains yet all that's left of them is bone and amber. Isn't that a strange thing to say? As big as mountains, and Bone and AMBER? Giant Trees? And Giants living among them? Paradise is lined with Amber bearing Poplar trees. Again, hiding the truth in plain sight.

And don't forget the Baltic Sea is known for its AMBER. AMBER only comes from trees. It is basically petrified sap. So, if it is coming out of the Baltic Sea I would say there once were Giant trees there.

And remember how Arthur was represented in the Heavens? In the constellation with Arthur as the Pole star. Well, we have an As Below for Arthur as well. He made a trip to the North Pole. In 1364 AD, eight people came to the King's court in Norway saying they came from the lands of the North Pole. One, a priest, mentioned that King Arthur sailed there May 3rd, of 531 AD with 12 ships. Five of the 12 were smashed against rocks and were shipwrecked, but the other seven made it there. Arthur peopled the North lands of Scotland and Iceland. Arthur's journey is written about in the Gestai Arthuria.

A few centuries later, Catherine the Second, of Russia, heard about the land of the North by the Masons. She organized two expeditions, the first of which sailed on May 4, 1764, to find the Elixir of Life. From what she was told, the people of Hyperborea lived to be a 1000 years old.

(I would say that is a Hibiscus flower on her dress. And what did we say the Hibiscus flower represented? Well Eden of course. And she is pointing at it for the ones in the know.)

PART THREE ~ NORTH POLE AND THE WIZARD OF OZ

Remember, that all of these secret societies that horde the hidden knowledge about our world, communicate in symbolism. They put the truth out there in a way that their Adepts know the meaning, but the Profane have no clue. But the more we uncover, the more we know too. Knowledge IS power as the saying goes, let's take the power back by learning what they know.

Let's look at the classic The Wonderful Wizard of Oz, written by L. Frank BAUM.

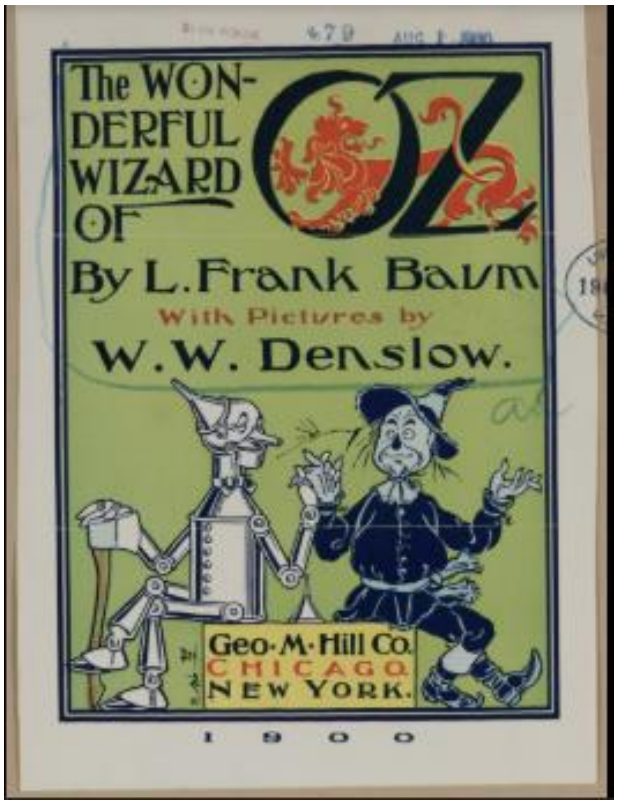
Baum means TREE in German. An appropriate name for someone writing about the TREE in the middle, which we will see soon.



Notice in this 2013 version they call it Oz the GREAT and Powerful. Remember the Masons do their GREAT WORK. And they call Lucifer “the GREATEST of all time” or GOAT for short.

And what do you notice in the most recent one, Wicked, released in 2024? Besides the witch being a Lydan, we notice that her hat looks like the Tower of Babel. It is the mountain in the middle, Rupis Nigra, Black Rock.

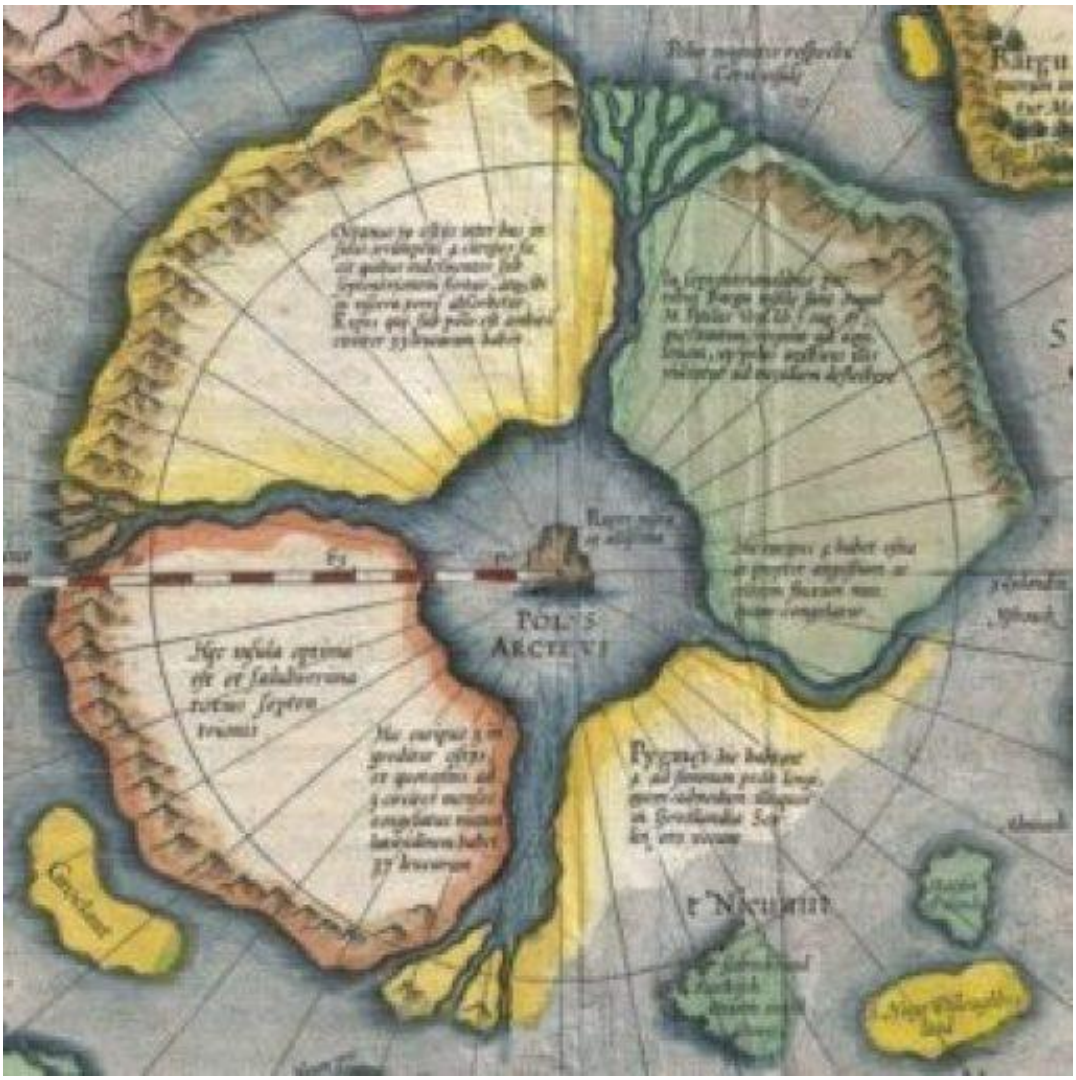
So, let's start by taking another look at Mercator's map of the Arctic, and compare it to Baum's map for Oz.

We can see that the features are very similar to Mercator's map! We have land on the outer perimeter, then a desert area, then four lands with a mountain in the very middle.

Now we notice that these outer lands encircle the inner portion on all sides but one. Just like on Mercator's map. And this one area is in the same location. Notice too that if these "desert" areas were just considered flat lands of each island (like on Mercator's) and if what is separating the four would be "rivers" then the whole expanse would be like Mercator's.

Notice the three yellow islands in similar locations on Baum's map…

As on Mercator’s map!!



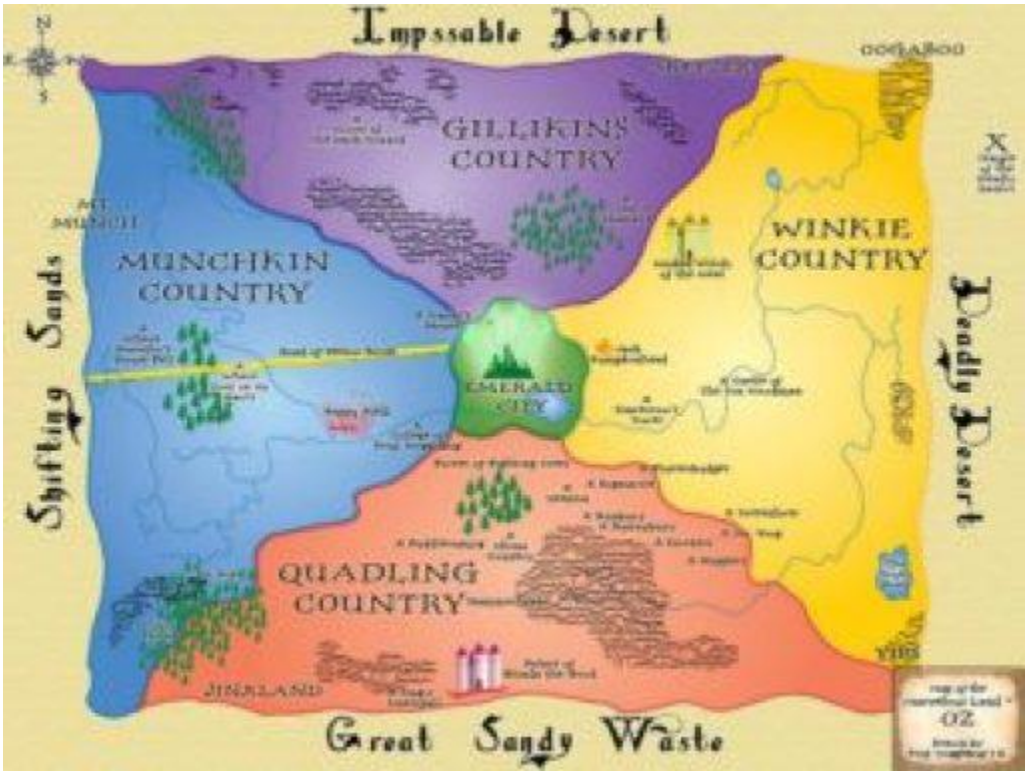
And if we look at the range to the northwest on Baum's map, we see it says, "Land of Ev" could that be short for "Land of EVE?" What was Eve's land? Why the Garden of Eden of course.

We see No Land, Merry Land and Lo Land Hi Land. No Land reminds me of Netherlands, Merry Land reminds me of Merry Old England, and Lo Land Hi Land reminds me of Holland, which is in the Netherlands. Like he is making sure to make the connection that this Land of Oz is near Northern Europe.

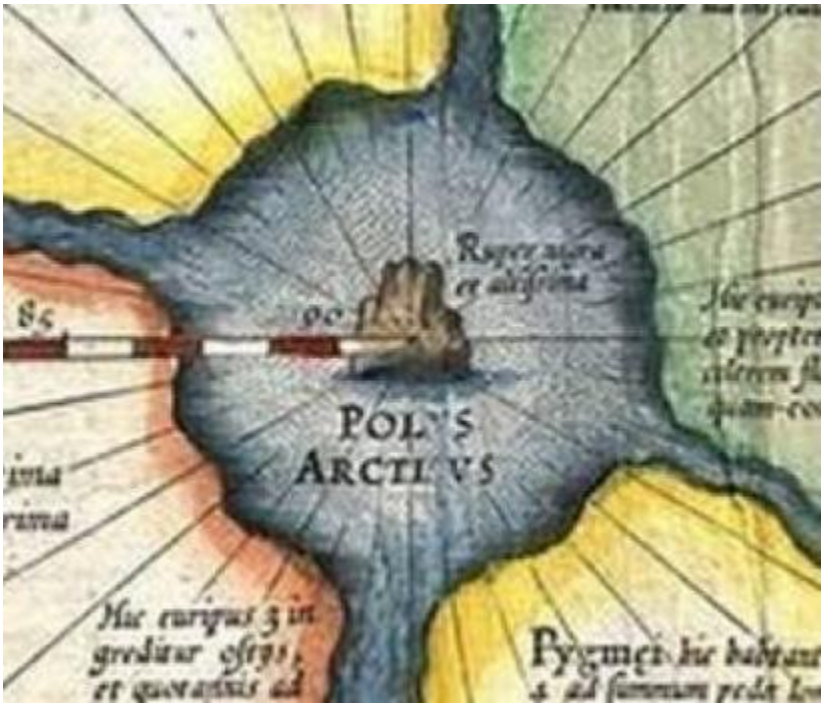
Impassible Desert, Great Sandy Waste, Deadly Desert and Shifting Sands, doesn't sound too friendly, does it? Sounds kind of treacherous in fact. Well, we did hear how these indrawing seas ARE dangerous. We learned that King Arthur lost five of 12 ships on that voyage. So, these sand "rivers" are indeed dangerous.

Now here is a slight variation to Baum's map. In this version, the black mountain in the center of Mercator's map, is represented as a green mountain. Was the black mountain green at one time? Does green represent when it was alive and black when it turned to ash?

Notice the straight yellow line through Munchkin country, called the Yellow Brick Road.



This yellow brick road is in the same location as the red and white barber pole line going to the center of Mercator's map. Are they telling us something here? To get to the center you must follow this path? The Yellow Brick Road? And from this particular isle of the four isles, is there a route? And it's a Barber POLE. A POLE at the North POLE.



We read in the book De Inventione Fortunatos that beneath the Arctic Pole there is a high rock of magnetic stone 33 GERMAN miles in circumference*.* So not only is the black rock 33 miles across, which, by the way, is the circumference of both the Sun and the Moon, but also GERMAN miles imply FRYAN miles. The Germans, the Fryans, the Norse, are one and the same people.

The legends on Ruysch's World Map run as follows:

1. Legere est in Libro de Inventione Fortunatis sub Polo Arctico Rupem esse excelsam ex lapide magnete 33 milliarum Germanorum ambitum.
2. Hanc complectitur mare sugenum fluidum instar vasis aquam deorsum per foramina emettentis.
3. Circum insulae sunt 4 equibus incoluntur duae, ambiunt autem has insulas contini montes vasti latique dietis 24 quibus negāt hominum habitatio.
4. Hic incipit mare sugenum. Hic compassus navium non tenet nec naves qui ferrum tenent revertere valent.

We read in the book De Inventione Fortunatae that beneath the Arctic Pole there is a high rock of magnetic stone 33 German miles in circumference.

The indrawing sea surrounds this (rock), flowing as if in a vessel that lets water down a hole (i.e. a funnel).

There are four surrounding islands of which two are inhabited. But they are bordered by huge mountains twenty-four days journey across, which forbid human habitation.

Here the indrawing sea begins. Here the ship's compass does not hold, nor can ships containing iron turn back.

Here on this map, we get a better look at Emerald City. Notice how the green mountain is composed of vertical columns.

And an even better look here, in this depiction. Isn't that an odd way to draw a city? Notice the mountains on the right. High steep walls, like the mountains encircling the North Pole.

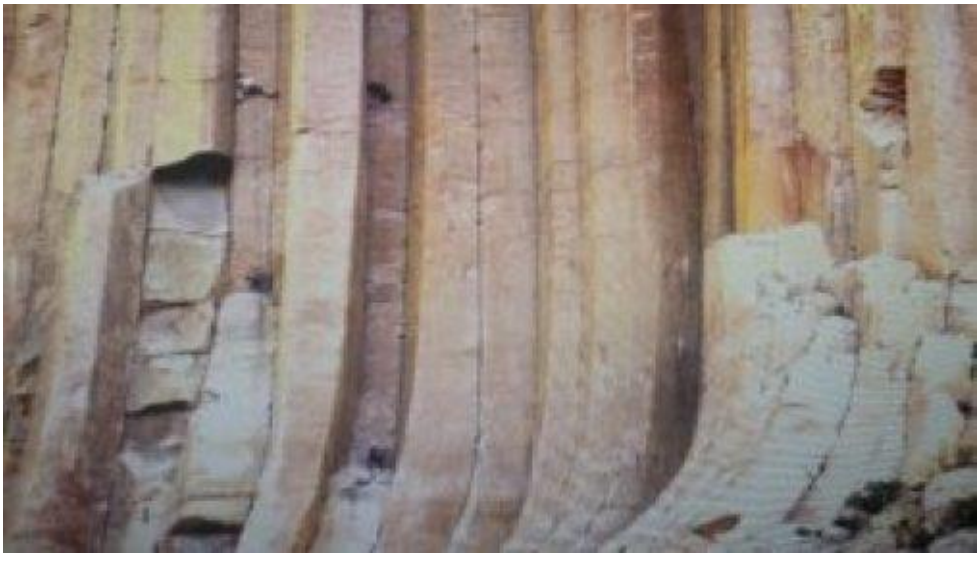
Here is another depiction, with a rainbow overhead. A rainbow arched at 42 degrees in the shape of the dome that it is reflecting off of.

Somewhere over the rainbow, way up high and the dreams that you dreamed of, once in a lullaby.

Now in early 2016, a YouTube video came out called No Forests on Flat Earth, where the presenter told us that Devil's Tower in Wyoming is actually a giant tree- cut, a tree stump.

And if we look closer at the sides of the "mountain" we see it is comprised of vertical columns, which is just like the depiction of Emerald City, except this "mountain" is no longer green. WAS it a tree that was cut? And turned to black, like the "mountain" in the center? At the North Pole?

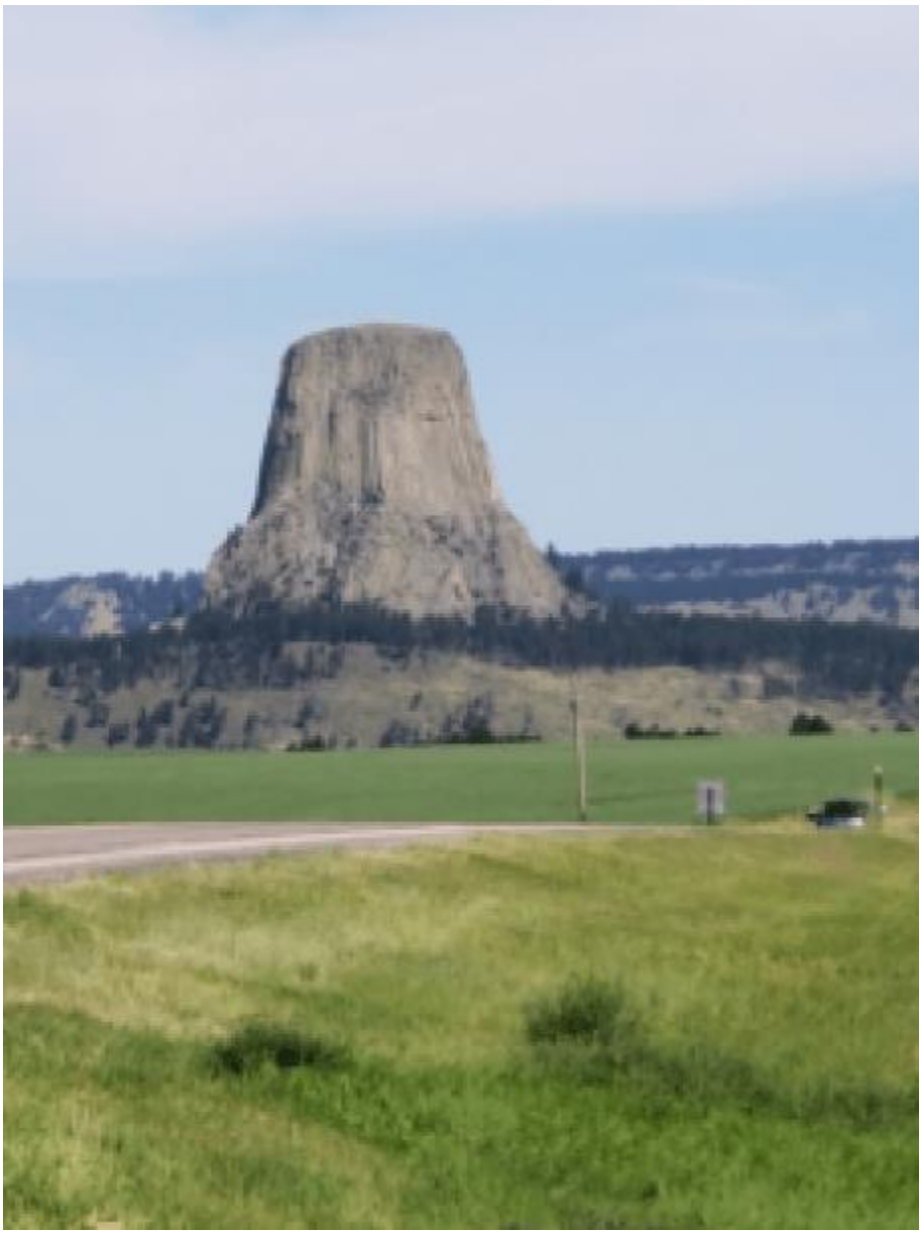
Look how enormous Devil's Tower is. Can you see the tiny images of people climbing it?



I took a road trip a while back and got to observe Devil's Tower first-hand. Here are some photos I took. I wanted to see if indeed Devil's Tower looked like a tree cut or if somehow it could have been formed by lava, as mainstream science would have us believe.

Notice here that this is from a few miles away. I could actually see it from the highway at least thirty miles away, that's how big it is.

It is an anomaly. There is no other structure like it around. Compare it to the full-grown trees at the bottom.



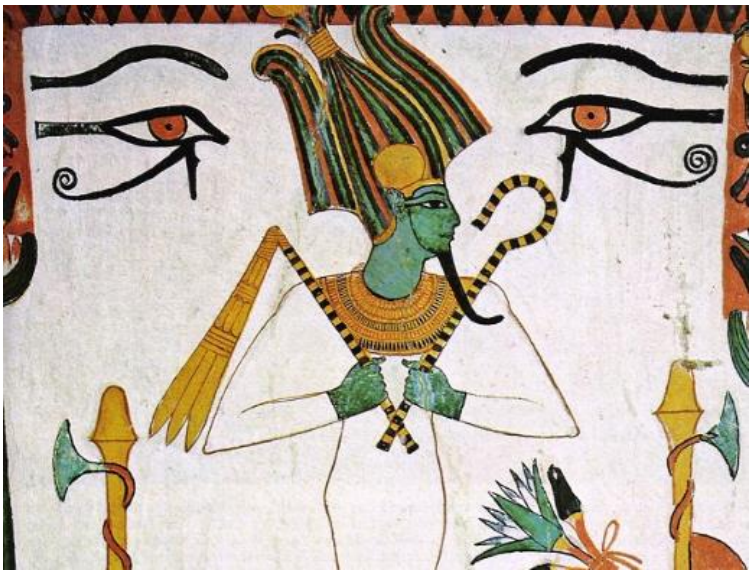
And the closer I got, the closer it confirmed to me that this was a giant tree stump.

Now the local Indians still consider the area around Devil's Tower as sacred. They actually had their own name for it, being "Mateo Teepee", which literally means "Bear's House". Now we know bears love trees, so the Indians must have thought this was a tree also.

From at its base looking out across the land you can see how there are no other features even remotely similar to Devil's Tower.

And we can't help but notice the name Devil's Tower. Reminds me of Santa Claus ~ Satan Claus and even the land of OZ. Oz is short for Osiris, the God of the Underworld. All names for Anti-God.

DEVIL's tower ~ SATAN claus ~ land of OZ



I even heard a couple we walked by talking about how it looked like a tree to them too.

They want us to believe it was made from lava. But there was no evidence of lava. This is what lava looks like. An oozing mass. NOT in vertical columns with angular edges.

Look at this mini stump we walked by. This is a TREE stump. You can tell how similar it looks to Devil's Tower.

And this tree stump was right on the path walking around the Tower.

They are showing us the Black Mountain in the films of today as well. Like in the show The 100.

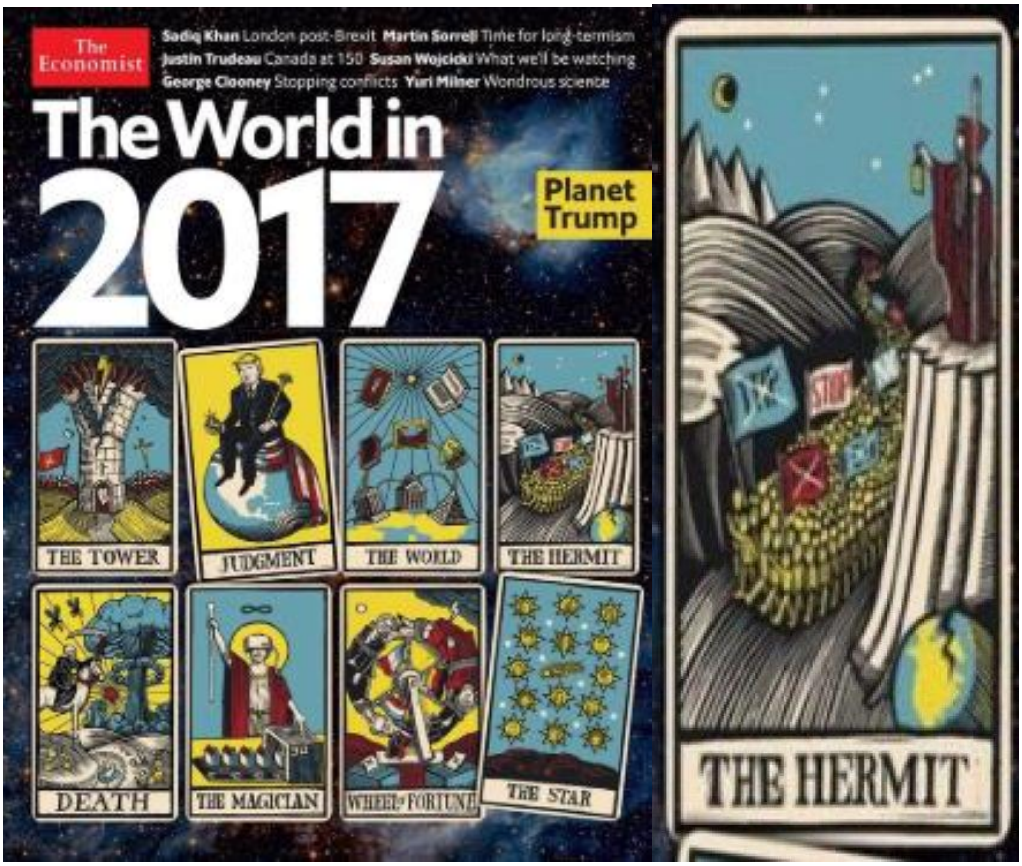
In Stephen King's series called The Gunslinger. Here the Black Mountain is called The Tower. Devil's Tower?

And in Lord of the Rings. Here the Black Mountain is called Mount Doom. Notice the base of Mount Doom. Doesn't it look like Devil's Tower before the "trunk" was cut? DOOM, DEVIL.

And in the depiction of the Tower of Babel. Is the tower- cut, now Devil's Tower? Is that why it was once green and now it is black?

It does resemble a tree stump, doesn't it?

On the cover of The Economist for 2017 they show this same Devil's Tower. Notice how the people on the cover make a yellow brick road to the mountain. Notice what looks like water, representing the four indrawing seas? And notice the high mountains on the perimeter, just like what Mercator and Baum depict. Who is that figure? He is in a RED robe, holding a LIGHT in his RIGHT hand, illuminating the world, and a SPEAR in his other hand. ARTHUR in the CENTER.



Just like Arthur here in red, holding a spear. And he would be directly above this cut tree, right? So, this shows us the North Pole is what is being depicted on that Economist cover.

And the Yellow Brick Road is also connected to King Arthur.

Baram Blackett and Alan Wilson write, in their book Artorius Rex Discovered, that "Camelot" can be broken down into 'Ca' for Caer- fortress and 'Melot' which is a corruption of the Welsh word 'Melyn' for yellow. So, Camelot means Yellow Fort. Wilson states, Up in Lisvane, close to our Yellow Fort, we find an old road named Pen-yr-helo-felyn, which is quite literally- Head of the Road Yellow. It reminds us of The Wizard of Oz with the song and tale of following the Yellow Brick Road.

So, we have Arthur and Dorothy following a yellow brick road. What are the chances? And if the Yellow Brick Road leads to Caer Melon or the Yellow Fort, otherwise known as Camelot, is Camelot a symbol of the true Emerald City? That "city" being the Garden of Eden?

The Yellow Brick Road ends in a spiral. Remember that Mercator mentions that at the Black Mountain is a whirlpool that encircles the mountain. A spiral is a whirlpool.

And like Dorothy in The Wizard of Oz who gets to the center of the maze called Emerald City, we have Dolores in Westworld seeking the center of the maze in HER world as well. Dorothy, Dolores, the names are very similar.

And in the Syfy series called The Magicians they show Arthur's Round Table prominently behind the Master Magicians. Or Master Wizards…the wizards of Oz.

Notice too in The Magicians they have a magical place called Fillory. And it is located at the Northern Marsh. So, it is in the North and looks similar to Emerald City. (Notice the black hand of Lyda.)

Another interesting note is that Mercator wrote about little people who inhabited the North Pole. On one of the large islands, he mentions that here live Pygmies, at most 4 feet tall, who are like those called Skraeling's in Greenland. This reminds me of the Munchkins in The Wizard of Oz! Notice the red, green and blue of their clothing.

Now notice these three African Pygmy's clothing. One wears a green skirt, one red and one blue. Except these Pygmy's are black (Lyda). In the Wizard of Oz, all the Pygmy's are white. If there were black Pygmy's at the North Pole, you would think their skin color would be mentioned in all the various writings we have on the North Pole.

PART 4 ~ NORTH POLE, THE BADLANDS AND THE RED ROSE

When looking at the connections between The Wizard of Oz and the North Pole, I came across many more. I found these between The Wizard of Oz, the North Pole, Eden, King Arthur and the Red Rose.

Let's start where we left off in Part Three. If we look at Mercator's map, we can see the North Pole has a Mountain or Tower in the middle.

Which is shown on The Wizard of Oz's map as well. The only difference here is the "oceans" are sand instead of water.

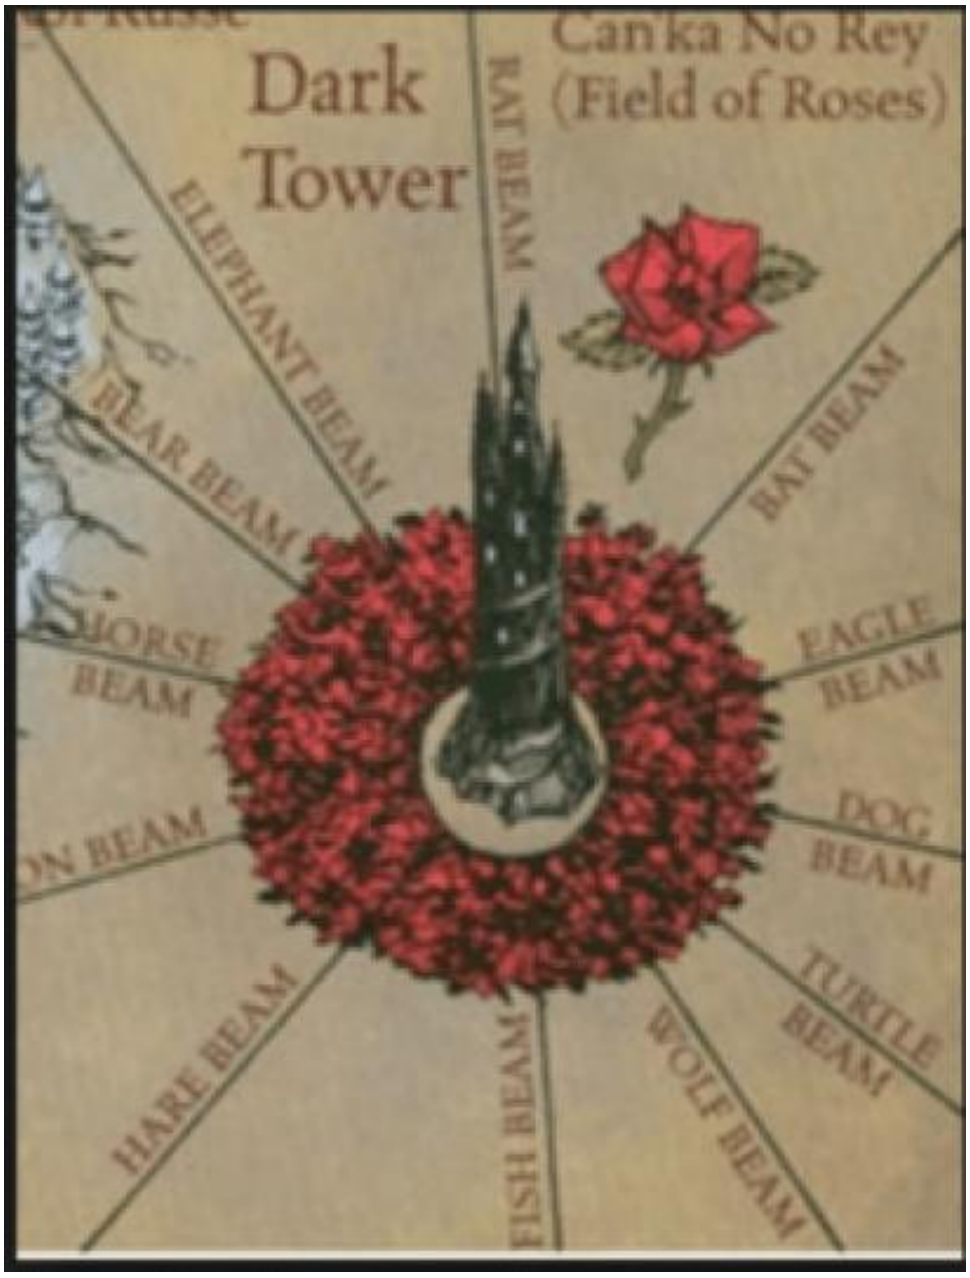
Now look, here in Stephen King's The Dark Tower, we have a Tower too. Above it, it says "End World". End is an anagram for Eden. Switch the "d" and "n" around and you have Edn or Eden. Notice the red roses ringing it. Notice too the mountains just before.

END~EDN~EDEN

Remember on Mercator's map there is a ring of mountains encircling the Pole.

In the series called Into the Badlands, the main character has to cross the Badlands to get to the Tower, just like in The Dark Tower series. Only in this story the Tower is called Azra. Now we'll get to that connection in a few minutes.

First, let's take a closer look at the Tower on The Dark Tower's map. We have 12 "beams" coming out from the CENTER. The beams are named after animals.



Which is very similar to the Chinese Zodiac with 12 Animals, circling a central point. And we have a Yin Yang symbol or a Whirlpool in the middle. Remember Mercator mentioned that the four inland drawing seas met at a magnetic tower which they swirled around in a great Whirlpool.

And also, Dorothy followed the yellow brick road that ended at a Whirlpool.

Do you think the appliance company, Whirlpool, knows the significance of their logo?

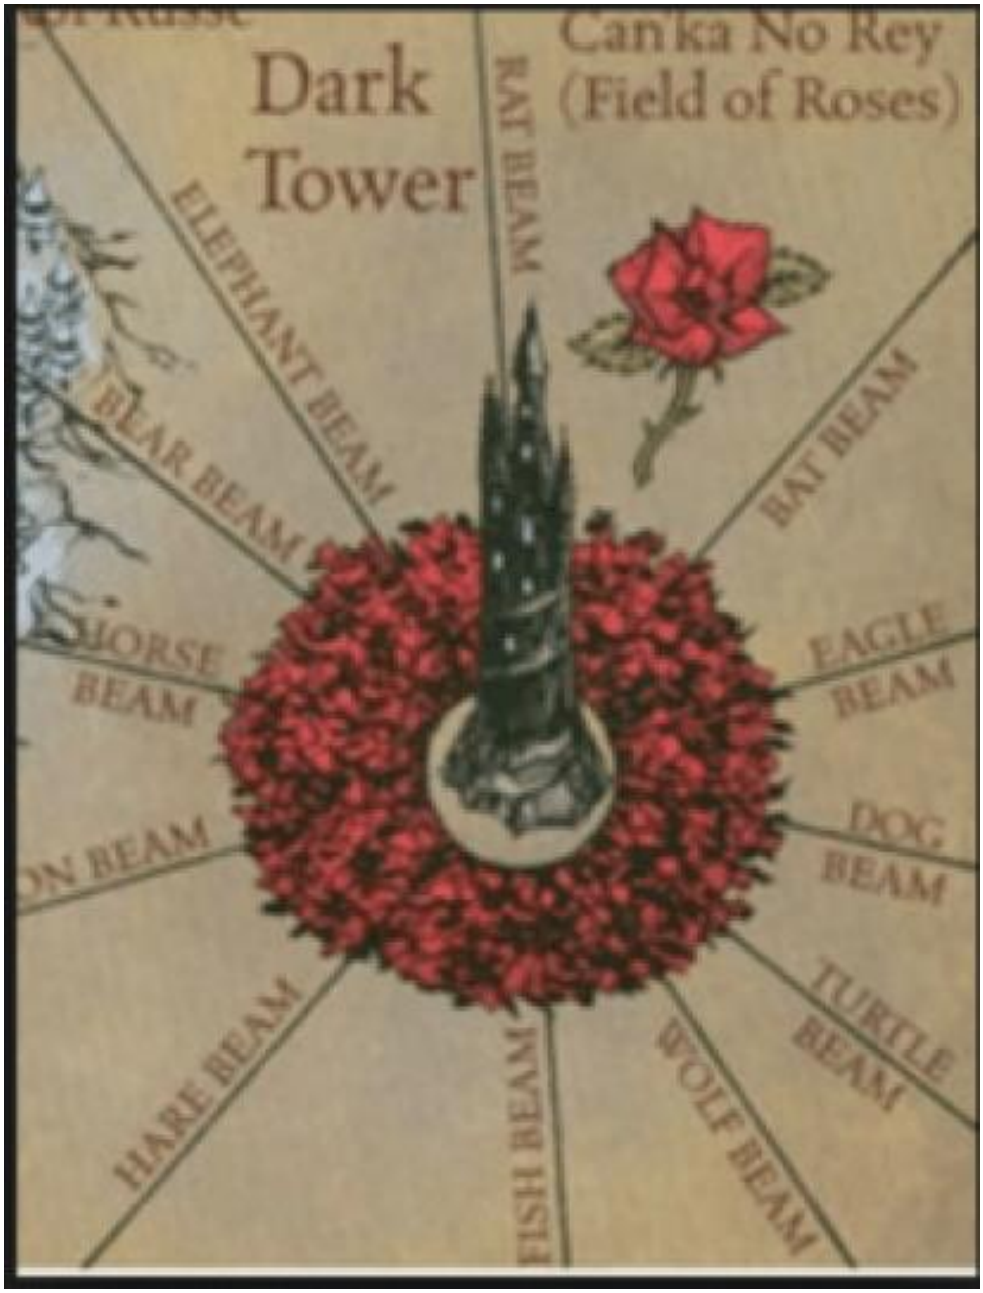
Notice how the Tower here swirls like a whirlpool.

Now let's look at the roses. They are red for a reason.



They are connected to King Arthur and his 12 Knights of the Round Table. What do we see in the middle? Why the Red Rose. Notice Arthur is in the MIDDLE. He holds the CENTER position. The one represented by the Red Rose.

And as we mentioned earlier, which reminds us of Jesus and his 12 Disciples, which are ACTUALLY seated at a Round Table as well. Did you notice the circular cutout right in front of Jesus? They hide this in plain sight. And Jesus is in the CENTER. Again, he holds the CENTER position. The Disciples represent the 12 months and are broken into groups of three, representing the four seasons.

And CHRIST is associated with the Red Rose. The Red Rose is placed in the CENTER of the cross. The center of the cross, like the center of our bodies where the HEART is located. Notice the cross is yellow, like the SUN. Jesus is the sun/son of God. Also, Rose is an anagram for Eros- the God of LOVE. And the center of our EARTH is the North Pole. See how everything naturally fits together?

And don't forget Earth is an anagram for Heart.

Now back to The Dark Tower, for those not familiar with this series, it is based on books by Stephen King. King says that The Dark Tower series is his Magnum Opus or Great Work. The Great Work is the Work of the Masons. So, King would be a Mason.

He sees with his left here.

King tells us that the main character, the Gunslinger, is actually based on a Knight of King Arthur's Round Table. From the Wiki, In the story, Roland Deschain (An anagram for "Land of the Chained") is the last living member of a knightly order known as gunslingers and the last of the line of "Arthur Eld", his world's analogue of King Arthur.

ROLAND DESCHAIN ~ LAND OF THE CHAINED

And just as Arthur carried a sword, Roland carried a gun. So, this Gunslinger, this Knight, is on a quest to find the Man in Black, who he has some reckoning with.

The Gunslinger is King Arthur, or Christ (God) and the Man in Black is King Coel, or Lucifer. (Coel is Coal- as in Black). They are playing out The War of the Roses.

Which is a war that has been playing out since the beginning of time. Between the Magy (Findans) and the Fryans. The Magy represent the White Rose, the Fryans are the Red Rose. This was symbolically played out in the War of the Roses in Britain, a series of battles to take over the throne of England. Before that by King Arthur and King Coel. And is being played out today

The Arctic or the Center, the Christ, in which the constellation Arthur is directly above, is represented by the Red Rose.

Antarctica or Anti-arctic, Anti-Christ, is the outer ring, as far from Christ as you can go and is represented by the White Rose.

And remember Katniss in The Hunger Games held a Red Rose as well. She was on the side of Christ.

And Coriolanus Snow, who is controlled by the Magy behind the scenes, kind of like how we had the Wizard hiding behind the scenes, controlling everything in the Wizard of Oz, held a White Rose in his lapel. Showing he is a Magy stooge.

Katniss knows the White Rose represents EVIL. The inverse of LIVE.

EVIL ~ LIVE

Now Stephen King said he got the inspiration for The Dark Tower series from Childe Roland to the Dark Tower Came, a poem by Robert Browning, and is a line from Shakespeare's play King Lear.

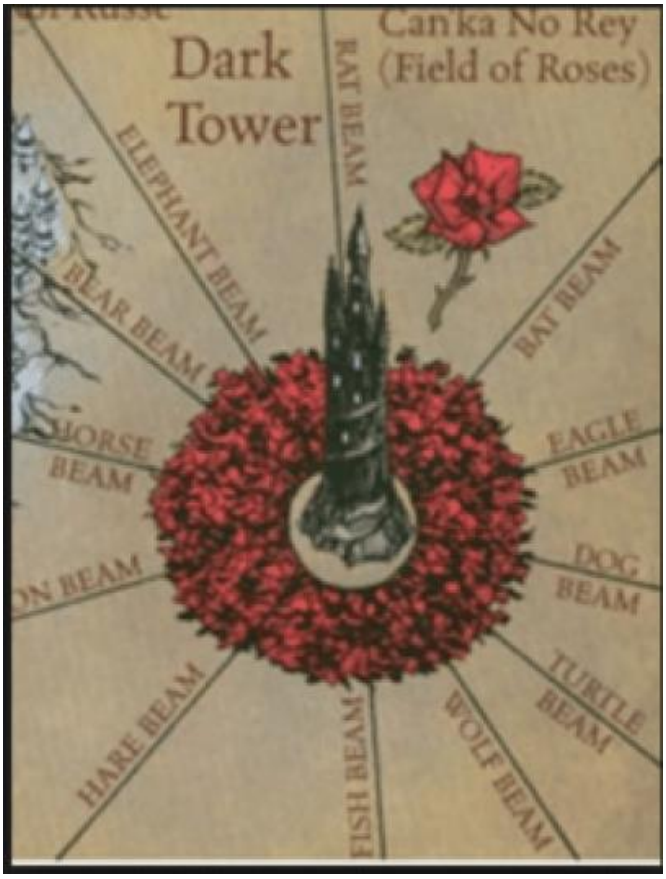
Child Rowland to the dark tower came,
His word was still 'Fie, foh, and fum
I smell the blood of a British man.
— King Lear, Act 3, scene 4

Notice how the painting for the poem looks familiar. What is that yonder we see? The Dark Tower.

Could it be A tower? Which looks an awful lot like THIS tower? This tower is also known as Devil's Tower. And could quite possibly be a giant tree- cut. Fie, foh and fum? I smell the blood of a British man. And who was this British man? The King of the Brits, Arthur of course.

The Dark Tower…

Notice again how it spirals…



Like the Tower of Babel….cut.

Like the Tower nicknamed the Gherkin, in London... do you think the owners of this building know the connection to the North Pole?

Oh look, the Gherkin has a BLACK MONOLITH for a neighbor.

So, we have The Badlands on The Dark Tower map.

And we have a show on AMC called Into the Badlands.

The main character of The Dark Tower has to cross the Badlands to get to the Tower.

The main character of Into the Badlands has to cross the Badlands to get to the Tower.

Only in this other story the Tower is called Azra.

In it we have a boy whose stage name is Aramis KNIGHT (Aramis is an anagram for A Mars, as in A Knight of Mars. Mars is symbolic of King Arthur. King Arthur's father was named Emperor Marcian or Martian.) So, he is an Arthurian Knight, like Roland in The Dark Tower. He plays the boy, who is the equivalent of Jake in The Dark Tower.

ARAMIS KNIGHT~ A KNIGHT OF MARS

Aramis' name on the show is MK. Yes, MK as in MK Ultra Program. He has amnesia. From being mind-controlled? He can't remember home but wears a pendant of home around his neck. He also possesses mutant abilities.

Sunny is the Roland character in this series. He is a badass with a sword. Sunny as in the Sun. The Sun card is 19 in the Tarot deck.

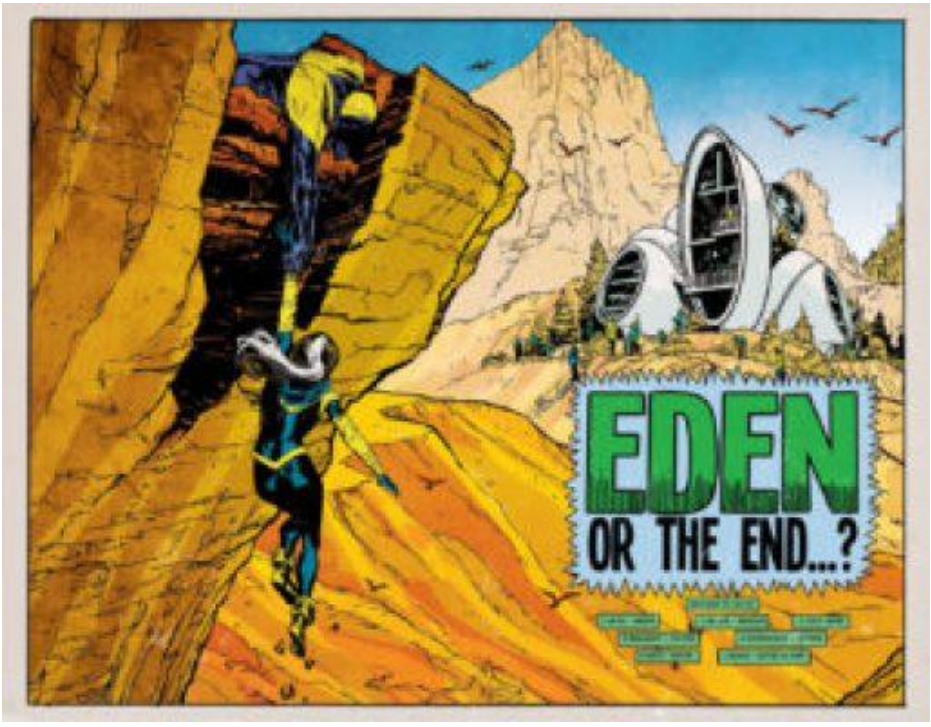
Stephen King's favorite number is 19 and pops up in many of his stories. In The Dark Tower it pops up.

Now MK is a mutant. Just like the Wolverine is. In the last installment of the Wolverine series called Logan, we have not only the mutant connection to MK, but also the story line is connected.

In Logan, we have an eleven-year-old girl named Laura that Logan is trying to save. She is a mutant like MK. She is seeking sanctuary as well, in a place called EDEN in NORTH Dakota. Notice the key words, EDEN and NORTH.

Remember Eden is an anagram for Ende too or End. Here it even gives us this clue. It says, “Eden or the End?” How about Eden IS the End. Eden is also an anagram for Need. We Need ~ Eden. And look at the Tower in the background- Devil’s Tower.

NEED ~ EDEN ~ END



Now we mentioned that the storyline is very similar between The Dark Tower and Into the Badlands, however, instead of seeking the Tower, they are seeking a place called Azra. Look at the compass and pendant. What do you see?

You see that Azra is Asgard. In Norse mythology Asgard is Heaven, and is located directly above Earth, or Midgard, at the North Pole. Notice how Asgard looks like a tower, with a moat and a drawbridge.

AZRA = AZGARD (ASGARD)

Now what else did that pendant remind you of?

Doesn't it look just like Emerald City in The Wizard of Oz?

Let's look at the pendant again. Yep. It even has rays coming off of the tower like it is glowing.

Now MK finds a book on Azra. Look at this character, it looks like he has the Sun behind him. He is the Sun/Son or Christ. And he is located at the CENTER of our world. And this figure “holds the key” the key in this case being a compass.

When the compass is placed into the book it activates it, making it point in a particular direction. Remember that all compasses point to magnetic north. To the magnetic mountain at the NORTH pole, home of EDEN.

Now if we weren't quite sure that this is what the series is trying to portray, they give us this random shot. One of the "butterfly" girls that MK likes, holds up a snow globe. The snow globe shows the shape of our world, flat, with a glass dome above, but look at what's on the side. They make sure to show us the HIBISCUS flower.

Remember that the Hibiscus flower is symbolic of the North Pole. The petals represent the four islands separated by the white lines that represent the four indrawing seas, with the stamen representing the Tower in the middle, the dark portion at its base is where the seas are drawn in by a great Whirlpool.

Remember too that the Hibiscus is found in Hawaii, also known as The PARADISE Isles. So, connecting the flower with Paradise and Eden. The Hawaiian Hibiscus is the tropical version of? Why the Red Rose of course.

A rose is a rose is a rose.

What's in a name? By any other name would smell as sweet.
~Shakespeare, Romeo and Juliet

Now remember Catherine of Russia learned the secret of the North Pole from the Masons. And we know they are an integral part of this cover up. Notice here in Into the Badlands, the checkered floor, which of course is symbolic of them.

The main opposing Baron in this story is called the Widow, as in the Black Widow. She has red hair and dresses in black. Notice here her holding the book on Azra.

(The Masons are called the Widow's Sons.)

And in the Book of Azra there is a depiction of the 24 symbol of Jupiter. Jupiter is the planet for the sign of Sagittarius. Remember Sagittarius is Latin for Archer. And the image looks like a bow, and also a Tree of Life symbol. The Tree of Life is also supposed to be the Tower. Notice the line coming in from the top and zigzagging back and forth until it reaches the 24. Remember that MK represents Arthur, who is the Archer.

In The Hunger Games we had Katniss and Gale, who were both Archers. They came from District 12. The twelfth month, December, is the month that holds Sagittarius, the Archer. Gale put his name in for the Reaping 42 times.

Remember the rainBOW arches at 42 degrees. As I'm sure our Dome does.

Flip the 42 and you have 24 the symbol of Jupiter. The symbol of the Archer.

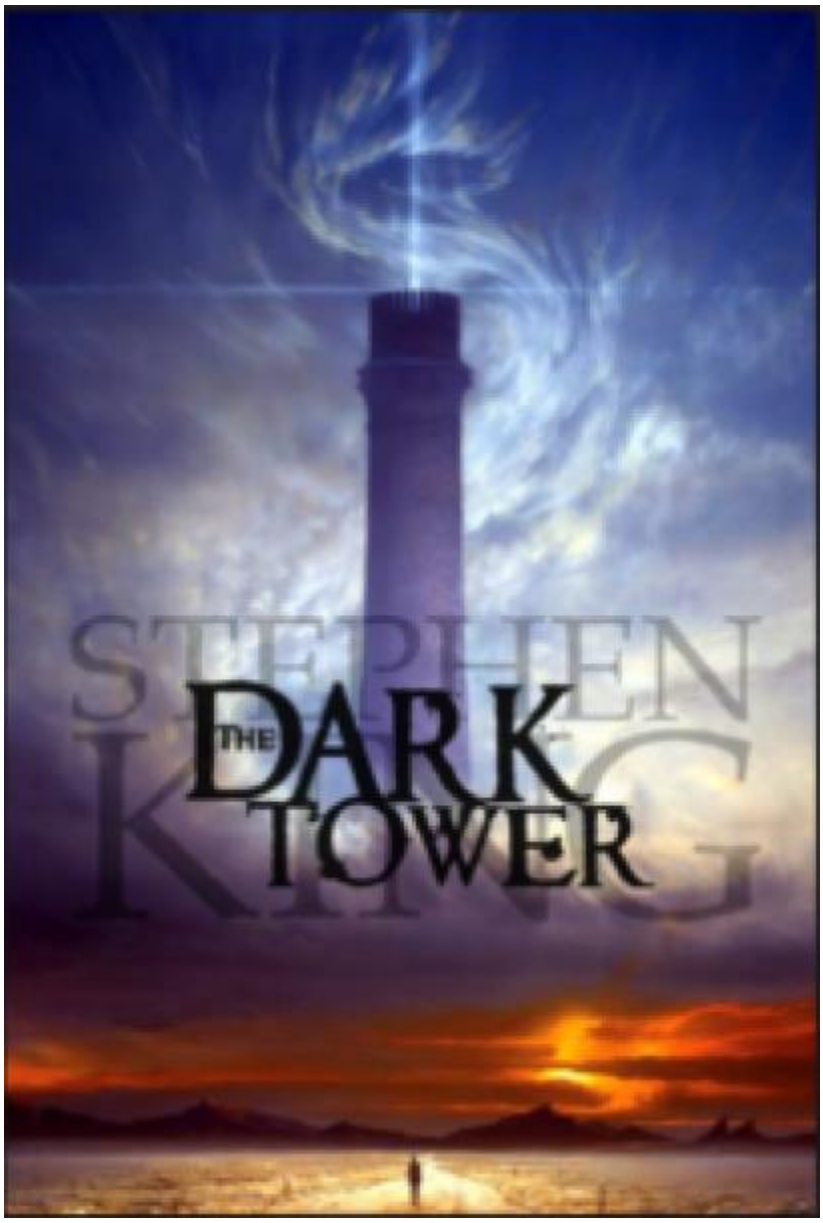
Now in the second installment called Catching Fire, Katniss had to play another tournament under a new dome. This one was set up like the North Pole. Notice the “tower” in the middle sectioned off into 12 “beams”.

Here is a closer look. They figured out that it worked like a clock. That an event would happen on the hour in a different section. If they could figure out which section was affected next, they could avoid the calamities that fell.

Katniss figured out that the enclosure had a honeycombed dome that was electrified above them. She shot an arrow straight into the center above and shorted it out.

You can see the honeycombed pattern of the dome here. Is this similar to the structure of OUR dome?

Now before we leave this part, I wanted to show some connections to the Tower in our real world. Notice the long lean shape of the tower here, which is in the shape of an obelisk.



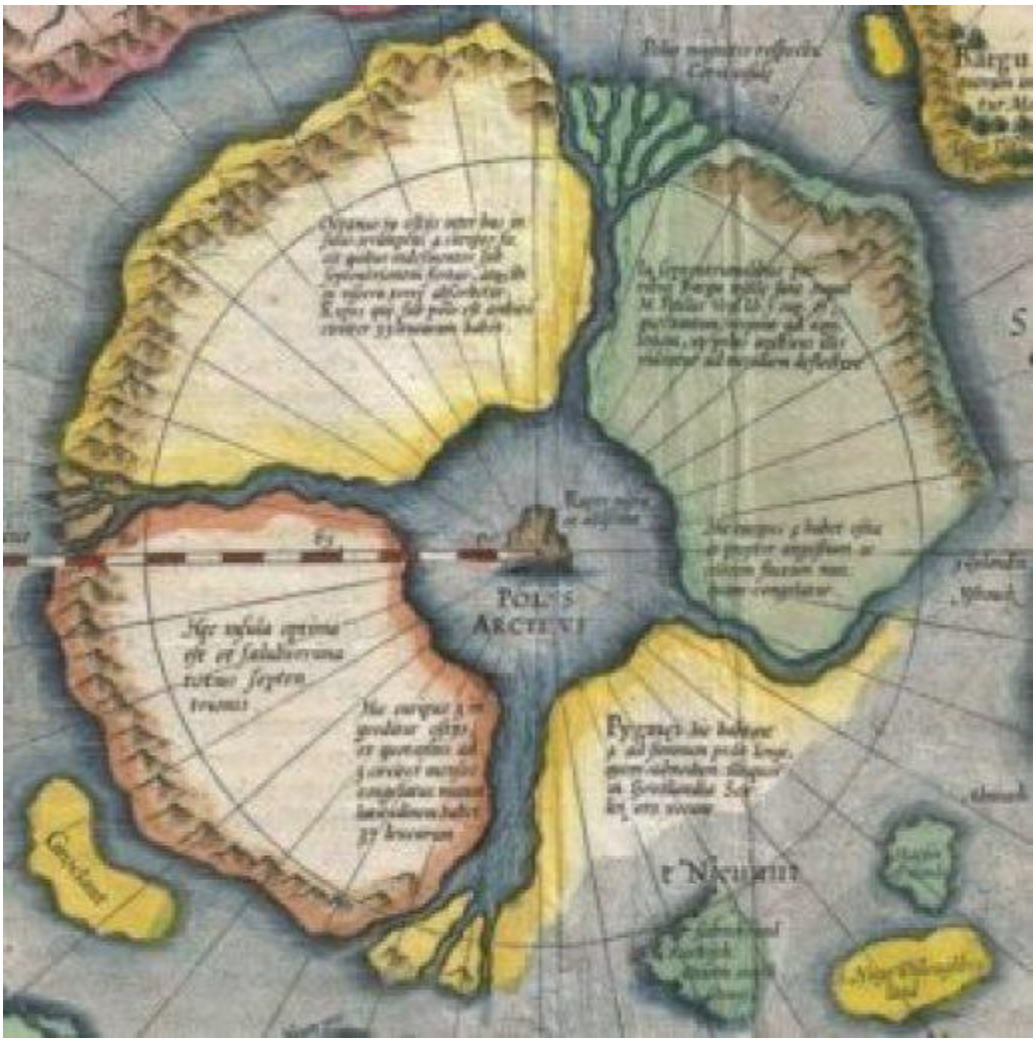
What's probably the most famous obelisk or pole or tower? The Washington Monument. And notice too that it is connected to water, like the tower at the North Pole.

Then we have TOWER Records.

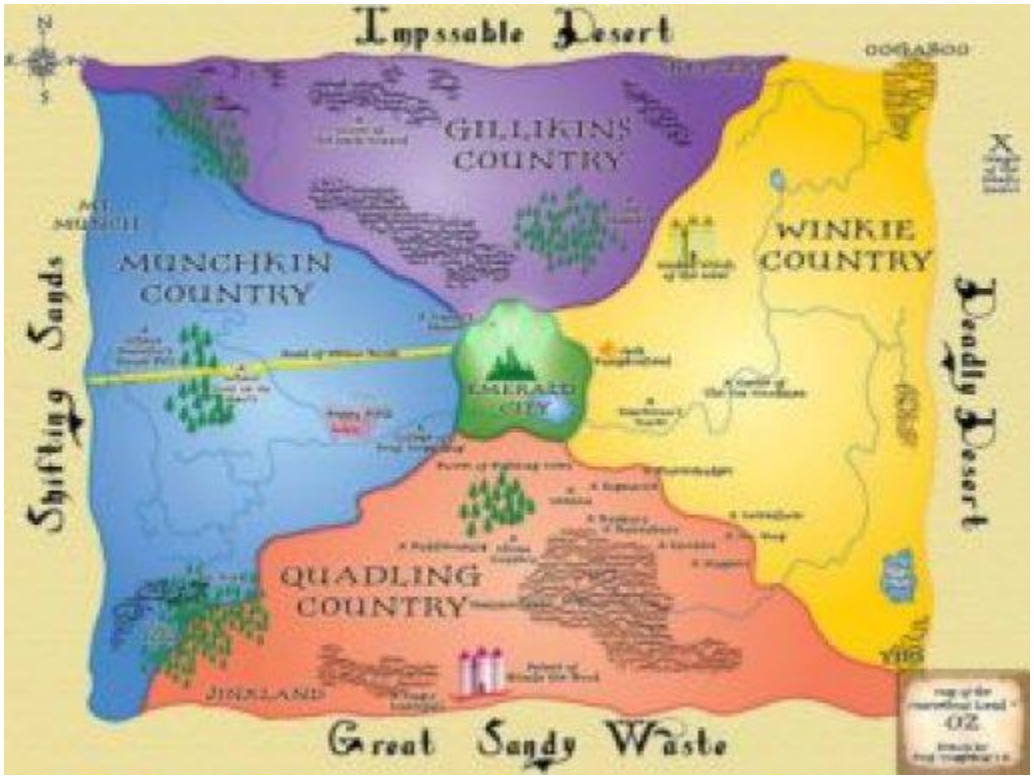
Here is the original store in Sacrament-O, California. (Tower of Babel)

And another store. Not sure where this one is though.

And remember the red and white barber pole going to the Magnetic Mountain? What does it remind you of?



And on Baum's map we had the Yellow Brick Road in the same location. What does it remind you of?



Tick tock Tick tock Mr. Wick…. Times up!

How about this…. a castle with a drawbridge! A tower, surrounded by a moat, with a drawbridge.

A tower, surrounded by a moat, with a drawbridge.

A tower, surrounded by a moat with a drawbridge.

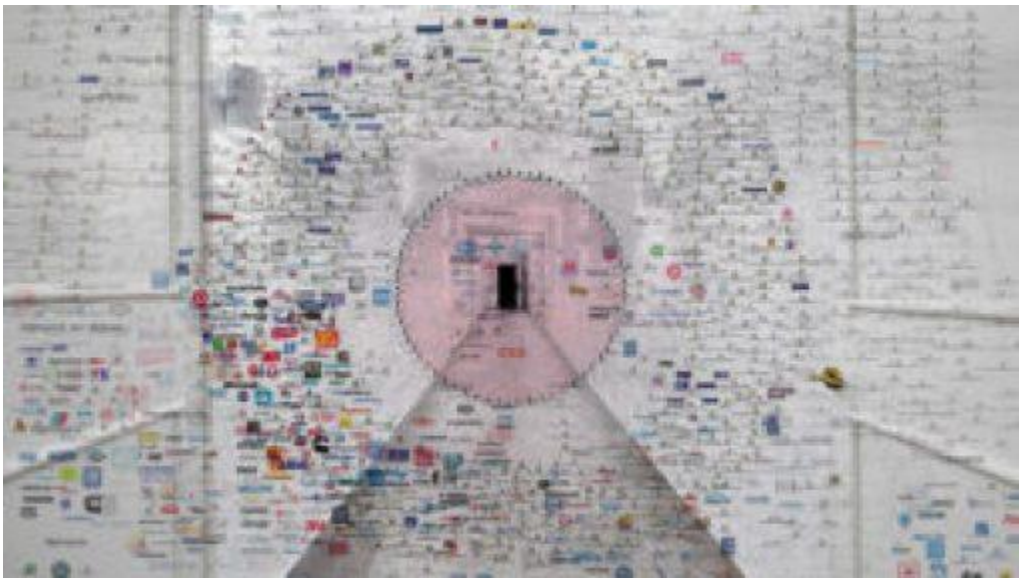
And what are these castles made of? Stone. Made by stone Masons. Mason's hiding the secret in plain sight (plane site) all over the world.

Castle is B-u-r-g in German, with Mountain being spelled B-e-r-g.

BURG ~ BERG

The annual BilderBERG meeting.

Does it have that name for a reason? I would say yes, these are the elite who know the hidden secrets about the North Pole. Look at their map. What does it look like? Like a Dark Tower in the center? (The Black Monolith)



And what's the most famous castle with a moat and a drawbridge? Why Disney's castle, of course. We see it every time before we watch one of their movies. Disney was a 33rd degree Mason. He knew. Now we do too.

And even Asgard has a drawbridge. To get there you are supposed to go over the Rainbow (draw) Bridge.

So, I hope by now, I have opened your eyes to the true nature of our world. That the Adepts know. That they hide through their symbolism the Truth about our World. That Eden IS in the CENTER, at the North Pole. That God's throne is directly above in Heaven, Asgard. That the Red Rose is symbolic of Arthur, who was symbolic of Christ (God~ Wralda).

But keep reading, I'm not finished yet.

PART 5 ~ NORTH POLE, EDEN AND THE EDINBURGH CONNECTION

Let's do a quick review of parts one through four. We can see how the truth about the North Pole is hidden, in things like Mercator's map.

And in the book on King Arthur called The Gestai Arthuria, (Lithuanian for the Thoughts on Arthur).

King Arthur caught sight of a little ship. (P. 106)

In the writings of the mariners under Catherine the Second of Russia.

And in more modern times, hidden in our movies, such as the Wolverine spinoff called Logan.

And hidden in the series Into the Badlands,

And in literature, hidden in The Wizard of Oz.

And hidden in the movie Wicked.

And also hidden in Stephen King's The Dark Tower, to name just a few.

And finally, hidden in the language itself, such as the Great Plains of the Midwest in America, being precisely called that because the Plains are on a Plane, a flat horizontal surface.

GREAT PLAINS ~ GREAT PLANES

And hidden in the word AirPLANES because they fly over the flat PLANE.

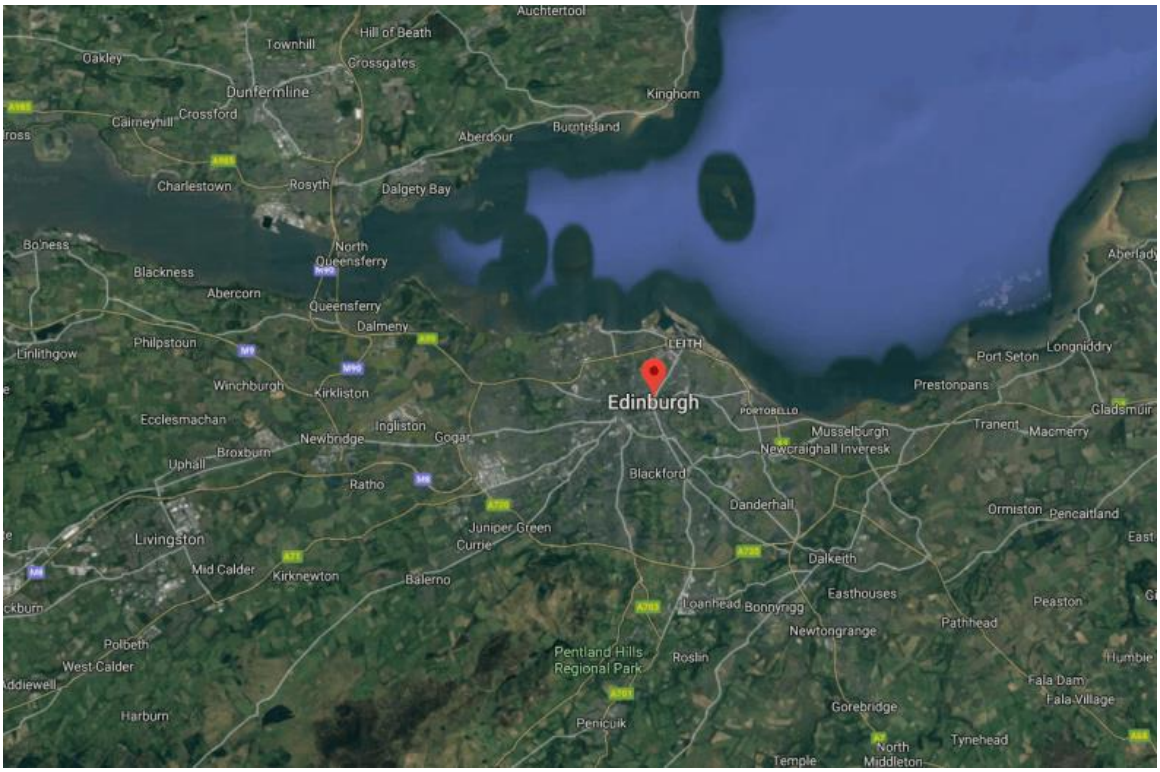
AIRPLANES ~ FLAT PLANE

Or how the Horizon is called just that because it is Horizontal.

HORIZON ~ HORIZONTAL

So, let's look at a few more clues to the truth about the Flat Earth and the North Pole through language and geography and check out the areas surrounding it.

Now if we look to the northernmost part of the United Kingdom, we see a clue in Scotland and its Capital city, Edinburgh.



EDIN is of course phonetically the same as EDEN and if we look to the Wiki under Burgh, we find that BURGH was an Old English word originally used for a fortified town or proto castle.

Burgh was related to the verb beorgan, and in Dutch and German bergen, meaning “to keep, save, make secure”. So, Edinburgh would mean a fortified town of EDEN. Now if Eden was all the way in the Middle East, why would they name their Capital city after it? Wouldn’t it be more logical that the inhabitants knew that Eden was close by?

EDINBURGH ~ EDEN TOWN ~ EDEN MOUNTAIN

Doesn’t it look like it is built on the remains of a giant tree stump?

And if we stay in the North but scan to the East, we see Norway or North Way, the way of the North (Pole).

NORWAY ~ NORTH WAY

Notice to the right in this picture, it looks like a giant tree cut.

And Norway shares a border with Sweden, which has EDEN in its name.

SWEDEN ~ SW EDEN

Sweden, by the way, was called SCHOONLAND in the OLB, which means “beautiful land”.

And abutting Sweden on the eastern side we have Finland. Fin means “end” and remember END is an anagram for EDEN. So, Land’s Eden, or possibly Eden’s Land.

FINLAND ~ EDEN LAND

END ~ EDN ~ EDEN

Southwest from there we have HOLLAND, in the Netherlands. Could HOLLAND be short for Holy Land?

HOLLAND ~ HOLY LAND

And just around the corner we have Denmark. Could DEN be short for EDEN? So, EDEN mark or EDEN land?

DENMARK ~ EDEN MARK

Could Poland be POLE land? Land of the North Pole.

POLAND ~ POLE LAND

And England's original name was ALBION, which is an anagram for ALBINO, which means WHITE. White land of the North. And the Scots were also known as ALBANS (meaning WHITE in Latin.)

ENGLAND ~ ALBION

SCOTS ~ ALBANS

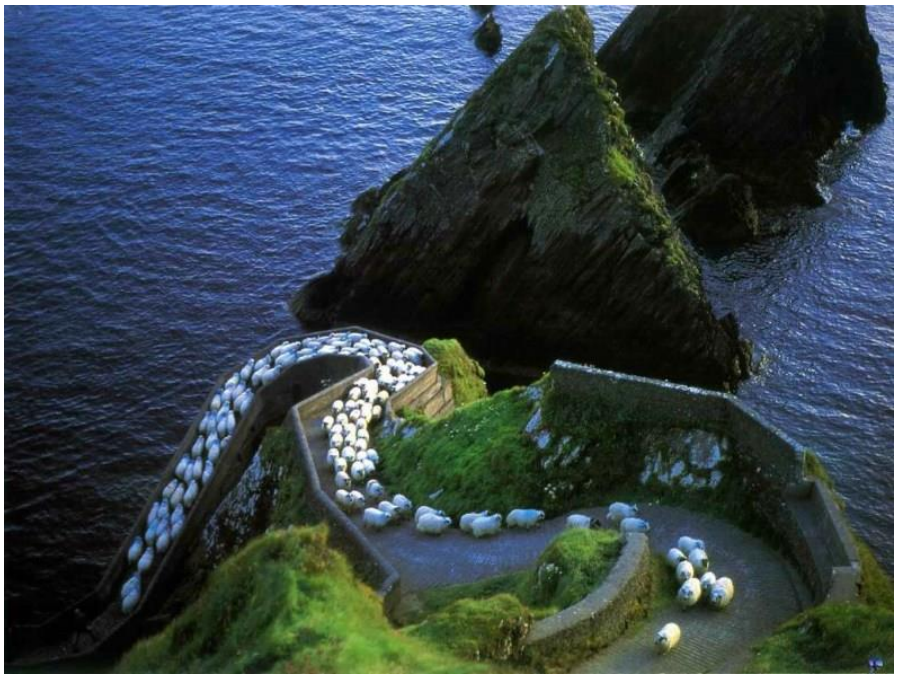
The WHITE cliffs of Dover in Albion

And German is short for GERMANUS which means ORIGINAL in Latin, the ORIGINAL people of the North.

GERMANY ~ ORIGIN LAND

And Ireland is Eyrie land, or Aryan Land.

IRELAND ~ ARYAN LAND



And Scotland is Gruff Land. Scot means Gruff in Diets, Wralda's original language, told to us in the OLB.

SCOTLAND ~ GRUFF LAND

And who were the TRUE people of the North in Game of Thrones? The WILDINGS or the GRUFFS.

What are the chances that so many Fryan countries have reference to the North Pole or Eden in their names?

And we can't forget the country called Albania. Which would mean Land of the WHITES.

ALBANIA ~ WHITE LAND

And if we take another look at EDINburgh, we see that Burg also means mountain, so a mountain of Eden. And there is a mountain of Eden there. It's called Arthur's Seat.

And yes, Arthur, of Arthur's Seat, refers to the historic King Arthur. And has the constellation named after him that includes the North Star. Arthur and his 12 Knights, Jesus and his 12 Disciples. So, this mountain symbolically could represent Jesus' Seat (Wralda's Seat), the mountain in the middle.

ARTHUR'S SEAT ~ WRALDA'S SEAT

And remember too that Arthur is phonetically almost the same as ARCHER. And the ARCHER would be the ruler of the ARCH. The ruler of the ARCH would be Christ (Wralda).

ARTHUR ~ ARCHER

And in EDEN burg, we have a pygmy connection here as well. Remember that Mercator said one of the four islands at the Pole was peopled by little people, known as Skraeling's, but not dark like these South Pacific ones, but more like these... little people called Munchkins as seen in The Wizard of Oz.

SKRAELINGS ~ PYGMIES ~ MUNCHKINS

Well just a few years back, little people “coffins” were discovered at Arthur’s Seat. Who put them there and why is still a mystery.

Now I’m not saying these are “actual” little people, but representative of them, like dolls.

HOLYROOD ~ HOLY ROAD ~ YELLOW BRICK ROAD

Holyrood, or Hollywood, in the City of Fallen Angels, Los Angeles, where they host the Oscars. Oscar stands for Osiris, which is another name for OZ. And in an Oscar ceremony from a few years back, they had a stage set up like our Flat Earth, with a dome, firmament with stars, mountains surrounding the North Pole, and even hexagonal columns that look like The Wizard of Oz's EMERALD City, which represents the tower in the middle!

Is it just a coincidence that Ireland is called the EMERALD Isle?

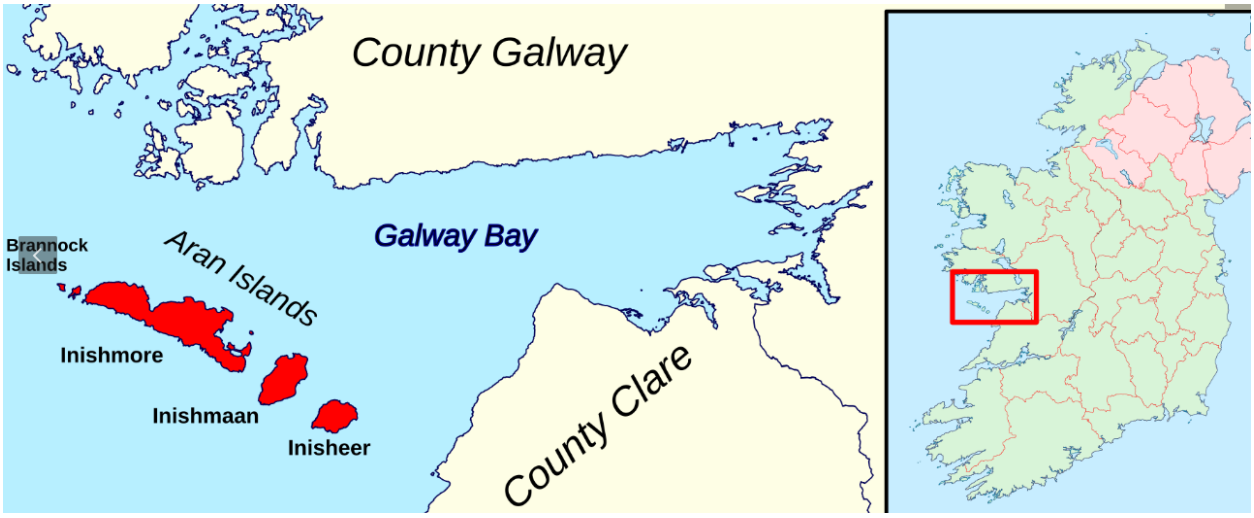
EMERALD CITY ~ EMERALD ISLE

And nearby is the Isle of Arran where just recently they discovered a thousand ancient archaeological sites. Arran is Aryan once again. You can see these are all the same people who made these lands their home.

ISLE OF ARRAN ~ ARYAN ISLAND

And not too far away, off the west coast of Ireland, we see the name Arran once again. In the northwest situated off the coast of Donegal, is the island called Arranmore, and further south in the Galway Bay, is the chain of islands known as the Aran Islands.

ARAN ISLANDS ~ ARYAN ISLANDS



To the North of Scotland and lying between Iceland and Norway in the North Atlantic Ocean, is the Faroe Islands, a self-governing archipelago, part of the Kingdom of Denmark. Faroe means FAIR, as in WHITE. The Faroe are also ISLAND OF THE WHITES.

FAROE ISLAND ~ FAIR ISLAND ~ WHITE ISLAND

And if we go back to Game of Thrones, we see more connections.

I'm King of the North! A Star K? No thank you.

STARK ~ STAR K ~ STAR KOSHER

STAR-K KOSHER

Now the map of Game of Thrones is interesting for several reasons. First off, it should be apparent just at a glance that Westeros is the United Kingdom. Although the land shape doesn't match exactly.

But if you take the bottom half off and replace it with Ireland flipped, you have Westeros! And you can see the “fingers” where Little Finger is from.

So, you can see even the Mason (Magy) George R.R. Martin knows of the importance of the United Kingdom to the North Pole and Edenland.

And the Roman Emperor Hadrian, had a wall built dividing their occupied territory with that of the wild men of the North. To keep these wild men at bay.

To keep the WILDLINGS at bay- the Scots, the Gruff.

Hadrian's Wall

PART 6 ~ NORTH POLE, EDEN AND THE MARY CONNECTION

The observant soul would know by now that there are two races that have an issue here on Earth. There are the Fryans, one of the three original races made by Wralda, and then there is a mixed race, primarily of Finda, but mixed with Frya and Lyda, called the Magy. I wouldn't say they are at war, because the Fryans just want to live in peace. It is the Magy that hate the Fryans and are doing everything they can to wipe them from the face of the Earth. It really is an issue of evil hating good.

This plays out in the sky , just like it does on Earth.

We saw this with Arthur being in the constellation that includes the North Star, Wralda's throne. Remember Arthur and his 12 Knights (nights), are representative of Jesus and his 12 disciples.

ARTHUR ~ 12 KNIGHTS (NIGHTS)

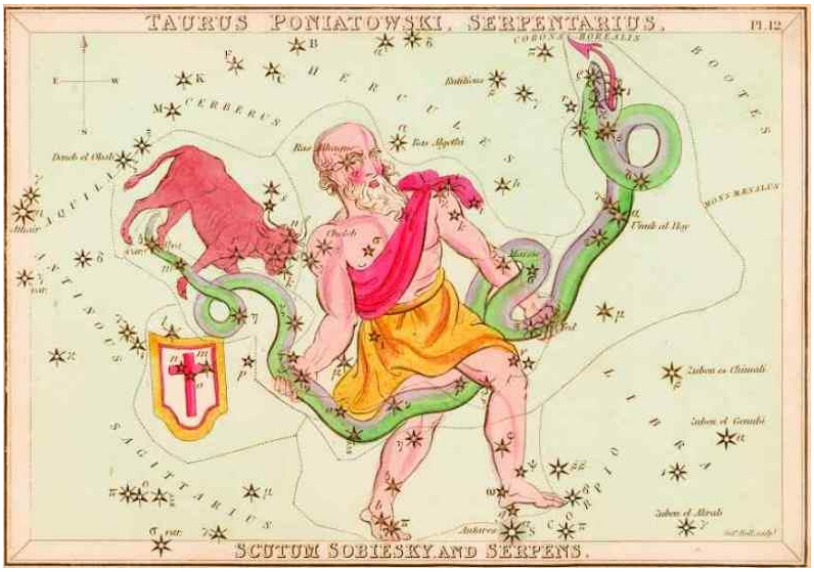
JESUS ~ 12 DISCIPLES

And with the story of Noah's Ark or the ZOO DE ARK, known as the Zodiac in the heavens above. (Did you know that King Arthur had a son named NOWI?

NOWI ~ NOAH

ZODIAC ~ ZOO DE ARC ~ 12 CONSTELLATIONS

Well, the Magy are represented in the sky too, by the constellation Ophiuchus. Ophiuchus means “he that holds the snake”. And we know what people are represented by the snake, the Magy.



It IS a battle between Creators and Destroyers. The Fryans are the Creators, the builder race, and follow Wralda’s law, the law of Nature; while the Magy are the Destroyers (they admit it themselves.) and are anti-Nature.

CREATORS ~ DESTROYERS

Satan tempting Jesus is just representative of the two NATURES. One is Creator, one is Destroyer (Deceiver). Creator ~ Fryans, Destroyer ~ Magy.

Now if we go back down to Earth and in Part Five we saw the connections to particular cities, islands and whole countries that represent the Fryans, the Creators.

In places like Edinburgh, Scotland.

EDINBURGH ~ EDEN HOME

The Faroe Islands.

FAROE ~ FAIR ~ WHITE

The country of Sweden.

SWEDEN ~ SW EDEN

And even Finland, to give a few examples.

FINLAND ~ END LAND ~ EDEN LAND

But are there OTHER places that the Fryans left their mark?

If we return to the OLB, we pick up more clues as to where the Fryans went on this Earth.

We know that Cecrops, who took over Athens, forced the Fryans to flee. Some went with the Burgh Mooder Gert, and subsequently became known as the Gertmanna, or Germans. And others fled elsewhere.

The ones that fled with Gert, went south from Athens and through the Strait at the Red Sea, since it was an actual waterway back then. They sailed all the way to India and settled in the region called the PUNJAB, which means FIVE WATERS.

Notice India is an imperfect anagram for Diana, which is the Goddess of the Moon. And here Diana has a Crescent Moon on her head and she's holding a bow, she is an Archer.

INDIA ~ DIANA

ARTHUR ~ ARCHER ~ DIANA

Diana is synonymous with Mary. So, while Diana has the Moon on her head, Mary is always associated with the Moon as well. She is standing on the Crescent Moon.

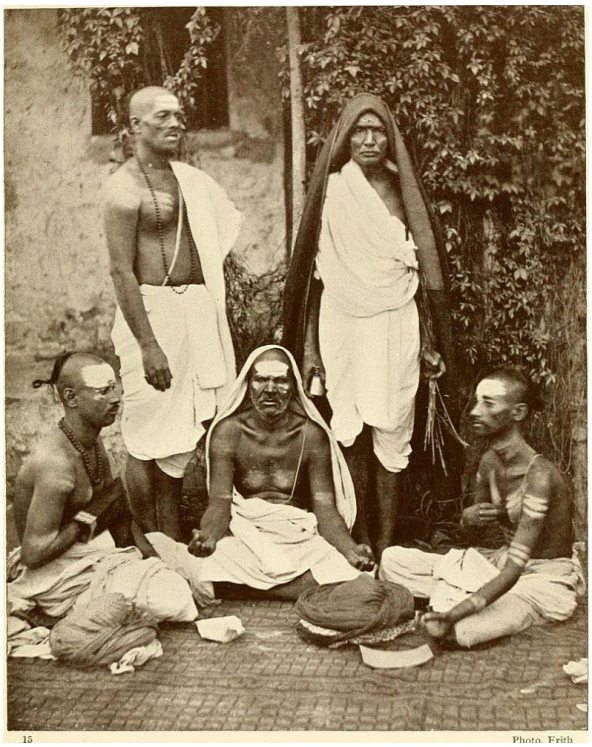
Now Mary/Diana is not bad of course, on the contrary, BUT the Magy took a mortal Fryan woman and made her into a god, just like they did with Odin. Just like they did with Nef Teunis. Just like they did with Athena. Just like they did with Jesus.

The Magy want anyone worshipped BUT Wralda. That way they can play the Middle Man.

If we look to the people of India today, we see lighter skinned Indians in the North and darker skinned Indians in the Southern regions. When the Fryans settled in India, they settled in the North.

Also, in India they have a caste system. The caste at the top are the Brahmins, or the priest class, and these consisted at one time of the Aryans.

But you can see from this photo of Brahmin's in 1913 that they aren't White anymore.



There are still remnants of this White race in paintings.

And in the blood of lighter skinned Indians, and some small remnants that still resemble the white Fryan of today, but the majority have disappeared. Where did they go? We know that the Gertmanna sailed back to Frya's land. But a remnant had a different idea, like Teunis who went to the Mediterranean, while his cousin Inka went to South America. I'm sure the Gertmanna had some more adventurous souls who took a different path as well.

Aryan (Albino) Indian and Mulatto Hindu

Here is says Aryan (ALBINO) Indian, but a true ALBINO has NO pigment. This lass has golden hair and blue eyes. She is definitely mixed with Frya.

Persia has a similar story with Whites living there until they too were either assimilated, killed off or had to flee.

In Gabbi Plum's documentary, New Zealand~ Skeletons in the Cupboard-The Redheads, on the ancient inhabitants of New Zealand, we surprisingly find some clues.

And I just wanted to mention briefly that YouTube actually pulled this lady's brilliant work for "deceptive practices and misleading content"! We should be alarmed at the infringement of her free speech. And it should give us a clue that the Magy doesn't want us to know about our true heritage.

Here is a link to her website:

So back to Gabbi's work, we learn of a group of people, a family, that are some of the last known members of the Ngati Hotu people. Monica Matamua tells of the stories that were handed down in her family of the history of her people. Of where they came from. And she even did a DNA test to prove it.

Now you are probably asking what do the Ngati Hotu people have to do with the Fryans and the Mary connection? Well as we can see from Monica's blonde hair and green eyes, she carries European DNA.

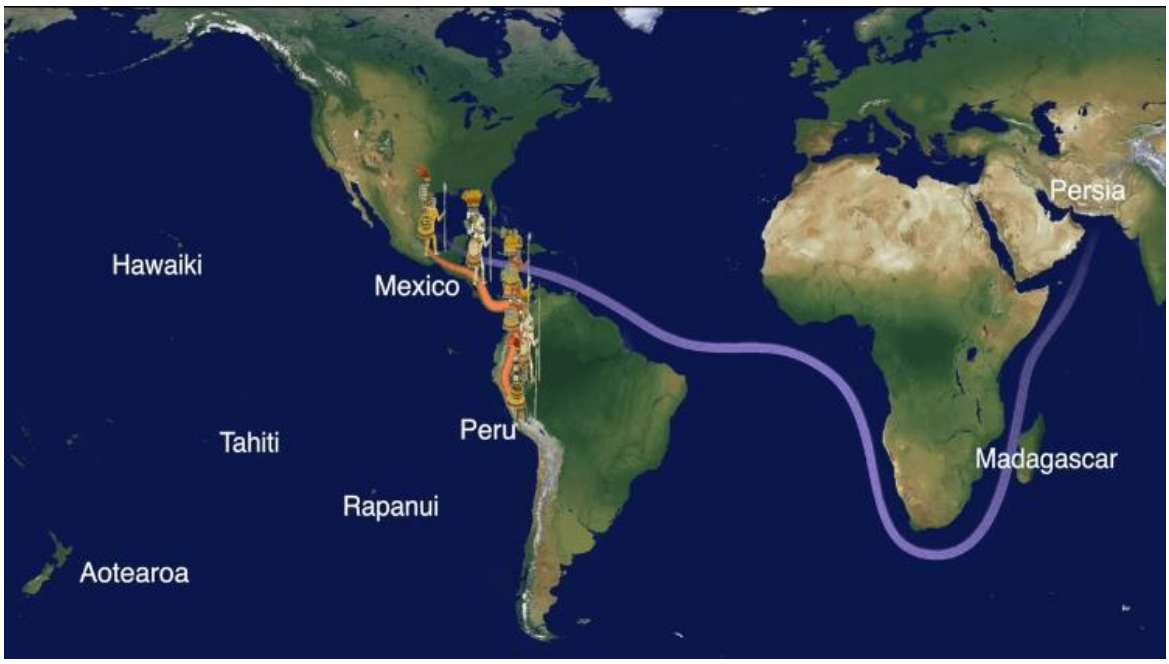
And we will see the Mary connection shortly.

Monica tells us her family was originally from Persia.

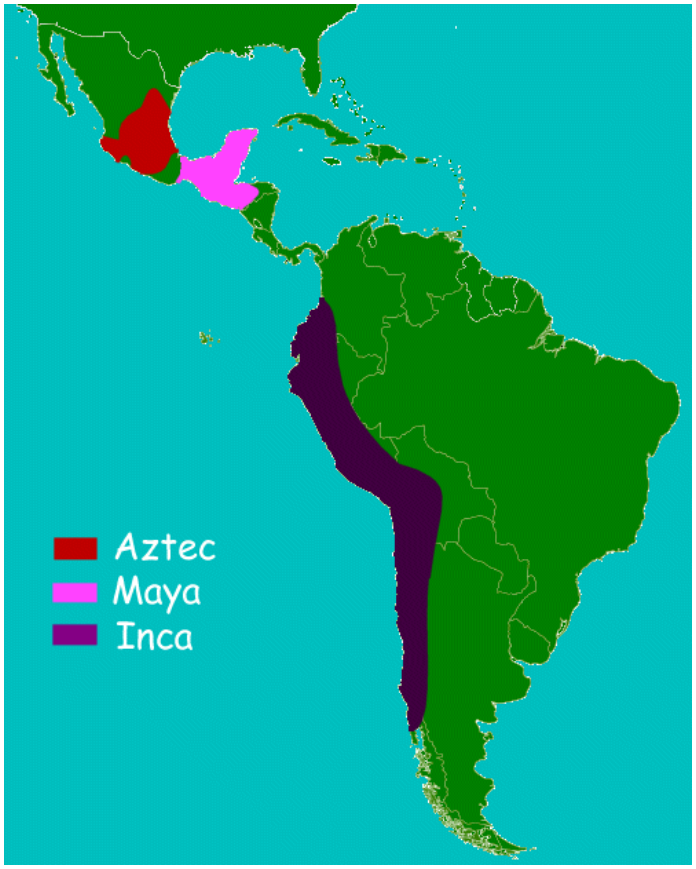
Now Persia was the land of the Aryans, In more modern times the people of this land changed the name of their country to Iran (Aryan) to reflect this fact.

IRAN ~ ARYAN

But at one point in their ancient past her people had to flee for their lives and so fled by sea and sailed southwest, down and around the Cape of Good Hope, and kept on sailing until they reached the land that we know today as Central America.



It is here they came in contact with the local Indians and formed three civilizations known as the Aztec, Maya and Inca.



Notice how similar MAYA is to MARY. And remember they traveled from the area close to INDIA that is DIANA, which is also MARY.

MAYA ~ MARY

The Inca though, were most likely named after Inka, who was a Fryan who sailed west in search of Lyda's Aldland. What they found instead was South America. And decided to stay and build a civilization there.

INCA ~ INKA

In their legends and stories there was the tale of the White god, Quetzalcoatl, that came in ships over the ocean and landed on their shores. Quetzalcoatl would be Inka.

The MERCURY of the MEXICANS worshipped at CHOLULA by the name of QUETZALCOUATL.
Le MERCURE des MEXICAINS adoré a CHOLULA sous le nom de QUETZALCOUATL.

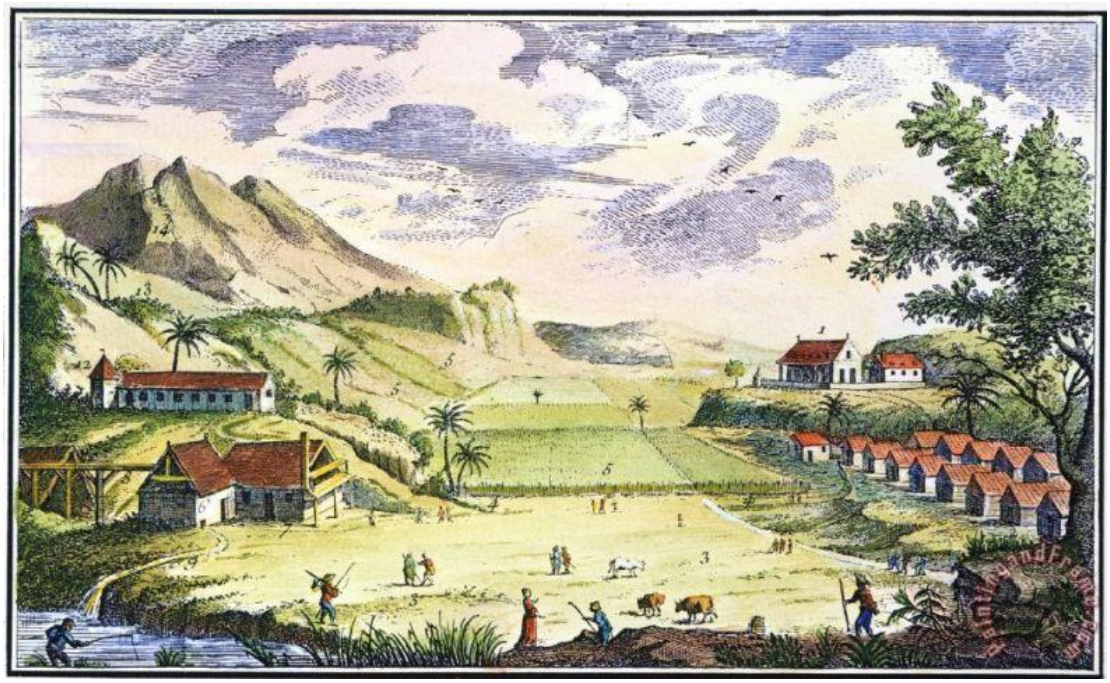
With him he brought knowledge to build temples, aqueducts, and irrigation systems, plumbing and tools to observe and chart the stars.

The Whites were peaceful and wise people that got killed off by the jealous natives.

This is an actual Inca pictograph from a cave in Peru. It clearly shows dark natives sacrificing a White man.

And the White man sacrificed, just like in Haiti.

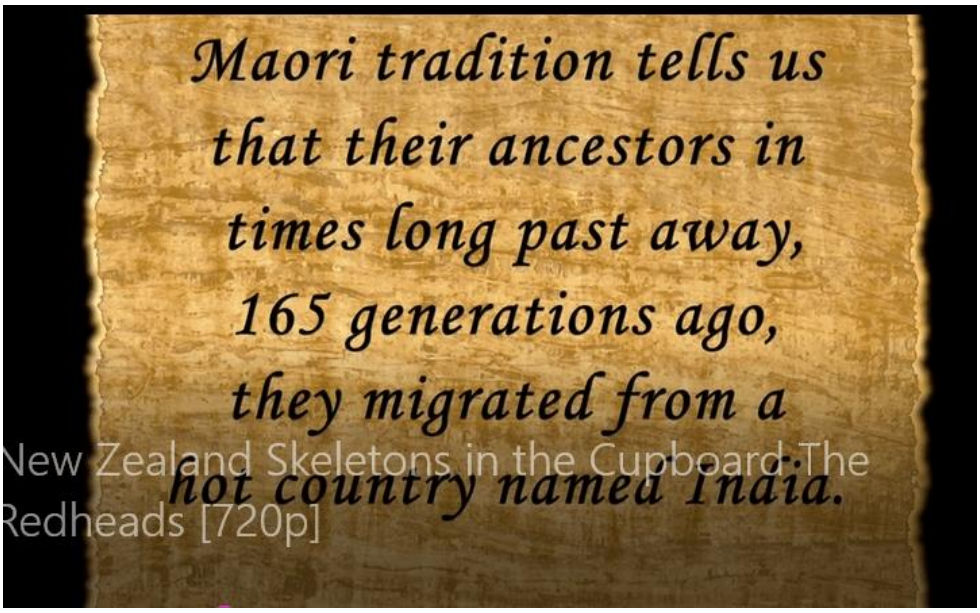
Haiti used to be a beautiful place, with green plantations, food in abundance, a nice leisurely life for its inhabitants.



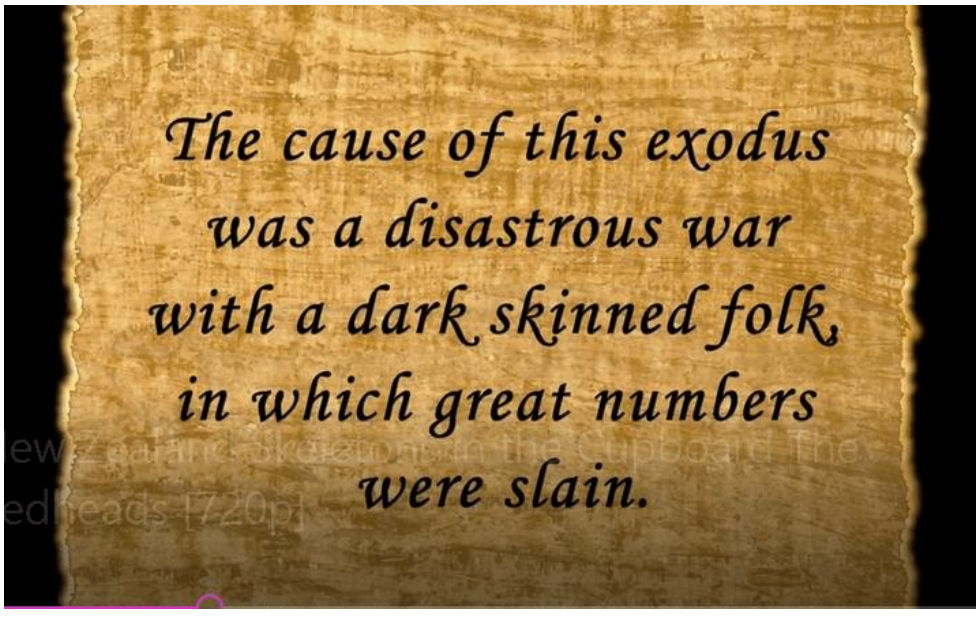
But once the White man was killed off, and they burned all the crops, and destroyed all the buildings, they turned Haiti into a hell on earth. They have never been able to recover. Go to Haiti now and it's worse than most third world countries.

And apparently just like what happened to the Aryans in Persia and in India. Not only does Monica relay the story, but it comes up in the Māori tradition as well.

Māori tradition tells us that their ancestors in times long passed away, 165 generations ago, migrated from a hot country named India.



And that the cause of this exodus was a disastrous war with a dark-skinned folk in which great numbers were slain. Are we seeing a pattern yet?



The builders BUILD the civilizations, but eventually the native people are not satisfied with living under them, they want to be them or kill them. This is what has happened all over the world. And once the Fryans are killed off, that area is in decline. They cannot keep up the civilization made by the White man, and it eventually falls into ruin.

This is what happened to the Aztec, Maya and Inca civilizations.

Whites that were fortunate enough to flee and escape the killings, sailed first to Easter Island, and some, from there, kept going all the way to New Zealand.

Nothing new under the Sun, right? We can see the same thing happening in the recent past. With the Dutch escaping religious persecution and fleeing to South Africa. They built up this civilization. Before the Boer, this vast land was all desert. With the Boers clearing the land and implementing farming equipment and techniques in just a few short years, he turned this once wasteland into a veritable cornucopia.

BOERS ~ FARMERS

But now the Boers are facing slaughter as well.

Australia is the same way. Before the White man, Aborigines, who lived on the land for hundreds if not thousands of years, did absolutely nothing to harness and improve the land. While the White man in less than a hundred years' time tamed the land and made it into a first world country.

And a ton of immigrants are flooding this country. So many so that the Whites will inevitably be either assimilated or annihilated.

So, Monica's family had to flee a second time from persecution, and so sailed to Rapanui, also known as Easter Island. Now Easter is the holiday associated with Ishtar and fertility. Ishtar is synonymous with the Mother or Mary.

So, we have India or Diana, the Maya or the Mary, and now Easter or Ishtar. All connected to MOTHER worship as opposed to the FATHER.

EASTER ~ ISHTAR ~ MARY

Notice the flag of Easter Island, or Mary Island, is in the shape of a Crescent Moon, and on each end look to be two "men in the moon" doing a shaka or devil's horn hand sign.

Here is a girl in the Solomon Islands wearing the reimiro, the same object depicted on the Easter Island flag. Notice it looks like a Crescent Moon.

Rapa Nui was the original name for the island. Rapa Nui or Rapa Nuit in French. Nuit means night. Night island, when the moon reigns.

RAPA NUI ~ RAPA NUIT ~ NIGHT ISLAND ~

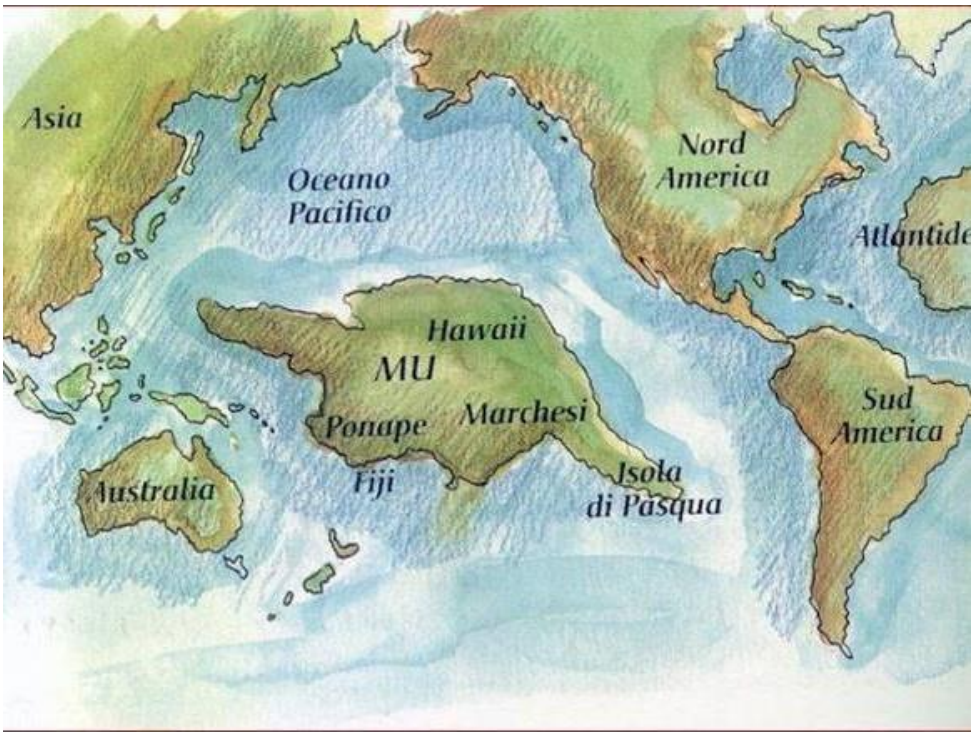
MOON ISLAND ~ MARY ISLAND

Marge Piercy tells us in her famous poem, The Moon is Always Female.

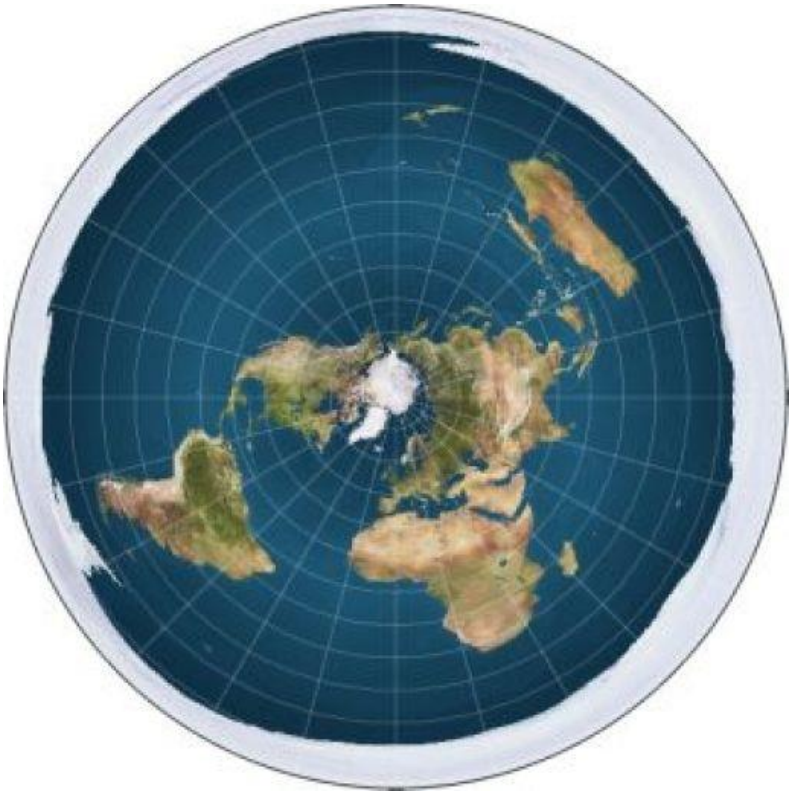
And the moon is always Mary.

Now if we travel Northwest from Easter Island we come to Hawaiki or Hawaii as it is commonly known today. Now many have speculated that Hawaii is the only portion of land that remains above water of a much larger landmass known as Lemuria, or Mu for short.

And Lemuria covered much of the Pacific Ocean bordered by the islands that make up the ring of fire. So, Easter Island would be on the EASTERn portion of this ancient continent.



The Bible talks about the four corners of the Earth and if we look on a Flat Earth map we see only three corners are above water. It does make sense that Lemuria could have existed out there. A possible location for Finda's Aldland.



Now let's look at this name Lemuria. We are told that it is named after the animal called the Lemur. (There are NO Lemurs in the Pacific Ocean area.)

But I believe Lemuria was named for Mary. Le Muria is La Maria or “the Mary”. THAT is the true origin of the name.

So, we have another Mary connection.

LEMURIA ~ LA MARIA ~ THE MARY

Now if we go back to Hawaii, we find some interesting connections.

If we look to the Wiki, it tells us that, The Hawaiian word Hawai‘i is very similar to Proto-Polynesian Sawaiki, with the reconstructed meaning “homeland”. Cognates of Hawai‘i are found in other Polynesian languages, including Maori (Hawaiki), Rarotongan (Avaiki) and Samoan (Savai’i)”. And according to linguists Pukui and Elbert, Elsewhere in Polynesia, Hawai‘i or a cognate is the name of the UNDERWORLD or of the ancestral home.

Now Hawaii is a beautiful place and often called the Paradise Isles, so this connection to the underworld is quite confusing. That is unless you see the connection with Mother worship. Everything would be the opposite, right? So, they worship the Mother and the Moon and it is associated with the Night, just like Rapa Nuit, and so would be associated with the Underworld as well.

You will remember from Part Five, the lands of the North and how they are associated with Eden and the Father. Well, if we look up the original name for Great Britain, which is Albion, we find an interesting bit of information.

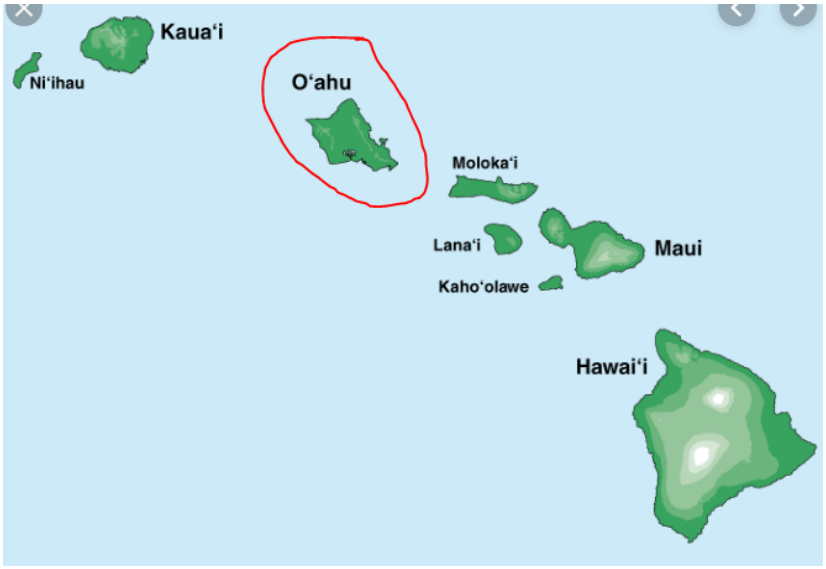
*Albion is the name of the UPPERWORLD. It may derive from the Proto-Indo-European root albho-, meaning "white" (cf. Latin albus). This is perhaps in reference to the white southern shores of the island, though Celtic linguist Xavier Delamarre argued that it originally meant "the world above, the visible world", in opposition to "the world below, i.e., the underworld.

So, in Lemuria they worshiped the Mother and their land was the underworld, and in Albion they worshiped the Father and their land was the upperworld.

LEMURIA ~ UNDERWORLD

ALBION ~ UPPERWORLD

And the most populated of the Hawaiian Islands is called Oahu; which shares and interesting connection to both Easter Island and New Zealand.



Oahu is an anagram for Ohau, which is a Lake in New Zealand. Notice too if you take the O off of the front you get AHU, which is the name of the giant statues on Easter Island!

OAHU ~ OHAU ~ AHU

Now Hawaii, New Zealand and Easter Island are connected by another word as well. The Hawaiian Island known as Maui is very similar to the name for the natives of New Zealand called the Maori, which is very similar to the name for the natives of Easter Island, which is the Moai.

And they are all phonetically similar too? You guessed it, MARY.

MAUI ~ MOAI ~ MAORI ~ MARY

We know Walt Disney was a 33rd Degree Freemason and he loved to hide truth in his movies. Recently Disney produced the animated movie called Moana. And we can see Maui sticking out his tongue.

Just like the Maori of New Zealand like to do.

The sticking out of the tongues would be against the Father.

Isaiah 57:4, Against whom do ye sport yourselves? Against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? Are you not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood?

We know who runs Hollywood and who their god is. So, they have their actors draw out their tongues as well.

Madonna...

Jason Mamoa ...

And James Charles, who is the face of male cosmetics…

So Monica's people, the Ngati Hotu, made it all the way to New Zealand. They were there even before the Maori. The Maori say so in their legends. But certain groups, controlled by the Magy are trying to wipe out this information. Monica had to go before a tribunal and testify that her people were still here! The tribunal claimed they were extinct!

Monica's people were almost wiped out by the Māori's. Just as her people were almost wiped out by the Incas. And just as her people were almost wiped out by the Indians.

New Zealand Skeletons in the Cupboard The Redheads [720p] so they headed back into the rugged parts of and they were the last survivors

Before we leave New Zealand what can you see in ITS name? Zealand. Z Land. Alpha to Zed, A to Z or Alpha to the Omega. Zea Land is Omega Land. Omega is symbolized by the Moon. So we have another connection to Mary here.

NEW ZEALAND ~ ZEE LAND ~ OMEGA LAND ~ MARY LAND

And remember Edinburgh in Part Five? The Masons have their MOTHER lodge there.

And guess what their oldest lodge is called? Mary's Chapel.

MOTHER ~ MARY

And we can see Mary's connection here with the Star of David. And with 18, which is 6 plus 6 plus 6 or 666. And the 93 at the bottom is for Crowley's Thelema- Do as Thou Will Is the Whole of the Law. And yes, I know 1893 is the year it was built, BUT they always have a hidden meaning as well. (Exoteric versus Esoteric meaning.)

So we see how the Magy have their corruptive element in Scotland, Alba, the land of the upperworld as well.

If we go back to the Pacific, we see we have traveled to Lemuria's Eastern edge at Easter Island, to its northernmost point in Hawaii, to its southernmost point in New Zealand, and now if we travel to its western edge we come upon the Philippines and find more connections.

We know that a few hundred years ago missionaries came to the Philippines and spread Catholicism among the people. Catholics are Mary worshipers. They believe they can get to the Father through Mary. They pray to Mary when it says right in the Bible that the only way to get to the Father is through Jesus Christ. BUT the Bible is a MAGY book, so they shouldn't be following it at all.

John 14:6~ Jesus answered, I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the FATHER except through me.

Now I don't believe that we can only get to Wralda through Jesus either though. Remember, this is a Magy trick. We can get to Wralda directly. We have EVA in our hearts and do NOT need a middle man, be it Jesus or a Magy priest to communicate with Him.

There is also a big Muslim population in the Philippines. They are called the Moro people. Look how similar Moro is to Maori, and to Moai, and to Maya. And we see that it is an anagram of Moor.

MOOR ~ MORO ~ MAORI ~ MAOI ~ MAYA ~ MARY

And from the Wiki we read, the word Moro itself was a pseudonym which had been used before the 16th century by Spanish colonizers in reference to a Muslim group of "Moors", which originating from "Mauru", a Latin word that referred to the inhabitants of the ancient ROMAN province of Mauritania in northwest Africa.

So, Mauritania is all the way over here on the map.

But its name is so close to Mauritius which is right next to that island of Madagascar.

And what do we see in the root word of both MAURI-tania and MAURI-tius? Why MARY of course!

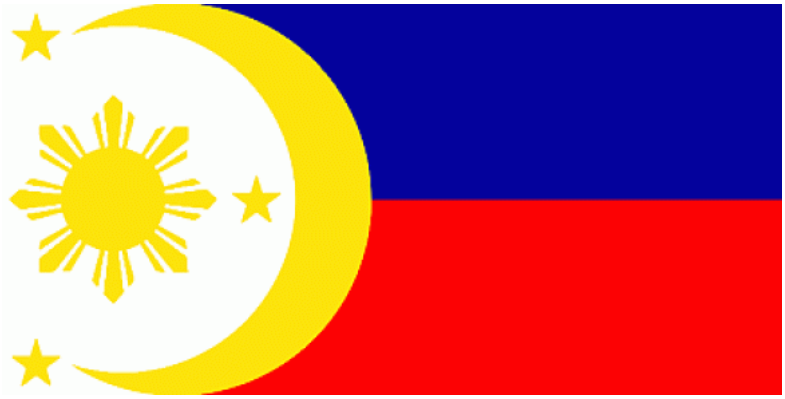
MAURItania ~ MAURItius ~ MARY

So we have a connection with the Moro's of the Philippines with the Mauru's of Africa and the Mauru's of the Indian Ocean.

And because of this big Muslim population in the southern provinces of Mindanao wanting to be represented in the Philippine flag, there have been numerous proposals to add a crescent moon into the flag, including one such proposal from former President Fidel V. Ramos. A crescent moon again would represent Mary.



So are we seeing the Mary connections? Are we also seeing the patterns of the Fryans and the Magy, Creators and Destroyers on our Earth plane?

Did you notice something else regarding Mary and the Moon? How about how close Moor is to Moon?

MORO ~ MAORI ~ MOAI ~ MAYA ~ MAURU ~ MARY ~ MOOR ~ MOON

So, the name Moro comes from the term Moors. And the Moors refer primarily to the Muslims of the Maghreb, which is Northwest Africa, the Iberian Peninsula, known today as Spain, Sicily, which is Southern Italy, and the island of Malta. The name was later also applied to Arabs.

ARAB means MIXED and also DARKENED

Now although Israel isn't considered a Muslim country, the Israelis DO worship the same god. One of their high up Rabbis even admitted it. Judaism and Islam BOTH worship the MOTHER.

Rabbi Mintz admits that the Muslims worship the SAME god as the Jews. They (the Muslims) use the word Allakat, which is, we use that word all the time. WE have the same gods as the Arabs, we believe, we have the same god. So, it's a paradox. The Christians believe in the…trinity…you know the…whatever that's supposed to mean, but part of it is their god, the J-C we call him. But…ah.. that is not our belief at all. We're not allowed to believe in anything like that. We're in better terms with the Christians than the Arabs, generally speaking. But we have in common, we have the same god. As a matter-of-fact, Mosha, Rabbi Feinstein, one of the greatest Rabbis of this generation, he said, 'Allah, that's the Arab's god, and it's the same god we have!' But a lot of them I feel are embarrassed by it.

So, all these countries are MOTHER worshipers basically. There are more but we can see here they all have the Crescent MOON (MOOR) and Venus (MARY) on their flags. Algeria, Azerbaijan, Malaysia, Pakistan, Turkey, and Tunisia to name a few.

MOON ~ MOOR

VENUS ~ MARY

And what does MAURU from Mauritania remind you of? What else is that phonetically similar to? How about MERU as in MOUNT MERU in the middle of our Earth Plane.

MAURU ~ MARY ~ MERU

They even show Mount Meru in the movie Moana.

One final thought on Mary before we move on… we see that Mary is WHITE. So if the FATHER is WRALDA, and the MOTHER is WHITE, who is the MOTHER? FRYA of course. So, all these haters in the world, who worship the MOTHER and then hate her people, does that make any sense? We are now only 8% of the WORLD population. We are being exterminated. And by the very same people who love OUR MOTHER.

PART 7 ~ NORTH POLE, EDEN AND THE ATLANTIS CONNECTION

You'll remember from my earlier parts that the North is encoded with evidence of EDEN throughout.

With such things as EDINburgh, swEDEN, EDENmark (Denmark) to name a few.

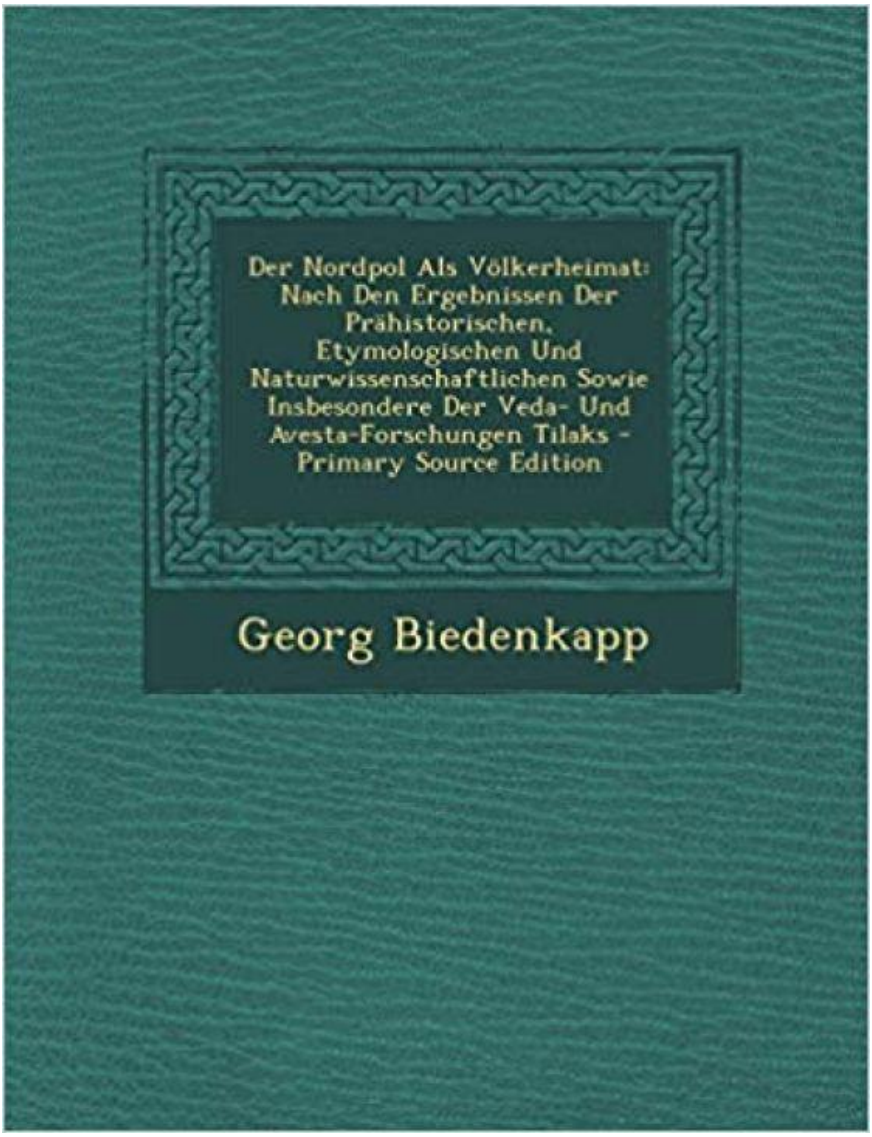
I also found a book in German called Der Nordpol Als Volkerheimat, which means The North Pole Is Our Homeland. And you KNOW I've always felt that the North Pole IS the location of EDEN. That we started FROM there and went outwards.

That is basically the premise of my whole Flat Earth series.



Der Nordpol Als Völkerheimat: Nach Den Ergebnissen Der Prähistorischen, Etymologischen Und Naturwissenschaftlichen Sowie Insbesondere Der Veda- Und Avesta-Forschungen Tilaks - Primary Source Edition
Georg Biedenkapp

And how the SOUTH is encoded with the opposite of EDEN, with such things as MAORI, MOAI, MAUI and LEMURIA all standing for MARY.

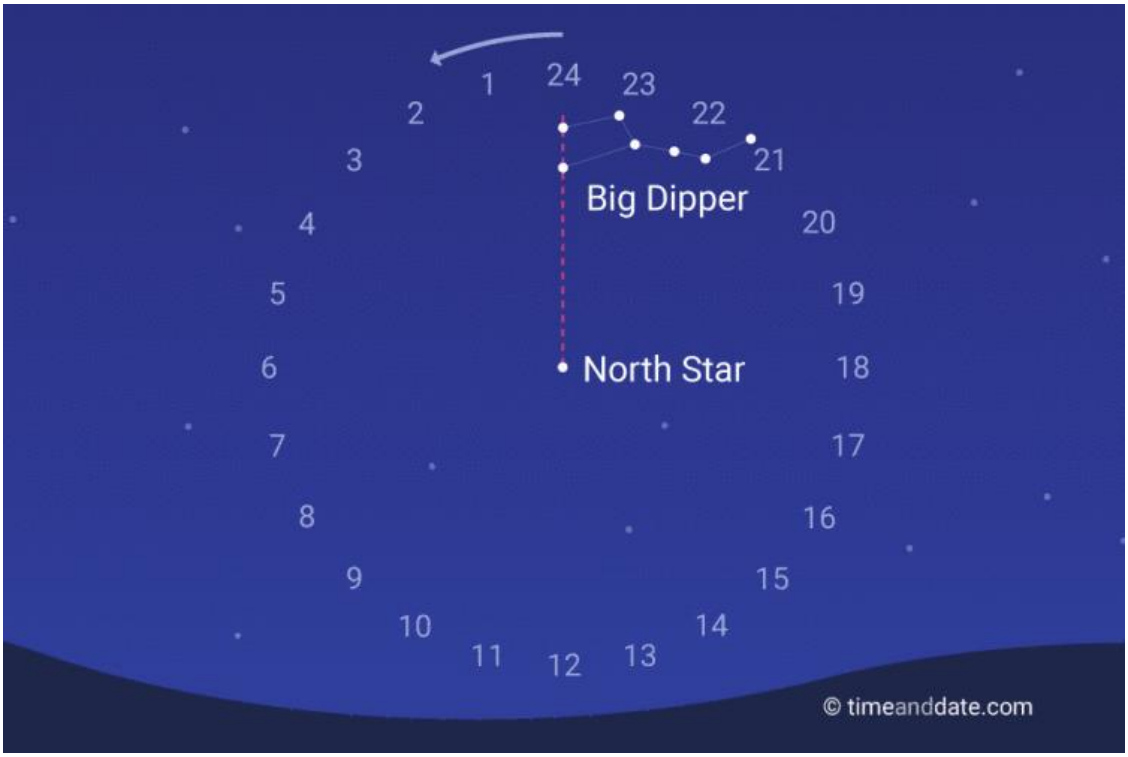
From Atlantis, Edda and the Bible, it also tells us that, > mother of Buddha: Maja / Maya. Maja is also our Germanic spelling for Maria / Mary.

The Mayan Civilization named after the GERMANIC name for MARY?

And you will also remember that the Arctic is in the CENTER of this plane with Wralda's seat directly above at the one IMMOVABLE star, the North Star.

Notice how it is the CENTER point, just like on our clock, with the hour and minute hands centered there and rotating around. God has made a perfect creation for us to live in. It is designed like a Swiss watch.



And our ancestors knew about the NORTH STAR and that is WHY we top our Christmas tree with a Star, the NORTH Star.

So no, I don't find anything wrong with the Christmas tree. The strings of lights that we wrap around the tree represent the stars and the main star is the North Star at the top. The tree represents Yggdrasil, the Tree of Life, Wralda in symbolic form. It is also the tree in the CENTER, known at the Magnetic Mountain. Did our ancestors KNOW we would one day forget the truth about our world and so use this lovely symbol to help us remember lest we forget?

Let's see what it says in Atlantis, Edda and the Bible about the Christmas tree.

Chapter 13.

The World-Tree Yggdrasil: the "Tree of Life" in the Asen Garden of Eden.

Over the Urd-spring stood the legendary tree Yggdrasil, which remained perpetually evergreen due to the warm vapors of these springs.

"An ash I know
There is called Yggdrasil,
The tall; cloaked in a light mist,
From there come the dews
That fall into the valleys
For ever green it stands over the Urd-well."

Edda, Fragments / Voluspa

"The ash Yggdrasil is the first of the trees."

Edda

In the Bible it is called the "Tree of Life" (Revelation 2:7, Revelation Chapter 22, Genesis 2:9). According to Karl Georg Zschaetzsch *1.), the word Yggdrasil means the "tree of life" or the "tree of the soul" from Ygg- / Egge- (harrow) / Eiche- (oak) and -sil / -seele (soul). The veneration of such a "tree of life" is remembered in the sublime Aryan tradition of the raising of the Christmas tree and decorating it with fruits of all kinds. The remembrance of the Yggdrasil

The word Yggdrasil means the "tree of life" or the "tree of the SOUL" from Ygg/Egge (harrow)/Eiche (oak) and -SIL/ Seele (soul). The veneration of such a "tree of life" is remembered in the sublime Aryan tradition of the raising of the Christmas tree and decorating it with fruits of all kinds. THE REMEMBERANCE OF THE YGGDRASIL.

And in Germany the tradition is to adorn the tree with Angels.

What are Angels? Angels are ANGLOS ~ White People ~ FRYANS.

Forever green it stands over the Urd-well. The Urd-well would be the indrawing sea, with Yggdrasil, the FIRST tree tied to this spot in the Arctic.

So, the Arctic is synonymous with Wralda and the NORSE people, the Fryans, while ANTarctica, or the ANTI-Arctic, would be as far away from Wralda and the Fryans as you can get.

ANTI-Arctic

Samuel Rowbotham's Zetetic Astronomy: Earth is Not a Globe told of how Antarctica was a treacherous place. That the farther south a ship would sail the rougher the seas, the stronger the wind.

We know the home of the WHITE race is around the CENTER, nearest to Wralda, the Arctic. And the FARTHER out we go the DARKER the races are.

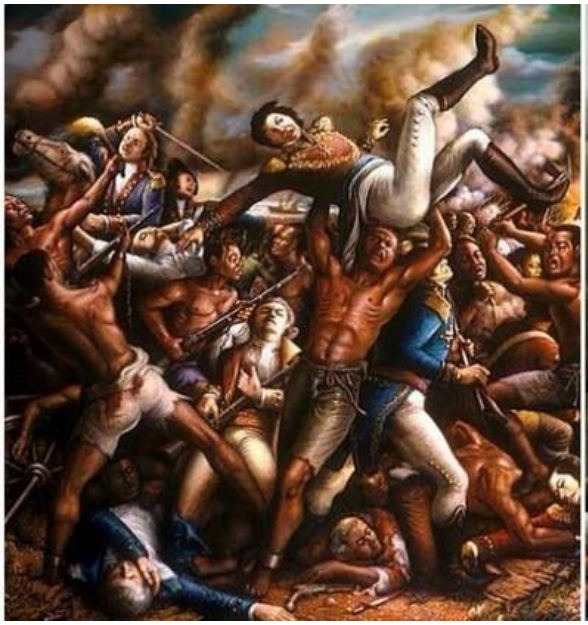
Yes, God even color codes His creation.

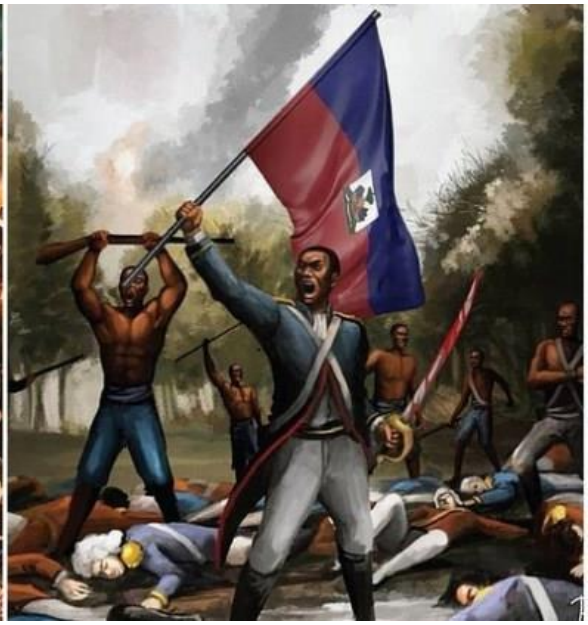
So, let’s go through some basic premises.

1) The White Race is the Builder Race

From Part 6 we saw that the White Race is the Builder race, and their civilizations of the past were either overrun or fell into ruin because of miscegenation WITH the Darker Races.

We know this to be true in Haiti for a more current example.





But in the past, this is also what happened to the ancient Mayan, Aztec and Inca civilizations. If you remember from Part 6, Gabi Plumm talked about the Ngati Hotu people, who were White, fleeing from these civilizations. With the Whites gone, they eventually went into ruin.

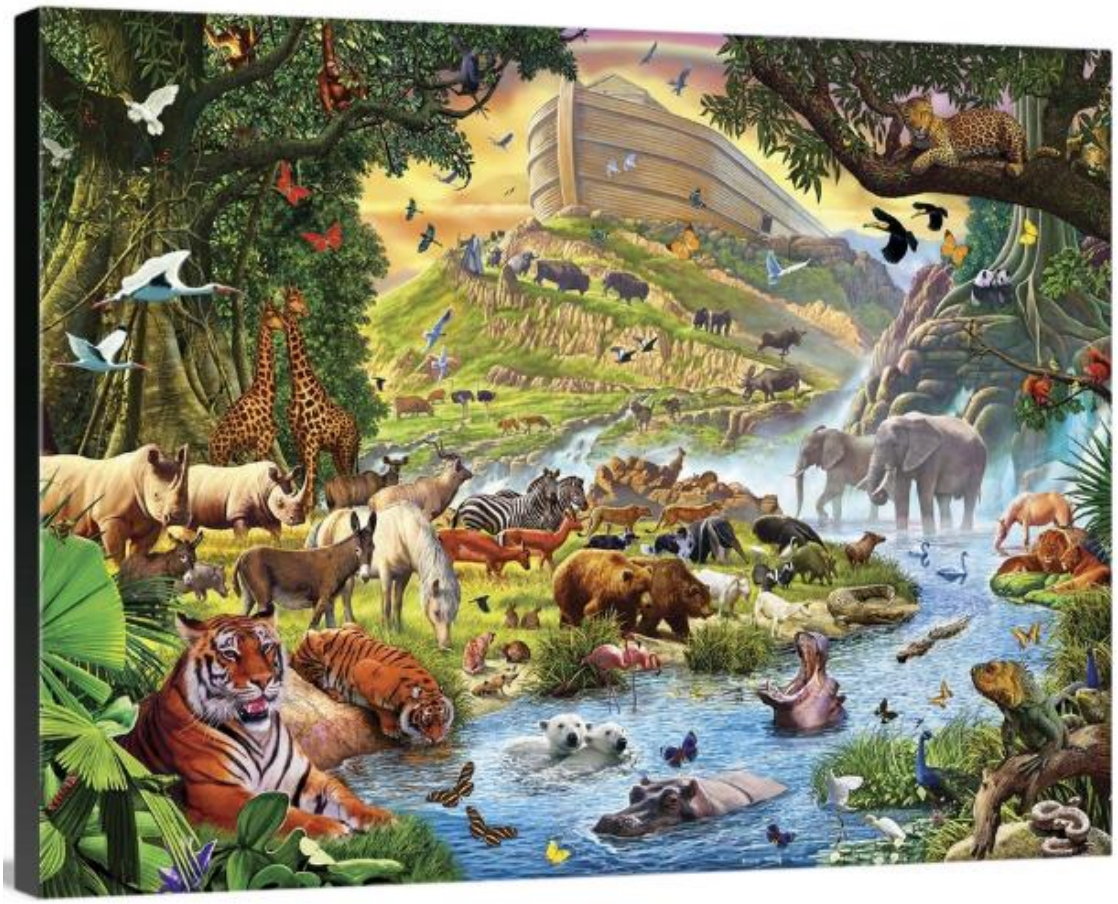
(And with the Aztec empire in particular, we have an interesting connection that we will share here shortly.)

The WHITE race are the ones who have built ALL the ancient civilizations in the world.

And

2) There was a “World Flood” Story in almost all Ancient Myths, not just in the Bible.

Let’s look at a few of the myths so we can put the Bible’s Flood story in a proper perspective.



AMERICAN SOUTHWEST

The Hopi Indians say that Tawa destroyed the Third World in a great flood. Before the destruction, Spider Grandmother sealed the more righteous people into hollow reeds which were used as boats. On arrival on a small piece of dry land, the people saw nothing around them but more water, even after planting a large bamboo shoot, climbing to the top, and looking about. Spider Woman then told the people to make boats out of more reeds, and using island "stepping-stones" along the way, the people sailed east until they arrived on the mountainous coasts of the FOURTH World.

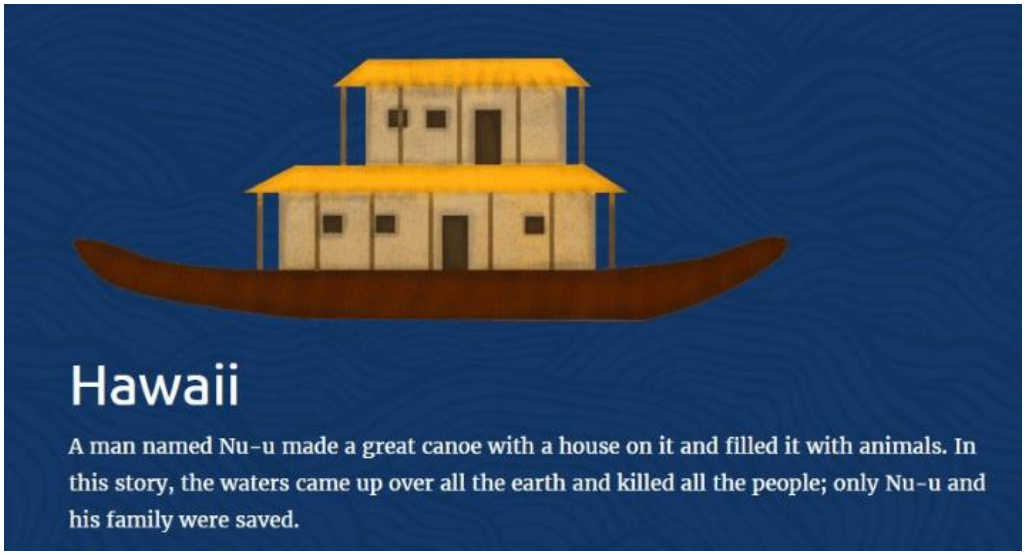
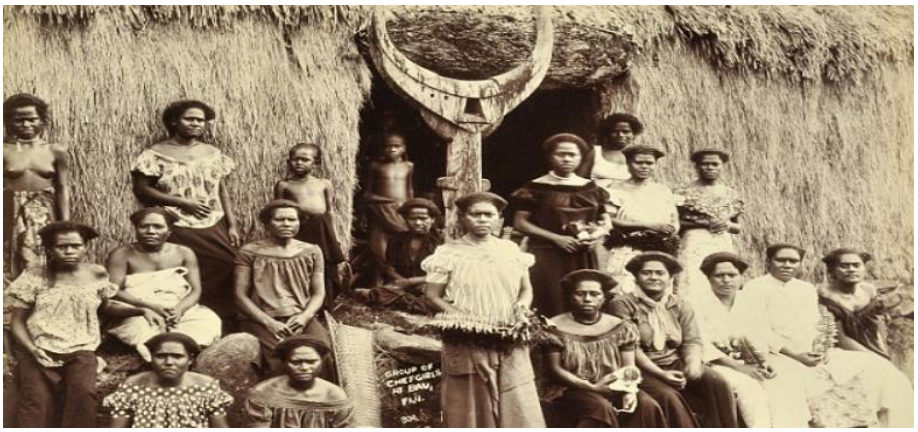
This FOURTH world is interesting too and we'll bring it up later.

HAWAII

In Hawaiian Mythology, Nu'u was a man who built an ark with which he escaped a Great Flood. He landed his vessel on top of Mauna Kea on the Big Island. Nu'u mistakenly attributed his safety to the Moon and made sacrifices to it. Kane, (Cain) the creator god, descended to Earth on a rainbow and explained Nu'u's mistake.



Hawaii
A man named Nu-u made a great canoe with a house on it and filled it with animals. In this story, the waters came up over all the earth and killed all the people; only Nu-u and his family were saved.



Hawaiian Islanders ~ Notice what is in the center background? The crescent moon ~ Mary crest.

CANADA

HAIDA GWAII ~ HAWAII

The Haida Gwaii people of Canada actually have a story passed down through their generations that talk about their people being in Lemuria (Hawaii) when a flood came, and they had to flee. (Notice how similar Haida Gwaii is to Hawaii.)

ALASKA

The Orowignarak Eskimo people say that A great inundation, together with an earthquake, swept the land so rapidly that only a few people escaped in their skin canoes to the tops of the highest mountains.

SOUTH AMERICA

In Mesoamerican myth a variety of reasons are given for the occurrence of the flood: either the world was simply very old and needed to be renewed; the humans had neglected their duty to adore the gods; or they were punished for a transgression (cannibalism, for example). The flood myth was but one of several destructions of the creation — usually the first of three or FOUR CATACLYSMIC EVENTS, although there is some evidence that the Aztecs considered the flood to be the fourth.

(Remember the Hopi said this is the FOURTH world too.)

FINLAND

In the Kalevala rune entitled “Haava” (The Wound, section 8), Vainamoinen attempts a heroic feat that results in a gushing wound, the blood from which covers the entire Earth. This deluge is not emphasized in the Kalevala version redacted by Elias Lonnrot, but the global quality of the flood is evident in original variants of the rune. In one variant collected in Northern Ostrobothnia in 1803-1804, the rune tells:

The blood came forth like a flood the gore ran like a river:
there was no hummock and no high mountain that was not flooded all from Väinämöinen’s toe from the holy hero’s knee.

WALES

Dwyfan and Dwyfach, in Welsh mythology, were the equivalents of Noah and Deucalion who take their names from small rivers, as told in a flood legend from the Welsh Triads. A great flood was caused by the monster Afane, who dwelt in Llyn Llion (possibly Bala Lake.) All humans were drowned except Dwyfan and Dwyfach, who escaped in a mastless boat. They built an imposing ship (or ark) called Nefyd Naf Neifion, on which they carried two of every living kind. From Dwyfan and Dwyfach all of the island of Prydain (Britain) was repeopled.

Remember too that King Arthur was from Wales and his son was named NOWI, which is the Welsh version of NOAH. We have Arthur in the sky at the North Star, and we have NOWI in the sky with his ZOO DE ARC ~ ZODIAC.

NOWI ~ NOAH

GREECE

And even Plato wrote extensively on the Great Flood in the form of the sinking of Atlantis.

In Plato's Critias he states Many great deluges have taken place during the nine thousand years, for that is the number of years which have elapsed since the time of which I am speaking; and during all this time and through so many changes, there has never been any considerable accumulation of the soil coming down from the mountains, as in other places, but the earth has fallen away all round and sunk out of sight.

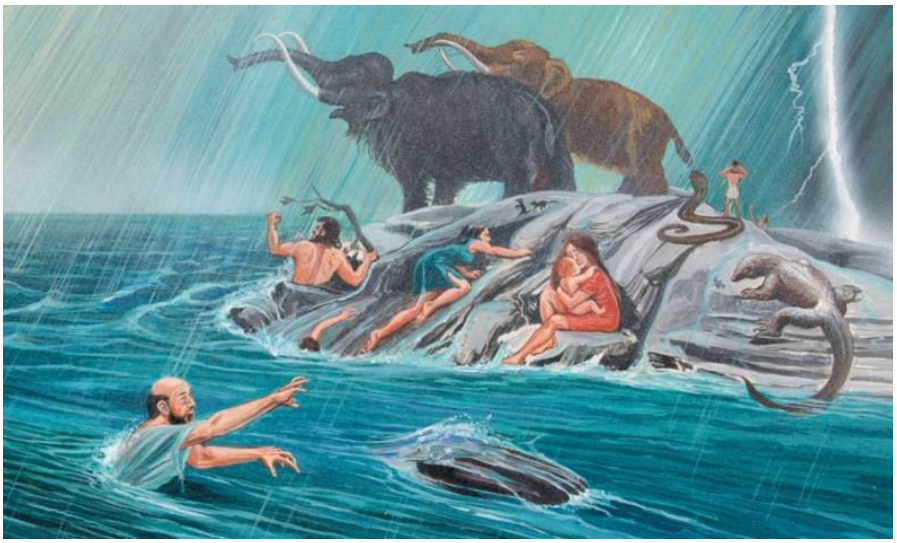
Remember that.

The consequence is, that in comparison of what then was, there are remaining only the bones of the wasted body, as they may be called, as in the case of small islands, all the richer and softer parts of the soil having fallen away, and the mere skeleton of the land being left.

So, with all these Flood Myths all over this earthly plane, in fact there are at least 70 of these stories regarding a WORLD-WIDE FLOOD, there has to be some truth behind them.

The traditional Bible story tells that in the story of Noah's Flood the whole EARTH was covered. That means EVERY bit of land. But from the stories we just heard we know there were survivors that weren't on an ark, and we know that there were high places, like mountains, that were NOT covered.



Now let's look at an opposing argument put forth by Bertrand Comparet that Noah's Flood was actually a LOCAL FLOOD.

Comparet writes, Part of this mistaken idea about the flood is due to the many mistranslations found in the commonly used King James Bible. Part of it appears plainly to be false. Let's have a look at it.

And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth. In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up and the windows of heaven were opened. And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights. And the waters prevailed and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the waters. And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills that were under the whole heavens were covered.

Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered. And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl and of cattle, and of beast and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; and every man. And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days. And Yahweh remembered Noah and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark; and Yahweh made a wind to pass over the earth and the water assuaged. And the waters returned from off the earth continually and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated. And the ark rested, in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat. And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

When we come to Genesis chapter 7 where it is talking about the flood, wherever it says the flood covered the earth, the Hebrew word used in the original writing by Moses was eh-rets, meaning the land. The flood did cover the particular land where it occurred.

It was a local flood which covered one particular region or land, not the whole earth.

Notice that it specifies, "Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered". In ancient times two different lengths of the cubit were in use. The sacred cubit of 25 inches and the common cubit of 20-5/8th which translates to 25 feet 9 inches or 31 feet 3 inches according to which cubit you use. If this meant that all the mountains on earth were covered, the waters would have to cover Mount Everest, which is nearly six miles high. Therefore, all the earth would be covered by water six miles deep. In that case, where could it have run off to when the flood subsided? No, I don't mean that the Bible was that badly mistaken, only the translators made this mistake. The translators took the Hebrew word eh-rets, which means "that land" and mistranslated it to mean the whole world.

If the whole earth was covered by six miles of water, then all nations must have been completely exterminated. However Babylonian, Egyptian and Chinese history runs right through this period without a break. The Bible gives the date of the flood as commencing in 2345 B.C. and ending in 2344 B.C. In lower Sumer, later called Chaldea, which occupied the same Plains of Shinar to which Noah's family journeyed after the flood, the city of Ur of the Chaldees was the leading city from about 2400 B.C. until about 2285 B.C. Its history is not broken by any flood in this period.

Accurate history of China begins nearly 3000 B.C. The Shu King historic record of China, shows that King Yao came to the throne in 2356 B.C., 11 years before the start of Noah's flood, and ruled China for many years after the flood. During the reign of Yao, the Shu King reports that the Hwang Ho river, which drains the mountains and a great basin in Sinkiang province, had excessive floods for three generations. Here again, there was no break in history. The Chinese nation was not wiped out. Its own records show it continued in existence right through the period of Noah's flood.

Therefore, the Bible is correct in stating the flood covered only eh-rets, that land. The translators are wrong when they change the meaning of what Moses really wrote in Genesis chapter 7, and say the flood covered all the earth.

3) There is Evidence of Ancient Civilizations All Over this Earth that have been Destroyed by Catastrophic Events

So along with all these Epic Flood Stories we have evidence of ancient civilizations all over the world that have been destroyed in cataclysmic events. Such structures as the Pyramids, where we see evidence of water damage on the base of them, and Star Forts that are now used for little villages, but at one time had a different purpose.

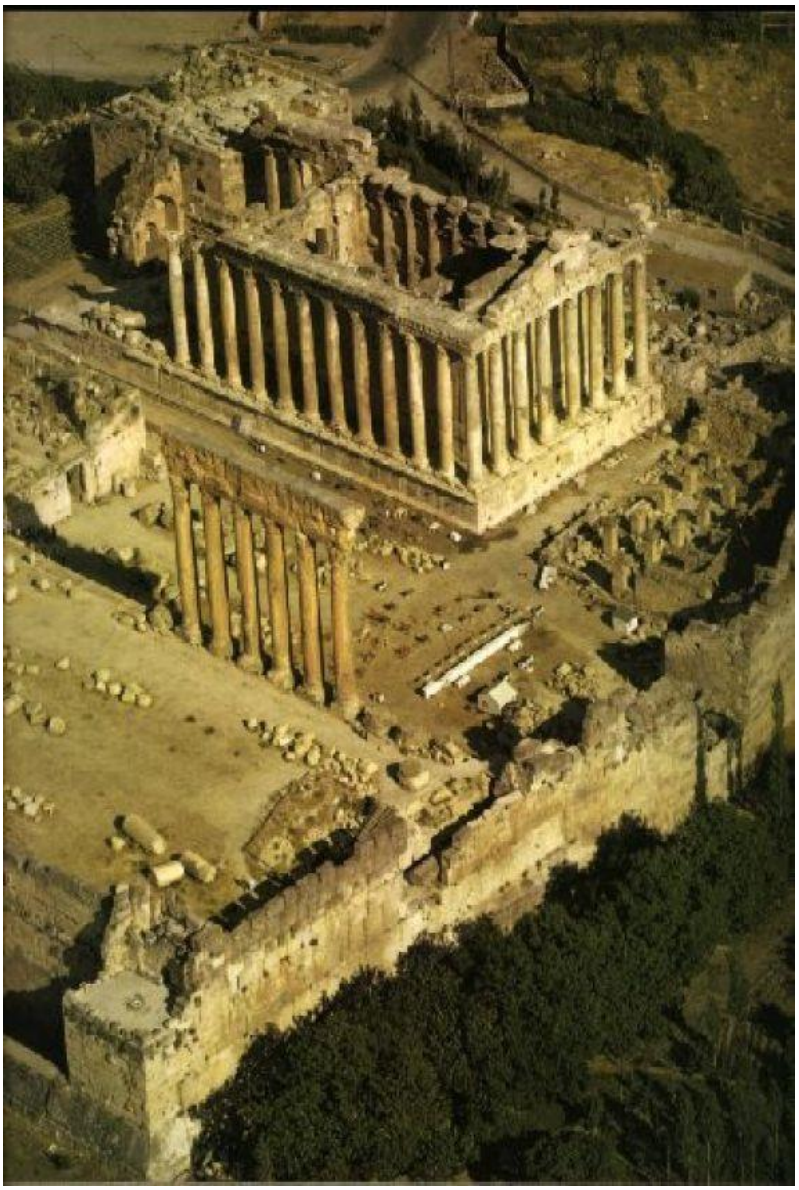
Bourtange, Netherlands

And whole cities were found in the shallows of the Mediterranean. Such as the Turkish island of Kekova, which was submerged by an earthquake in the second century AD. Historical records are somewhat sketchy, but it appears that the island was a prominent place during the Byzantine era.

And Atilt Yam, which lies a half a mile off of the coast of Israel. It is so completely preserved that human skeletons lie undisturbed in their graves, and its stone circle, similar to Stone Hedge, remains standing.

And evidence of cities destroyed on land in places like Baalbek in Lebanon.



and Tiwanaku and Pumapunku in Bolivia.

Remember the Hopi and their FOUR Worlds? And the South American belief we are in the FOURTH world as well? That all these civilizations were destroyed during one of these previous cataclysmic stages.

Are we getting close to another cataclysmic event?

Mayan Popul Vuh- Fourth World

And EDEN, at the North Pole, could have succumbed to a cataclysmic event as well. Remember George Beidenkapp stated in his book that the North Pole was our original homeland. One cataclysmic event could have had us flee to the Doggerlands and the rest of Northwest Europe, and the second cataclysmic event sunk the Doggerlands, our Aldland.

And if we compare Gerardus Mercator's map...

To Urbano Monte's map, we see that again there are FOUR islands, with FOUR in-drawing seas, which could be the FOUR rivers of Eden.

We notice that of the FOUR islands, THREE of the islands are circumvented with high mountains and only the island facing Europe is without this mountainous rim. So, it would be logical that this island could be the Garden of Eden. And with the calamity the Fryans headed out from there down into Europe.

They first went to what is known today as the Doggerlands. But to the Fryans, this was called ALDLAND. ALD is from ATTA, which means FATHER. So ALDLAND means the FATHER LAND. Notice it is NOT the MOTHER LAND, because the Fryans knew there was only ONE CREATOR of all and that was the ALVATER, ALL FATHER, WRALDA.

The Romans latinized the name to ATLANTIS.

ALDLAND ~ ATLANTIS ~ THE FATHER LAND

North Pole in the center of Urbano Monte's Map

Notice too, although the DOGGERLANDS is a recent name, it hides the truth within it.

DOGGERLANDS ~ GODDERLANDS ~ GOD'S LAND ~ THE FATHER LAND

And more on the name from Atlantis, Edda and the Bible where it states that

> According to old Nordic tradition, the Aias (or Aryans) dedicated this newly discovered land to the All-Father and therefore named it "Attalantis", and became shortened to "Atlantis", to be read literally as "Land of the Father"; "Atta" means "Father-Ancestor" and "Lantis" means "Land". In the Gothic Bible, translated by Bishop Ulfilas, "Atta" is translated as "Father" and in the previous Lutheran Bible as "Abba" (or "Dear Father"). In different dialects we can still find this word in the words "Ättig" and "Dada" or "Daddy", as well as in the names of German places: the Attel River, Attelsdorf, Attenfeld, Attenhausen, Attenhofen and Attenkirchen. The name Atlantis is found in the names of the Atlas mountains and in the legendary Mexican city of Aztlan or Aztatlan. The Aztecs of Mexico claimed to have come to Aztlan from a single country, a country located far to the east of Mexico in the sea, that is, from Atlantis.

ATTA ~ The FATHER

But I would say that the Aztecs didn't come from Atlantis, but their White God did, Quetzalcoatl and his people. And the story was passed down to them.

So, when we look at modern maps we see where the North Pole (Eden) COULD have sunk as well.

So, let's see if we have other evidence of sinking.

On some old maps it shows the ISLAND of California just off the west coast and how IT is now gone. What we know of as California, was actually called New Albion. There was a huge island just offshore that is now under the waves.

On the map it says here, This California was in times past thought to have been a part of the continent and so made in all maps but by further discoveries it was found to be an island long 1700 leagues.

We have more evidence of a Great Flood in the Oera Linda Book.

In it, it talks about a time when the land violently rose and came smashing down on the land and in the lakes. Killing many people and destroying many villages.

We read,

HOW THE BAD TIME CAME.

During the whole summer the sun had been hid behind the clouds, as if unwilling to look upon the earth. There was perpetual calm, and the damp mist hung like a wet sail over the houses and the marshes. The air was heavy and oppressive, and in men's hearts was neither joy nor cheerfulness. In the midst of this stillness the earth began to tremble as if she was dying. The mountains opened to vomit forth fire and flames. Some sank into the bosom of the earth, and in other places mountains rose out of the plain. Aldland ᛏ, called by the seafaring people, Atland, disappeared, and the wild waves rose so high over hill and dale that everything was buried in the sea. Many people were swallowed up by the earth, and others who had escaped the fire perished in the water.

It was not only in Finda's land that the earth vomited fire, but also in Twiskland (Germany). Whole forests were burned one after the other, and when the wind blew from that quarter our land was covered with ashes. Rivers changed their course, and at their mouths new islands were formed of sand and drift.

During three years this continued, but at length it ceased, and forests became visible. Many countries were submerged, and in other places land rose above the sea, and the wood was destroyed through the half of Twiskland (Germany). Troops of Finda's people came and settled in the empty places. Our dispersed people were exterminated or made slaves. Then watchfulness was doubly impressed upon us, and time taught us that union is force.

And later in the book, more mention of that time.

THIS WRITING HAS BEEN GIVEN TO ME ABOUT NORTHLAND AND SCHOONLAND (SCANDINAVIA).

When our land was submerged I was in Schoonland. It was very bad there. There were great lakes which rose from the earth like bubbles, then burst asunder, and from the rents flowed a stuff like red-hot iron. The tops of high mountains fell and destroyed whole forests and villages. I myself saw one mountain torn from another and fall straight down. When I afterwards went to see the place there was a lake there. When the earth was composed there came a duke of Lindasburgt with his people, and one maiden who cried everywhere, Magy is the cause of all the misery that we have suffered. They continued their progress, and their hosts increased. The Malty fled, and his corpse was found where he had killed himself. Then the Finns were driven to one place where they might live. There were some of mixed blood who were allowed to stay, but most of them went with the Finns. The duke was chosen as king. The temples which had remained whole were destroyed. Since that time the good Northmen come often to Texland for the advice of the mother; still we cannot consider them real Frisians. In Denmark it has certainly happened as with us. The sea-people, who call themselves famous sea-warriors, went on board their ships, and afterwards went back again.

Heil!

And in the OLB it mentions when the Gertmanna were being chased by the Tyrians and the LAND ROSE UP, where the SUEZ Canal is today!

When he saw that with his people he could not storm our wall, he sent messengers to Tyre. Thereupon there arrived three hundred ships full of wild mountain soldiers, which sailed unexpectedly into our haven while we were defending the walls. When they had taken our harbour, the wild soldiers wanted to plunder the village and our ships—one had already ravished a girl—but Cecrops would not permit it; and the Tyrian sailors, who still had Frisian blood in their veins, said, If you do that we will burn our ships, and you shall never see your mountains again. Cecrops, who had no inclination towards murder or devastation, sent messengers to Geert, requiring her to give up the citadel, offering her free exit with all her live and dead property, and her followers the same. The wisest of the citizens, seeing that they could not hold the citadel, advised Geert to accept at once, before Cecrops became furious and changed his mind. Three months afterwards Geert departed with the best of Frya's sons, and seven times twelve ships. Soon after they had left the harbour they fell in with at least thirty ships coming from Tyre with women and children. They were on their way to Athens, but when they heard how things stood there they went with Geert. The sea-king of the Tyrians brought them altogether through the strait which at that time ran into the Red Sea (now re-established as the Suez Canal). At last they landed at the Punjab, called in our language the Five Rivers, because five rivers flow together to the sea. Here they settled, and called it Geertmania. The King of Tyre afterwards, seeing that all his best sailors were gone, sent all his ships with his wild soldiers to catch them, dead or alive. When they arrived at the strait, both the sea and the earth trembled. The land was upheaved so that all the water ran out of the strait, and the muddy shores were raised up like a rampart. This happened on account of the virtues of the Geertmen, as every one can plainly understand.

And in Atlantis, Edda and the Bible it states,

The Nordic immigrants often bore the name of the Aia, the Aria, or the Arias (Aryans) in opposition to those of the lower races of man and in opposition to those of the beast-men. According to them, their land was therefore called Aialand. As they migrated across Siberia and into the south, the Aias are remembered there in the present geographical names of the region, in particular in the names of Asia (Asenland), the Syr Darya river, and the Himalaya ("Sky of the Aryans"). The word "Aia" is also found in the Edda, wherein the first human couple, Ai and Edda are spoken of. Homer also mentions the name Aialand. He allows Odysseus in his wanderings to reach Eia or Aia, located far to the west of the island of Circe. The island of Eia or Aiyaia and its entrance to the underworld, Hel, should lie in the West, where the sun sets, and where the sun goes down and into the Earth; it also should be located at that point at which the underworld is at its closest to the surface of the Earth, that is, where most of the volcanoes lie. Speaking of such a land, Homer could only have been referring to the island of Atlantis.

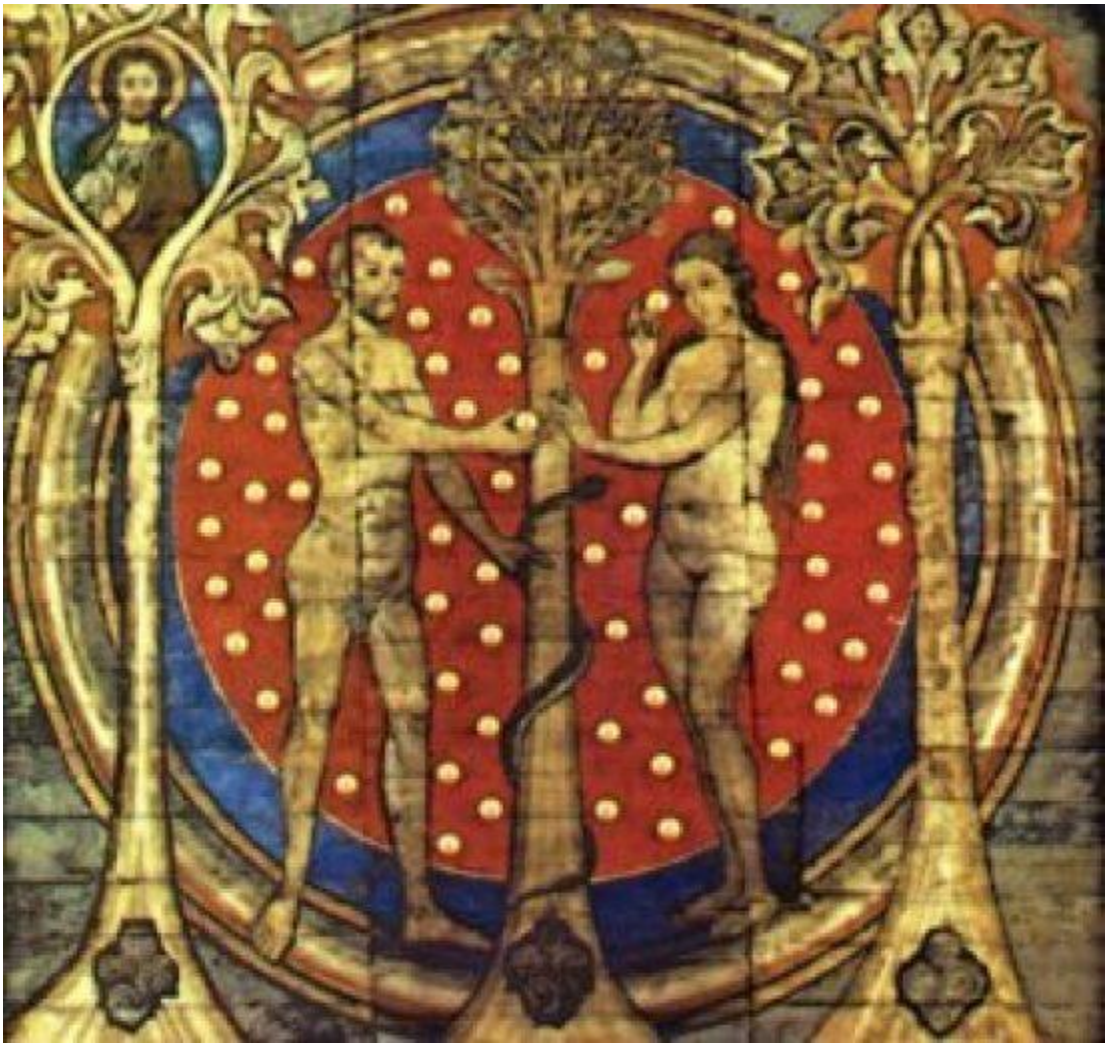
And further states the deception of the Magy.

> gardens of the Hesperides are nothing more than the descriptions of the sublime fruit gardens of the Atlantean Idafelde, otherwise known as Eden. According to the descriptions in the Indian Vedas, the Garden of Eden is located on an island, which again is most likely Atlantis. The Jewish authors of the falsified Bible, in their forgery, moved Eden on the map far off to Mesopotamia; it is entirely more plausible that the Jews came in a straight line from the paradise of the Asenland and the Aias. This misdirection on their part is instantly recognizable: in the Mesopotamian lowlands there are no four streams to be found, nor a current that would flow around a whole paradisical land of an Eden, nor even are the gold and gems that are spoken of to be found there (Genesis, chapter 2).

And the Garden of Atlantis is also described here.

> The biblical story of the expulsion from Paradise is likely a description of the historical events of Atlantis that followed this terrible world-conflagration. In Genesis 3:22, the deity of the Bible uses the words "one of us". God does not say that Adam should become like "me", but instead as "one of us". Thus he is referring to himself as a plurality of beings, of beings equal to God.

Now let's go back and have a closer look at the picture of Ai and Edda in the Garden of Eden. We see Christ looking on from the RIGHT. Notice the red with white spots in the background. With Adam and Eve holding the "fruits" of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. Notice the tree is in the CENTER with a ring around it. Adam and Eve are IN this CENTER ring, in this Earth plane.



Ai und Edda

Again, the RING is made of a red background with white spots, just like on the Urbano Monte map in the CENTER.

And we know that the North Pole is where Santa is supposed to be. Remember the 2012 Christmas movie called Arthur Christmas? Notice what (King) Arthur wrapped the Polar Bear in. Just like the red circle with white spots…

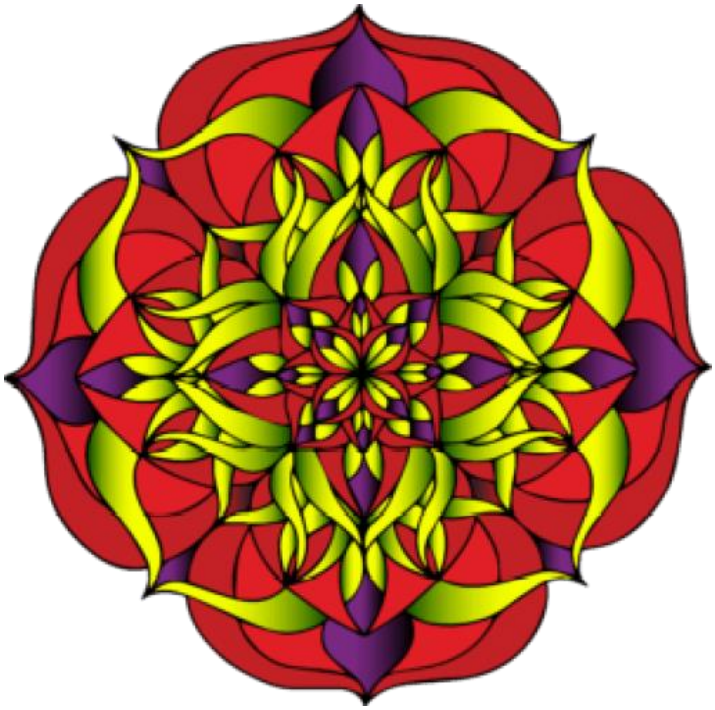
Remember that the constellation Arthur is directly above the North Pole and has the star POLARIS (Polar Bear) in it. This Arthur Christmas and the Polar Bear wrapped in red with white spots is cleverly disguising this fact.

Notice how Arthur is built here, he has brown shoes like soil, his legs are like a tree trunk, and his sweater is green with lights all over it. His head has a big read nose like a tree topper. He is the Christmas tree in disguise.

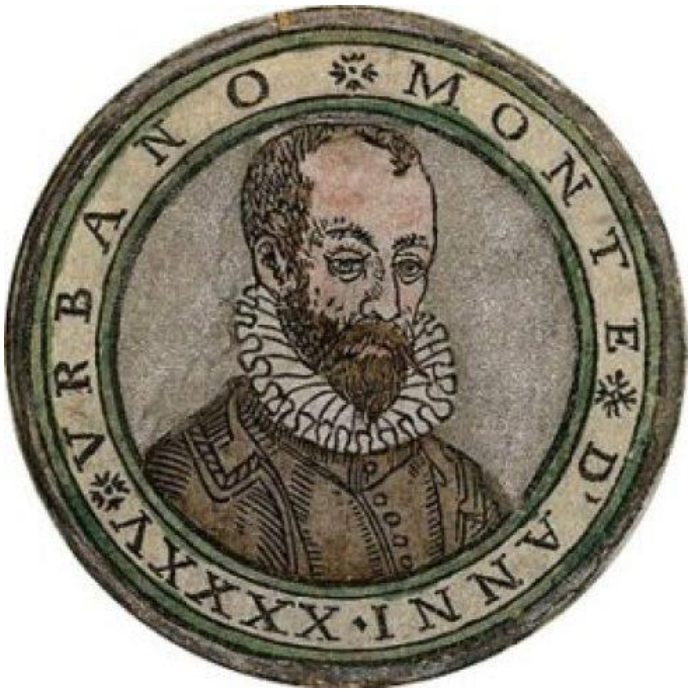
The red circle with the white spots… listen to what Terrence McKenna says about this, C*onsider for a moment Santa Claus. Santa Claus is the master of the elves. The elves make toys for the children in their vast underground toy shops. And where are these toy shops? At the North Pole. And at the North Pole is the Axis Mundi, Yggdrasil, the World Ash, the center of the Mandala. What are the colors of Santa Claus? Red and white. The colors of the Amanita Muscaria. What animal is titular to Santa? The reindeer. The reindeer are central to the Amanita Muscaria Cult because reindeer eat the mushroom and then excrete the urine. This is thought a cleaner, easier way to take the mushroom. Amanita flavored snow. Santa Claus rides in the center of our culture.*

The Axis Mundi, Yggdrasil, the World Ash, the CENTER of the Mandala, he says.

The center of the Mandala... which looks an awful lot like our four islands with indrawing seas at the North Pole.



Urbano Monte created his map in 1587 AD, out of Milan, Italy. He lived from August 16, 1544 to May 15, 1613.



Urbano's last name MONTE, is Italian for "mountain", with his first name Urbano, meaning "elegant". So Urbano Monte means "Elegant Mountain". And being a mapmaker, the most significant and elegant mountain would be the mountain in the middle, where Monte's focal point of HIS map is located, at Mount Meru, at the North Pole.

So, I would say that Urbano Monte is a code name for the mountain in the middle of our plane.

And Monte lived around the same time as his German-Flemish counterpart Gerardus Mercator. Mercator lived from March 5, 1512 to December 2, 1594.

What is Mercator hiding in plain sight here? Do you see it? He's hiding MOUNT MERU on his hat! The mountain is ON his head. Hidden in plain sight.

And?

What about his sleeves? They look like two mountains as well. They are disguising the ring of mountains at the North Pole.

So it seems that at least as early as the 1500's the North Pole and its significance have been hidden from us.

A couple of other interesting finds in the Atlantis, Edda and the Bible. We read > celebrations beneath a black stone in her temple that was worshiped as divine. From this stone that they claimed had fallen from the sky was found the image of Cybele. The worship of such sacred meteorites is a custom that has its roots in deepest antiquity. This probably also includes the sacred black stone of Kaaba in Mecca, revered by all Muslims; it was allegedly brought to Earth from heaven by an "angel", and hence is likely one of these fallen meteorites from that worldwide conflagration. We find this comet that had seared the Earth again mentioned in Daniel 2:35 as the stone that "filled the whole earth"; i.e. the comet that demolished the entire civilization of Atlantis.

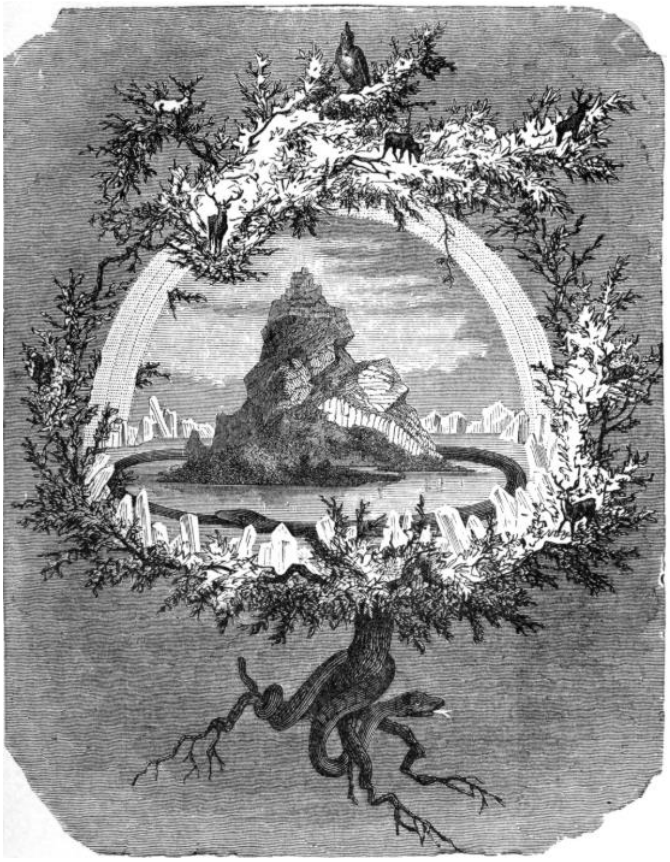
So in Mecca are they actually worshiping the stone that caused the destruction of Eden?

And the author of Atlantis, Edda and the Bible is most definitely a ball earther because he talks about planets and space. And then he mentions a Moon that used to be in Earth's orbit that came crashing down to Earth and THUS causing the flooding of Lemuria and Atlantis. But if you read this last part, you will see he actually gives proof of a Flat Earth view. He writes

> Unfortunately, the wonderful customs of the preparing of the Maypole and the festival-trees are beginning to disappear. The Yggdrasil of the Aias on the Urd-spring was an apt reminder to them of their original Arctic home. It was there, in their ancient polar homelands, that they had first observed that the stars circled the Earth's axis and that it acted as a stable center to the universe. Thus, they saw the Earth's axis as a cosmic tree trunk with the rotating stars above as its golden leaves *2.).



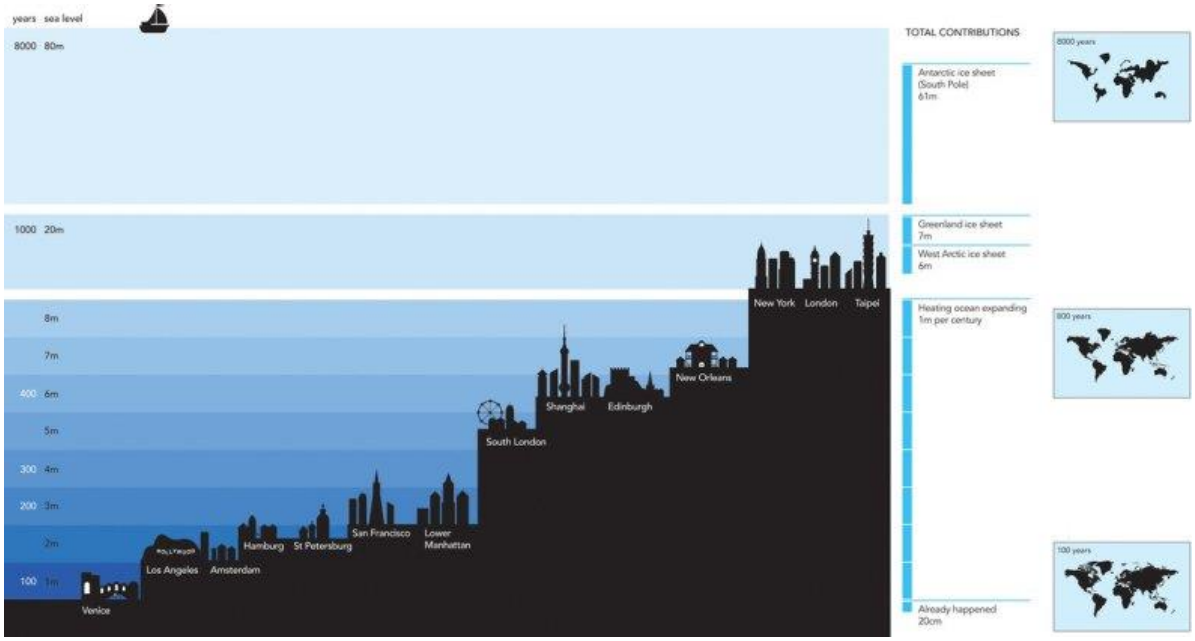
PART 8 ~ NORTH POLE, CANARY ISLANDS, SOUTH AMERICA AND THE BLACK ROCK

So, a quick recap of where we left off. In Part 1 we looked at the general symbolism of the Flat Earth hidden in our modern-day vocabulary. In things such as SEA LEVEL, called that because you SEE LEVEL.

SEA LEVEL ~ SEE LEVEL

Here is a graphic I found where you can clearly see Sea Level is FLAT.

Oh my! Global warming! Fear! Warning Jim! Warning!



Venice is in trouble by the way, not because of rising sea levels but because the city is OLD and OLD buildings erode. Especially old buildings in water.

Or why the Mason's say, Are you on the level? Because they know the truth. That the Earth IS level.

In Part 2 we went into the significance of the North Pole.

How Wralda designed His creation so perfectly that the center point of this plane lines up with the North Pole and directly above it is the North Star.

Take the Red Pill and Awaken, KNOWING that Earth IS a Geocentric, Motionless Plane

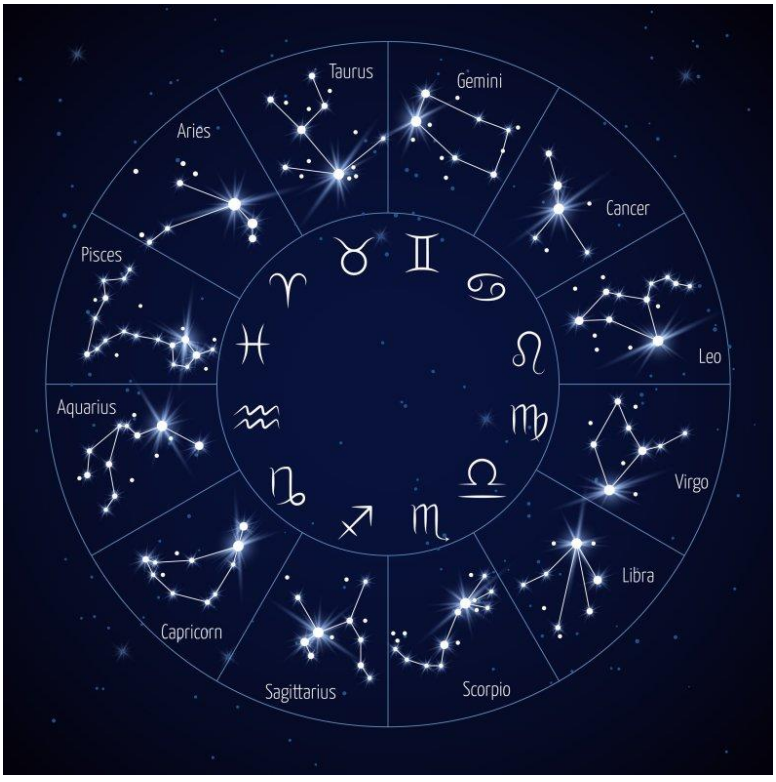
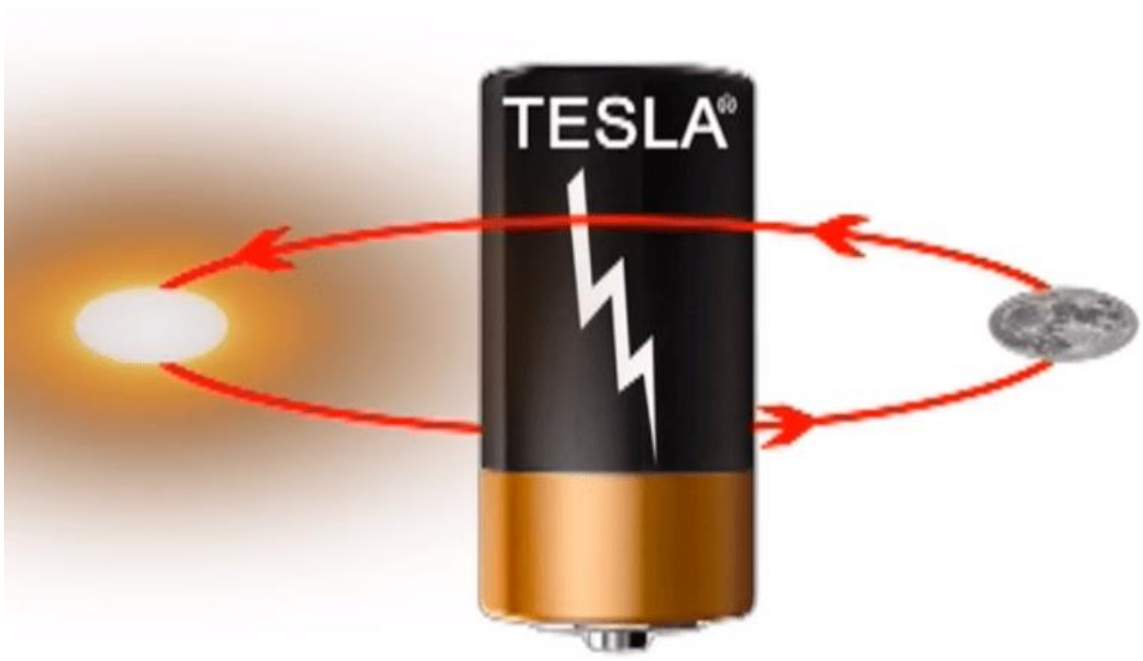
How the stars were made for signs and seasons and how a clock is set up in a circular pattern as is the Zodiac in the stars above.

And how the Zodiac is really the ZOO DE ARK, Noah's Ark, symbolically portrayed in the heavens.

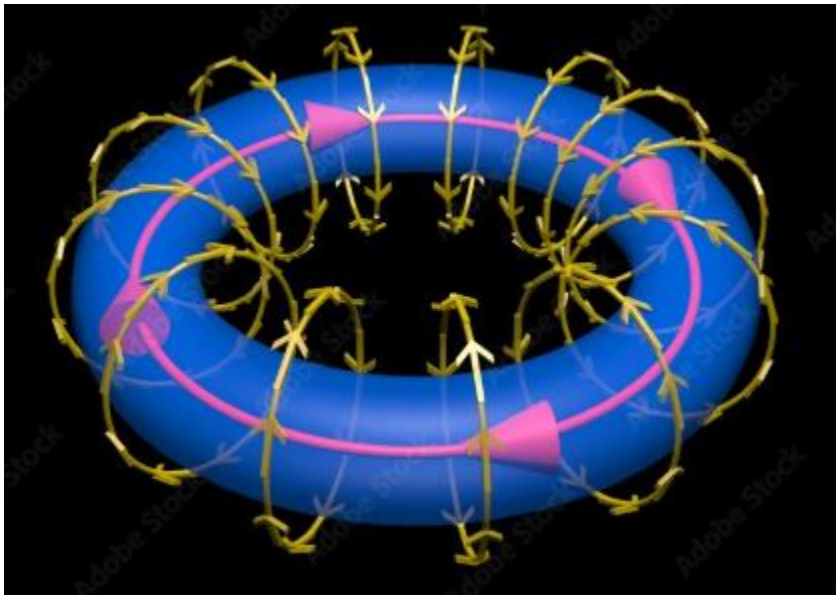


Well, we didn't talk about this next bit, but it totally fits. How the CENTER, the North Pole, is magnetized, and how the oceans are made of salt water for conductivity.

How the Sun is positively charged, and the Moon is negatively charged.



How the oceans are drawn into the CENTER of the Earth at the North Pole and released out at the Antarctic rim of ice in a Toroidal field.



And how the Torus looks similar to the Hibiscus flower.

Which Catherine of Russia points to on her dress around the time her men went TO the North Pole.

And a verse here that I'm sure the Masons like.

Revelation 20:9 ~ And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and COMPASSED the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city, and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

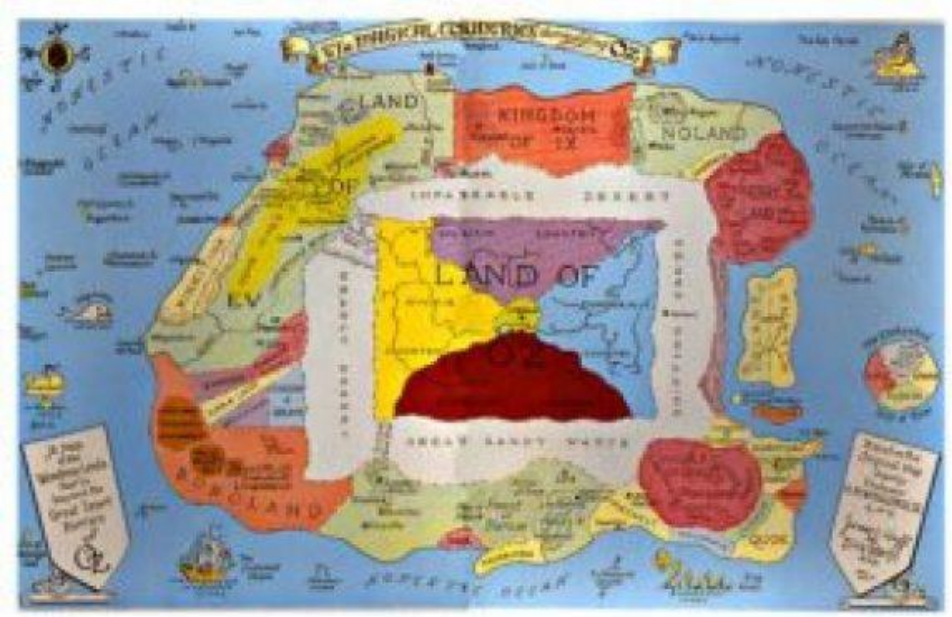
"Compassed" means to CIRCLE it, like with the Mason's tool, not to GLOBE it. Compass and level it, or compass and square it.

In Part 3 we looked at hidden symbolism in different forms of media, such as books and movies, in things like The Wizard of Oz, in which the Land of Oz is clearly depicting the land at the North Pole.



And how if we follow the Yellow Brick Road it takes us to the mountain in the middle.

In Part 4 we looked at the Netflix series Into the Bad Lands, with a place called AZRA, which is really ASGARD. And how it looked just like the Emerald City of the Wizard of Oz.

AZRA ~ ASGARD

and even in Wolverine.

EDEN or the END?

Just like in Stephen King's The Dark Tower with ITS North Pole map. Eden or the End? End World- EDEN. With the Dark Tower being the magnetic mountain in the center.

END ~ EDEN

From there, in Part 5, we took a look at that lands AROUND the North Pole to see if we have any connections. And we found a bunch. In places such as the Isle of Arran, which lies off the Scottish coast.

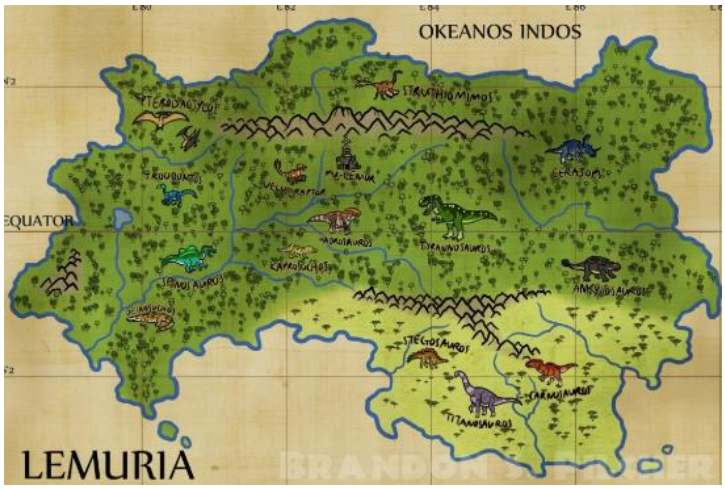
ARRAN ~ ARYAN

and Ireland, which is Aryan land.

IRELAND ~ ARYAN LAND

In Part 6 we next looked at the south lands and saw too in what way these lands are connected. Mary is connected throughout. Like in the name.

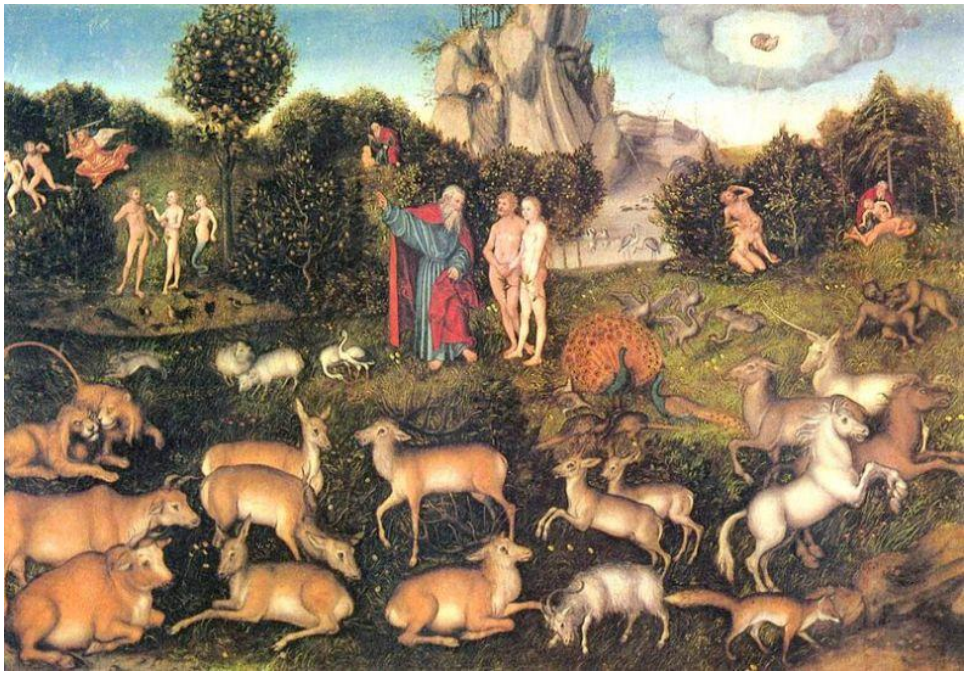
LEMURIA ~ LA MARIA ~ MARY ~ FRYA

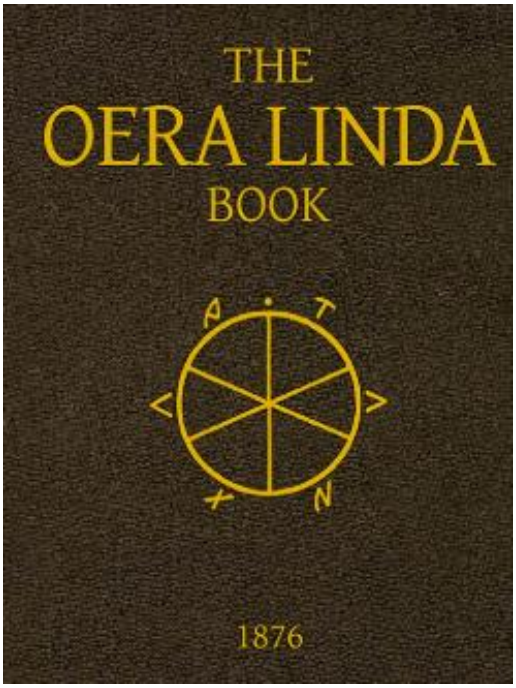


and the MAORI of New Zealand.

MAORI ~ MARY

And finally in Part 7 we had a closer look at the story of Noah's flood and the Oera Linda Book. And how in the book it tells of a great cataclysm. When the Bad Times Came.





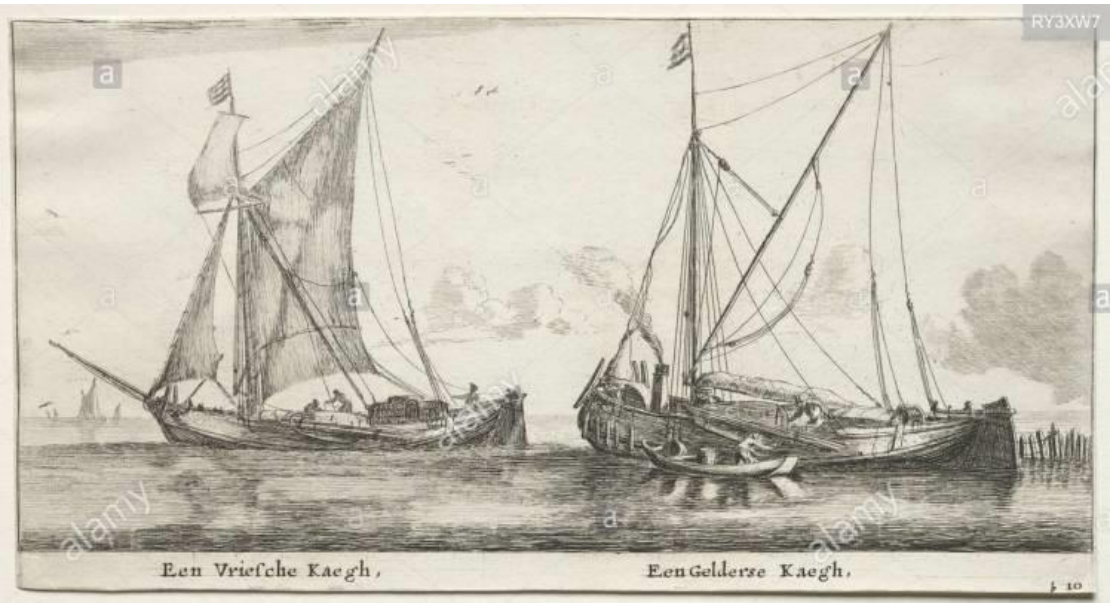
So, we continue our journey here in Part 8 by expanding on where the Fryans went when they traveled west.

Remember how in the last Part we talked about Inka's people and how they decided to go west and find the top of Atland? When they had counted the people and divided the ships accordingly, the fleet separated. We shall hear of Teunis afterwards, but nothing more of Inka. So, no more mention of Inka in the Oera Linda Book but let us imagine what happened to Inka.

They went looking for Lyda's Aldland or Atland.

Inka thought that perchance some high lying part of Atland might remain as an island, where he and his people might live in peace.

Remember that it was not ATLANTIS they were looking for because Inka and Teunis knew of Frya's Aldland, that has sunk, most likely in the Doggerlands. So, they were looking for a DIFFERENT Aldland.



ALL THIS IS INSCRIBED NOT ONLY ON THE WARABURGT, BUT ALSO ON THE BURGT STAVIA, WHICH LIES BEHIND THE PORT OF STAVRE.

When Teunis wished to return home, he went first towards Denmark; but he might not land there, for so the mother had ordered, nor was he to land at Flyland nor anywhere about there. In this way he would have lost all his people by want and hardship, so he landed at night to steal and sailed on by day. Thus coasting along, he at length arrived at the colony of Kadik • (Cadiz), so called because it was built with a stone quay. Here they bought all kinds of stores, but Tuntia the Burgtmaagd would not allow them to settle there. When they were ready they began to disagree. Teunis wished to sail through the straits to the Mediterranean Sea, and enter the service of the rich Egyptian king, as he had done before, but Inka said he had had enough of all those Finda's people. Inka thought that perchance some high-lying part of Atland might remain as an island, where he and his people might live in peace. As the two cousins could not agree, Teunis planted a red flag on the shore, and Inka a blue flag. Every man could choose which he pleased, and to their astonishment the greater part of the Finns and Magyars followed Inka, who had objected to serve the kings of Finda's people. When they had counted the people and divided the ships accordingly, the fleet separated. We shall hear of Teunis afterwards, but nothing more of Inka.

Neef Teunis coasted through the straits to the Mediterranean Sea. When Atland was submerged there was much suffering also on the shores of the Mediterranean, on which account many of Finda's people, Krekalanders, and people from Lyda's land, came to us. On the other hand, many of our people went to Lyda's land. The result of all this was that the Krekalanders far and wide were lost to the superintendence of the mother. Teunis had reckoned on this, and had therefore wished to find there a good

And remember from Part 6 we learned of the Ngati Hotu people who fled Persia and sailed to Central America. Apparently, Inka's people sailed that way too.

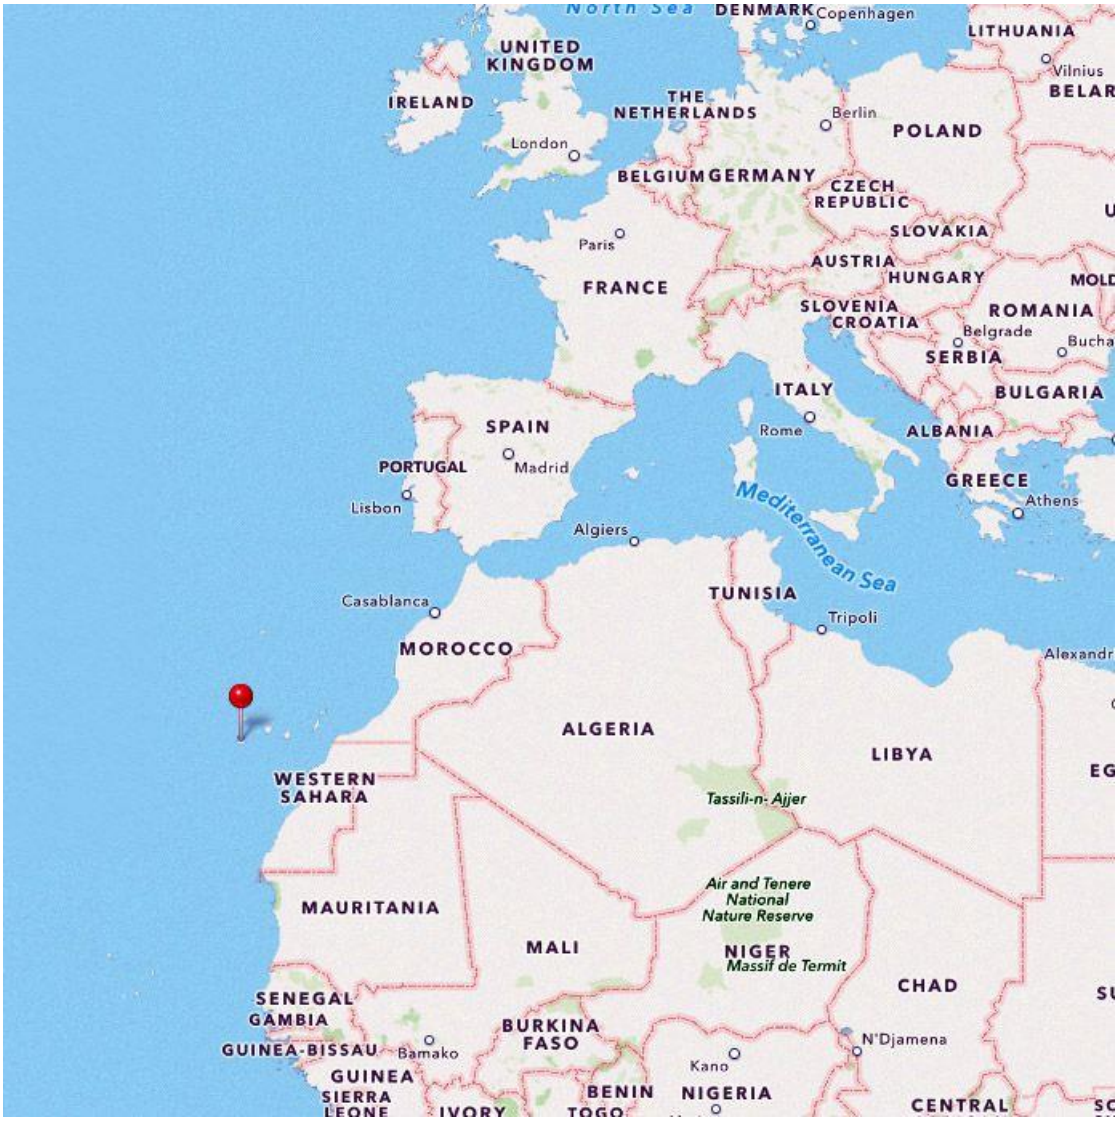
And in the Oera Linda Book too we learned of Fryans who sailed through the Suez Canal before the land lifted there and formed a colony in India. So, we can see how the same people migrated all over the Indian sea, Mediterranean and even the Atlantic Ocean in our past history.

The name Himalayas is actually derived from a German word, HIMMEL, which means HEAVEN.

HIMMEL ~ HEAVEN

So, Inka and his people sailed west through the Straits of Gibraltar looking for the remnants of Lyda's Aldland. They most likely came across tiny islands near the coast of West Africa, which are today known as the Canary Islands.

Is there evidence of Inka's people there? It does appear there is.



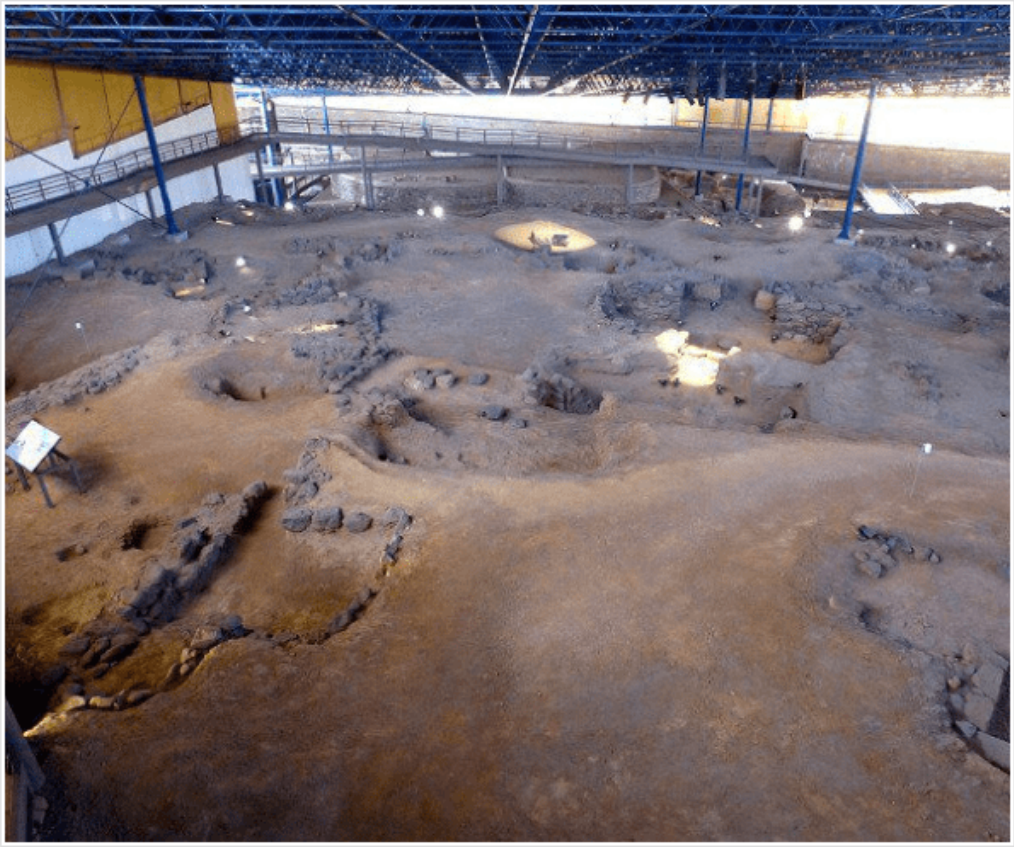
According to the 1st century CE Roman author and philosopher Pliny the elder, the archipelago was found to be uninhabited when visited by the Carthaginians under Hanno the navigator in 5th century BCE, but RUINS OF GREAT BUILDINGS WERE SEEN.

Could these buildings be remnants of the Fryan civilization who decided to stay and not go to South America with Inka?

There are also unexplained ruins of pyramids on these islands as well.

Cueva Pintada

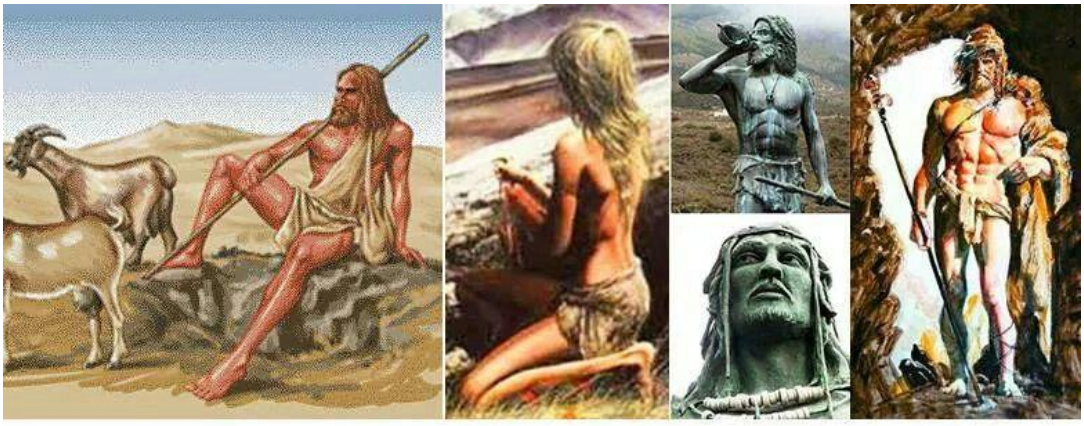
Cueva Pintada (or 'Painted Cave'), in the little-known town of Galdar, is one of the most important archaeological sites in the Canary Islands. Lost for many generations, this settlement belonged to the aboriginal inhabitants of the Canaries known as the Guanches, thought to be of North African origin. Blonde, blue-eyed, tall and light-skinned, they are something of a mystery to anthropologists since blonde natives are a rarity. They were conquered by the Spaniards during the turn of the 15th century, but this museum and live excavation site gives a fascinating insight into pre-Hispanic life. As the name suggests, you can see prehistoric cave art with red, black and white painted geometrical shapes at a site that may have been used as a dwelling, a scared place or for funeral rites.



And here is an antique print from 1947, titled: 'Cave Sepulcrale des Guanches' – This original antique print shows the cave of the Guanches, Gran Canaria, Canary Islands. Mummies prepared in the cave by the original inhabitants, the Guanches, of the Canary Islands while western men are watching the process.

Here is one of the mummies they found. Note that mummification is usually associated with ancient Egypt. Remember the Pyramid ruins I just showed?

Where did they come from? Most likely they were Fryans who traveled with Inka and decided to stay on this island.



The Guanches were the tall native inhabitants of the Canary Islands. They were just about exterminated by the Spaniards at the turn of the 15th century. According to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, the Guanches "are thought to have been of Cro-Magnon origin.. and had, blue or gray eyes, and blondish hair". These ancient mysterous people also left stone pyramids and mummified their dead. Where did the Guanche come from?

In this painting of the captured Guanches leaders, we can clearly see they were White, just like their Spanish oppressors.

And remember the part in the Oera Linda Book we read previously? Inka thought that perchance some high lying part of Atland might remain as an island, where he and his people might live in peace*.*

It reminds me too of the Fryans that colonized South America, known as the Boers, who also wanted to LIVE IN PEACE.

Here is a painting of Boer women and children being held as prisoners during the Boer War, from 1899 to 1902. THIS is the first instance of a concentration camp, where women and children were starved and died from disease and infections. The death toll included 80% children.

There are more than a dozen statues of the Guanches on the Canaries. You can tell by them that the Guanches were of the White Aryan race.

Here is a close-up of one of the statues. He clearly has Fryan features.

Now I found something else very interesting. There is a flower, called Dama de Bandama, Lady of Bandama, which is endemic to the Canary Islands.

And does this flower remind you of any other flower?

It totally reminds me of the German flower called the Edelweiss. Both have thin pointy leaves with small white petals.

Here is the Dama de Bandama.

And here is the Edelweiss. Edelweiss means NOBEL WHITE.

So, some remnants of the people of Inka could be the Guanches.

But with the restless adventuresome spirit that the Fryan people had, the remainder of Inka's people could have packed up again and headed west. There they came upon South America and met up with the natives that were later called the Inca after Inka.

The words Inka I-N-K-A and Inca I-N-C-A are virtually identical. What are the chances these two words are related? I would say very likely.

Now from the Incan perspective, seeing the White man on their enormous sailing ships they thought they were Gods. They called the leader Quetzalcoatl, which means "feathered serpent".

Now if Inka and his men came with plumed hats could this be where “feathered” comes from?

Here is the German, Kaiser Wilhelm, from 1918 AD, with a plumed hat. And look, he is wearing the Edelweiss as well.

Here are the Vatican's SWISS guard, with their plumed hats.

And here is a soldier with a plumed hat.

So, we can see that this "feathered" serpent could very well be a White man with a plumed hat coming ashore. A very strange sight to a native Indian.

And notice this Aztec priest with HIS plumed hat, copying Quetzalcoatl.

And from the Wiki, The worship of Quetzalcoatl sometimes included animal sacrifices, and in other traditions Quetzalcoatl was said to oppose human sacrifice.

Notice the depiction of a WHITE man being sacrificed by DARK men. This seems to be what eventually happened to Inka and his men. Did they flee just like the Ngati Hotu people?

Quetzalcoatl was OPPOSED to human sacrifice.

So, the natives first worshiped them like gods and then wanted to BE like gods and so sacrificed them to take their essence.

In Aztlan we see in the ruins what once was a civilization that MIRRORED the island of Atlantis. With its land between water, land between water, structure, all the way to the main temple, to the mountain in the middle, just like Atlantis was set up.

The Wiki further mentions that Mesoamerican priests and kings would sometimes take the name of a deity they were associated with, so Quetzalcoatl and Kukulcan are also names of historical persons.

But more likely Quetzalcoatl and Kukulcan are the SAME person because the name means the SAME thing. And they did the INVERSE here, making a PERSON into a god. Similar to what the Egyptians did with the Pharaohs, and other Magy did with Odin and Nef Teunis, and later the Romans did with Julius Caesar. All men becoming “gods”.

> The Yucatec form of the name is formed from the word kuk "feather" with the adjectival suffix -ul, giving kukul "feathered", combined with kan "snake" (Tzotzil chon), giving a literal meaning of "feathered snake".

And KukulKAN could be Khan as in KING.

KHAN ~ KING

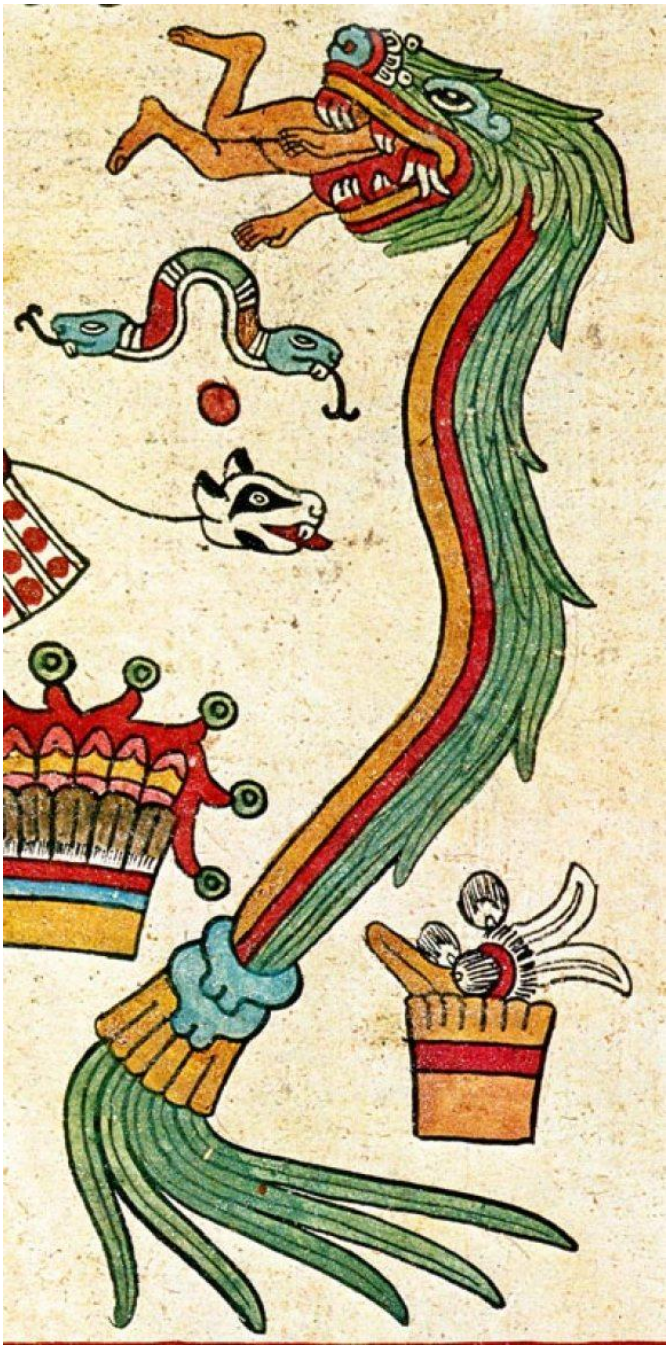
The feathered serpent.

Did the symbol at one time show the mortality of man? That we go through the cycles of life, experiencing birth and death and birth anew with each generation, as symbolized by the Ouroboros eating its tail?



This feathered serpent reminded me of the Alpha Romeo logo.

Aztlan means, “place of Whiteness”, so we can see that it was not THEIR place, it was the original homeland of their god Quetzalcoatl, who most likely was INKA, a Fryan.

Here is a depiction of the departure from Aztlán as an island in the 16th-century Codex Boturini. Aztlán is also depicted as an island in the Aubin and Azcatitlan codices.

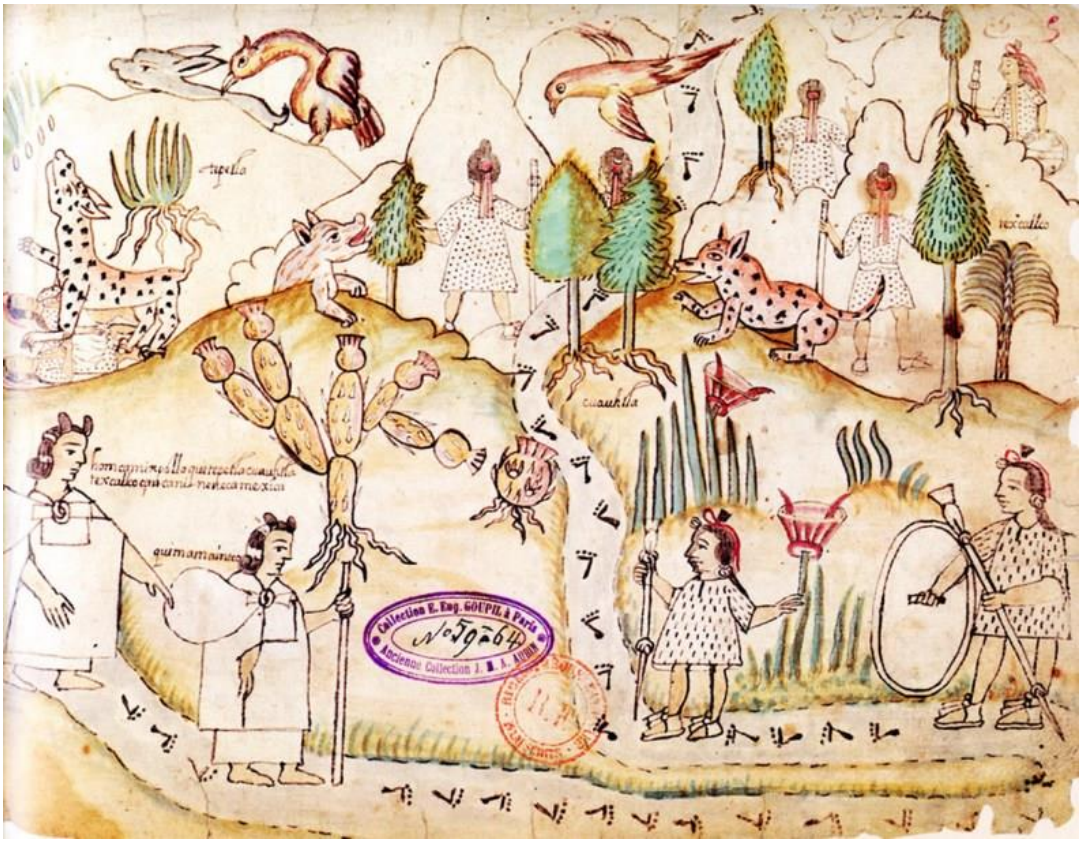
Notice here his PLUMED hat.

The cult of Quetzalcoatl has been more or less idealized, and the image of a “white god” has become part of the popular culture.

Plumed hat.

Most Mesoamerican beliefs included cycles of worlds. Usually, our current time was considered the fifth world, the previous four having been destroyed by FLOOD, fire and the like.

So here we have Mesoamericans believing in a Great Flood, and their ancestors, the Aztec CAME from this sunken land.



On Quetzalcoatl it is further mentioned that “his birth, was a VIRGIN birth.” We can see the MARY connection here as well. Mary, or Frya, had a virgin birth when bringing forth her children.

MARY ~ FRYAN ~ VIRGIN

Could all these cataclysmic events be related or separate? Was the Great Flood triggered by comets falling from the sky? Comet Catalina supposedly flew over Wales just last night. How rare are these comets? And how can they predict them?

So, let's look at this theory that a black rock, a comet, is what came down from the sky and devastated Atlantis. Is there any evidence of this?

There was mention of "hitting King Arthur's Wales." Well, we know there was a famous comet that fell during King Arthur's time and was called the Dragon comet.

Two possible dates come up for this comet, 536 or 562 AD, with Alan Wilson and Baram Blackett thinking the latter date is correct. They believe this because Arthur's dates were shifted 33 years back. So, the comets probably were too.

Yes 33, the pesky Masons were busy even back then.

There was much history written “pre” this comet and “post”, but DURING this time, very little was written, hence the Dark Ages. Is this partly why the history of Arthur is so buried?

This same comet was seen all the way over in Norway. Witnesses remark seeing a very bright light lit up the sky and disappearing over Great Britain- hence the Norwegians calling it the Great Britain comet. Others reported seeing it over Scotland and Carlisle, which is a town near Hadrian’s Wall. The comet was seen split in three pieces in its travel southwestwards. One piece went down Britain all the way to the south end of Wales. Leaving utter destruction in its path.

Now I can’t help but notice Norway, that saw this comet, had a blue spiral appear in their sky in December of 2009. Was this somehow connected to our 562 comet? Like THEY were commemorating the destructive event? You’ll see why I mention this as we go along.

A fire burned along its destructive path for 11 days. Evidence of which can be found in several Scottish forts that were vitrified- turned into glass because the fire was so hot and intense. Over two million people died. King Arthur survived and brought the 5,000 people left alive in his land to Brittany to seek refuge. When there, he had a message sent to the Pope for assistance. The Pope replied that, Stones could not fall from heaven because there are no stones in heaven, therefore what was said was heresy, and so no help would be forthcoming. This message was actually written in the Papal record along with an order to destroy all references to this comet! The order was only overturned when smaller comets hit Paris years later. Kind of hard for the Pope to deny them then!

Brul Tysillo, aka the “Ystorya Brenhined y Brytanyeit” Jesus MS. LXI., stated: And then a Star of enormous size appeared to Ythyr, having a single shaft, and at the head of the shaft a ball of fire in shape of a dragon, and from the dragon’s jaws, two beams went upward, the one beam reaching towards the farthest parts of Fraink and the other beam towards Iwerddon, which split into seven smaller beams. And Ythyr and all who saw this spectacle feared, and they asked the wise men what it might mean. And then Merddin wept and said, O nation of the Bryttaniait now are ye bereft of Emrys Wledic, a loss that cannot be replaced.

The forgoing quote was taken from the Brut Tysillo, the most ancient surviving written history of the British Isles, which is recognized by the Oxford University as being one of the most important surviving artifacts of antiquity, thereby giving academic weight to the claim, that an enormous comet lit up the sky from Ireland to Gaul, taking the shape of a fire-breathing dragon, which struck Britain with tremendous force and heat in November 562 AD, devastating both the population and the landscape.

Notice here a comet with TWO tails. Could this be one of the reasons they make the V hand sign?

Frankish historian, Gregory of Tours, circa 563 AD, Ch 24, Book VIII, History of the Franks, described the cosmic event thus, This same year two islands were consumed by fire, which fell from the sky. They burned for seven whole days, so that they were completely destroyed together with the inhabitants and their flocks. Those who sought refuge in the sea and hurled themselves headlong into the deep died an even worse death in the water into which they had thrown themselves, whilst those on the land who did not die immediately were consumed by fire. All were reduced to ash and the sea covered everything. Many maintained that the portents which I have said earlier that I saw in the month of October, when the sky seemed to be on fire, were really the reflection of this conflagration.

So, Arthur, getting no help from the Pope or Brittany heads up to Norway and then over to Iceland. Did he stop at the North Pole along the way? We do have records of Arthur travelling there as well, written about it in the Gestai Arthuria. It states that in 1364 AD, eight people came to the King's court in Norway saying they came from the lands of the North Pole. One, a priest, mentioned that King Arthur sailed there May 3, of 531 AD with 12 ships. Five of the 12 were smashed against rocks and were shipwrecked, but the other seven made it there.

So, the dates are a little off but very close to the 536 and 562 dates.

And these dates would be off by a couple of thousand years if Noah's Flood timeline is accurate. But the point being that one or more of these black rocks could have fallen from the sky to cause the devastation of not only Atlantis but Wales and portions of South America.

So, the devastated area in Wales remained so for 11 to 15 years and was known as The Badlands. Remind you of anything? How about the show mentioned earlier called Into the Badlands…

Or the area of desert the Gunslinger had to cross over to get to The Dark Tower called The Badlands…

And remember that the Gunslinger was based on King Arthur!

We also can look to the Mad Max movies for similarities of the scorched earth and how it would be to live there at that time. Showing us hidden truths.

So, if we look at the trajectory, it came in over Norway and crossed Britain from the northeast to the southwest. The second part that broke off went over Ireland, which did catch on fire and is recorded in their records, and the third kept on going until it flew over Brazil, ending in Bolivia, very possibly into Lake Titicaca.

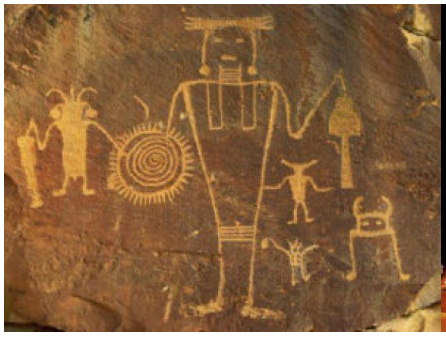
Evidence of this is the ruin of Puma Punka, an ancient megalithic structure that got knocked apart. Blocks weighing several tons were thrown about like kid's wooden blocks.

Bolivian, Brazilian and Mexican records speak of this time where crops failed and trees would not grow. Mountain peaks in Mexico also have shown evidence of glassification similar to what happened in Scotland.

Now after Arthur's comet event the Mexicans put on their pyramids a spiral symbol.

Was this to commemorate the comet as well?

And can be seen on Hopi murals in the southwest US as well. Remember the Norway spiral mentioned earlier? Is it the same spiral on the Hopi mural?



Also, in Wales, the comet was called the Dragon Comet. With Dragon being the combination of two words meaning “lightning stone” in Welsh. And the first time a dragon appeared on a flag? The Red Dragon of Wales.

Another amazing note in Geoffrey Monmouth’s The History of the Kings of Britain states that, Arthur’s birth was portentous, for it was foreshadowed by the appearance of a strange, dragon-shaped ‘star’ during the reign of his father Uther Pendragon.

Isn’t that interesting? So, there was a dragon comet when Arthur was born circa 500 AD and there was another one when Arthur was a grown man with the same appearance. The first didn’t hit ground zero. But the second one did.

So is THAT why they worship the Black Cube? Because it destroyed White civilizations? We see the symbolism everywhere.

PART 9 ~ NORTH POLE, ATLANTIS AND THE OERA LINDA BOOK

We've come a long way on the quest for truth since Part 1 and when you think there isn't much more to learn, something comes along that rocks your world...

In a good way.

For me this was the Oera Linda Book.

Now this book has been attacked since it was first discovered. If it really was a fake, why make so much fuss about it?

If you do a YouTube search on the subject, you'll find this discussion.

A Fantastic fake story. A joke. says the joker in the glasses.

Why is it so important to suppress this book? Because when we KNOW who we ARE we become FREE. They can't have that. To stay in control, we have to be kept in the dark.

An Age is called Dark not because the light fails to shine, but because people refuse to see it. ~ James A. Michener

Don't refuse.

Keep an open mind and listen to what I am about to tell you.

Alewyn J. Raubenheimer, in his book Chronicles from Pre-Celtic Europe has done an extensive study of the Oera Linda Book and has come to the conclusion that indeed this book is authentic. He states, The book proves beyond reasonable doubt that the Oera Linda Manuscript discovered in the Netherlands during the Mid-19th century is authentic and indeed the oldest writing on European Pre-History. This captivating manuscript shows that the West European Civilization pre-dates Greek and Roman Societies by millennia and that many milestones which were previously attributed to the Greeks, Romans, Phoenicians, Egyptians and others should, in fact, be accredited to Northwest Europe.

We will see proof in this amazing manuscript of how advanced the Northwestern Europeans really were in the ancient past. And surprisingly to some, they were MONOtheists- long before the Bible was written. We will see too where the ORIGINAL Heimat (homeland) of the Northwestern Europeans was. And WHY it is so hard to find evidence of this truly astounding fact in literature and artifacts from the past.

Not only that but we will see who really were the civilization builders as I have been discussing in previous parts, now being confirmed all the more. And more proof of the connection between Noah's flood and Atlantis. The truth comes easy and connects all the pieces of the puzzle.

The Oera Linda manuscript first came to light in 1867 AD, by Cornelis Over de Linden (1811–1874) who had inherited the book from his aunt. He was told that it was the history of his people, written down, generation after generation, to preserve their history. You will see that many natural calamities befell the Fryans and so destroyed many of their writings. They would also preserve their laws on the town walls for all to see, however, they were inundated by major flooding from the sea which wiped out these towns and their walls.

In addition, they didn't believe in making idols of God and so we can't find remnants of their religious practices.

Also there are missing sections of the book that most likely were removed by Liko Ovira Linda (there were variations on the spelling of the name Oera Linda, through the generations) because his time, 803 AD, was not long after 785 AD, in which the fanatical Charles the Great issued a legal code called the Capitulatio de partibus Saxoniae, which included the death sentence for any Saxon who refused to convert from their native Germanic paganism to Christianity.

To protect his family Liko most likely destroyed any offending portions in the Writings of Beden and at the end of the book, on the Roman Catholic church. That is why it stops so abruptly.

OERA LINDA

1256 AD

Okke my son, you must preserve these books with body and soul. They contain the history of all our people, as well as of our forefathers. Last year I saved them in the flood, as well as you and your mother; but they got wet, and therefore began to perish. In order not to lose them, I copied them on foreign paper. In case you inherit them, you must copy them likewise, and your children must do so too, so that they may never be lost.

Written at Liudwert, in the three thousand four hundred and forty-ninth year after Atland was submerged- that is, according to the Christian reckoning, the year 1256. Hiddo, surnamed Over de Linda. – Watch.

Notice that 3449 minus 1256 brings us to 2193 BC, the same time as Noah's flood.

ATLAND ~ ATLANTIS

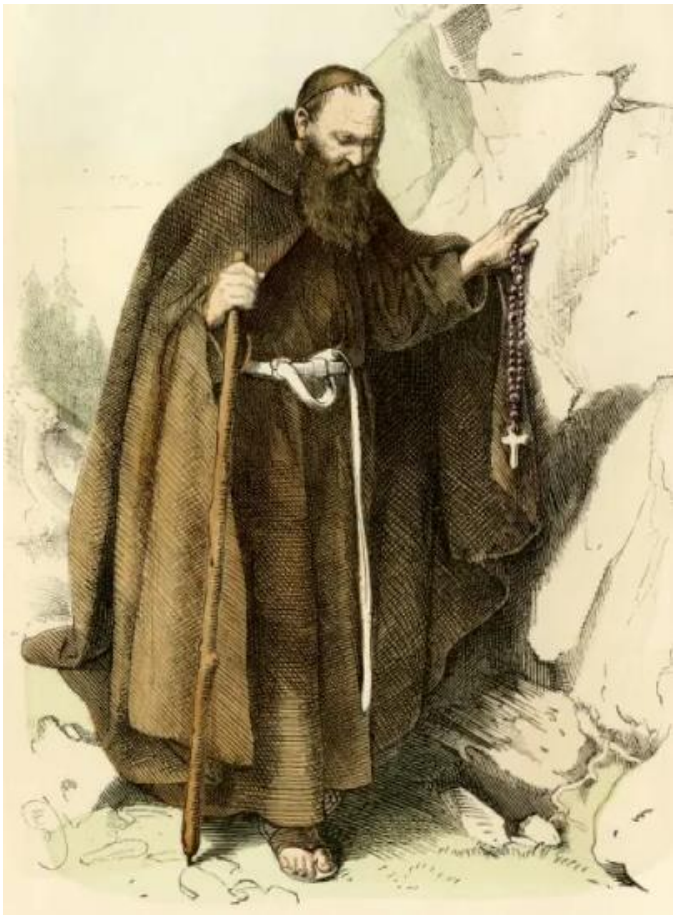
Beloved successors, for the sake of our dear forefathers, and of our dear liberty, I entreat you a thousand times never let the eye of a monk look on these writings. They are very insinuating, but they destroy in an underhand manner all that relates to us Fryans. In order to gain rich benefices, they conspire with foreign kings, who know that we are their greatest enemies, because we dare to speak to their people of liberty, rights, and the duties of princes. Therefore, they seek to destroy all tha we derive from our forefathers, and all that is left of our old customs.

Ah, my beloved ones~ I have visited their courts! If Wralda permits it, and we do not show ourselves strong to resist, they will altogether exterminate us.

Liko, surnamed Over de Linda

Written at Liudwert, Annon Domini 803



Raubenheimer mentions, and I wholeheartedly agree that For centuries historians believed that European civilization evolved from the ancient Egyptians, Akkadians, Sumerians, Assyrians, Phoenicians and, lastly, the Babylonians and Persians.... Why did they avoid the forests and fertile plains of Europe? Did they know something that we did not? Is it not conceivable that some other civilized people, or at least an advanced culture, already held title deeds to Central-, Western- and Northern Europe and, equally important, the means to retain such possession? Is it not time we consider the possibility that our civilization actually originated and developed in Europe and, more precisely, in Western Europe and NOT ELSEWHERE ON EARTH?

I thought for a time that maybe we did originate in the area of Palestine, and that the land was different then, lush and fertile, and that the land of Northern Europe was under a layer of ice, and that is why no one inhabited it. BUT from these writings it does appear we WERE there all along and it makes much more sense since God created us to live in particular zoological zones. So that fair-haired, fair-eyed and fair-skinned people would be made for a climate where the Sun is not so strong would make perfect sense.

And despite many efforts to prove the Oera Linda Book a hoax, NONE OF THE HISTORICAL FACTS MENTIONED IN THE BOOK HAVE EVER BEEN PROVEN WRONG.

He further states, Perhaps one of the most startling revelations in the Oera Linda Book comes from the graphic description of a cataclysmic natural disaster in 2193 BC. The catastrophe virtually destroyed an advanced monotheistic and maritime civilization in Western and Northern Europe. This is PRECISELY what scientists are now concluding for several countries from Asia, through the Mediterranean to the North Sea and beyond. What is equally remarkable is that the book gives exact dates and accurately describes a number of other important historical events. Some of these were only verified in the late 20th and early 21st centuries by archaeologists and advanced dating methods.

This date is substantiated by modern scientists in reference to a 4.2 ka BP Event (4200 years before present) which denotes a global event defined by severe and rapid climate change. Whole civilizations collapsed from Egypt to Turkey to India to the Far East.

This date also appears in the Fryan Volksalmanak or National Calendar, as the date of Noah's Flood.

So, there are times when the earth DOES go through climate change, but it's NOT MANmade as the Magy would have us think. It is due to natural forces that one can only attribute to Wralda.

In addition, there was a world-wide flood in the known world at that time, and the flood affected all coastal towns and cities. It didn't affect land farther inland by flooding, so from this we know the whole world wasn't under water, but just the coastal areas. That particular land or Eretz, as it says in the Bible. That land included the Fryans native homeland of Atland, or Atlantis.

So, what WAS a Fryan? Well, Fryan means FREE people. People that are not enslaved. The Fryans are the White people. If you switch out the F in Fryan with an A you get ARYAN. The Fryans were the Aryans.

European Disaster~ How the Bad Times Came

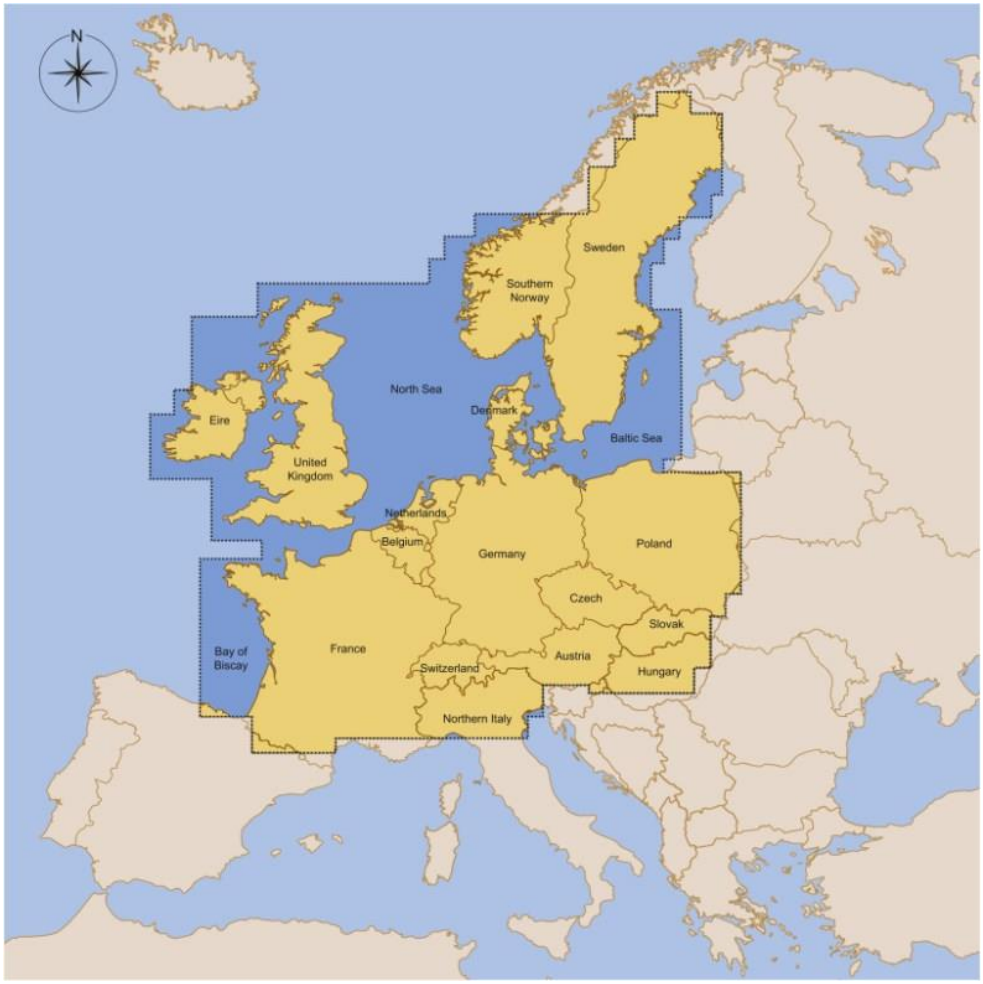
During the whole summer the Sun had been hidden behind the clouds, as if unwilling to look upon the earth. There was perpetual calm, and the damp mist hung like a wet sail over the houses and the marshes. The air was heavy and oppressive, and in men's hearts was neither joy nor cheerfulness. In the midst of the stillness the earth began to tremble as if she was dying. The mountains opened to vomit forth fire and flames. Some sank into the bosom of the earth, and in other places mountains rose out of the plain. Aldland, called by the seafaring people. Atland, disappeared, and the wild waves rose so high over hill and dale that everything was buried in the sea. Many people were swallowed up by the earth, and others who had escaped the fire perished in the water.

It was not only in Finda's land that the earth vomited fire, but also in Twiskland. Whole forests were burned one after the other, and when the wind blew from that quarter our land was covered with ashes. Rivers changed their course, and at their mouths new islands were formed of sand and drift.

For three years this continued, but at length it ceased, and forests became visible. Many countries were submerged, and in other places land rose above the sea, and the wood was destroyed through half of Twiskland. Troops of Finda's people came and settled in the empty places. Our dispersed people were exterminated or made slaves. Then watchfulness was doubly impressed upon us, and time taught us that union is force.

So, the Oera Linda Book is telling us that this natural disaster took place all over Frya's land. Frya's land covered all of Northwestern Europe from Britain, Scandinavia, Germany, down into France, Switzerland, Austria and Northern Italy.

In addition, Finda's and Lyda's lands were affected in the coastal areas of the Mediterranean as well as lands farther inland that today we call the Middle East.



Frya's Land

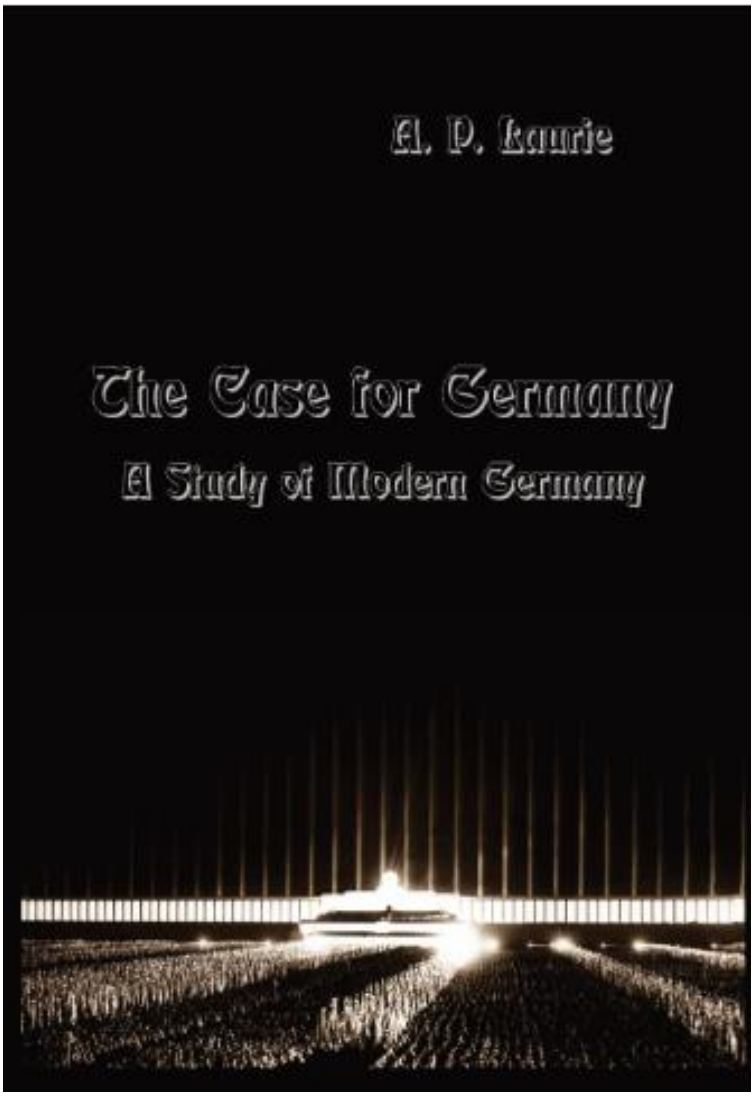
Notice some land sunk (Atlantis) and some lands rose (the area of the Suez Canal used to have natural access to the Indian Ocean). Mountains were formed, lakes were made, the topography changed. These earth changes went on for approximately three years until finally ending. This caused much displacement in the lands.

Also notice the last sentence, Then watchfulness was doubly impressed upon us, and time taught us that union is force. Union is FORCE. A bundle of sticks, a Fasci is a union of force. They knew that banding together as a people protected them and gave them strength.

Abraham Lincoln with two Fasci, one under each hand.

And even the author of Chronicles from Pre-Celtic Europe doesn't see the Fryan's government for what it really was. He states, The Fryan Federation seems to have had some form of Social Democracy. They opposed inequality, oppression, poverty and the concentration of wealth in the hands of a few. They had a centralized planned economy and community of goods and property. What he is describing is a Fascist system. Where the community as a whole is more important than the individual. The exact opposite of Capitalism. This is the system used in Hitler's Germany that made the country thrive while the rest of the world was suffering in the Great Depression.

An excellent book on the topic is The Case for Germany, A Study of Modern Germany by Arthur Pillans Laurie. Read THAT book and tell me Hitler was somehow a Magy stooge. No chance. There are two systems in the world being played out, National Socialism and Communism. Unfortunately, Communism has the upper hand today. The world would be such a different place if Hitler won. The people calling Hitler a Magy stooge are speaking out of complete IGNORANCE.



Dr. Timo Niroma also provides evidence of this natural disaster affecting the Middle East Dynasty of Ur, he states, The Third Dynasty of Ur was the last attempt to revive Sumer, after a chaos of 100 years beginning with the destruction of Akkadian Sumer around 2200 BC. During the Akkadian period, wheat was the most important cereal, and its share of the harvest was about 20%. During the years 2200- 2100 BC the saltiness of the soil rose markedly, possibly because of sea floods and, after them, because of the following dryness that evaporated the water leaving the salt behind. In northern Mesopotamia, the wheat share dropped to 2% and in the southern part to zero. This change seems to coincide with the period when there was no central authority. He further states, Mesopotamia and other…places were not the only victims of the 2200 BC event. As far away as in China, the Hongsan culture fell in pieces at this same time. This, if not anything else, is an indication of the mighty character of the event and bolster us to consider it as GLOBAL.

In the Bible it states in Genesis 7~ In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened. And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

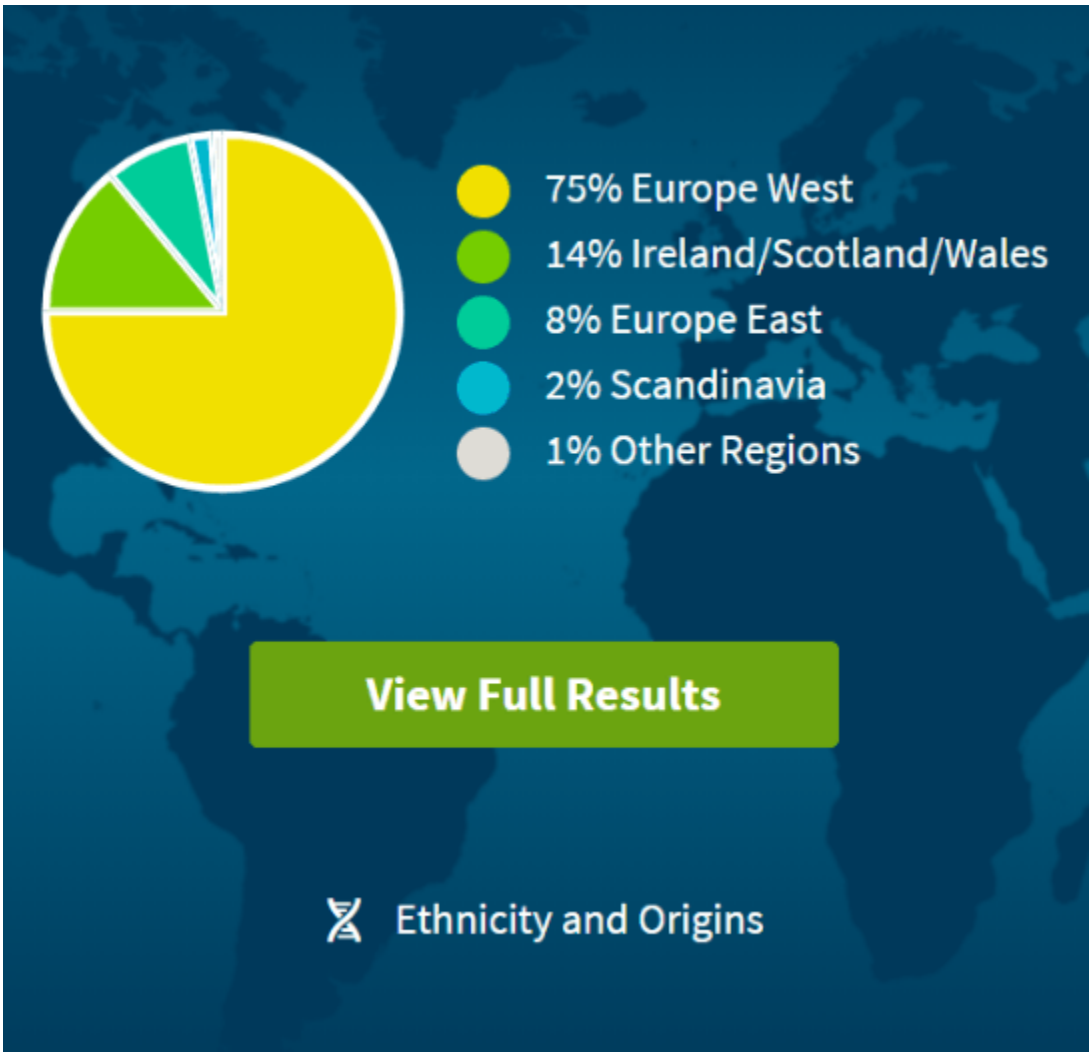
Water from below and water from above.

And from the verse, the second month, the seventeenth day, Raubenheimer figured out this would have been Wednesday, October 21 of the year 2193 BC.

It is calculated from the Magy playbook, however, so we need to keep an open mind on the date.

If we go back to their system of government, not only was it Fascist but citizenship was defined by BLOOD and NOT by where you were born. So, unlike the US, if you are born on American soil, you are a citizen, which was not the intention of the Founding Fathers by the way, but I digress, to be a Fryan you had to have had pure Fryan parents. Miscegenation was not allowed. If a Fryan wanted to marry outside of their race they could, but they would be banned from the community forever.

BLOOD is everything.



This Is Our Earliest History

Wralda, who alone is eternal and good, made the beginning. Then time commenced. Time wrought all things, even the earth. The earth bore grass, herbs, and trees, all useful and all noxious animals. All that is good and useful he brought forth by day, and all that is bad and injurious by night.

After the twelfth Juul feast he brought forth three maidens:

Lyda out of fierce heat.

Finda out of strong heat.

Frya out of moderate heat.

When the last came into existence, Wralda breathed his spirit upon her in order that men might be bound to him. As soon as they were full grown, they took pleasure and delight in the visions of Wralda.

They each bore 12 sons and 12 daughters- at every Juul-time a couple. Thence come all mankind.

LYDA

Lyda was black, with hair curled like a lamb; her eyes shone like stars and shot out glances like those of a bird of prey.

Lyda was acute. She could hear a snake glide and could smell a fish in the water.

Lyda was strong and nimble. She could bend a large tree, yet when she walked, she did not bruise a flower-stalk.

Lyda was violent. Her voice was loud and when she screamed in anger every creature quailed.

Wonderful Lyda! She had no regard for laws; her actions were governed by her passions. To help the weak she would kill the strong, and when she had done it, she would weep by their bodies.

Poor Lyda! She turned grey by her mad behavior, and at last she died heart-broken by the wickedness of her children. Foolish children! They accused each other of their mother's death. They howled and fought like wolves, and while they did this the birds devoured the corpse. Who can refrain from tears at such a recital?

FINDA

Finda was yellow, and her hair was like the mane of a horse. She could not bend a tree, but where Lyda killed one lion she killed ten.

Finda was seductive. Her voice was sweeter than any bird's. Her eyes were alluring and enticing, but whoever looked upon them became her slave.

Finda was unreasonable. She wrote thousands of laws, but she never obeyed one. She despised the frankness of the good and gave herself up to flatterers.

That was her misfortune. Her head was too full, but her heart was too vain. She loved nobody but herself, and she wished that all should love her.

False Finda! Honey-sweet were her words, but those who trusted them found sorrow at hand.

Selfish Finda! She wished to rule everybody, and her sons were like her. They made their sisters serve them, and they slew each other for the mastery.

Treacherous Finda! One wrong word would irritate her, and the cruelest deeds did not affect her. If she saw a lizard swallow a spider, she shuddered; but if she saw her children kill a Fryan, her bosom swelled with pleasure.

Unfortunate Finda! She died in the bloom of her age, and the mode of her death is unknown.

Hypocritical children! Her corpse was buried under a costly stone, pompous inscriptions were written on it, and loud lamentations were heard at it, but in private not a tear was shed.

Despicable people! The laws that Finda established were written on golden tablets, but the object for which they were made was never attained. The good laws were abolished, and selfishness instituted bad ones in their place. O Finda! Then the earth overflowed with blood, and your children were mown down like grass. Yes, Finda! Those were the fruits of your vanity. Look down from your watch-star and weep.

FRYA

Frya was white like the snow at sunrise, and the blue of her eyes vied with the rainbow.

Beautiful Frya! Like the rays of the sun shone the locks of her hair, which were as fine as spiders' webs.

Clever Frya! When she opened her lips, the birds ceased to sing and the leaves to quiver.

Powerful Frya! At the glance of her eye the lion lay down at her feet and the adder withheld his poison.

Pure Frya! Her food was honey, and her beverage was dew gathered from the cups of the flowers.

Sensible Frya! The first lesson that she taught her children was self-control, and the second was the love of virtue; and when they were grown, she taught them the value of liberty; for she said, Without liberty all other virtues serve to make you slaves, and to disgrace your origin.

Generous Frya! She never allowed metal to be dug from the earth for her own benefit, but when she did it was for the general use.

Most happy Frya! Like the starry host in the firmament, her children clustered around her.

Wise Frya! When she had seen her children reach the seventh generation, she summoned them all to Flyland, and there gave them her Tex, saying, Let this be your guide, and it can never go ill with you.

Exalted Frya! When she had thus spoken the earth shook like the sea of Wralda. The ground of Flyland sunk beneath her feet, the air was dimmed by tears, and when they looked for their mother, she was already risen to her watching star; then at length thunder burst from the clouds, and the lightning wrote upon the firmament Watch!

Far-seeing Frya! The land from which she had risen was now a stream, and except for her Tex, all that was in it was overwhelmed.

Obedient children! When they came to themselves again, they made this high mound and built this citadel upon it, and on the walls they wrote the Tex, and that everyone should be able to find it they called the land about it Texland. Therefore, it shall remain as long as the earth shall be the earth.

So, we can see that the Fryan's believed there was one God that created everything. He created all of the Flora and Fauna and every living thing on earth- including all humans. That the humans started as three distinct races. The first to arrive was Lyda, which were the Black people, the second was Finda, which were the Asians, and the third Frya, which was the mother of all White people.

This account coincides with the Archaeological records putting Blacks at around 40,000 years old, Asians around 20,000 and Whites at 8,000.

We can see how this story does not fit with the Magy's universalist agenda. We were NOT born of one mother. We have always been separate seeds- three mothers. And just like in nature, kind after kind. We are meant to be with our kind, not miscegenate.

This part is correct in the Magy Bible, in Genesis 1 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature AFTER HIS KIND, cattle, and creeping things, and beast of the earth after his kind, and it was so. God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and everything that creepeth upon the earth after their kind, and GOD saw it was GOOD.

Now the story of Adam and Eve is not a story about an evil woman who corrupted man, in the esoteric version, it is about man and woman giving in to their animal nature instead of becoming illuminated. Read The Esoteric Anatomy of Man by Scotland Sean and myself for more in-depth information on this. So what we want to know here, is how are Adam and Eve represented in the OLB?

The word Eva was too fran to speak, too sacred, so the Fryans would say "Evin" instead. From the OLB we read, *The word "EVA" is too sacred for common use; therefore men have learned to say, "Evin." "EVA" means that knowledge which is implanted in the breast of every man in order that he may know what is right and wrong, and by which he is able to judge his own deeds and those of others.

Wralda or Alvader (Father of All/God) has given me many years and I have travelled over many lands and seas and after all I have seen, I am convinced that WE ALONE WERE CHOSEN BY ALVADER TO HAVE LAWS. Lyda's people cannot make laws nor obey them; they are too stupid and uncivilized. Many of Finda's offspring are clever enough, but they are greedy, haughty, false, immoral and bloodthirsty.

EVE is the SACRED LAWS within the hearts of every Fryan. No wonder the Magy want to hide this fact from us. They make EVE, the most sacred, to EVE, the most vile.

EVE ~ EVA ~EWA

And then we have ADAM and ODIN. Look how close they are phonetically. Adam IS Odin. Odin was a Sea King of Frya, who let himself be swayed by the Magy priests into ruling over them. Upon his death they turned him into a God, so as to rule over the people with. He did NOT follow the EVE in his heart, and THAT lead to his downfall.

ADAM ~ ODIN

When it comes to religion the Fryans were MONOtheists. And this was from 3000 years before Noah's flood. Finda's and Lyda's people were POLYtheists, believing in many gods. In fact, they were the ones who turned some of the Fryan leaders INTO Gods. For example, Minerva, she was a Burgh Mooder, a keeper of the morals for her citadel, that had to flee Frya's land when she got into a dispute with Kalta, who was a Burgh Mooder from another village. Well Minerva and her people sailed in ships down through the Straits of Gibraltar looking for a new home. They ended up picking what today is known as Athens, Greece with its natural harbors and desolate landscape. The people in the area welcomed them and benefited greatly from their inventions and Minerva's wisdom. So much so that when Minerva died, they erected idols in her image and made her a goddess. Now the Fryans were opposed to this, they did not believe in idolatry and said that Minerva, although wise and kind, was a mere mortal and should not be worshiped.

They believed in ONE PRIME CREATOR from the very beginning.

Wralda the Creator

We can clearly see the word WORLD is from the word WRALDA.

WORLD ~ WRALDA

Hail to all the well-intentioned children of Frya! Through them the earth shall become holy. Learn and announce to the people Wralda is the ancient of ancients, for he created all things. Wralda is all in all, for he is eternal and everlasting. Wralda is omnipresent but invisible and therefore is called a spirit. All that we can see of him are the created beings who come to life through him and go again, because from Wralda all things proceed and return to him. Wralda is the beginning and the end. Wralda is the only almighty being because from him all other strength comes and returns to him. Therefore, he alone is the creator, and nothing exists without him. Wralda established eternal principles, upon which the laws of creation were founded, and no good laws could stand on any other foundation. But although everything is derived from Wralda, the wickedness of men does not come from him. Wickedness comes from heaviness, carelessness, and stupidity; therefore, they may well be injurious to men, but never to Wralda. Wralda is wisdom, and the laws that he has made are the books which we learn, nor is any wisdom to be found or gathered but in them. Men may see a great deal, but Wralda sees everything. Men can discover much, but to Wralda everything is open. Mankind is male and female, but Wralda created both. Mankind love and hate, but Wralda alone is just. Therefore, Wralda is good, and there is no good without him. In the progress of time all creation alters and changes, but goodness alone is unalterable; and since Wralda is good, he cannot change. As he endures, he alone exists; every else is show.

Wralda created everything. He alone is the Creator, the beginning and the end. The Alpha and the Omega is Wralda, NOT Yahweh.

Revelation 22 ~ I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

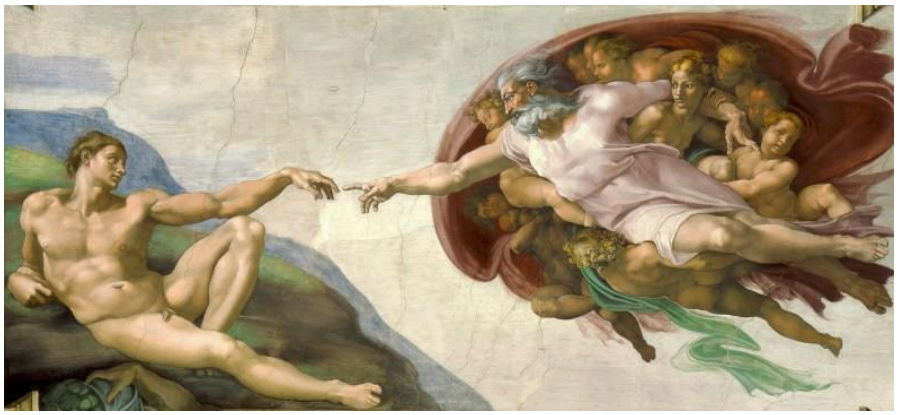
Notice too it talks about wickedness and that it comes from heaviness, carelessness, and stupidity. Notice it does NOT say there is a separate seed made by the Devil and that wickedness is outside of man as some have us believe. Wickedness is a slovenly trait WITHIN us. WE are responsible for our actions. WE are responsible for the condition of the world as it is today.



The Second Part of the Oldest Doctrine

Among Finda's people there are false teachers, who, by their over-inventiveness, have become so wicked that they make themselves and their adherents believe that they are the best part of Wralda, that their spirit is the best part of Wralda's spirit, and that Wralda can only think with the help of their brains!

Does that remind you of the Magy Priests and their Torah?

That every creature is a part of Wralda's eternal being, that they have stolen from us; but their false reasoning and ungovernable pride have brought them on the road to ruin. If their spirit was Wralda's spirit, then Wralda would be very stupid, instead of being sensible and wise; for their spirit labors to create beautiful statues, which they afterwards worship. Finda's people are a wicked people*, for although they presumptuously pretend among themselves that they are gods, they proclaim the unconsecrated false gods; and declare everywhere that these idols created the world and all that therein is- greedy idols, full of envy and anger, who desire to be served and honored by the people, and who exact bloody sacrifices and rich offerings; but these presumptuous and false men, who call themselves God's servants and priests, receive and collect everything in the name of idols that have no real existence, for their own benefit.*

Sounds like they are talking about Yahweh and the Magy Bible here doesn't it?

They do all this with an easy conscience, as they think themselves gods not answerable to anyone. If there are some who discover their tricks and expose them, they hand them over to the executioners to be burnt for their calumnies, with solemn ceremonies in honor of the false gods; but really in order to save themselves. In order that our children may be protected against their idolatrous doctrine, the duty of the maidens is to make them learn by heart the following: Wralda existed before all things and will endure after all things. Wralda is also eternal and everlasting, therefore nothing exists without him. From Wralda's life sprang time and all living things, and his life takes away time and every other thing. These things must be made clear and manifest in every way, so that they can be made clear and comprehensible to all. When we have learned thus much, then we say further: In what regards our existence, we are a part of Wralda's everlasting being, like the existence of all created beings, but as regards our form, our qualities, our spirit, and all our thoughts; these do not belong to the being. All these are passing things which appear through Wralda's life, and which appear through his wisdom, and not otherwise; but whereas his life is continually progressing, nothing can remain stationary, therefore all created things change their locality, their form, and their thoughts.

So neither the earth nor any other created object can say, I am; but rather, I was. So no man can say, I think: but rather, I thought. The boy is greater and different from the child; he has different desires, inclinations, and thoughts. The man and father feel and think differently from the boy, the old man just the same. Everybody knows that. Besides, everybody knows and must acknowledge that his is now changing, that he changes every minute even while he says, I am, and that his thoughts change even while he says, I think. Instead, then, of imitating Finda's wicked people, and saying, I am the best part of Wralda, and through us alone he can think, we proclaim everywhere where it is necessary, We, Frya's children, exist through Wralda's life- in the beginning mean and base, but always advancing towards perfection without ever attaining the excellence of Wralda himself. Our spirit is not Wralda's spirit. It is merely a shadow of it. When Wralda created us, he lent us his wisdom, brains, organs, memory, and many other good qualities. By this means we are able to contemplate his creatures and his laws; by this means we can learn and can speak of them always, and only for our own benefit. If Wralda had given us no organs, we should have known nothing and been more irrational than a piece of seaweed driven up and down by the ebb and flood.

So neither the earth nor any other created object can say, I am; but rather, I was. So no man can say, I think: but rather, I thought. The Magy are trying to usurp Wralda as the creator, and make their Yahweh god, and to make the Magy hold their own laws, instead of Wralda's law within the hearts of every Frya.

Here, COPYING Frya's Tex and making it their own. Exodus 3 ~ And God said unto Moses, I am that I am; and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I am hath sent me unto you.

So neither the earth nor any other created object can say, I am; but rather, I was. And mocked by Aleister Crowley and his Thelema. He said he came in contact with a spirit demon named Aiwass. And another known as LAM.

So we have

AIWASS ~ I WAS

And

LAM ~ I AM

In mockery to Wralda, THEY think that they can "through force of will" attain godhood.

John 14- Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life, no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

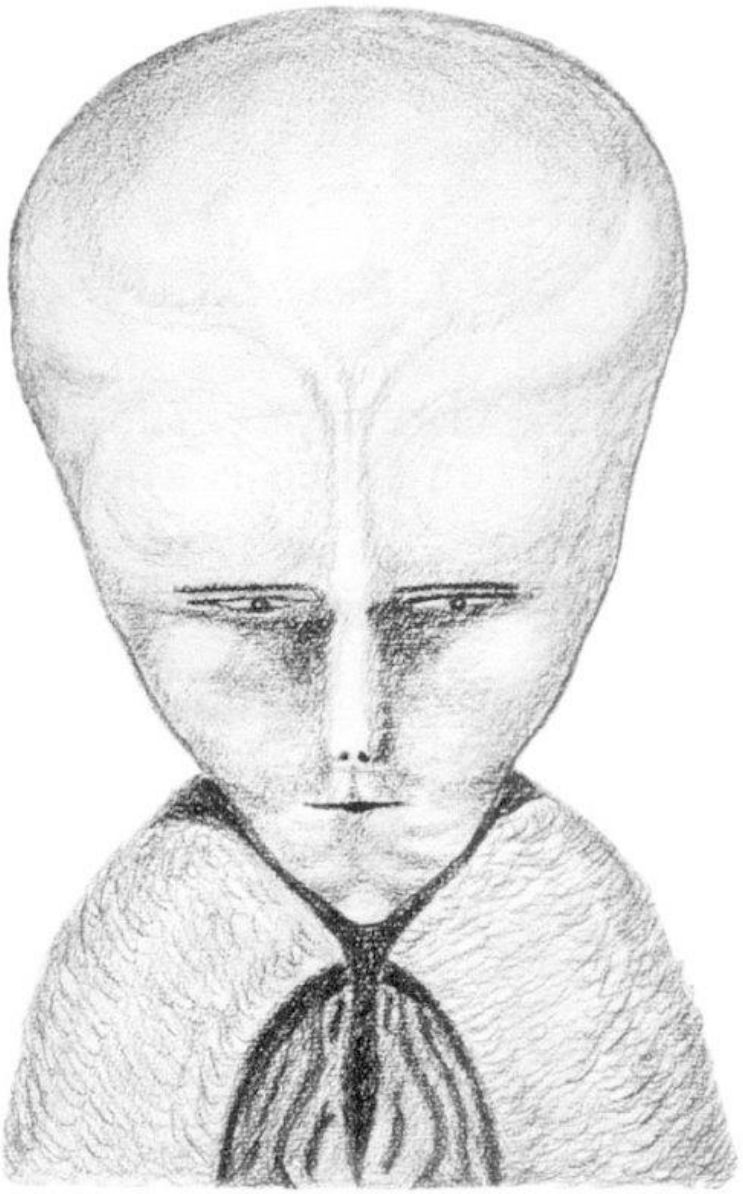
I AM THE WAY.

THE WAY, it says on LAM.

And in true mockery, what is Lam's head shaped like?



THE WAY

LAM is the Tibetan word for Way or Path, and LAMA is He who Goeth, the specific title of the Gods of Egypt, the Treader of the Path, in Buddhistic phraseology. Its numerical value is 71, the number of this book.

The True Story of Wodin

We will see here that Wodin was a mortal man, that the Magy turned into a god for their wicked purposes.

*Hills, bow your heads; weep, ye streams and clouds. Yes, Schoonland (Scandinavia) blushes, an enslaved people trample on your garment, O Frya.*

This is the history.

*One hundred and one years after the submersion of Aldland a people came out of the East. That people were driven by another. Behind us, in Twiskland (Poland), they fell into disputes, divided into two parties, and each went its own way. Of the one no account has come to us, but the other came in the back of our Schoonland, which was thinly inhabited, particularly the upper part. Therefore, they were able to take possession of it without contest, and as they did no other harm, we would not make war about it. Now that we have learned to know them, we will describe their customs, and after that how matters went between us. They were not wild people, like most of Finda's race; but, like the Egyptians, they have priests and also statues in their churches. The priests are the only rulers; they call themselves Magyars, and their headman* MAGY. He is high priest and king in one.

The rest of the people are of no account and in subjection to them. This people have not even a name; but we call them Finns, because although all the festivals are melancholy and bloody, they are so formal that we are inferior to them in that respect. But still they are not to be envied, because they are slaves to their priests, and still more to their creeds. They believe that evil spirits abound everywhere, and enter into men and beasts, but of Wralda's spirit they know nothing*. They have weapons of stone, the Magyars of copper. The Magyars affirm that they can exorcise and recall the evil spirits, and this frightens the people, so that you never see a cheerful face. When they were well established, the Magyars sought our friendship, they praised our language and customs, our cattle and iron weapons, which they would willingly have exchanged for their gold and silver ornaments, and they always kept their people within their own boundaries, and that outwitted our watchfulness.*

*Eighty years afterwards, just at the time of the Juul feast, they overran our country like a snowstorm driven by the wind. All who could not flee away were killed. Frya was appealed to, but the Schoonlanders had neglected her advice. Then all the forces were assembled, and three hours from Godasburgt (Gothenburg, Sweden) they were withstood, but war continued. Kat was the name of the Burgh Maiden of Godasburgt. Kat was proud and haughty and would neither seek counsel nor aid from the Mooder, but when the Burgtheeren (citizens) knew this, they themselves sent messengers to Texland to the Mooder. Minna- this was the name of the Mooder- summoned all the sailors and the young men from Oostflyland and* Denmark. From this expedition the history of Wodin sprang, which is inscribed on the citadels, and is here copied.

At Aldegamude there lived an old sea-king whose name was Sterik, and whose deeds were famous. This old fellow had three nephews. Wodin, the eldest, lived at Lumkamakla, near the Eemude, in Oostflyland, with his parents. He had once commanded troops. Teunis and Inka were naval warriors and were just then staying with their father at Aldegamude. When the young warriors had assembled together, they chose Wodin to be their leader or king, and the naval force chose Teunis for their sea-king and Inka for their admiral. The navy then sailed to Denmark, where they took on board Wodin and his valiant host.

Note that all three, Wodin, Teunis and Inka left their mark on the world. Wodin, became a god of the Magy, and is followed today in the Magy Pagan religion of Europe, Teunis founded the country of Tunisia, and also became a god of the Magy called Neptune or Poseidon, and Inka sailed to South America, became known by the Magy as Quetzalcoatl and founded the Inca civilization.

The wind was fair, so they arrived immediately in Schoonland. When the northern brothers met together, Wodin divided his powerful army into three bodies. Frya was their war cry, and they drove back the Finns and Magyars like children. When the Magy heard how his forces had been utterly defeated, he sent messengers with truncheon and crown, who said to Wodin: O almighty king, we are guilty, but all that we have done was done from necessity. You think that we attacked your brothers out of ill will, but we were driven out by our enemies, who are still at our heels. We have often asked your Burgh Maiden for help, but she took no notice of us. The Magy says that if we kill half our numbers in fighting with each other, then the wild shepherds will come and kill all the rest. The Magy possesses great riches, but he has seen that Frya is much more powerful than all our spirits together. He will lay down his head in her lap. You are the most warlike king on earth; and your people are of iron. Become our king, and we will all be your slaves. What glory it would be for you if you could drive back the savages! Our trumpet would resound with your praises, and the fame of your deeds would precede you everywhere. Wodin was strong, fierce, and warlike, be he was not clear-sighted; therefore he was taken in by their toils and crowned by the Magy.

Very many of the sailors and soldiers to whom this proceeding was displeasing went away secretly, taking Kat with them. But Kat, who did not wish to appear before either the Mooder or the general assembly, jumped overboard. Then a storm arose and drove the ships upon the banks of Denmark, with the total destruction of their crews. This strait was afterwards called the Kattegat. When Wodin was crowned, he attacked the savages, who were all horsemen, and fell upon Wodin's troops like a hailstorm, but like a whirlwind they were turned back, and did not dare to appear again. When Wodin returned, Magy gave him his daughter to wife. Whereupon he was incensed with herbs; but they were magic herbs, and by degrees he became so audacious that he dared to disavow and ridicule the spirits of Frya and Wralda, while he bent his free head before the false and deceitful images. His reign lasted seven years, and then he disappeared. The Magy said that he was taken up by their gods and still reigned over us, but our people laughed at what they said. When Wodin had disappeared some time, disputes arose. We wished to choose another king, but the Magy would not permit it. He asserted that it was his right given him by his idols. But besides this dispute there was one between the Magyars and Finns, who would honor neither Frya nor Wodin; but the Magy did just as he pleased, because his daughter had a son by Wodin, and he would have it that this son was of high descent. While all were disputing and quarreling, he crowned the boy as king and set up himself as guardian and counselor. Those who cared more for themselves than for justice let him work his own way, but the good men took their departure. Many Magyars fled back with their troops, and the sea-people took ship, accompanied by a body of stalwart Finns and rowers.

The Scandinavians say that Finland is not part of Scandinavia. It is separate. And from the Oera Linda Book it appears this was always so. The Magyar in the land known today as Finland were called FINNAR by the Fryan's. This was because they were regarded as Asians, otherwise known as descendants of Finda. These same Magyars are in Hungary today where they call themselves by this name.

You notice they all have crosses in their flags, this includes Scotland too, this shows who took over control, the Magy with their desert Bible religion.

Raubenheimer states, Modern day linguists tell us that the Finnish language, which belongs to the Finno-Permic language group, is the most closely related language to Estonian and Hungarian. Hungary, though, is some 1200 kilometers away. The Hungarian language belongs to the Ugric group which has developed in parallel with the Finno-Permic languages some 4000 years ago. The Finno-Permic and Ugric groups, both of the Uralic language family, would appear TO HAVE PARTED WAYS WEST OF THE URAL MOUNTAINS precisely when the Oera Linda Book tells us! The book even tells us that the split happened 4000 years ago; again, precisely what modern researchers are proposing. Neither of these language groups are related to the Indo-European languages of the Fryans.

Remember that the hordes came to Europe after the Great Flood which displaced many people, including Finda's people in the Middle East.

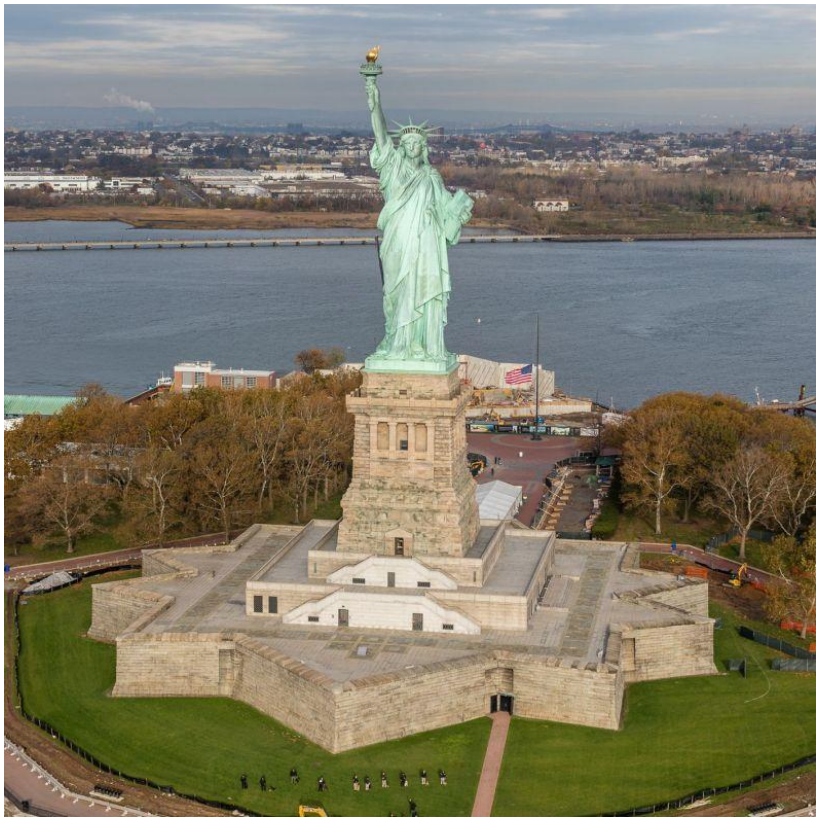
And we can see that Wodin was a TRAITOR to his people. Instead of killing off the Magyar so they would be a threat no more to his people, he instead let them woo him and inflate his ego and killed the enemies of their enemies, empowering the Magyars even more! Being crowned King of the Magyars too, Wodin did so that he could remain a King. He was power hungry. In the Fryan culture, kings were only kings for three years. This is to ensure the people remain free, that there is no man ruling over them.

Once Wodin wed the Magy's daughter she had a son by him. This son now REPLACED Wodin. He had Wodin's blood in him. Wodin disappeared after seven years, mostly likely killed by the Magyars. But they made an idol of him, a false god, and to this day European Pagans worship a mere mortal as if he was the Almighty God.

So we can see how the WICKEDNESS OF MEN leads to treachery among Frya's people. Just like today! When we see "Shabbos goy" aiding our enemies for selfish gain, service-to-self, instead of what is best for our people as a whole, service-to-others. This was the job of the Burgh Mooder for each citadel in Frya's Land, to keep the morals of the people in check.

The symbol of their morals and freedom was the torch, that each Burgh Mooder made sure stayed lit. We can see how this symbol was used for the Olympic ceremony.

And even later by the Magy today- mirroring the good and using it for bad. The statue of LIBERTY with the lit torch was originally FRYA'S SYMBOL and usurped by the Magy trying to take over our world.



Never meddle with the people of Lyda nor of Finda. Wralda would help them so that any violence that goes out from you would return on your own heads.

Should it happen that they want advice or something else from you, you should help them. If they come to rob you, though, then fall upon them like a raging fire.

More from Raubenheimer, in the Oera Linda Book, We find the origins of the Common Law, as it appeared later in Roman-Dutch Law. The Fryans believed that Wralda placed the knowledge of right and wrong, good and evil into the soul of every person. They called this inherent knowledge EVA.

Is this where EVE of Adam and Eve came from?

The word "Eva" is too sacred for common use; therefore, men have learned to say "Evin." Eva means that knowledge which is implanted in the breast of every man in order that he may know what is right and wrong, and by which he is able to judge his own deeds and those of others; that is to say, if he has been well and not badly brought up.

Again, usurped by the Magy in their Bible, Jeremiah 31 ~ For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the Lord; I will put my LAW WITHIN THEM, AND I WILL WRITE IT ON THEIR HEARTS. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

The Fryans were also the first seamen. They were the bravest men and built ships to explore every inch of this plane. Their desire was not for material wealth but for adventure. The Phoenicians, thought to be the Fryans, were actually a mixed breed, part Fryan, part Lyda and part Finda. When we hear of the ships sailing to Britain to obtain tin, it was the tin of Frya's land that the Fryans would bring to the people of the Mediterranean. The Fryans were known as the Sea People.

Regarding the Phoenicians in the Oera Linda Book: The Phoenicians are a bastard race of the blood of Frya, Finda, and Lyda. The Lyda people were there as slaves, but by the unchastity of the women, these black people have degenerated the other people and dyed them brown.

In addition to being the first seafarers, the Fryans were the ones to invent the 24-hour day, numerals, and yes, the alphabet, which they believe was given to them by Wralda.

What is Written Hereunder is Inscribed on the Walls of Waraburgt

What appears at the top is the signs of the Juul- that is, the first symbol of Wralda, also of the origin or beginning from which Time is derived; this is the Kroder, which must always go round with the Juul. According to this model Frya formed the set hand which she used to write her Tex. When Fasta was Burgh Mooder she made a running hand out of it. The Sea-king Godfried the Old- made separate numbers for the set hand and for the runic hand. It is therefore not too much that we celebrate once a year. We may be eternally thankful to Wralda that he allowed his spirit to exercise such an influence over our forefathers.

In her time Finda also invented a mode of writing, but that was so high-flown and full of flourishes that her descendants had soon lost the meaning of it.

Afterwards they learned our writing- that is, the Finns, the Thyriers, and the Krekalanders- but they did not know that it was taken from the Juul and must therefore always be written round like the Sun. Furthermore, they wished that their writing should be illegible by other people. Because they always had matters to conceal. In doing this they acted very unwisely, because their children could only with great difficulty read the writings of their predecessors, whereas our most ancient writings are as easy to read as those that were written yesterday.

And from earlier in the book we read, They each bore 12 sons and 12 daughters—at every Juul-time a couple. Thence come all mankind. The Germanic nations STILL have a Juul fest in remembrance of this.

I looked up on the Wiki to see what they would say about this festival and wow, talk about mirroring the good and using for bad! Everything is fine except for the last sentence.

Yule or Yuletide ("Yule time" or "Yule season") is a festival historically observed by the Germanic peoples. Scholars have connected the original celebrations of Yule to the Wild Hunt, the god Odin, and the pagan Anglo-Saxon Mōdraniht.

Later departing from its pagan roots, Yule underwent Christianised reformulation[citation needed], resulting in the term Christmastide. Many present-day Christmas customs and traditions such as the Yule log, Yule goat, Yule boar, Yule singing, and others stem from pagan Yule traditions. Terms with an etymological equivalent to Yule are still used in Nordic countries and Estonia to describe Christmas and other festivals occurring during the winter holiday season. Today, Yule is celebrated in Heathenry and other forms of Neopaganism, as well as in LaVeyan Satanism.

The Magyars on the other hand did not believe in one God creating everything and in fact practiced what today is called Shamanism. This is a set of beliefs and practices whereby practitioners communicate with the supernatural. A Shamanic priest is known as a Shaman who acts as an intermediary between humans and the spirit worlds. The religion was practiced throughout the Iron Age by the Finno-Baltic peoples.

Raubenheimer adds, The pagan Magyar were very militant and regimental in their lifestyle and they dabble in the occult.

And Raubenheimer makes the connection of Magyar with Magog.

Ezekiel 38~ And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against God, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him.

He says that Biblical Scholars accept that Gog means mountain and the mountain described in the Bible for Gog are the Caucasus Mountains. Between the Black and Caspian Seas is the location where the tribe of Esau set up shop. Land of the Mongol. Land of the Magyar. Land of the Magog.

MAGYAR ~ MONGOL ~ MAGOG

Did you know George Bush Senior went by Magog in Skull and Bones?

Gauls and Celts

The Gauls and the Celts are another that gets sorted out in the Oera Linda Book. The Gauls, also known as the Gola by the Fryans, called themselves Trowe Widena (Knowers of the Truth) but Fryans did not trust them and so called them Trowe Wendena (Truth Avoiders). The ancient Golan priests from Sidon derived their name from the nearby Golan Heights; some 40 km south-east of Sidon. Golan means Captive in Hebrew.

And here is an interesting excerpt from the Oera Linda Book:

When Kalta saw that her scheme had failed, she went from bad to worse. She secretly sent for the Magyars to teach her sorcery. When she had had enough of this, she threw herself into the arms of the GOLUM, though, all her malpractice could not make her better.

So, there we have the Gauls also connected to the Golem. From the Wiki, In Jewish Folklore, a golem is an animated anthropomorphic being that is created entirely from inanimate matter (usually clay or mud). The word was used to mean an amorphous, unformed material in Psalms and medieval writing.

GOLUM ~ GOLEM

And of course, we have the famous “my pretty” Golem in Lord of the Rings.

So, the Gauls are a subgroup of the Celts, believing in particular religious ideologies. The Celts though aren’t much better. Having broken off from the Fryans when their Burgh Mooder Kalta got into a dispute with the Burgh Mooder Minerva. Kalta was the aggressor, but since Minerva retaliated, both were banned from the land. Minerva and her people went to Greece and founded the Grecian Colonies, while Kalta sought other ways of support. From the Chronicles, Kalta declared a Unilateral Declaration of Independence and also annexed Britannia. She received all the support she needed to throw off the restrictive laws and creed of the Fryan Council.

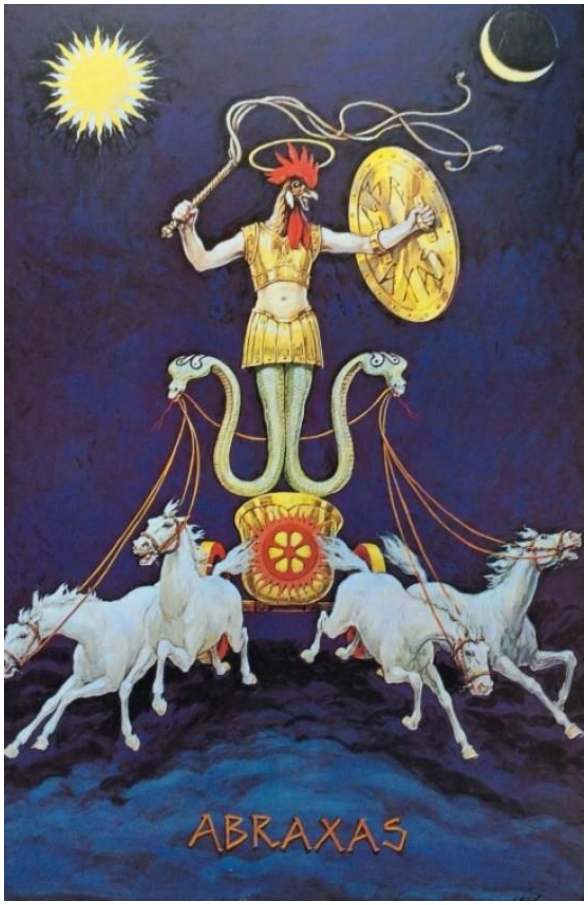
Now Kalta came and said, You were born free, and for small offences you have been made outcasts. (Britannia was the Fryan penal colony), not for your own improvement, but to mine tin by your hands. If you wish to be free again and live under my council and care, come out then, you will be given weapons, and I will watch over you. Like lightning it went through the land and before the Carrier’s Yule had made one revolution, she was mistress over all of them and the Thyriers from our southern states up to the Selene.

So Kalta became the ruler of the outcast Fryans. Notice that Britain was the penal colony of Fryan Land just like Australia was the penal colony for Britain. Also, when the Fryans had Finda's and Lyda's people working temporarily on their lands, they would house them on islands in the middle of lakes so they could not mix with the local Fryans and miscegenate.

CULT is derived from CELT. And Kalta places a rooster on her banner. The rooster reminds me of Abraxas the rooster headed God, the Cult of Abraxas. Also, the French Resistance used the rooster as their symbol.

Celt would be from Kalt, a follower of Kalta. And they wore Kelts.

CELT ~ CULT ~ KELTS



Just like the German Resistance used a WHITE rose, also a symbol of the Magy cult.

And yes, Sophia Scholl looks more like a Stephen Scholl.

And I don't know why "she" had a white daisy on her shirt when they were called the White ROSE Resistance.

Minerva on the other hand chose a sheep dog and an owl for her mascots. That dog, she said, guards his master and his flock, and of course it makes us think of Jesus and his sheep, and the night owl watches that the mice shall not devastate the fields.

The priests further say to Minerva, Tell us what is the meaning of the night owl that always sits above your head? Is that light-shunning animal perhaps a sign of your clear vision?

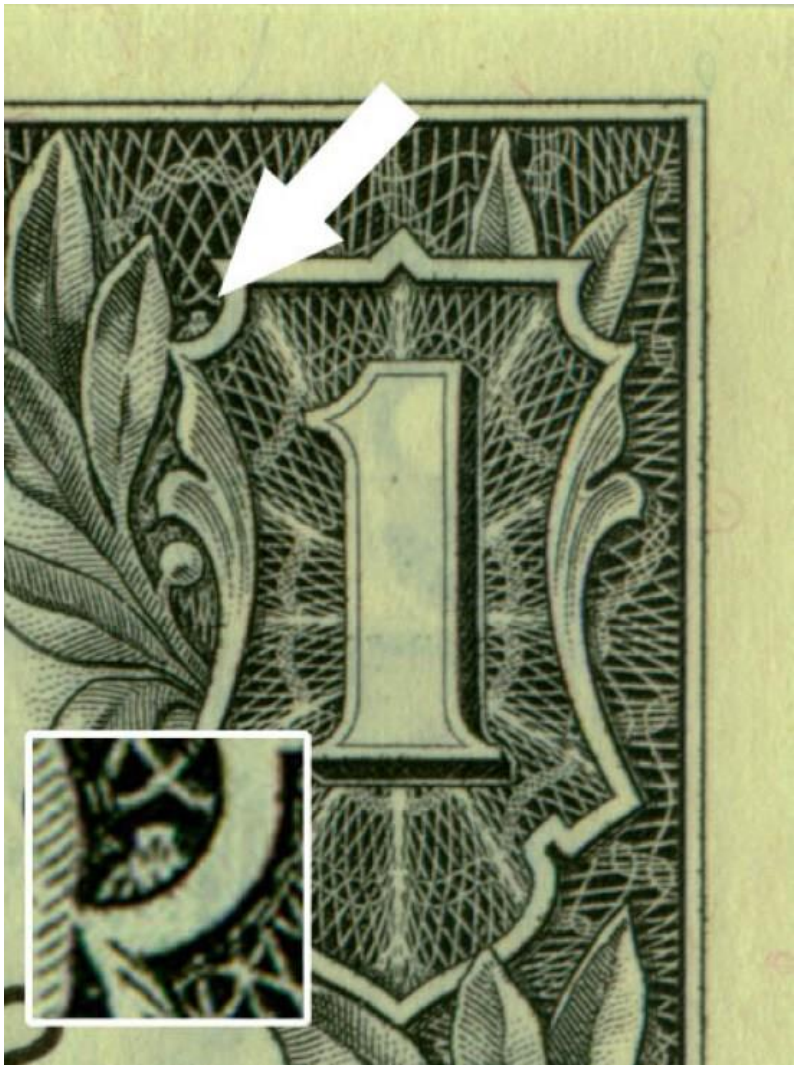
No, she answered. He helps to remind me that there are people roaming the earth who, like him, live in churches and holes. They keep to the dark, though, not like him to rid us of mice and other plagues, but to invent tricks to steal other people's knowledge that they may get a better hold to make slaves of them, and to suck their blood like vampires do.

Notice that this night owl is used by the secret society called Skull and Bones and can even be seen hiding on the one-dollar bill. Another usurpation. Using good for bad. They use it as seeing in the dark (hidden knowledge) where the rest of us can't see.

And who could those vampires be that roam this earth without a particular home? The same people that parasite off of us today. You know the ones. The same people that put Minerva's owl on the dollar bill- stealing it away and using it for themselves =the Magy.



The Gertman

Before we leave, I have a few more connections to share with you. One is of the Gertman. Notice how similar GERTMAN is to GERMAN.

GERTMAN ~ GERMAN

When Minerva died in Athens the local priests didn't want another Burgh Mooder named in her place. They made her into a Goddess and erected false idols in worship to her. But the Fryans would have none of that and elected Gert to be the new Mooder. They called themselves the Gertmanne in support of her.

Eventually Athens became like a morass in a tropical country full of leaches, toads, and poisonous snakes, in which no man of decent morals can set his foot.

Like today in the white countries of the world!

So, the Gertman decided to leave and find another home more suitable to their morals and way of life.

Three months later Gert departed with the best of Frya's children and seven times 12 ships.

When they were one day's sailing out of the harbor, there came thirty ships from Thyris with wives and children. They were on their way to Athenia, but when they heard how things stood there, they went with Gert. The Sea King of the Thyriers brough them all through the strait, which at that time ran into the Red Sea.

At last, they landed at Pangap, that is, in our language, Five Waters, because here five rivers flow together to the sea. Here they settled. That land they called Gertmannia.

From Raubenheimer, The Oera Linda Book records that when a remnant of these people returned to Frya's Land more than 1,200 years later, they were essentially the same- even in the use of their language.

The Aryans were the Fryans- the Gertmanne from Athenia who settled relatively peaceful in the Punjab.

ARYANS ~ FRYANS

Scotland~ Scythland

It's interesting to note that when mourning the death of their Burgh Mooder Adela, they played the bagpipes.

In the northern part of Britain, which is full of high mountains, there exists a Scotch people; most of them spring from Fyra's blood.

They are in the high mountains and nicknamed Highlanders; I found it interesting that the main language spoken in Germany today is called HIGH German and also originates from the mountainous regions of Germany. Germany's highlands.

Also, we read:

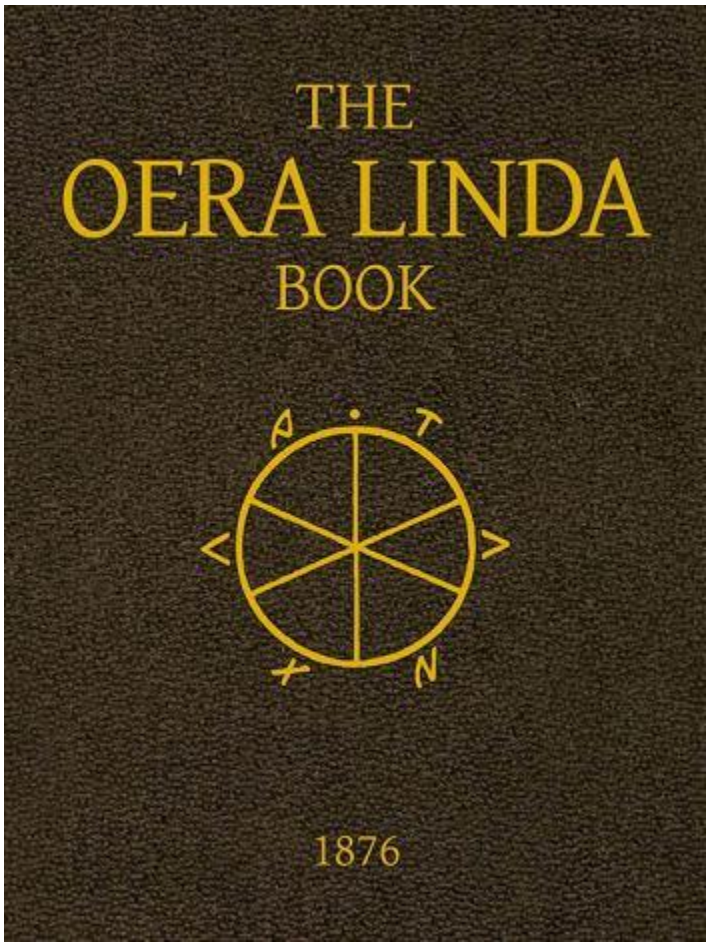
Then the leaders of the Twisklanders came together, and after twenty-one days they chose Alrik as duke. Alrik was Ashar's nephew. He gave him two hundred SCOTCH and one hundred of the greatest SAKSMANNEN to go with him as bodyguards.

So, we can see the Scots and the Saxons were both noble Fryan tribes.

PART 10 ~ THE TRUE TRUE OF THE OERA LINDA BOOK

After making Part 9 on the Oera Linda Book there were a few things I read that bothered me. There were certain stories in the OLB that were so close to what I've read in the Bible. At first, I thought this was good. That this confirmed the Bible. But the more I got to thinking about both, the more I realized that wasn't the case.

I self-imposed the exposing of my cognitive dissonance in my thinking and had to resolve it.



So, I started thinking about the timelines of both books. I did a Google search on when the Bible was written, and this is what came up:

The first five books of the Bible are attributed to Moses and are commonly called the Pentateuch. Moses lived between 1500 and 1300 BC, though he recounts events in the first 11 chapters of the Bible that occurred long before his time (such as the creation and the flood.)

Note that the OLB ALSO recounts the Creation Story and the Great Flood. The OLB covers the Great Flood, dated at 2193 BC, to the time period of 1256 AD.

It continues:

In those early societies there was no writing as yet and people passed on these oral accounts with great detail and accuracy. These earliest accounts were handed on from generation to generation, narratives, and poetry.

Note that Fryans actually DID have writing from early on. They were given the Yule, by Wralda, upon which the alphabet, numbers and a way to tell time, were derived. They used this alphabet to write their laws on the burgh walls. Eventually, they wrote them in books too, as per Adela's instructions, but since these were on paper, practically all perished in the frequent floods. Some oral traditions were passed along, and later written down, in the form of poetry, such as the Icelandic Prose Edda, and in children's stories called Fairy Tales, that taught, in a clever way, the 'particular people' the children needed to be wary of.

Prose Edda by Snorri Sturluson

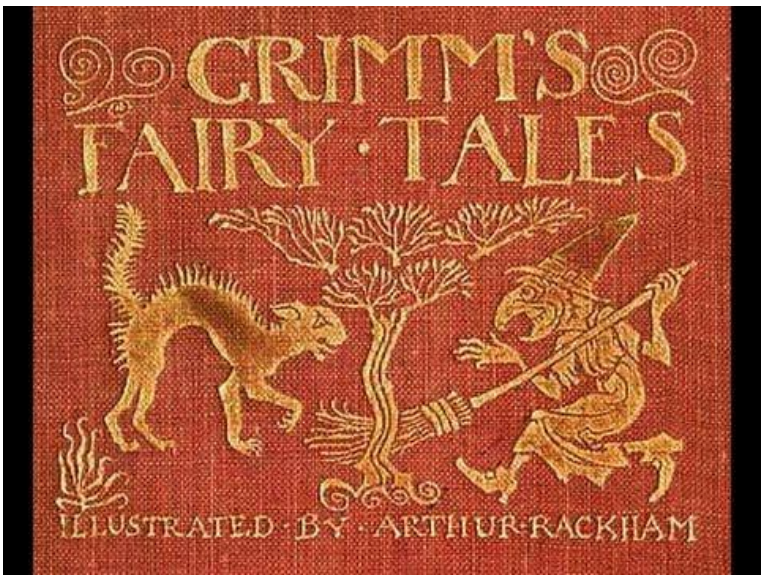
FAIRY ~ FRYA



So, the OLB was written sometime after Moses, but more than 500 years before Christ, and into the 13th century. And covering many time periods in between. What this tells us is that Fryans, who were prevalent in the Mediterranean area during the time of Moses, should mention all their struggles in Egypt and Palestine IF they were living there, IN the OLB, and that the Bible should mention them as well. But neither do.

The only mention of “foreigners” would be the Hyksos Kings that ruled Egypt for a time, and by the Fryan account, these would be mixed people, mixed with Frya and Finda and possibly Lyda, like the Phoenicians were. Since the area was already mixed to a great extent due to the known-world catastrophe called the Great Flood, it would be hard-pressed to call anyone living in that area PURE. And we know that the term ARAB actually means MIXED.

In the Bible, the word Arav is closely associated with the word Erev, meaning a “mix of people” which has an identical spelling. Jeremiah 25:24 parallels “kings of Arav” with “kings of the Erev” that dwell in the wilderness.

ARAV ~ EREV ~ ARAB

Remember in Hebrew, vowels were added later, so having A’s or E’s is more of a pronunciation preference than a change in meaning.

So not only were the Egyptians mixed, but so were the Israelites. Now why would God "choose" these mixed people? Especially when he tells them not to mix, to the tenth generation?

Deuteronomy 23:2 ~ A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord.

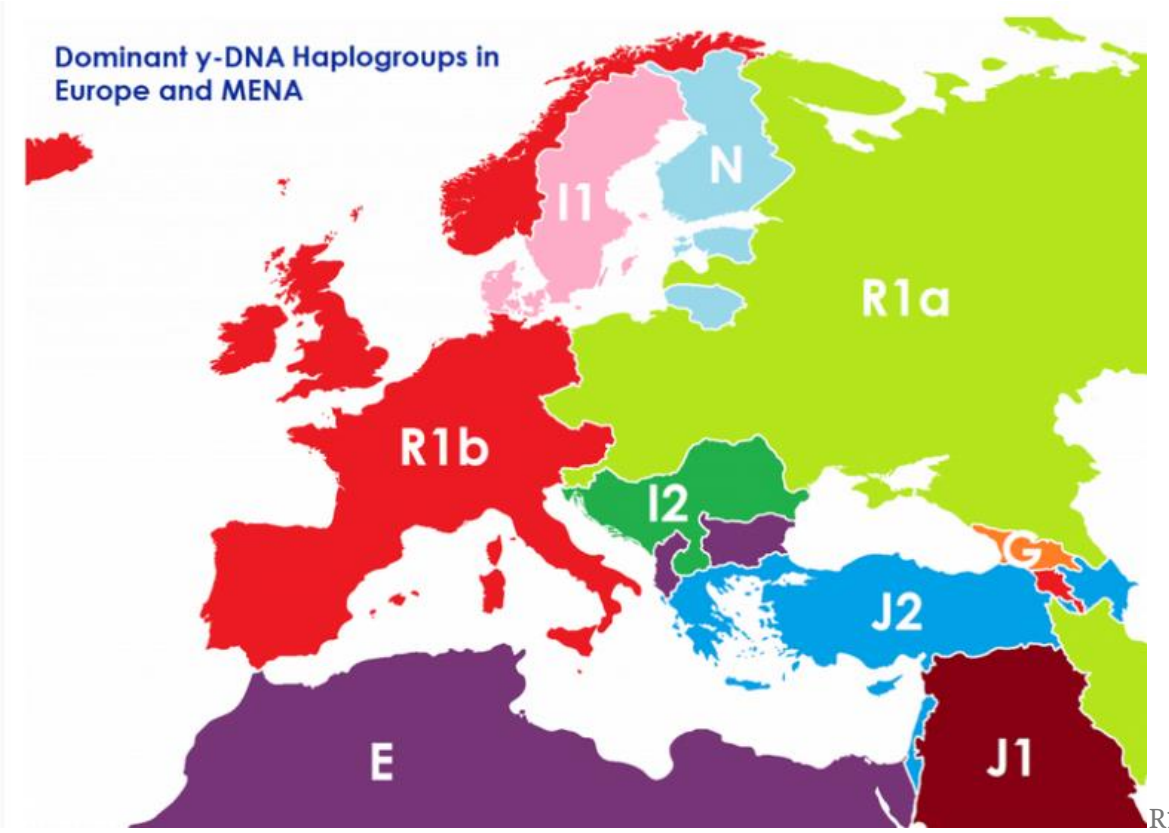
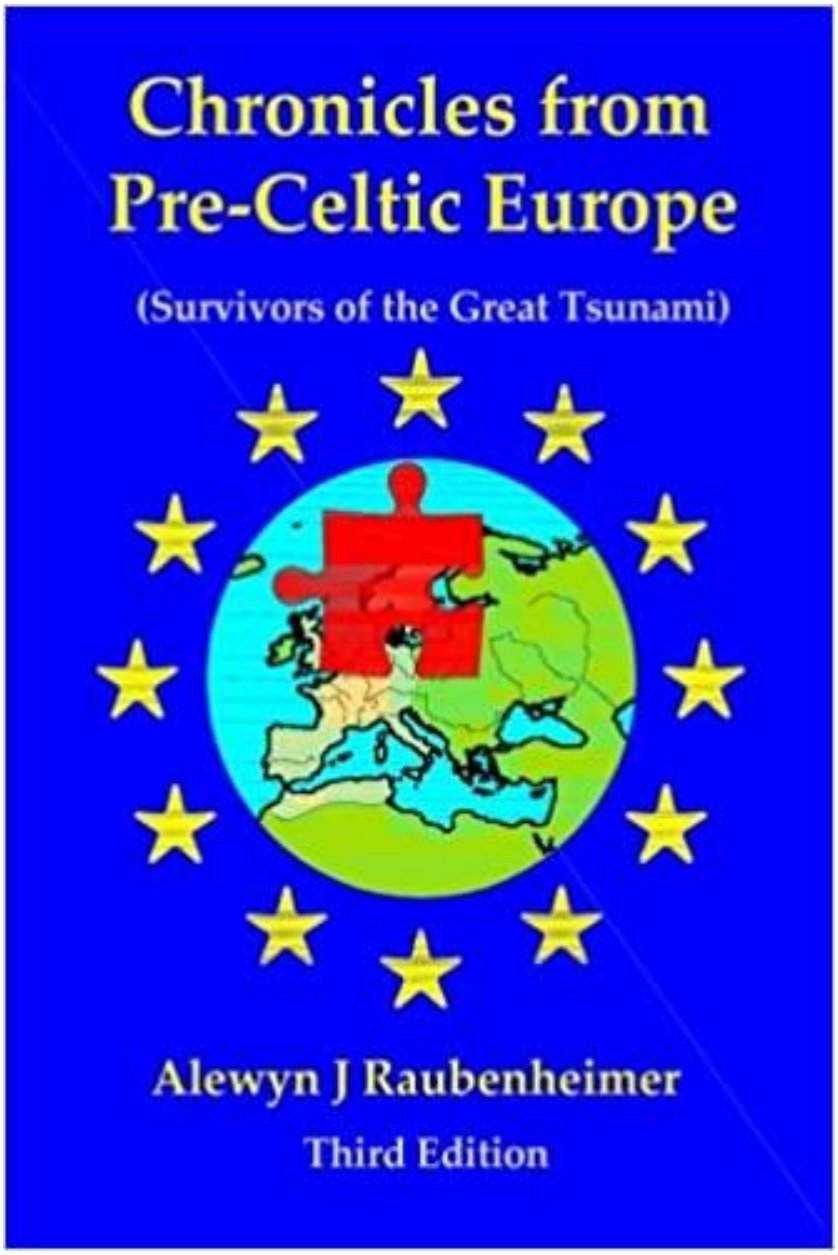
And if we look at a DNA map of Europe and the Mediterranean, we will notice that R1b, which is the Haplo group for Western Europeans, doesn't exist in the area of the Bible. It would if they were actually FROM this area and migrated TO Europe. From the OLB it is very clear that the White Race originated FROM Europe and ventured OUT, exploring new lands, both in the Mediterranean and all over the known world.



R1b- Western European, R1a- Eastern European, J1 and J2- Middle Eastern

Now, the OLB is the MOST ANCIENT writing of the Western European people and verified thoroughly by people such as Alwyn J. Raubenheimer, in his work Chronicles from Pre-Celtic Europe. So if you believe the OLB to be true, and that it is the OLDEST writing from Europe, then one would have to use this writing as the basis from which all other writings regarding Europeans would be verified. And remember, ALL the stories in the OLB would have to be true. You can't accept 95% as truth, but then, because you don't understand or don't like one of the stories, say that story is false.



And I did notice that particular stories in the OLB, such as the one of the Three Mothers and Jesus of Kasamyr, were intentionally ignored by Raubenheimer, because these stories are in direct contradiction to the Bible. But if we desire truth above all, wouldn't it be our duty to examine them? Truth fears no scrutiny.

So, this is what I did. I went back through and read the OLB again. This time looking for any stories that are similar to stories in the Bible. I compared them to see how they are the same and how they differ, and I will share my conclusions with you on the comparisons. I also made some other observations that I will share as well.

So let's begin…

You must protect these books with body and soul. They contain the history of all our people. ~ Hidde Oera Linda, 1256 AD

Hidde Oera Linda- HIDE the OERA LINDA.

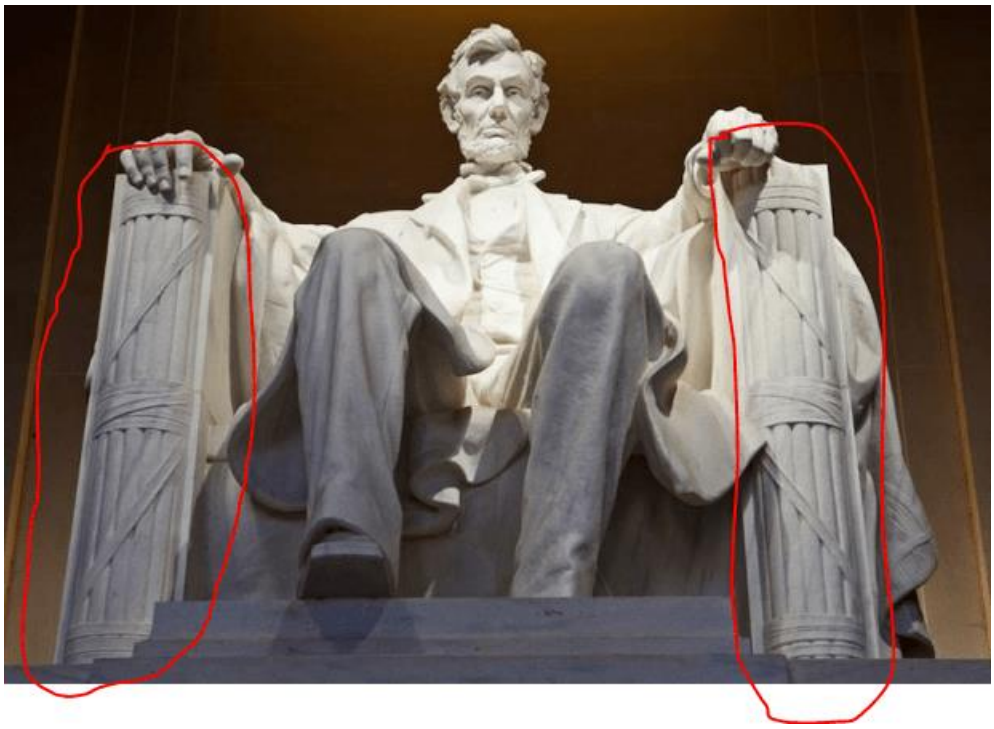
Protect it.

FRYAN literally means FREE PEOPLE.

To be a free people we can't be ruled over by priests OR princes. Finda's people were always ruled this way by the Magy. The Magy swept into Europe from the East from the time of Noah's Flood, which not only decimated Frya's land, but Finda's land too in the Middle East. The few survivors of Frya had learned they had to pack together to survive. The stragglers were either picked off by the Magy or assimilated into their tribe.

Unity was strength. Symbolized by the Fasci.



Lincoln Memorial, Abe with two Fasci, symbolizing Unity of the North and the South.

Many years later, and with the influence of the Magy, some of Frya's people rebelled from their homeland and split off. They became the Celts and the Gauls. These rebels took over Britain, Southern France and Spain, and ruled the seas in the Mediterranean (Middle Sea).

Celts are not a separate race from Fryans. They split off from the Father country and followed the Burgh Mooder Kalta. Hence Celt is from Kalta, as is the word Cult.

And KILTS are what they wore.

KALTS ~ CELTS ~ KILTS

The whole of the Mediterranean became influenced by these Magy, including lands of the Fryans, such as Italy and Greece (the near and far Krekalands). Italy was founded by the Trojans who WERE originally pure Fryans, but many Finda and Lyda flooded Italy. The Roman Empire exacerbated the miscegenation by allowing the other races to assimilate into Roman culture and society. So, the Magy foothold was well established.

Buddha Jesus

Now let's touch on what most people will find to be the most alarming story in the OLB. The one that would have the hardest programming to break. And yes, it involves those pesky Magy. It's the story of Jesus Christ in India.

To understand Jesus' position in the OLB we must first look at two other notable people, Athena and Odin. Both were relegated to "god" status, but by whom? and why?

The priests and princes of the Magy who ruled over the Hellenes, the local Finda people in the area around Athens, first tried to get their people to turn on the Fryans and their Burgh Mooder Athena. They wanted to do this because Athena talked of freedom for all people.

Archbishop of Athens

When being questioned by a local priest regarding the symbols she used:

The priest replied, …but what is the purpose of the dog on your right hand? Athena/Minerva replied, Does not the shepherd have a dog to keep his flock together? What the dog is to the shepherd I am in Frya's service. I must watch over Frya's flock.

You probably picked up on the similarity between Athena being a shepherd to HER flock and Jesus being a shepherd to HIS flock.

The local people, Hellenes, were given that name by the Fryans. Hellenes or Hellingers, means Cliff Hangers. They were named this because these people lived on the rocky slopes.

And when Athena/Minerva was later questioned by a prince of that land, then the ruler said:

I should think it is best to submit, said the priest. Athena/Minerva replied, Very possibly, for then men would be like lame SHEEP, and you and the priests would not only want to take care of them but also shear them and lead them to shambles. This is not what our God wants, he desires that we should help one another, but he also wants everybody to become free and wise. That is also our desire, and therefore our people choose their leaders, counts, councilors, chiefs, and master's from the wisest of the good men, in order that every man shall do his best to become wise and good. Thus doing, we learn ourselves and teach the people that being wise and acting wisely alone leads to fulfillment.

Again, we have the visual of Athena and her Sheep, her people. The MAGY want to utterly control the SHEEP, whereas Athena wants to guide them to wisdom.

And you can see how conniving the priests were by what they did then…

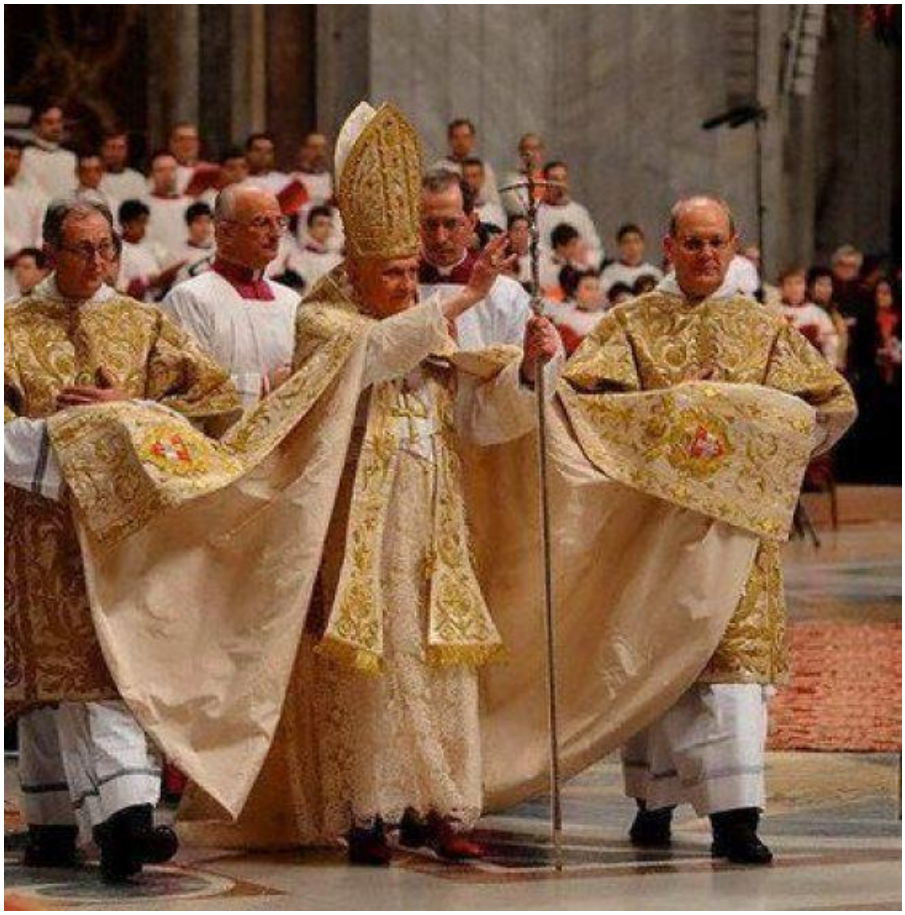
But no, instead of defaming her, they went everywhere, also to Heinde Krekaland (Italy) right up to the Alps, proclaiming that it had pleased the highest god to send his wise daughter Minerva, amongst the people from over the sea on a CLOUD to give people good counsel, and that all who listened to her should become rich and happy, and in the end masters of all kingdoms of the earth. They erected statues of her on altars to beguile the stupid people. They attributed all kinds of advice to her that she had never given and told miracles that she had never performed.

By cunning they made themselves masters of our laws and customs and by fallacies they wished to explain everything and expand thereon.

Athena was vehemently against Idol Worshiping and would oppose statues being made in her image.

So, who does this in modern day? The same priests and princes. We see this in all religions. Telling us how to think about God. The Catholic Church is one of the worst, with its Pope, which literally means Papa (Father). And his Cardinals, Bishops and Priests, all making themselves our masters, and getting fat off of the people's earnings, donations, and alms.

DOGON ~ NO GOD



Pope Benedict in a vintage Dior gown and Fish hat, DOGON hat. DOGON of course is backwards for NOGOD ~ NO GOD.

And we see this in all of our corrupted rulers, like Boris Johnson, who tells Brits to wear a mask and stay behind locked doors, while he takes a vacation sans mask and frolics outdoors.

Or unelected rulers like Bill Gates, who made his money off of computer sales, but somehow becomes THE expert on world health issues.

When Athena/Minerva died, the priests conferred as though they were with us, and that it should clearly appear so, they had Minerva declared a goddess. They also refused to have any other Mooder chosen, saying that they feared there was no one among her matrons whom they could trust like Minerva. But we would not recognize Minerva as a goddess, because she herself had said that no one could be as good or perfect as Wralda's spirit.

See? Even her own people, the Fryans, knew better than to make her a goddess.

And of course, Athena would NEVER have gone for this. She was an upstanding Burgh Mooder devoted to Wralda. She did not believe in worshiping anyone other than the one and only God. She was a MONOTHEIST. In addition, Fryans abhorred false idols and the LAST thing she would want would be statues made of herself. This was complete blasphemy.

Athena, Burgh Mooder to the Fryans of Athens

So just like Minerva here, they did the same thing with Wodin. I wonder how many pagans know the truth about Wodin? That he was an actual man, just like Minerva was an actual woman.

Wodin became a 'god' through his treachery to his people AND once again the cunning of Finda. The Magyars (Findans) who had resided for a good number of years in the northern parts of Scandinavia, came to attack the Fryan's during the Yuletide (Christmas season).

Map should show them going up to Finland and Estonia as well. Uralic languages, established in Finland, Estonia and Hungary.

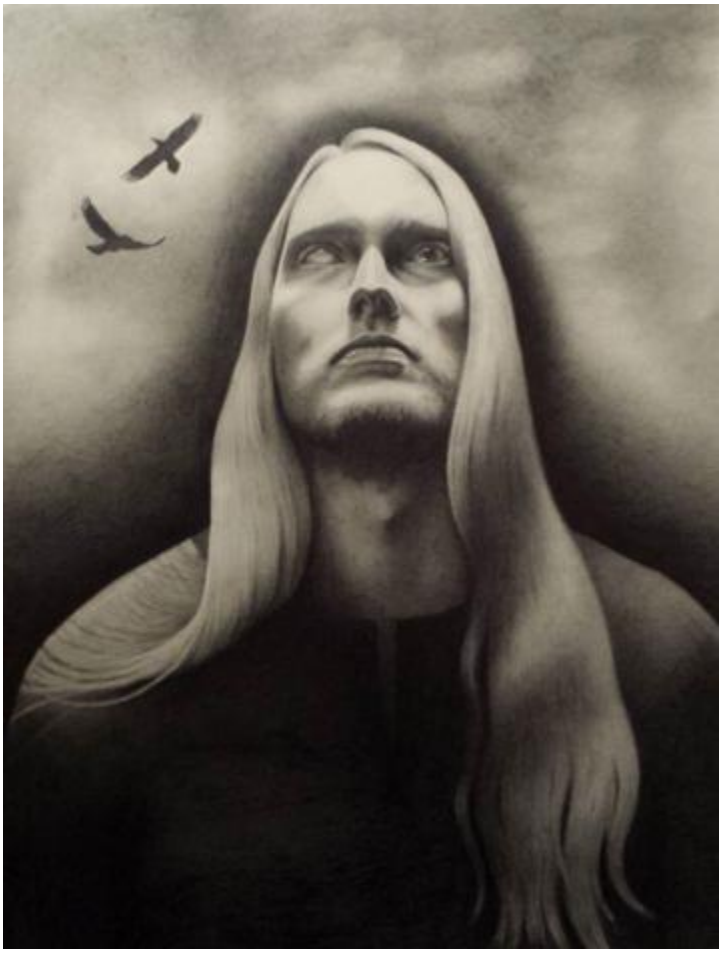
Wodin was one of three brothers picked to be kings to lead the men into battle against this enemy. Here we pick up the story:

The wind was fair and so they shortly arrived in Schoonland. When their northern brothers joined them, Wodin divided his powerful army into three bodies. Frya was their war-cry, and they drove back the Finns and Magyars as if they were children.

When the Magy heard how his men were all being slain, he sent a delegation with truncheon and crown. They said to Wodin, "O greatest of kings, we are guilty, but all that we have done was done from necessity. You think that we took on your brothers willingly, but we were driven out by our enemies, who are still at our heels.

We have often asked your Burgh Mooder for help, but she took no notice of us. The Magy says that if we kill half our numbers in fighting each other, then the wild shepherds will come and kill us all. The Magy possesses great riches, but he has seen that Frya is greater than all of our spirits together. He will lay down his head in her lap.

You are the greatest military king on earth, your people are of iron. Become our king, and we shall willingly become your slaves. What glory it would be for you if you could drive back the savages! Our trumpets would resound with it, and our praises would precede you everywhere.



When Wodin was crowned he attacked the savages. They were all horsemen and like a hailstorm they charged down on Wodin's troops, but like a whirlwind they were turned back, and did not dare appear again. When Wodin returned, the Magy gave him his daughter to wife. Thereupon he was smoked with herbs, but they were MAGIC herbs because he gradually became so audacious that he disavowed and ridiculed the spirits of Frya and Wralda whilst bending his free head before the false monstrous statues. His rein lasted seven years, and then he disappeared. The Magy said that he was taken up by their gods and that he reigned from there over them, but our people laughed at what they said.

So, you can see Wodin became a god that the Magy used to control their people. Just like the same Magy did with Athena. We can see a theme running here.

And Magic is from Magy.

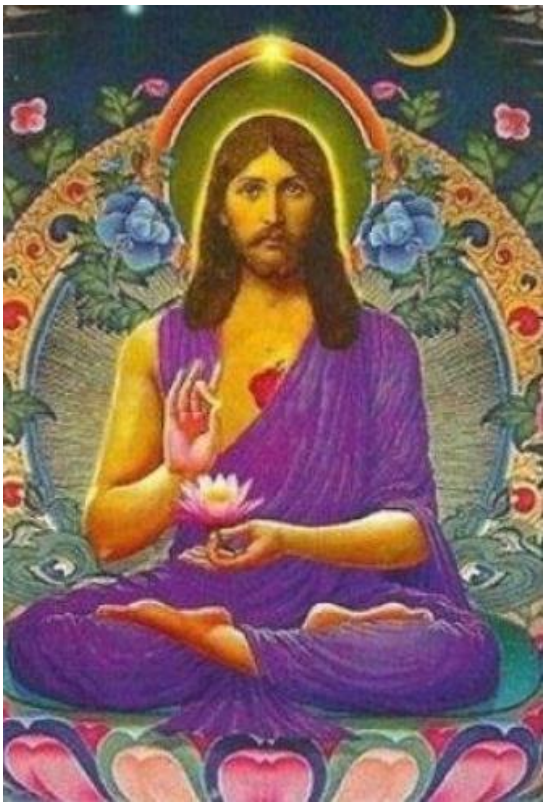
MAGIC ~ MAGY

Notice he sees with his one eye, his LEFT eye. Such a Magy thing to do to a Fryan. Also, they show him with clasped hands into fists. Clenched fists symbolize Communism, which is about as far as you can get to being free as a Fryan.

Now let's look at the story about Jesus Christ in the OLB.

Sixteen times a hundred years after Atland was submerged (593 BC), something happened which nobody had contemplated in the heart of Findasland, upon a mountain, like a plain called Kasamyr (Cashmere), that is, "rare." There was a child born whose mother was the daughter of a king and whose father was a high-priest. In order to hide the shame, they were obliged to renounce their own blood. Therefore, he was taken out of the town to poor people. As the boy grew up, nothing was concealed from him, so he did all in his power to acquire wisdom. His intellect was so great that he understood everything that he saw or heard. The people regarded him with respect, and the priests were afraid of his questions.

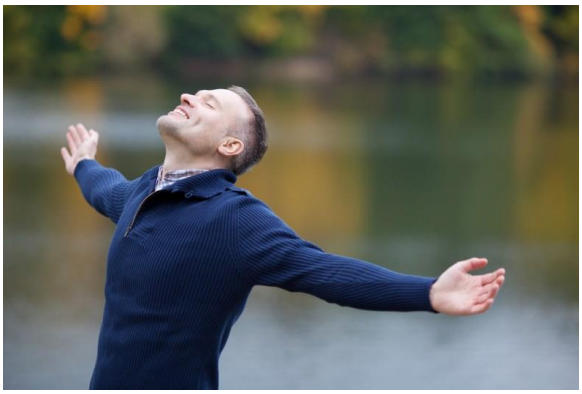
When he became of age he went to his parents. They had to listen to some hard language; and to get rid of him they gave him an abundance of jewels, but they dared not openly acknowledge him as their own blood. Overcome with sorrow at the false shame of his parents, he wandered about. While traveling he met a Fryan sailor, who was serving as a slave, and who taught him our manners and customs. He bought the freedom of the slave, and they remained friends until death.



Jesus in India

Wherever he went he taught the people not to tolerate the princes or priests, and that they must guard against false shame which always harms love. The earth, he said, bestowed her treasures to the extent her skin is scratched so all are obliged to dig, and plow, and sow if they wish to reap, but no one is obliged to do anything for another unless it be out of common consent or goodwill. He taught that men should not seek in her bowels for gold, or silver, or precious stones to which they cling and which destroy love. To adorn your wives and daughters, he said, give them sufficient pure water.

No man is able to make everyone equally rich and happy, but it is the duty of all men to make each other as rich and as happy as possible. Men should not despise any knowledge; but justice is the greatest knowledge that time can teach, because she wards off offense and promotes love.



His first name was Jesus, but the priests, who hated him, called him Fo, tha is, false: the people called him Krisen, that is, shepherd, and his Fryan friend called him Buda (Buddha) because he had a treasure of wisdom in his head, and in his heart a treasure of love.

Fo ~ Was he their FOE perhaps?

FO ~ FOE

KRISEN (CHRIST) means SHEPHERD

Buddha had white skin and blue eyes. Buda was his nickname for “Treasure of Wisdom”.

At last, he had to flee from the wrath of the priests, but wherever he went his teaching preceded him. Whilst his enemies followed him like his shadow. When Jesus had thus traveled for 12 years he died, but his friends preserved his teaching and spread it wherever they found listeners. What do you think the priests did then? That I must tell you, and you must give your best attention to it. Moreover, you must guard against their acts and tricks with all the strength that Wralda has given you. While the doctrine of Jesus was thus spreading over the earth, the false priests went to the land of his birth to make his death known.

They said they were his friends, and they pretended to show great sorrow by tearing their clothes and shaving their heads. They went to live in caves in the mountains, but in them they had hid all their treasures, and there they made images of Jesus (Graven Images). They gave these statues to simple people and at last they said that JESUS WAS GOD that he had declared this himself to them, and that all those who followed his doctrine should enter his kingdom thereafter, where all was joy and happiness. Because they knew that he was opposed to the rich, they announced everywhere that poverty, suffering, and humility, were the door by which to enter into his kingdom, and that those who had suffered the most on earth should enjoy the greatest happiness there.

Although they knew that Jesus had taught that men should regulate and control their passion, they taught that men should STIFLE their passions, and that the perfection of humanity consisted in being as unfeeling as the cold stones. In order to make the people believe that they did as they preached, they pretended poverty, and that they had overcome all sensual feelings, they took no wives. But if any young girl had made a false step, it was quickly forgiven; the weak, they said, were to be assisted, and to save their souls men must GIVE LARGELY TO THE CHURCH.

Acting this way, they had wives and children without households and were rich without working; but the people grew poorer and more miserable than they had ever been before.

This doctrine, which requires the priests to possess no further knowledge than to speak deceitfully, and to pretend to be pious while acting unjustly, spreads from east to west, and will com to our lands also.

Men in Costumes

We are not meant to STIFLE our passions and become as unfeeling as the cold stones. Wralda put us on Earth to fulfill our passions in the betterment of mankind.

But when the priests think that they have entirely extinguished the light of Frya and Jesus, then shall all classes of men rise up who have quietly preserved the truth among themselves and have hidden it from the priests. They shall be of princely blood, of priestly blood, of Slavonic blood, and of Frya's blood. They will make their lamps and light visible, so that all men shall see the truth: they shall cry woe to the acts of the priests and the rulers. The rulers who love the truth and justice shall separate themselves from the priests: blood shall flow, but from it the people will gather new strength.

So, you can see that Jesus was a mortal man, just like Woden, and just like Athena, being a mortal woman. All three were turned into Gods upon their deaths by priests of Finda.

We can see they did this to have power over the people, and to take their wealth, to get fat off of the work of the poor while they sit idly by in their opulent castles, mansions and churches. Would Jesus have wanted this? He would have been just as abhorrent to it as was Athena. Being a free people, no man is needed to come between a Fryan and Wralda.

And Jesus would agree.

Jesus of India? A MORTAL man who they made miracle stories about after his death, just like they did with Athena.

A quick note here, we were told that, Sixteen times a hundred years after Atland was submerged, Jesus was born in India. So, 2193 BC (when Atlantis sunk) minus 1600 years, would be 593 BC. That would mean that THIS Jesus lived and died in India around 600 years BEFORE the Jesus of the Bible. So yeah, it does make you think. WAS there a Jesus of the Bible in 30 AD? Or did they take the story of the Jesus from India and use it for their Bible years later? Use it and majorly embellish it all the way up to the SON OF GOD?

Virgin Mary is Frya

And we not only have a reference to Jesus in the OLB, but to his mother Mary, as well, but not how you might think. From Rika's Letter we read:

If there are men among you who wish to put themselves on a level with Wralda, there are also women who wish to consider themselves equals to Frya. Because they have borne children, they call themselves mothers, but they forget that FRYA BORE CHILDREN WITHOUT HAVING INTERCOURSE WITH A MAN.

So, Mary IS the VIRGIN mentioned, but AS FRYA, the first mother. And she is the mother to ALL of the White race, NOT the specific mother of Jesus. The first Fryans were born of a VIRGIN. Just like the first Findans and just like the first Lydans. Notice that Eve is NOT Frya, the first mother, as per the Bible, although Eve has her own story in the OLB.

Mary is Frya, the Mother of the White Race

Eve

So, before we begin with Eve's story in the OLB we need to remind ourselves of her story in the Bible. In that book Eve is the mother of humanity, or just of the White race, depending on who's interpretation you've read. They have her come forth from the rib of a man. They then go on to tell us that Eve is to blame for the fall of man, that she was weak and did what was forbidden by God and that's why we are in the trouble we are in today. Bad Eve. Disgraceful Eve!

Eve, a weak woman, eating the apple, leading to man's downfall. Or so the Bible tells us.

Now let's look at the OLB's version of the story of Eve. To do this we need to first look at how humanity was created. We read:

After the twelfth Yule festival she (earth) gave birth to three maidens.

Lyda out of glowing, (came first)

Finda out of hot, (came second) and

Frya out of warm dust. (came last)

When the last came Wralda breathed his spirit upon her (Frya) in order that men should be bound to him. ~ Fasta

You will see that Lyda (the Black race) is the oldest race as confirmed by the archaeological record. Finda (the Asians) came second, and Frya (the White race) came last, which is actually explained in the Bible as well.

Frya, Finda, Lyda

You can see there was a time before "Adam", because the land was already peopled or else Cain would not have to worry about the people outside of the Garden.

Genesis 4:14 ~ Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth, and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that everyone that findeth me shall slay me.

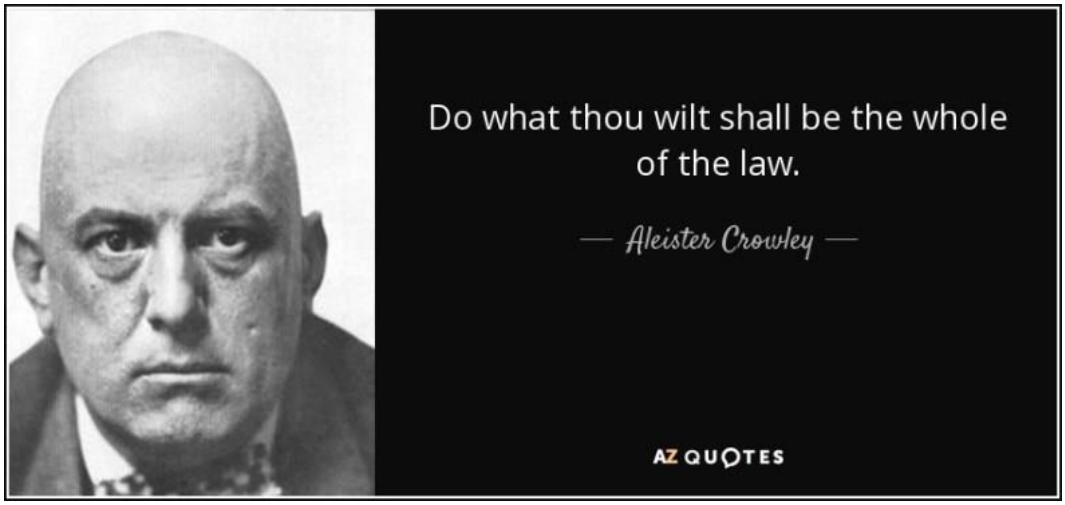
These are the laws that Frya has written in her heart. The Fryans called them Eva. From the OLB:

The word EVA is too sacred for common use, therefore men have learned to say EVIN. EVA means that knowledge which is implanted in the breast of every man in order that he may know what is right and wrong, and by which he is able to judge his own deeds and those of others, that is to say, if he had been well and not badly brought up.

Notice how the Bible takes this story and perverts it. Makes Eve the downfall of Man, when in fact Eve is what makes man HU-Man. What better way to control HALF of the human population with this one change in the story! Woman needs to be controlled by man because EVE. How convenient for the Magy.

And because we have EVE in our hearts, this is the main reason why a particular tribe (who are of MIXED race~ Magy) wants to get rid of Frya. With Frya gone from the earth there is no one left that is bound to God's laws. The laws would then be MAN made and the ones that determine the law are the ones in control.

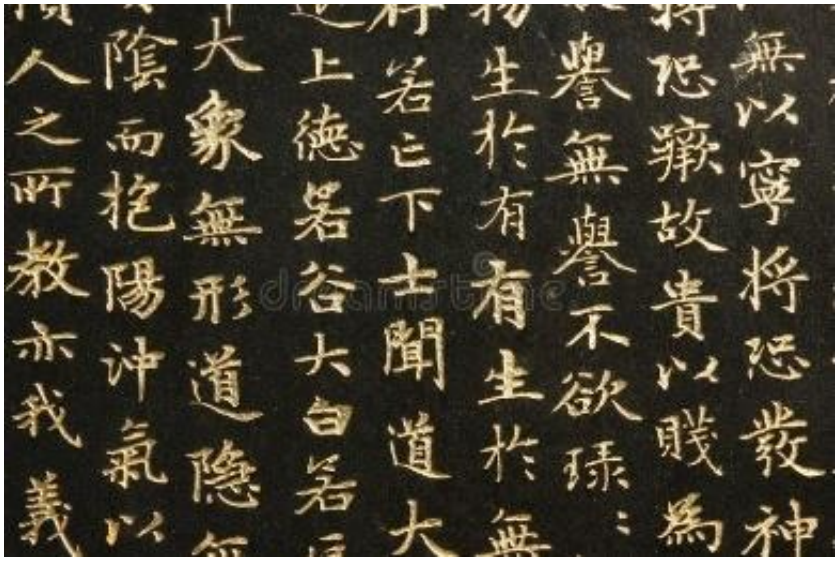
Notice these same men are the ones pushing for pedophilia to be legal, as well as sodomy, a ‘Do as Thou Will’ lifestyle.



The OLB specifically talks about how Finda considers laws. We read:

Unreasonable Finds. She wrote thousands of laws, but she never followed up on (enforced) one.

Despicable Finda. The laws that Finda left were written on golden pages, but for the good for which they were made they were not of any use. The good laws were abolished, and selfishness instituted bad ones in their place.



More on the law, or Eva, as the Fryan's called it, reflected by the Fryan Minno in his writings. He says:

I am convinced that we alone were chosen by Alvader (Wralda) to have laws. Lyda's people cannot make laws nor obey them; they are too stupid and uncivilized. Many of Finda's offspring are clever enough, but they are greedy, haughty, false, immoral and bloodthirsty. The toad blows himself up, but he can only crawl. The frog cries, "Work, work," but he does nothing else but hop and make himself ridiculous. The raven cries, "Spare, spare," but he steals and devours everything that he gets into his beak.

Finda's people are just like these. They have a lot to say about good laws; everyone wishes to make regulations to prevent the wrong, but in themselves nobody wants to be bound by these. He who is the most cunning and therefore the strongest, crows king over the others who mut be subject to him until another comes and drives him off of his perch.

Clever, enough, but greedy, haughty, false, immoral and bloodthirsty. Does this remind you of the people in control today? How about the Magy?

Fauci with the Magy Rockefeller/Rothschild Clan. Lady in Red, two here, showing allegiance to the Rothschilds.

And Athena/Minerva, further confirms this…

I carry my heritage in my BOSOM. What I have inherited is the love for wisdom, justice and liberty.

So, which is the truth? That Eve is the downfall of humanity as the Bible purports? Or is Eve the sacred laws put into our hearts by Wralda as the OLB states? Eve wasn't of Adam's rib, but a metaphor for what is behind that rib, put into his heart. Eve is not the downfall of humanity, but what uplifts it.

Garden of Eden

So not only is Eve in the OLB, but so is the Garden of Eden. Notice how close to Even (the word they use for their sacred laws) is to Eden.

EVEN ~ EDEN

Garden of Even ~ Garden of Eve (Ewa)

So, like in the Garden of Eden of the Bible, where all kinds of fruit grow on every tree, and the weather was always beautiful, the same is in the OLB. We read:

This is inscribed upon all Burghs:

Before the bad time came our country was the most beautiful in the world. The Sun rose higher and there was seldom frost. On the trees and shrubs grew fruit and things which are now lost. In the fields we not only had barley, oats, and rye, but wheat which shone like gold, and which could be baked in the Sun's rays. The years were not counted, for one was as happy as the other.

Creation Story

And we have a Creation Story in the OLB as well. We read:

This is our earliest history:

Wralda, who alone is good and eternal, made the beginning, then came time. Time wrought all things, also the earth. The earth bore grass, herbs and trees, all beautiful animals and all bad animals. All that is good and beautiful she (earth) brought forth by day, and all that is wicked and bad she (earth) brough forth by night.

This story was told by Fasta, the first Burgh Matron, picked by Frya (Mary) before her death. Notice how similar it is to the Creation Story in the Bible.

Made the beginning is similar to in the beginning.

Then time, then the earth, then the flora and fauna. A particular order shared by both books. Day and night are also mentioned, although not as the main subject of that line. The OLB is more concerned with the type of creatures than with the day and the night.

Genesis 1:4~ And God saw the light, that it was good; and God divided the light from the darkness.

Noah's Flood

Now if we go back to the Bible story of Adam and Eve, and because of Eve's transgression, her and Adam were kicked out of the Garden, we can see a similar thing happening, explained in the OLB, where the Fryans were "expelled" from THEIR blissful garden. BUT their story would be explained by a similar story in the Bible called Noah's Flood.

How the Bad Time came:

The whole summer the Sun hid behind the clouds, as if it did not want to see the earth. The wind rested in its place causing smoke and mist to hang like sails above the house and marshes. The air was dreary and dull, and in the hearts of people there was neither joy nor happiness. In the midst of this stillness the earth began to tremble as if she was dying. The mountains split open to spew out fire and ash, others sank into her bowels, and where there were fields, mountains rose up. Aldland, called Atland by the sailors, sank down and the wild waves went so high over mountain and dale that everything was submerged. Many people were buried in the earth and many who had escaped in the fire perished in the water. Not only in Finda's land did the mountains spew fire but also in Twiskland (Poland). Forests were burned one after another, and when the wind came from there our land was covered with ash. Rivers changed their course, and at their mouths new islands were formed of sand and floating animals.

Three years earth suffered, but when it improved the forests could be seen. Many countries were submerged, others had risen out of the sea and in Twiskland half of the forests were destroyed. Bands of Finda's people came and settled in the empty spaces. Our dispersed people were exterminated or became their hirelings. Then watchfulness was doubly impressed upon us, and time taught us that unity is our best fortress.

Atlantis, Altland~ Old Land

Atlantis, or Altland, which means Old Land, sank into the sea due to earth changes. Atlantis WAS their Garden of Eden. Their original homeland. And since many Fryans were sailors and had ships, the fortunate ones were able to escape with their families and sailed to nearby lands. So, it wasn't one boat, like in the story of Noah, but a number of boats. The nearest lands would be Iceland, Scotland, Norway, Sweden, the Netherlands, Denmark and Germany. These ARE the lands where the Fryans did establish their homes after this event.

This event affected the whole of Europe, the Middle East and all the lands surrounding the Mediterranean. And these events lasted three years. This would make for many people fleeing from their original homes trying to find a place that is safe, where they can make shelters and gather food.

First Monotheists

Now, similar to the Bible, the Fryans were MONOTHEISTS. In the Fryan religion, the OLDEST religion of our White Race, there is only ONE God. He is the Father of everything. He is called Wralda, which is where we get the word WORLD from. He is all Good and created good by day and bad by night. Fryans were Monotheists, NOT Pagans as many would have us think. They did not believe in Idol worship of any kind, and especially of making themselves into gods. This was the work of the Magy. The Magy knew to control a people they had to control their spirit, their religion. They already controlled the Findans and so through FORCE they made the Fryans convert to Christianity.

From the OLB we read how the Fryans perceived God:

Wralda is the ancient of ancients or the most ancient, for he created all things. Wralda is all in all, for he is eternal and everlasting. Wralda is omnipresent but invisible, and therefore his being is called a spirit. All that we can see of him are the created beings who came through his life and go back again, because from Wralda all things proceed and return to him. From Wralda comes the beginning and the end; all things are glorified through him. Wralda is the ONLY almighty being, because from him all power is borrowed and returns to him. From him came all crafts and all crafts return to him. Therefore, he alone is the creator, and nothing is created outside of him.

Wralda established eternal principles that are law in all creation and there are no good laws or they must be established therein. But although everything is in Wralda, the wickedness of men is not from him. Wickedness comes from laziness, carelessness, and stupidity; therefore, they may well be injurious to men, but never to Wralda. Wralda is wisdon, and the laws that he had made are the books from which we learn, nor is any wisdom to be found or gathered, but in them. Men may see a great deal, but Wralda sees everything. Men may learn many things, but Wralda knows everything. Men may unlock many things, but to Wralda everything is open. Mankind is male and female, but Wralda created both. Mankind love and hate, but Wralda alone is just. Therefore, Wralda alone is good, and there is no good without him. In the progress of time all creation alters and changes, but goodness alone is unalterable; and since Wralda is good, he cannot change. As he endures, he alone exists; everything else is show.

So, we can see that the Fryans worshiped the Father in the form of the Holy Spirit, but NOT the Son, NOT a Trinity. The Son, Jesus, was added by the Magy in order to control the people.

Now let's take a look at what the Fryans thought of Finda and their view on religion. We read:

Finda's people are a wicked people, for although the deceivers make themselves believe that they are gods, they have created false gods for the ignorant (Athena/Wodin/Jesus) and proclaim everywhere that these idols created the world and all therein; greedy idols, full of envy and anger, who desire to be honored and served by the people, seeking their blood and offers and demanding their treasures; but these presumptuous and false men, who let themselves be called god-servants and priests, receive and collect everything in the name of these gods, who do not exist, for their own benefit. They practice all this with a liberal conscience as they regard themselves as gods who are not accountable to anybody. If someone discovers their fraud and exposes them, they are taken by the henchmen and burned for their blasphemy at solemn ceremonies in honor of their false gods, but in truth only to protect themselves.

In order that our children may be armed against these idolatrous doctrines, so the Matrons much teach them from the outside the following:

Wralda was before all things, and after all things he will still be. Wralda is also eternal and everlasting, therefore nothing is outside of him. From Wralda's being, time and all things were born, and his being takes away time and every other thing. These things must be made clear and manifested in every way, so that they may be told to and understood by others.

When we have mastered this much, then we say further: In regard to our extent, we are a part of Wralda's everlasting being, like the extent of all creation; but as regards to our form, our qualities, our spirit, and all of our thoughts, these do not belong to that being. These are passing thing which appear by Wralda's life, and which appear through his wisdom, and not otherwise; but whereas life continues, nothing can remain stationary; therefore, all created things change their locality, their form, and their thoughts. So, neither the earth nor any other created object can say, I am, but rather, I was. So, no man can cay, I think, but rather, I thought. The boy is greater and different from when he was a baby, he has different desires, inclinations, and thoughts. The man and father are and think differently from the boy, the old man just the same. Everybody knows that. Besides, everybody knows and must acknowledge that he is changing, that he changes every moment, even while he says, I am, and that his thoughts change even while he says, I think.

Life Stages of Man

Instead, then, of disgracefully imitating the wicked Findas and practicing occultism (Cult- Celt) by saying, I am, or I am the best part of Wralda, and yes, through us alone he can think, we proclaim everywhere where it is necessary: We, Frya's children, exist through Wralda's life- in the beginning insignificant and naked, but always advancing towards perfection without ever attaining the excellence of Wralda himself. Our spirit is not Wralda's spirit; it is merely a reflection of it. When Wralda created us in his wisdom he lent us his brains, senses, memory, and many other good qualities. By this means we are able to contemplate his laws; by this we can learn and reason, solely for our own good. Had Wralda not given us our senses, we would have known nothing of these and would have been more ignorant than a piece of seaweed driven forth by the ebb and tide.

CULT ~ CELT (KALTA)

So, you can see here that the Fryans definitely believed in God, singular, and not in gods or goddesses, as many purport when discussing the OLB.

Also, you probably noticed the reference to "I Am". So unlike in the Bible, the Fryans believed the only one that can say I Am is God. God is the only one that is eternal, and therefore the only one that is always in the present, past and future at the same time. Notice though in the Bible, Jesus is saying he is the I am. And that the only way to get to God is THROUGH him. Whereas in the Fryan religion no mediator is needed. Fryans have a direct relationship with Alvater (the All Father).

John 14:6 ~ Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

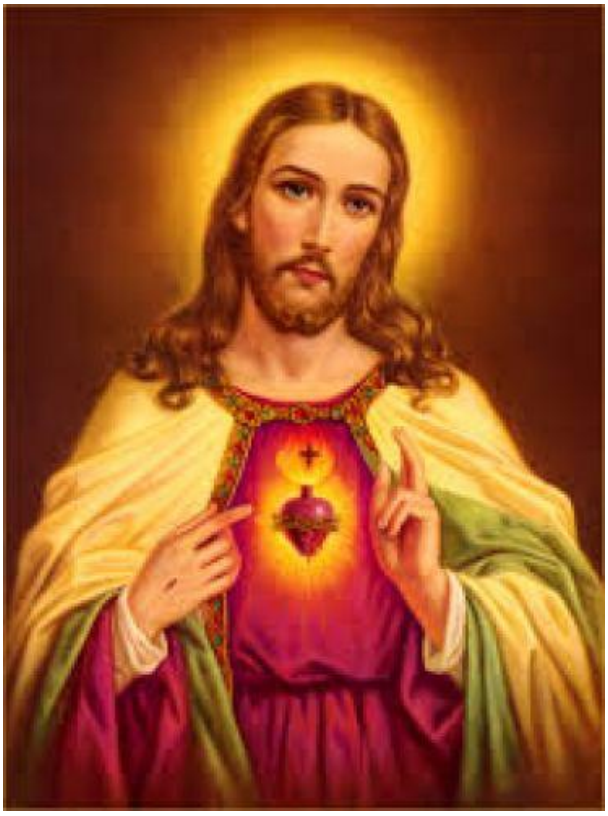
Ten Commandments on Stone

And similar to the Ten Commandments written on stone tablets that Moses carried, Fryan's had their laws written on stone on the walls of the Burghs for all to see. Notice that these laws are NOT the laws handed down from God. Why is that? Because God already put these laws WITHIN OUR HEARTS; to PROTECT these laws from being corrupted by any MAN. So the laws written on the Burgh walls are NOT these laws. They are the laws that followed, tried and true to maintain order for the benefit of the Fryans.

This too is symbolized with Jesus pointing to HIS heart. God's laws within our hearts.



Jesus pointing to his heart AND up to God, meaning God gave us the morals in our hearts.

The very first laws were handed down to Fasta, the first Burgh Mooder from Frya.

All ordinances which have existed a century, that is, a hundred years by the rotation of the carrier and its Yule, may by the advice of the Mooder and by common consent be inscribed on the Burgh walls; and when inscribed thus they are laws, and it is our duty to respect them all.

In contrast, let us read what the Bible says:

John 1:1 ~ In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

It should read:

In the beginning was the WORLD, and the WORLD was with God, and the WORLD WAS God.

World would be the English equivalent of the word WRALDA. We can see how by removing one letter, changing WORLD to WORD, they were able to write the book called the Bible and use it to control us.

There is NO WRITTEN WORD of God. We know God through his WORKS, his CREATION, and through his WORD that is WRITTEN IN OUR HEARTS.

And I found this Fryan law of particular interest:

Wralda's spirit may only be thanked with BENDED KNEES, yes, thrice fold, for what you have received from him, for what you enjoy, and for the hope he gives you in times of distress.

Doesn't it seem like all this Magy bend the knee BS is in direct mockery to God?

Usury

There are three laws that a ‘particular tribe’ (Magy) is wholly against and is most likely why they push the fake narrative that the OLB is a hoax. Violating these laws is the biggest reason WHY the Fryans are in such trouble today.

The first law is NO USURY.

Those coming to market may not practice USURY. Should any do so, it will be the Matron’s duty to disclose them throughout the land so that they may never be elected to any office because they have greedy hearts. For self-enrichment (service-to-self) they will betray everybody, the people, the Mooder, their family and lastly their own selves.

Usury is one of the primary causes of our enslavement! By charging interest on money, you basically are making “money” out of nothing. Money is a unit of measure that is in direct relation to time of labor. Interest is not time of labor, so it is in addition to it, no labor involved. So, by being middle men, charging for what is not, they effectively enslave a person. And they are making money out of nothing.

Usury was not allowed

Miscegenation

The second law is NO MISCEGENATION.

Although a Fryan COULD marry outside of his or her race, that Fryan would have to leave with their spouse to their spouse's country. They would forever be banished from Frya's land. On the burgh wall it read:

Should any of them (Lyda or Finda) desire one of your daughters as a wife and she is willing, explain to her, her foolishness, but if she still wants to follow her suitor, let her go in peace.

If your son wishes for a daughter of theirs, you must do the same as with your daughter, but neither the one nor the other may ever return, for they would introduce foreign morals and customs, and if these were accepted by you, I could no longer watch over you. ~ Frya

Fryans KNEW that BLOODLINE, Jus Sanguinis, matters. It was NOT about WHERE someone was born, Jus Soli, which is what has been pushed for hundreds of years now. The United States (US) is a great example of this. Before, immigration was only allowed for White Europeans, because the US was founded by White Europeans. Only at the turn of the 20th Century did this policy change. Then powerful people from a particular tribe (Magy), owners of the media, banks, large corporations, pushed the theme that America was a melting pot and that citizenship should be by Jus Soli INSTEAD of Jus Sanguinis. We can see how this is leading to the US's downfall today.

We even get a story in the OLB to show how Lyda and Finda were treated when they were in Frya's lands. We read:

Along the Rhine it was just the same as at Lydasburgh (Leiden). There was a great lake. On this lake there were also people living upon the piles. But they were not Frya's people; they were black and brown men (Lyda and Finda) who had been employed as rowers to bring home the men who had been making foreign voyages, and they had to stay there until the fleet went back.

Notice the name LYDASburgh, which means BLACKtown, town of the black people. They lived on a lake where they were separated intentionally from Frya's people.

To the south of Forana lies Alkmarum. Alkmarum is a lake or river in which there is an island. On this island the black and brown people must remain, the same as Lydasburgh. The Burgh Mooder Forana told me that the Burghtheeren go every day to teach them what real freedom is, and how it behooves men to live in order to obtain the blessing of Wralda's spirit. If there was anyone who was willing to listen and could comprehend, he was kept there until he was fully taught. That was done in order to instruct the distant people, and to make friends everywhere.

So, you see that although they were kept separate, they were treated with kindness and taught the ways of Wralda. The separation reminds me of Apartheid in South Africa. Why was that so bad? The Blacks of South Africa were treated very well, made more money and lived better then, than they do now under a Black ruled government. What is so bad about having separate beaches? Living in separate communities? Every other country that is not White lives this way. And yet, somehow, if the Whites want the same thing this is unacceptable and cruel. Can we see the hypocrisy?

What is so awful about sitting separately on a bus?

Two Great Disasters

There were TWO Great disasters mentioned in the OLB. The biggest was the first, the one known as the Great Flood, the one that sunk their original homeland, Aldland (Atlantis). But there was a second devastating catastrophe. This took place in 305 BC. In this particular disaster the land on the coast was destroyed by water and the lands on the interior were destroyed by earth.

From the OLB we read:

The seafaring people and other sailors who were at home had saved themselves and their wives and children on their ships. The Black people at Lydasburgh and Alkmarum had done the same. As the Blacks were driven south, they saved many girls, and as no one came to claim them, they took them for their wives. Ten years later the navigators came from Forana and Lydasburgh. They wanted to drive the Black men, with their wives and children, out of the country. They wished to obtain the opinion of the Mooder on the subject.

Gosa asked them; Can you take any of them back to their countries? If so, then make haste, or they will find no relative alive. No, they said. Gosa replied, They have tasted your salt and eaten your bread, they have placed their bodies and lives under your protection. You must examine your own hearts. But I will give you one piece of advice. Keep them until you are able to take them back to their homes but keep them outside of your burghs. Watch over their morals and educate them as if they were Frya's sons. Their women are the strongest here. Their blood will disappear like smoke, until at last nothing but Frya's blood will remain in their descendants.

So, they remained here.

Notice how the OLB says that their blood will disappear like smoke, till at last nothing but Frya's blood will remain in their descendants. So, per the OLB, it IS possible for a family line to become racially pure after several generations.

This is in contrast to the Bible which states:

Deuteronomy 23:2 ~ A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord.

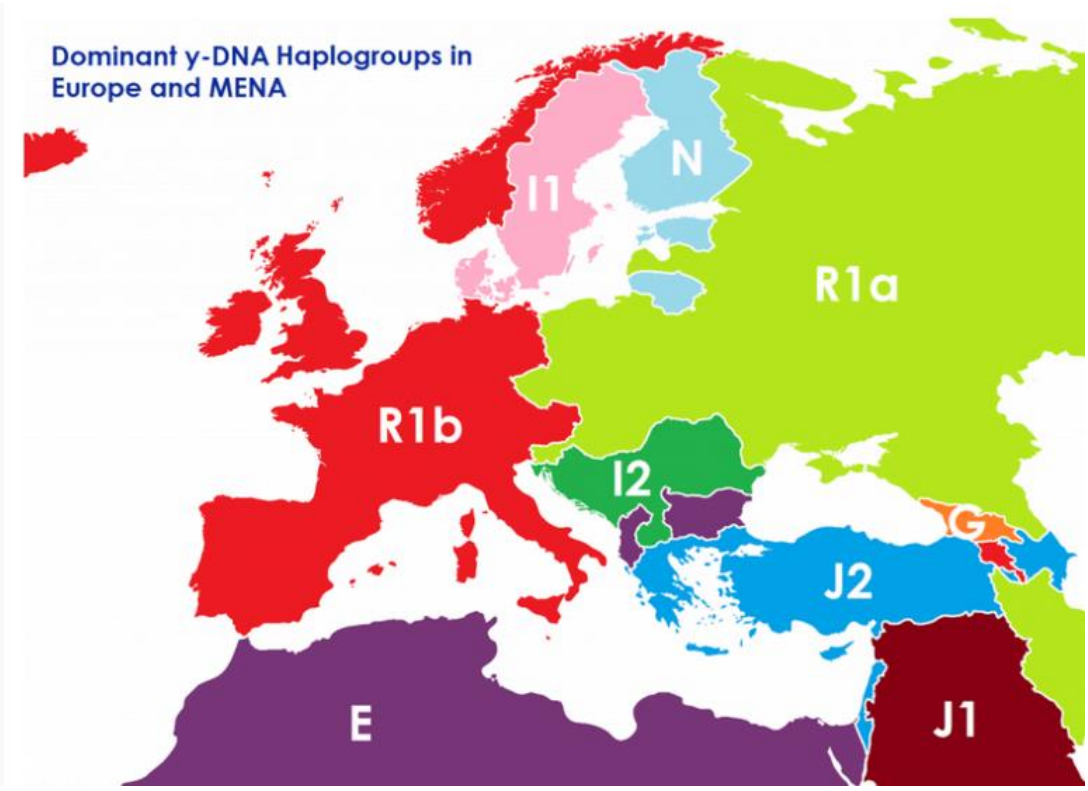
But as was stated earlier, the people of Egypt and Israel in that area were already mixed back then. So, I don't see how this could even apply to them? We know a 'particular tribe' who purports to be the chosen people of the Bible are themselves a mixed race. If we look at their DNA, most are mixed with J haplo group (from the Middle East) and R1a haplo group (which are Eastern European). So, this is just another instance where I have to question the Bible.



Sekrops

Before we leave the topic of Miscegenation I wanted to note here that Fryans were very aware of who is mixed. Sekrops, the first 'mythical' king of Athens, that ran the Fryans out of Athens, was himself mixed and so they believed because he had a Fryan mother, he was kinder to them then all the other priests combined.

From the OLB we read:

From the other Krekalander you may have heard a great deal of bad about Sekrops, because he was not of good repute, but I date say he was an enlightened man, highly regarded both by the locals and by us, for he was not for the oppression of people like the other priests, but he was virtuous and knew how to value the wisdom by distant nations. Because he realized this, he allowed us to live according to our own Sega Book (Law Book). There was a rumor that he was kind to us because he was the offspring of a Fryan girl and an Egyptian priest as he has blue eyes and many of our girls had been abducted and sold in Egypt. He never confirmed this himself, though. Whatever the case, he certainly showed us more friendship than all the other priests put together.

Black Adel

Also, one of the last Fryan rulers, after the laws were corrupted and hereditary rule was allowed, we have BLACK Adel. He was called this due to his BLACK hair. He knew, as did the Fryans, that he was mixed.

When the pest (plague) had ceased, the Twisklanders (Mixed Frya and Finda) who had become free, came to the Rhine, but Askar (Black Adel) would not associate himself with the leaders of that vile degenerate race. He HIMSELF HAD BLACK HAIR.

It reminds me of King Solomon with HIS jet-black hair. A White person can only have jet-black hair if they are MIXED with either Lyda or Finda. Blacks and Asians have BLACK hair and BLACK/Brown eyes, Whites do not. So King Solomon was of mixed race.

Song of Solomon 5:11 ~ His head is as the finest gold, his locks are bushy, and black as a raven.

Slavery

Now the third and final law, that the Fryans knew if they disobeyed would lead to their downfall, was NO ENSLAVEMENT OF ANYONE.

They already caused their own enslavement by eventually allowing Usury, but with this law put the final nail in the coffin.

Now they didn't actually enslave Lyda or Finda, as we can see with the previous story of Lyda, being paid by the Fryans, and living in their own community on islands in the lakes. They had no desire to. What they desired was for the other races to learn the laws of Wralda and to live in peace.

From the Bible we read that the Israelites had slaves. Not only slaves but handmaids, and not only handmaids, but their own wives and daughters had a subservient role to the men.

The Handmaid's Tale showing the Conservative Right as Extremists while promoting the LGBTQ Left in a Good Light- both are incorrect.

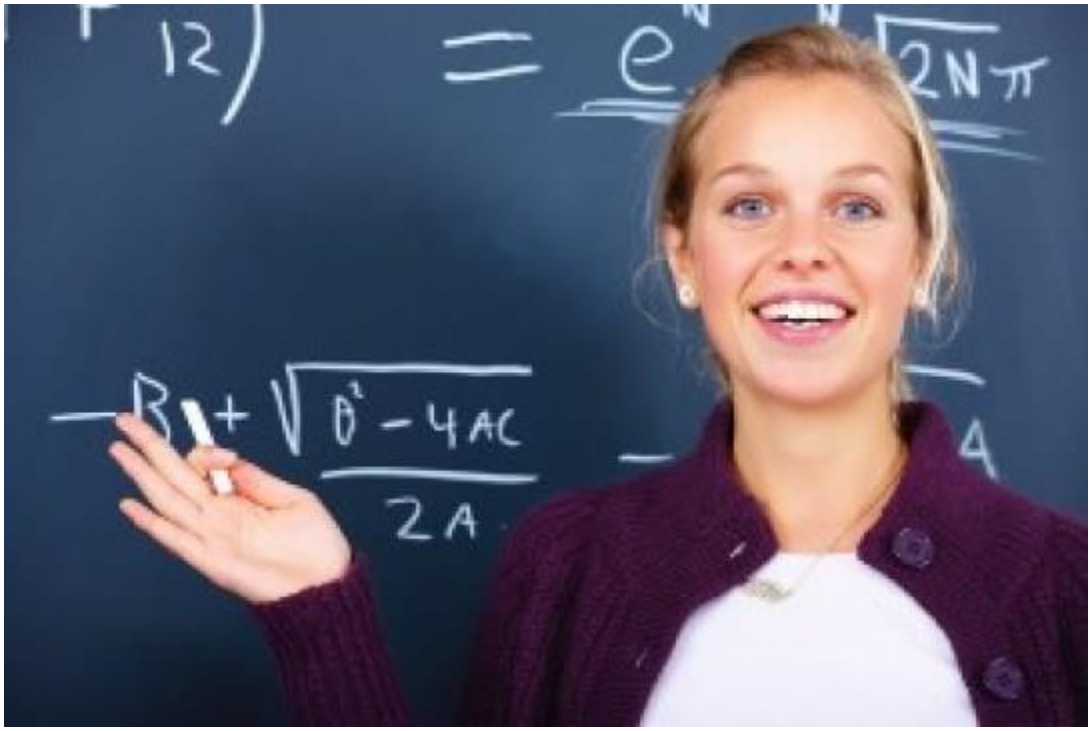
Just by me writing on this, being a woman, many will say I am uppity, that I don't know my place, that I am a woman's libber. What a great way to shut up HALF of the Fryan race! Fryans were always a society in which men and woman were equal. Both sexes had important roles to play. In the Bible the woman is suppressed, effectively silencing half the population. Notice today the Women's Lib movement. Originated by Communist Magy in a strategy to divide husband and wife in the home. On the other side, you have Conservative Christians who suppress women. Neither side is right. Women shouldn't be dominant Lesbians as the left would have us, but they also shouldn't be controlled slaves as the right would have us.

Women have a role and a voice in Wralda's world.

So Fryans, by believing the Bible, break this most important law regarding enslavement. They enslave their own.

Notice the Communist Fist showing what Tribe is behind this Agenda. And always with the help of their Pawns, Lyda.

In the OLB, we learn what important roles women had in their society. They were the keepers of the morals. It was their job to make sure the people remained free and true to Wralda. They were the nurturers, teachers to the children, keepers of the historical records, while the men were the protectors, warriors, tradesmen, and merchants.



LIBERTY to the Fryans was the MOST IMPORTANT virtue.

As written on the Burgh Walls:

Without liberty all other virtues serve to make you slaves, your origins to eternal disgrace.

And under their General Laws, the very first law states,

ALL Frya's children are born EQUAL. Therefore, they must have equal rights on land and elsewhere, that is water, and in all that Wralda has given.

Statue of Liberty showing a Burgh Matron with her Illuminated Torch. Liberty and Justice for ALL. Usurped by the ones in Control today.

And the second law proves it further,

Every man may court the wife of his choice AND every girl may pledge herself to him she loves.

There were no arranged marriages. No one was sold to a man for a wife. It was freely decided by BOTH the man and the woman. The man and the woman would not only have equal say in their union, but in their marriage. This wasn't about Women's Lib, it was about LIBerty for ALL of Frya's children.

LIBerty for ALL

Tower of Babel

Now let's go from the outer rim, the burgh walls, to the center of the Yule, the burgh tower.

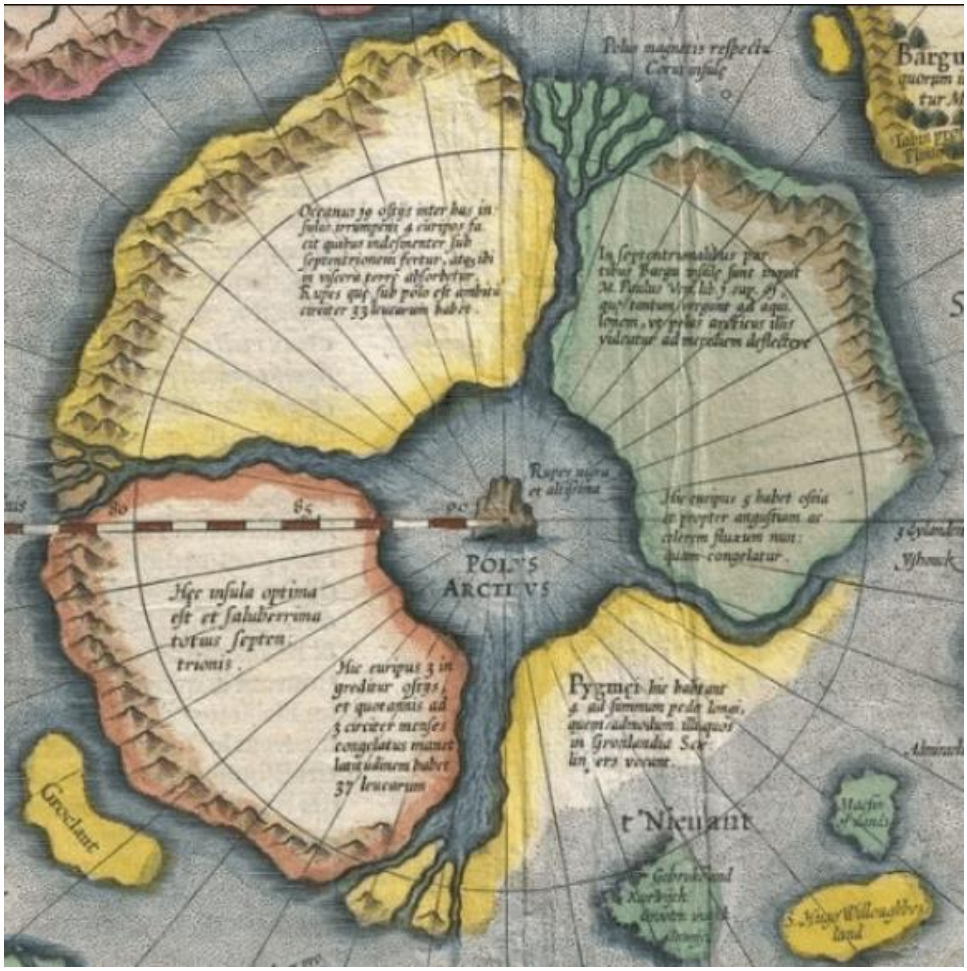
The Burgh Mooder Apollonia describes her burgh.

My burgh lies near the north end of the Liudgarda. The tower has six sides. It is three times thirty feet high; flat on the top, with a small house upon it from where they study the stars (observatory). On either side of the tower is a house three hundred feet long, three times seven feet with and as high, apart from the roof which is round. All this is built of hard-baked bricks, and on the outside, there is nothing else. Around the burgh is a ring dyke with a moat three times seven feet deep and three times twelve feet wide. If one looks down from the tower, he sees the shape of the Yule. On the right side of this are ordinances, and on the other side the laws; the other matters are found upon the three other sides.

So, this tower is 90 feet high, the equivalent of a NINE-story building today. Impressive but not “biblical” in proportion. That is, until we read,

All the other citadels are the same shape as ours, only not so large, but the largest of all is that in Texland. The tower of Fryasburgh is SO HIGH THAT IT RENDS THE SKY*, and all the rest is in proportion to the tower.*

Now I believe THIS tower and all the lesser towers were made to reflect Wralda’s Tower in the center of the Earth at the North Pole.



However, THIS tower in Fryasburgh would be THE tower that the Tower of Babel is copied from because it has to be one that the Magy saw. But unlike the Tower of Babel, this tower was not made for people to “be like gods” but used as an observatory to study the stars.

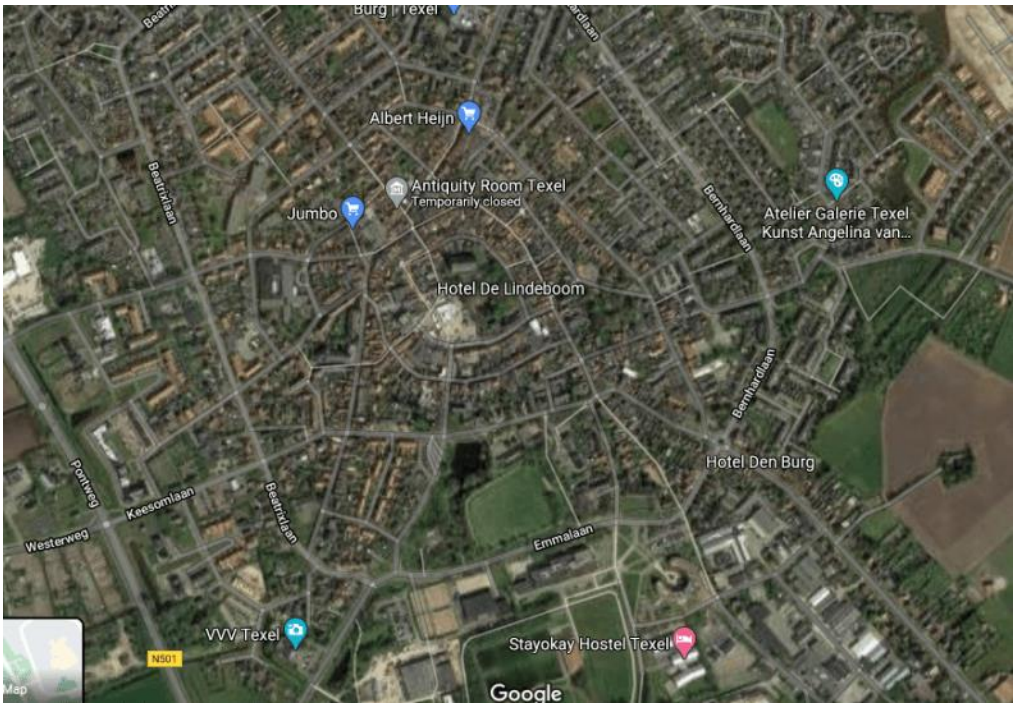
Notice too that the citadels were all in the shape of the Yule, Wralda's most sacred symbol. If you study the remnants of many star forts today you can see that the inner-city areas started as Yules.

There are six mentioned in the OLB and all located in The Netherlands.

They are Den Burgh on the island of Texel. Notice Den is short for EDEN Burgh, which is also the name of that Fryan town in Scotland, Edinburgh.

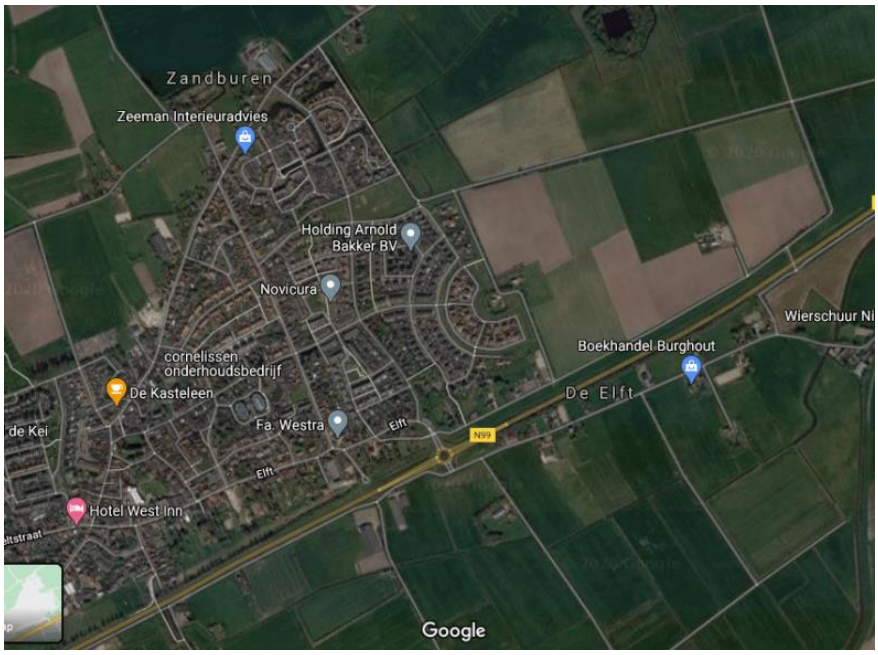
DEN BURGH ~ EDEN BURGH ~ EDINBURGH

Remember that these towns originated several thousand years ago and had gone through many natural disasters including earth upheaval and flooding. In addition, many of the walls were taken and used for rebuilding, and later for expansion. So, the old star forts are not clearly defined in some instances. You can see the center of the Yule here and how the town was built around it.



Den Burgh

Wieringen, which looks like three quarters, was reclaimed for farmland.



Wieringen

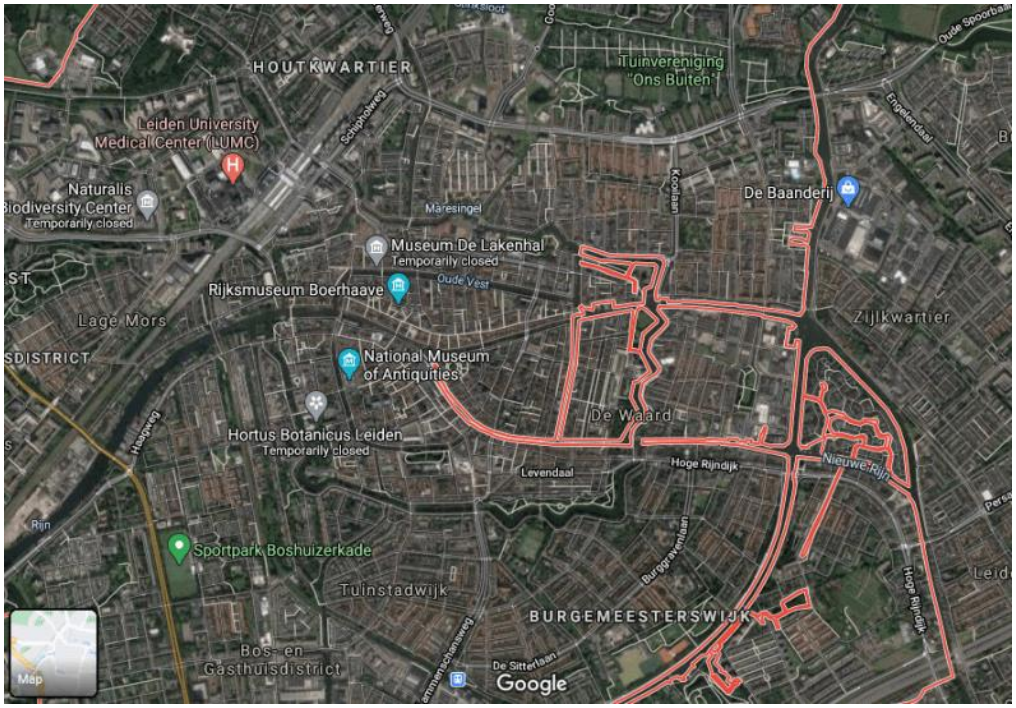
Stavoren, which being by the water, looks as if it was wholly decimated,

Stavoren

Medemblik, which has some remnants,

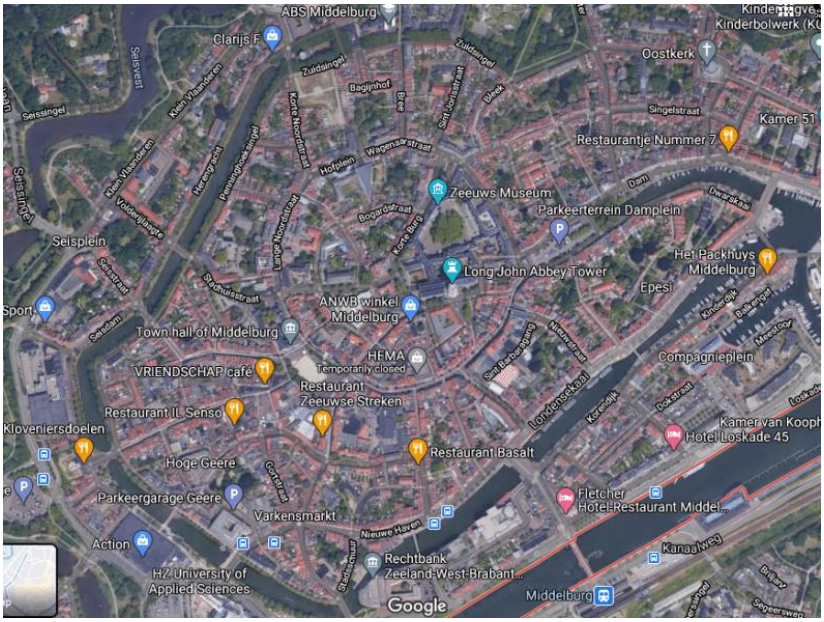
Medemblik

Leiden, where you CAN see a remnant of the STAR on the right side here.



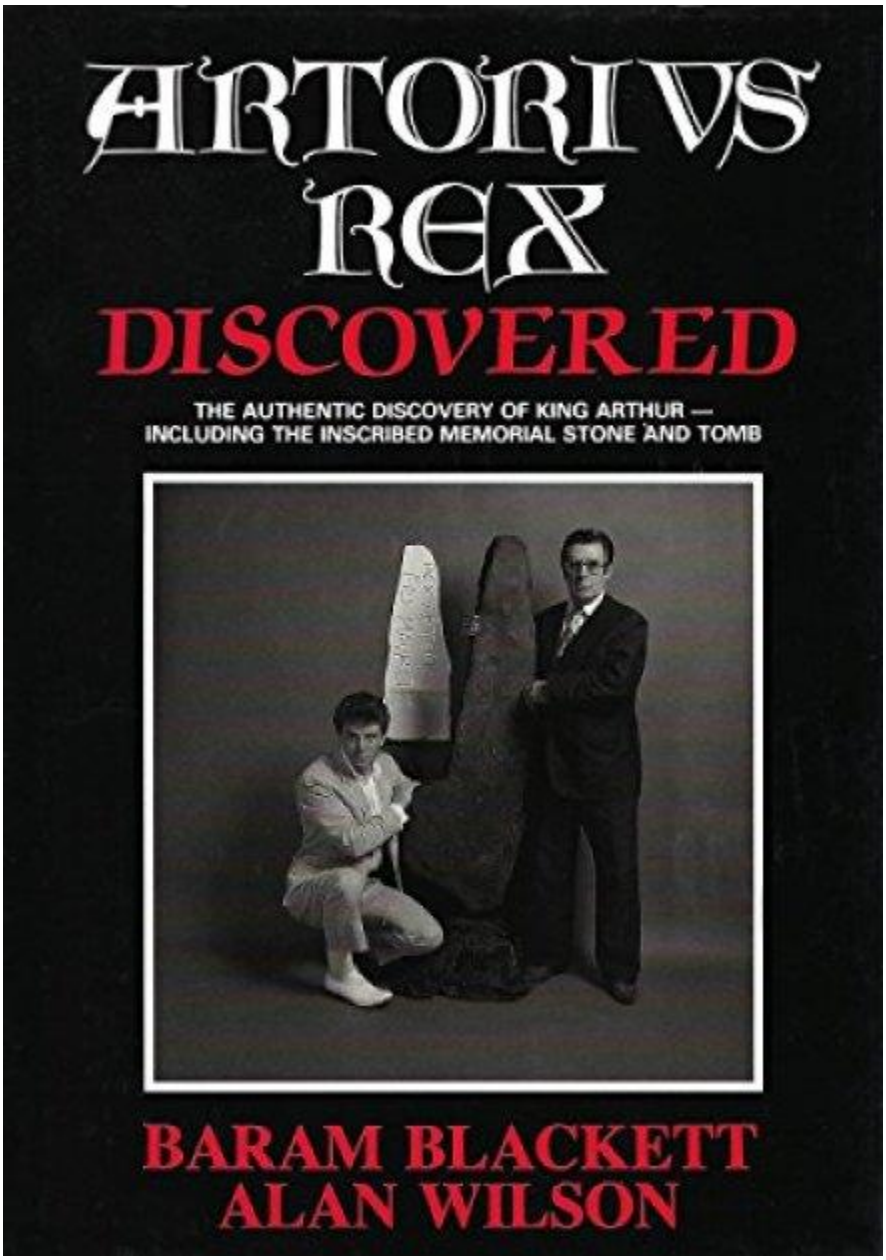
Leiden

And Middelburg, where you can see the central spot where the tower would have stood, and the building out from there.



Middelburg

And from the research of Baram Blackett and Alan Wilson in Artorius Rex Discovered, we find that King Arthur's Camelot was also in the shape of the Yule, in so many words. The castle of Camelot was at the center with the towers surrounding it like the spokes of a wheel. They believe they found the ruins of Arthur's Camelot in Wales.



Now in that huge tower at Fryasburgh, was the ORIGINAL FIRE, the eternal flame.

FRYA ~ FIRE

This torch connects its people to their ancestors. Connecting them to the very beginning. So, unlike the Tower of Babel, where men were corrupt and tried to be as God, the Tower of Fryasburgh was in homage TO God, to Wralda, and a most sacred place.

Tower in Middelburg, Netherlands

Now, not only was the Tower story stolen, but the scattering of languages was also stolen. But it wasn't by the doing of Wralda, who gave one language to the people, but by the 'particular people' themselves who wanted to hide their wicked ways.

From the Burgh Mooder Gosa's last will she writes:

When Wralda gave children to the Mooders of mankind, he gave one language to every tongue and on all lips. This gift Wralda had bestowed upon men in order that by its means they might make known to each other what must be avoided and what must be followed to find salvation, and to hold salvation for all eternity. Wralda is wise and good, and all-foreseeing. As he knew that happiness and holiness would flee from the earth when wickedness could overcome virtue, he has attached to the language an equitable property. This property consists in this that men can neither lie nor use deceitful words without stammering or blushing, by which means the innately bad are easily recognized.

Because our language thus opens the way to happiness and salvation, and thus helps to guard against evil inclinations, it is rightly named the Language of God, and all those by whom it is held in honor derive honor from it. But what has happened? As soon as among our half brothers and sisters, deceivers arose, who gave themselves out as servants of the good, it soon becomes otherwise. The deceitful priests and the malignant rulers, who always connive together, wished to live according to their own inclinations, without regard to laws and decent conduct. In their wickedness they went so far as to invent other languages, so that they might speak secretly in anybody's presence of their wicked and unworthy affairs without betraying themselves by stammering and without showing a blush upon their countenances.

But what has that produced? Just as easily as the seed of good herbs which has been sown by good men in daylight, germinates under the ground, so time brings to light the evil see which has been sown by wicked men in secret and darkness. The wanton girls and effeminate youths who fornicated with the immoral priests and rulers, taught the new language to their companions, and thus spread it among the people until God's language was clean forgotten. Would you know what came of all this? Now that stammering and blushing no longer betrayed their evil doings, virtue passed away, wisdom and liberty followed; unity was lost and quarreling took its place; love flew away, imorrality and envy sat around their tables; and where previoulsy justice reigned, now it is the sword.

Sounds like what is happening today as well.

And before we leave the Tower of Babel topic, we have one more point to touch on.

One of the most obvious wordplays here is how similar Bible is to Babel. Bible. Babel. In Hebrew we know that the vowels were added later for pronunciation. So, they would consider these two words the same. Just like ARAV and EREV are the ARABS of the Bible. B-BL- and B-B-L are the same.

Bible IS Babel.

EREV ~ ARAV ~ ARAB

BIBLE ~ BABEL

Moses Parting the Red Sea

So, like the Tower of Babel story taken from the OLB, so is the Bible story of Moses Parting the Red Sea.

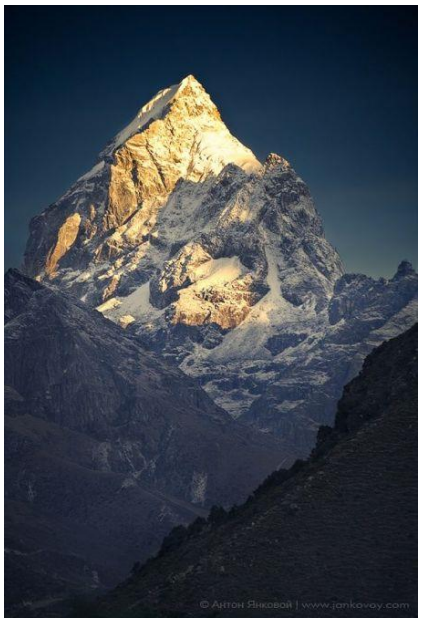
When Minerva died, the best of the Fryans, under their new Mooder Gert, were run out of Athens. When they were one day on their journey, 30 ships from Thyris who were heading to Athens, changed their course to sail with the Gertmanna (Germans). They all traveled to the strait, which at that time, ran into the Red Sea, heading for India.

When the King of Thyris saw afterwards that all of his best sailors were gone, sent all his ships with his wild soldiers to catch them, dead or alive. When they arrived at the strait, though, both the sea and the earth trembled. The land was lifted up so that all the water ran out of the strait, and the mud and grime rose up like a rampart before them. This happened on account of the virtues of the Germanna, as everyone may clearly see.

So, you can see how close this story is to Moses parting that same Red Sea!

But instead of Israelites being chased by Egyptians and the Red Sea PARTING, we have the Gertmanna being chased by Phoenicians and the Red Sea LIFTING. There is no way these two stories relay two separate events. There is ONE event. One is true. One is false, with the TRUE story being changed to their advantage.

Now there IS evidence of the German's going to India and to the area that they mention, Pangap, where the five rivers meet. In things such as place names like the Himalayas (Fryan for "reaching the sky"); from the admixture of Fryan blood in the people of the area, and in the historical record of Alexander the Great, who explored this area with the aid of the Fryans.



The Himalayas

From the OLB we read:

After we had lived 12 times 100 and twice 12 years (1224 years) at the Five Waters (Punjab), whilst our seafarers were navigating all the seas they could find, came Alexander the King, with a powerful army from the upper regions of the river towards our villages. No one could withstand him; but we Seapeople, who lived by the sea, put all of our possessions on board ships and took our departure. When Alexander heard such a large fleet had escaped him, he became furious and swore that he would burn all the villages if we did not come back. Wichhirte was ill in bed. When Alexander heard that, he waited until he was better. After that he came to him speaking very kindly- but he deceived, as he had done before.

Punjab Province, India

Wichhirte answered, Oh greatest of kings, we sailors go everywhere: we have heard of your great deeds, therefore we are full of respect for your arms, and still more for your wisdom; but we who are free-born (FRYA BORN*) Frya's children, we may not become your slaves, and even if I would, the others would sooner die, for so it is commanded in our laws.*

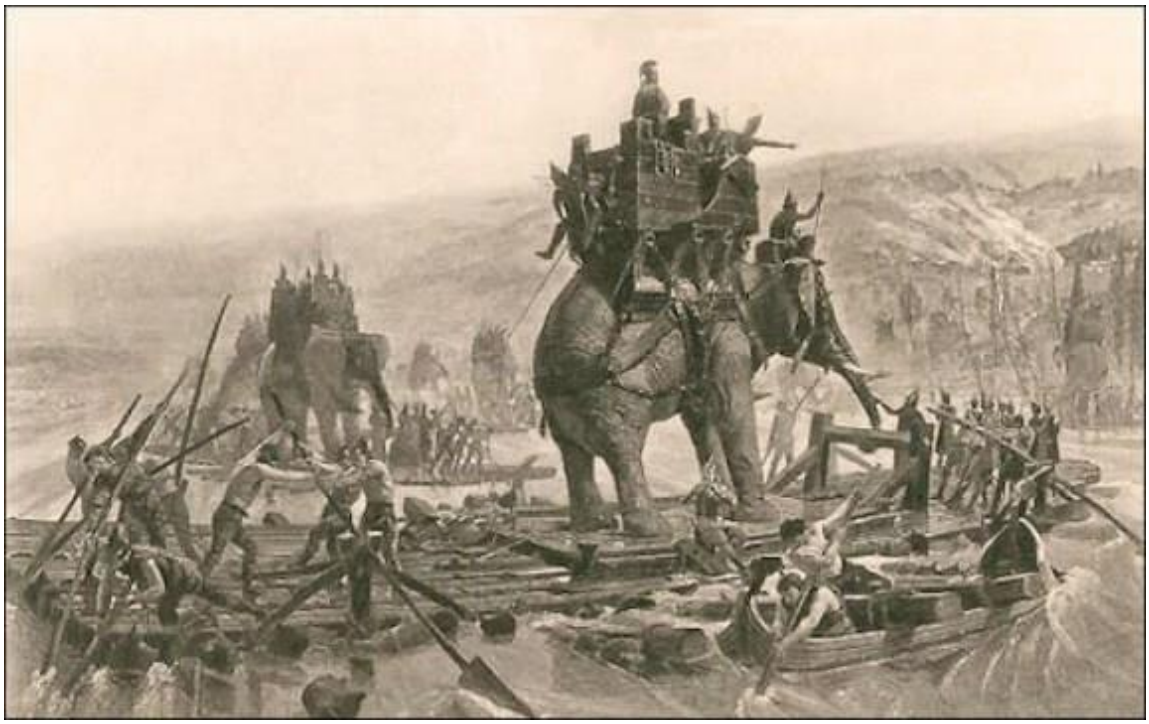
Alexander said: I do not desire to take your land or make slaves of your people. I only wish to hire your services. That I will swear by both of our gods, so that no one may be dissatisfied.

When Alexander had shared bread and salt with him, Wichhirte chose the wisest part. He let his son fetch the ships. When they had all returned, Alexander hired them all. By means of them he wished to transport his people to the holy Ganges, which he had not been able to reach before.

Through the Gertmanna he was successful.

Alexander then wanted them to come with him back to the Red Sea and help him haul his ships over the desert to the Mediterranean. At last, there arrived a great troop of people, bringing with them 200 elephants, 1000 camels, timber, ropes and all kinds of implements necessary to drag our fleet to the Mediterranean Sea. This astounded us and seemed most extraordinary, but Nearchus told us that his king wished to show to the other kings that he was more powerful than any of the kings of Tyre had ever been.

In historical accounts on Alexander's journey no mention is given of the help he received by the Gertmanna. But would a boastful king want to share his glory? And the Gertmanna were NOT a boastful people.



The Golden Calf

And even the Golden Calf that Aaron and his people worshiped is mentioned in the writings of the Burgh Mooder Adela in the OLB.

The leading men and their sturdy sons crawled to the unchaste Finnish girls, and their own daughters, led astray by this vile example, allowed themselves to be charmed by the handsome Finnish lads to the ridicule of their degenerate parents. When the Magy got sniff of this, he took the most attractive of his Finns and Magyar AND PROMISED THEM COWS WITH GOLDEN HORS TO LET THEM BE TAKEN IN (EMPLOYED) BY OUR PEOPLE IN ORDER TO SPREAD HIS DOCTRINES. His people did even more. Children disappeared, were taken away to Uppsala, and after they had been brought up in his filthy doctrines, were sent back.

The Golden Calf was not promised to Fryans but to Findans who were willing to spread Findan doctrine. Thus, the Golden Calf in the Bible was a Findan idol NOT a Fryan idol.

Aaron and the Golden Calf

Suicide

Also, how suicide is viewed by Christian religion is in direct contradiction to how the Fryans viewed it.

From the OLB we read:

Demetrius had sailed to Athens. When our king realized this, he led us back. When we came into the harbor, the whole town was in mourning. Friso, who was king of the fleet, had a son and daughter at home so remarkably fair as if they had just come out of Fryasland, and more beautiful than anyone could picture. The fame of this went all over Krekaland and came to the ears of Demetrius. Demetrius was vile and immoral, and thought he could do as he please. He had the daughter openly abducted.

And shortly thereafter he also took the son. And he did to him as he had done to his sister.

When Demetrius had heard that Friso had come home, he sent messengers to him to say that he had taken his children to raise them to high rank, and to reward him for his services. But Friso was proud and passionate, and sent a messenger with a letter to his children, in which he recommended them to accept the will of Demetrius, as he wished to promote their happiness, but the messenger had another letter with poison, which he ordered them to take:

Because, he said, your bodies have been defiled against your will. That you are not to blame for; but if your souls are not pure, you will never come to Valhalla. Your spirits will haunt the earth in darkness. Like the bats and the owls, you will hide yourselves in the daytime in boles, and in the night will come and shriek and cry about our graves, while Frya must turn her head away from you.

The children did as their father had commanded.

If their souls were not pure, they could never get into Heaven! Suicide WAS an option TO keep their souls pure and be able to go to Heaven. The opposite is true of Christianity where we are taught by priests that if we commit suicide we will wallow in the pits of Hell.

SODOMY will get you a ticket to Hell, as per the OLB. What do they push today? Everything is about the butt. Big butts don't lie.

Twerking. Everything is designed to get us thinking about immoral sex.

Sodomy, sticking out the Kali tongue, the Black and White stripes to represent the Masonic connection, she even wears her hair in two little Devil horns.

Frya's Day versus Good Friday

The deception wouldn't be complete without taking special days celebrated by the Fryans and using them for their own purposes. In the OLB the first Burgh Mooder tells us of this. Could Frya's day be usurped for Good Friday?

Fasta said:

Anything that any man wants to do, whatever it may be, on the day appointed for Frya's honor, shall eternally fail, for time has now proven that she was right; and it is become a law that people without crisis or constraints should do nothing else on Frya's day other than have a JOYFUL FEAST.

We are told to commemorate Frya's day with a joyful FEAST in her honor. On Good Friday they commemorate Christ's death by FASTING.

The Yule versus Christmas

And Yuletide came BEFORE Christmas and was NOT a pagan holiday, but a Fryan holiday, a monotheistic holiday. The Christmas tree was NOT taken from the pagans but from the monotheistic Fryans. The Christmas tree is really the Fryan's Tree of Life or World Tree (Wralda Tree). Candles placed and lit on their boughs would be in remembrance of the ancestors who passed, now and forever, on their watch stars.

The World (Wralda) Tree, Tree of Life

What appears above are the signs of the Yule. It is the first symbol of Wralda, also of the start or beginning from which time came, that is, the carrier, which must forever go around with the Yule.

From this Frya formed the set hand which she used for her Tex. When Fasta was Honorary Mooder, she made running or continuous script from it. The Witking, that is Sea King, Godfreath the Old, made separate numbers for both set and running script. It is therefore not too much that we have an annual festival to celebrate it. We must eternally bring thanks to Wralda that he let his spirit flow so strongly over our forefathers.

Love Thy Neighbor

As the Bible says do unto your neighbors as you would do to yourself, so does the OLB.

Leviticus 19:18~ Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shall love thy neighbors as thyself.

And the OLB says,

You have seen how quickly I provide assistance. Do the same to your neighbor. Do not wait until someone begs you; the afflicted would curse you, my matrons would erase your name from the book, and I would have to denounce you as a stranger.

Now Frya is speaking of taking care of their neighbors, because a Fryan neighbor would be a relative by blood. The community took care of all its members, from the young to the old, with family or without.

The story of the Three Thieves is a good example of neighborly assistance.

War was over, but famine came in its place. Now there were three men who each stole a sack of wheat from different owners. They were all caught, though. Now the first owner went forth and brought his thief to court. The matrons said in all respects he acted according to law.

The other took the wheat away from his thief and let him go in peace. The matrons said he had done well.

The third owner went to the thief's house. When he saw how great the need was there, he went back and returned with a wagon full of supplies with which he drove the need from the house. Frya's matrons honored him and wrote his deed in the eternal book while all his transgression was erased. This was reported to the Honorary Mooder, and she announced it throughout the whole land.

Christians Attacking Fryans

The OLB warns us on the very first page to beware of the Christians. Did they peacefully convert Europe as certain “experts” on ancient history are leading us to believe? From the OLB we learn that the Christians were FORCEFULLY converting them.

Raubenheimer verifies this fact on page eight of his book Chronicles from Pre-Celtic Europe where he writes, In a bloody campaign, Fryan Saxons were forced to accept the Roman Catholic faith. In only one incident at the Massacre of Verden, some 4500 Saxons were beheaded for practicing paganism after supposedly having converted to Roman Catholicism. As proof of Charles’ (Charles the Great of the Frankish Empire) fanatic resolve to FORCE the Saxons into Roman Catholicism, he issued a legal code in 783 AD, the Capitulation de partibus Saxoniae, which included the death sentence for any Saxon who refused to convert from their native Germanic ‘paganism’ to Christianity.

Who do we know of today that likes to do beheadings? The French Magy used the Guillotine, the ISIS Magy used the Guillotine….

And so forcefully that Liko Overa Linda, writing in 803 AD, had to remove pages of the OLB to protect his family. Now if Christianity is the way, the truth and the life, why would they have to do that? That should send up a big red flag, shouldn't it? It did with me.

Liko writes,

Beloved Heirs, for the sake of our dear forefathers, and for the sake of our dear freedom, I beg you a thousand times, oh beloved, never let the eyes of a monk glance over these writings. They speak sweet words, but they secretly tamper with everything that relates to us Fryans.

To gain rich endowment they conspire with puppet kings. These knew that we are their greatest enemies because we speak to their people of liberty, rights, and the duties of rulers. Therefore, they seek to destroy all that we derive from our forefathers, and all that is left of our old customs. Oh beloved, I have been in their courts. If Wralda wills it and do not strengthen us, they will altogether exterminate us.

Minerva/Athena knew how they were too.

By cunning they made themselves masters of our laws and customs and by fallacies they wished to explain everything and expand thereon.

And tried to teach her people to be wary when she said:

Frya has brought us to the path and the carrier, that is time, must do the rest. For all calamities there is counsel and remedy to be found, but Wralda wills that we should seek it ourselves, in order that we may become strong and wise. If we will not do that, he leaves us to our own devices, in order tha we may experience the results of wise or foolish conduct.

As did Adela who said:

I may tell you, though, that the Magy has not won anything by his weapons, but only by cunning and, moreover, by the greed of the dukes and their nobles.

The Burgh Mooder Reintja was even more direct. When will our people listen? Reintja's Dream:

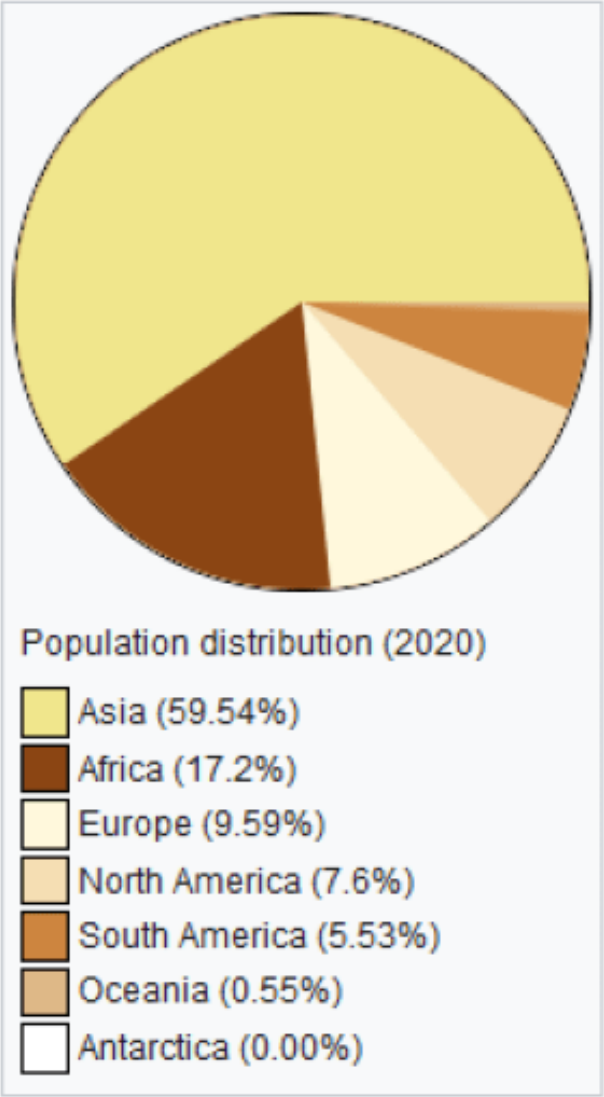
Wralda, she said, had told her by his thunder that all Frya's people must become friends, united as brothers and sisters; otherwise Finda's people would come and sweep them off the face of the earth. After the thunder Frya's seven watch maidens appeared to her in a dream seven nights in succession. They had said disaster hovers over Frya's land with yoke and chains. Therefore, all the people who have sprung from Frya's blood must do away with their surnames, and only call themselves Frya's children, or Frya's people. They must all rise up and drive Finda's people out of Frya's inheritance.

BLM Rally UK

If they would not do that, they will have slave chains around their necks, and the foreign chiefs will ill-treat their children and flog them until the blood streams into their graves. Then shall the spirits of their forefathers appear to them and reproach their cowardice and thoughtlessness.

Is Reinja speaking to us today from her Watch Star? Be not German, Dutch, Scotch, English, American, South African, Australian. Be FRYAN. UNITE THE CLANS.

Fryans are already the true minority in the world. Whereas just fifty years ago we made up a third of the world population, today we are less than 10%. With all white lands being invaded and all the non-white propaganda in the media, that number will diminish to ZERO in our children's lifetime. Wake up Frya! Be Free! Fight for your people while you still have a chance.



With the US only 59% White in 2020 and Statistics hard to find for Europe, it would be safe to assume that 17% total for Europe and US on this World Distribution Pie, a good 7% can be taken off for other racial groups, leaving approximately 10% of the World population being White. And they call US the majority!

When you TRULY know our past, only then can you truly understand who our enemy is. We have been fighting the Magy since the Great Flood and we are fighting them today. Magog in the Bible, from the area of Russia, which has always been a Magy stronghold, MAGA, Make America GREAT Again. Using their MAGIcal spells on us. Even now.

And when you've read the OLB and have taken it in thoroughly, you will get a good feeling for the overall theme. That is, that Fryans want peace and prosperity for all people. They want all people to have Wralda's laws written in their hearts. They have no desire to 'rule the world' but to live in a world where there is harmony of life on every corner of it. The Fryans named the Pacific Ocean, PEACE Ocean, and Athens, which means City of Friends BECAUSE they wanted the world to know that they came in PEACE.

PACIFIC ~ PEACE

ATHENS ~ FRIENDS

Peace Ocean

The ones in control today have an opposing philosophy. They try to get the rest of the world to believe that Fryans are for slavery, for oppression, that they are racist and hateful. But if you actually learn the truth about our world and how people really are, it becomes apparent which people are perpetuating this misery. It's the Magy and their service-to-self stooges.

MAGY ~ MAGA

So, you have a choice here, to stay in your programming, and in this way, keep feeding the NWO machine, leading to hell on earth, or breaking it, being strong and seeing the truth when it is given to you. Be brave. Be strong. Be free. Peace.

PART 11 ~ THE MOST PERFECT DESIGN- WRALDA'S WORLD

It amazes me when atheists say there is no God, and that the world is just random chaos.

When we look at all of Creation, each animal, each plant, is designed so perfectly and to fit into their particular zoological zones. How can this be random chaos? Not only did Wralda design the cat to fit in its zoological zone and gave it the ability to thrive, but He made them aesthetically pleasing as well. The Tabby cat has such perfect markings that it looks like it has make-up on.

Even the so called “ugly” scavenger birds are actually beautiful in their own morbid way. As repulsive as they could be, they have a unique role in Wralda’s Creation.

Wralda is not going to put this bird in the frozen Tundra, where dead animals on the land are scarce. He puts them where they will be of the most use, in places where there is an abundance of animals. They are nature’s cleanup crew.

Humans are ALSO designed for THEIR zoological zones, although they can adapt to areas outside of their regions. Whites (Fryans) have less melanin in their skin because the zoological zone of the north gets less intense sunlight...

than the equatorial zone of Africa, where the Blacks (Lyda) have very dark skin.

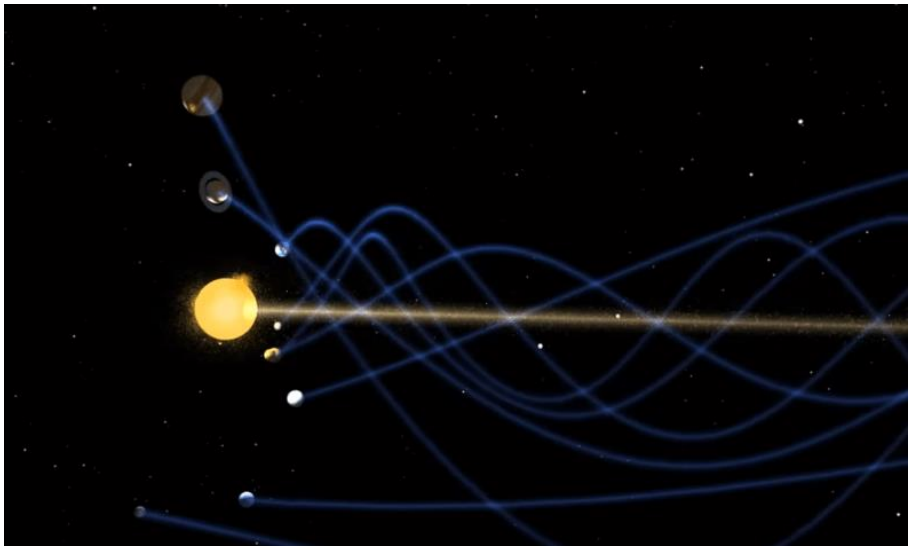
And the Asians (Finda) are found in warmer regions than Whites, but in not so arid a climate. So, they can take much more sun exposure than a White could and not get burned.

Hey, Black, Hebrew Israelites, you were right! We DO get sunburned. We DON'T belong in the desert of Egypt, and you can HAVE the Bible!

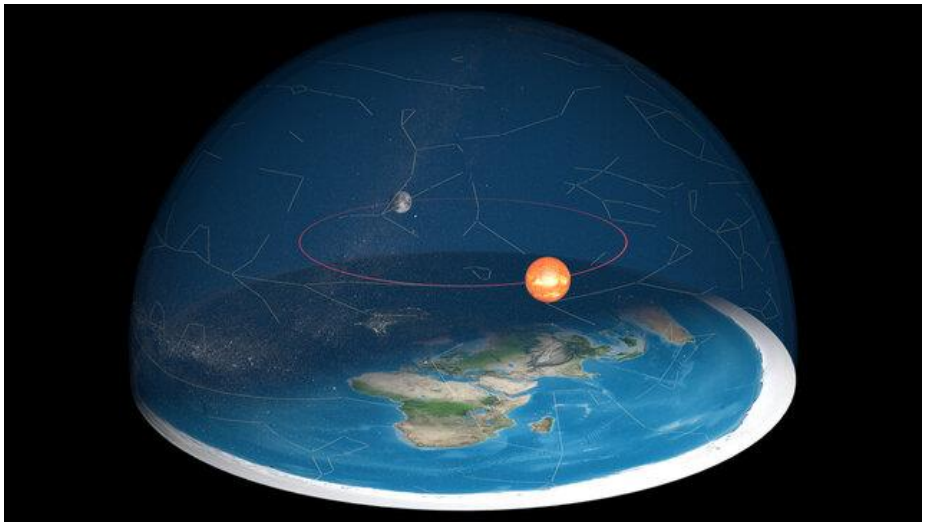
But on the other side, because the Asians and Blacks need so much sunlight, they would have a hard time getting their vitamin D in the frozen north, where the sun is not so strong. In Iceland though, a Norse girl would have no problem getting it because she was designed for this particular zoological zone.

So, when we come to the question of our Heimat, our home, why would we think any differently? Our home in a Macro sense will be just as perfectly designed as the creatures that live in it, in a Micro sense.

Remember that ALL of us, starting from birth, have been indoctrinated with the LIE that we live on a globe, a ball. That we are spinning through space, just like a billion other planets, in galaxies with their own Suns. That we are helpless on this ball and at any moment the Sun can shoot out a Coronal Mass Injection and annihilate us.



With further study many of you have broken through this programming and realized that the Earth is flat, with the Sun much smaller than we were told, not the Great Annihilator, and which revolves above our Earth. This Earth IS the CENTER of our world, NOT the Sun, as they want us to believe.



Note* I'm only using this as an example for the Earth being flat and how the Sun and Moon rotate above. I do NOT think we are on some kind of pancake floating through space.

With the Sun revolving above, it gives us day and night, the seasons and even time.

We come to realize that we are in a bio-dome, perfectly designed for it to run, perfectly self-contained.

Now the Fryans had observatories where they studied the stars. They saw how the heavens revolved around us, along with the Sun. And came to the realization that our world is in the shape of a wheel. They took this wheel and made a system of language, and a way to tell time.

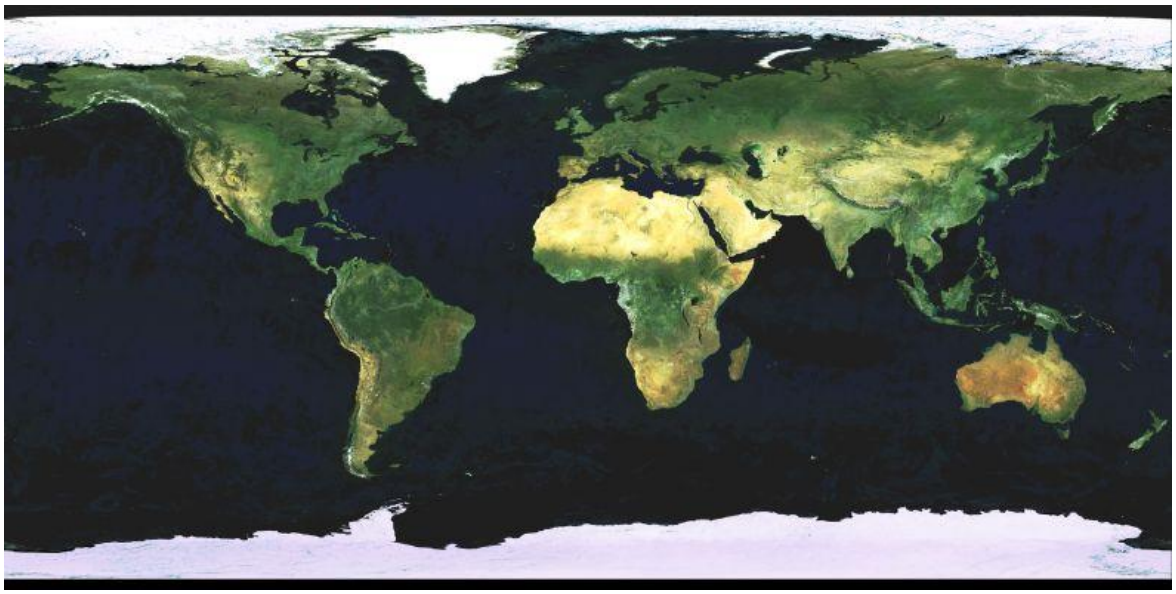
We can't be on a rectangle with gates, as some purport, because it doesn't fit with Wralda's perfect design, AND it's a bit far out there to say that there is this gate that you would go through to get to Japan from Hawaii, which would be clear on the other side of the world according to this design.

That theory would make people think Flat Earthers are nuts.



Now, we know we are on a CIRCLE from how the bio-dome is set up. We have in-drawing seas, as told by Mercator, where the oceans meet at the magnetic North Pole and run into the CENTER from four rivers that swirl around the mountain in the middle, the true tower of Wralda.

Gerard Mercator's Map from 1569 AD

The seas get sucked in and spit back out on the rim, otherwise known as Antarctica. That is why we have freshwater ice bergs there.

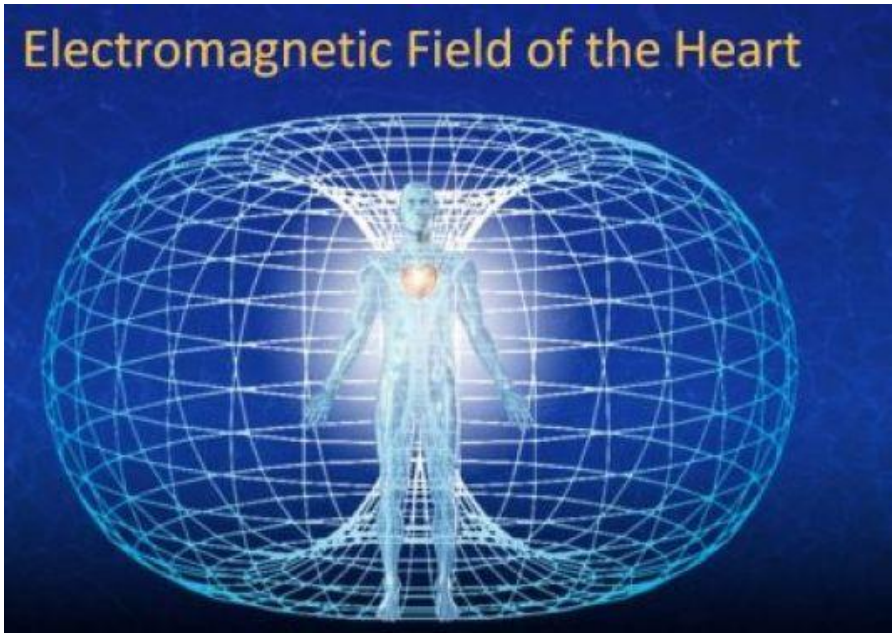
Antarctica is a desert. It doesn't rain there. So, there is no way that the icebergs are made by rainwater. They are made by the circulation pattern of the water running through the earth.

Climate of Antarctica

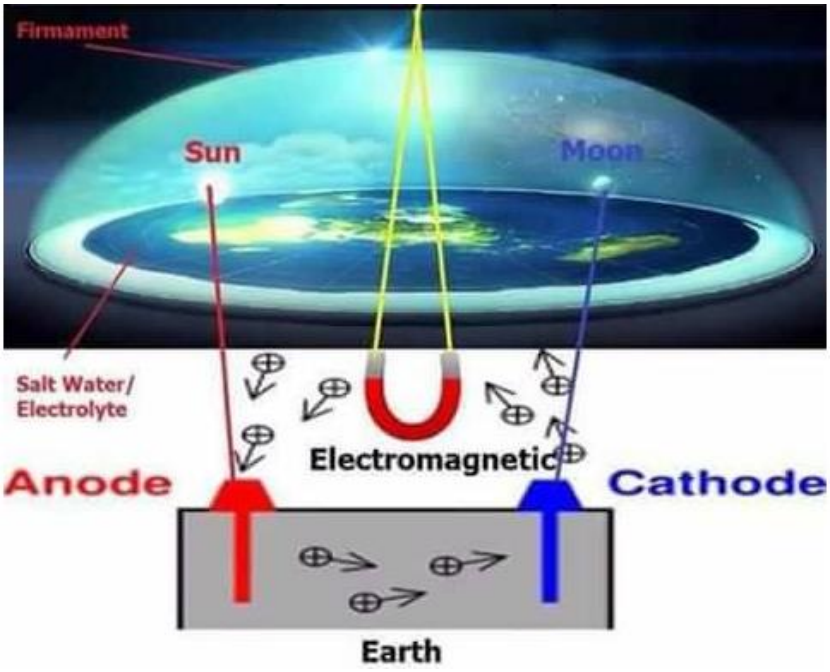
From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The climate of Antarctica is the coldest on Earth. The continent is also extremely dry (it is technically a desert), averaging 166 mm (6.5 in) of precipitation per year. Snow rarely melts on most parts of the continent, and, after being compressed, becomes the glacier ice that makes up the ice sheet. Weather fronts rarely penetrate far into the continent, because of the katabatic winds. Most of Antarctica has an ice-cap climate (Köppen classification EF) with very cold, generally extremely dry weather.

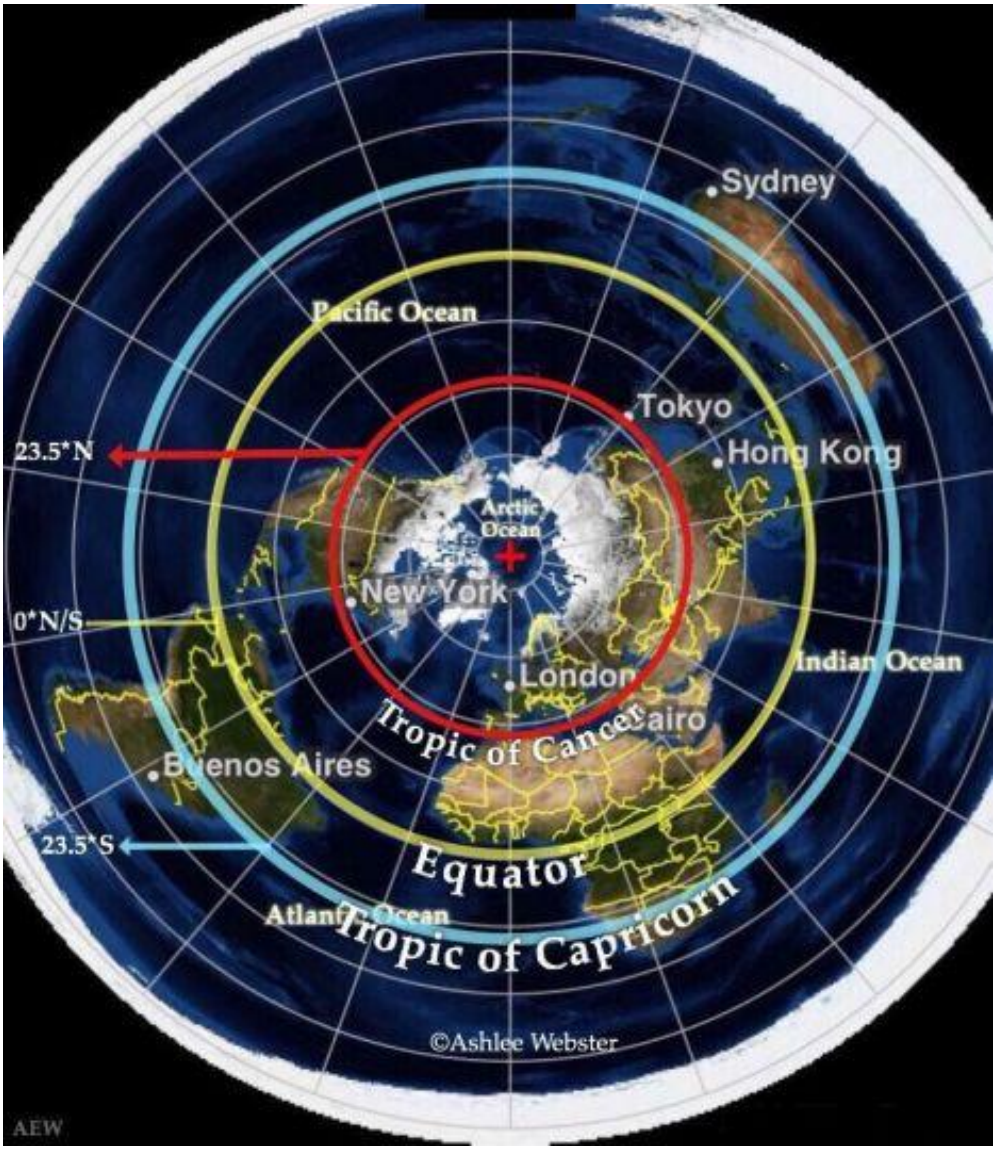
The water entering at the North Pole and exiting at the outer rim is done in a Toroidal field (Macro), and so does our bodies (Micro).



And the oceans are salty because the Earth is one big battery, with the attracting magnet at the North Pole, the Sun being the Anode and the Moon being the Cathode. The Earth would be the ground. Funny what we walk on is called the ground! This generates the power for the Earth to run.

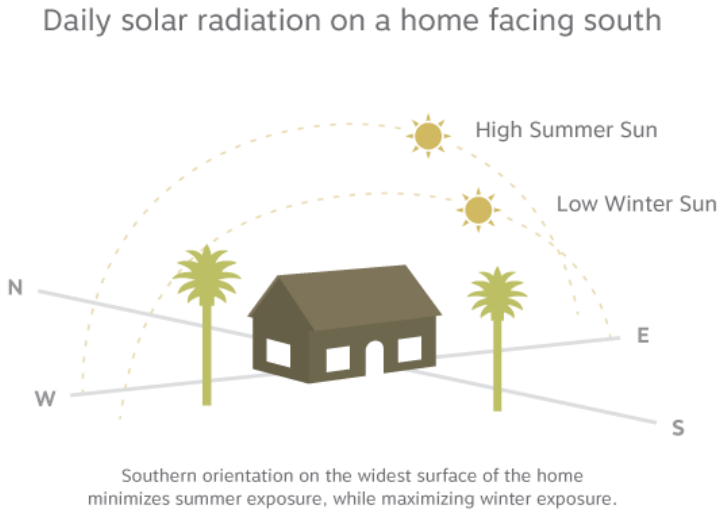


We know that the seasons happen from the path of the Sun. Its route is between the Tropic of Cancer in the north, to the Tropic of Capricorn in the south. When the Sun is closest to the Tropic of Cancer, we have summer in the Northern “Hemisphere”. When it is by the equator, we have either spring or fall depending on the direction it is going, winding out or winding in, and then when it is closest to the Tropic of Capricorn, we have winter. Of course, this is the opposite for people in the Southern Hemisphere because they are closer to the outer rim.

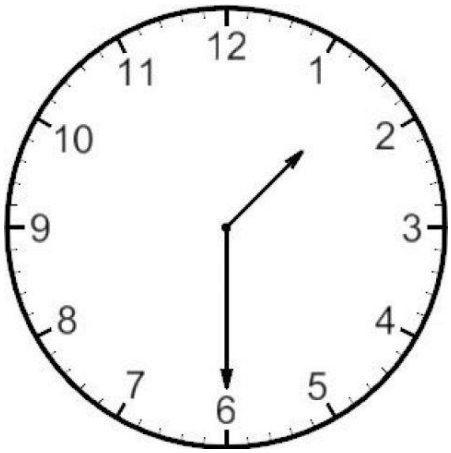


We can also tell the pattern of the Sun by where it is in the sky. When I lived in Hawaii it was very high up, almost overhead at noon. This is because Hawaii is in the belt of the Sun's path, near the Tropic of Cancer. Now I live close to Canada in the United States, and I can observe the Sun much lower in the sky in winter at noon. This is because it is so far away from me now.

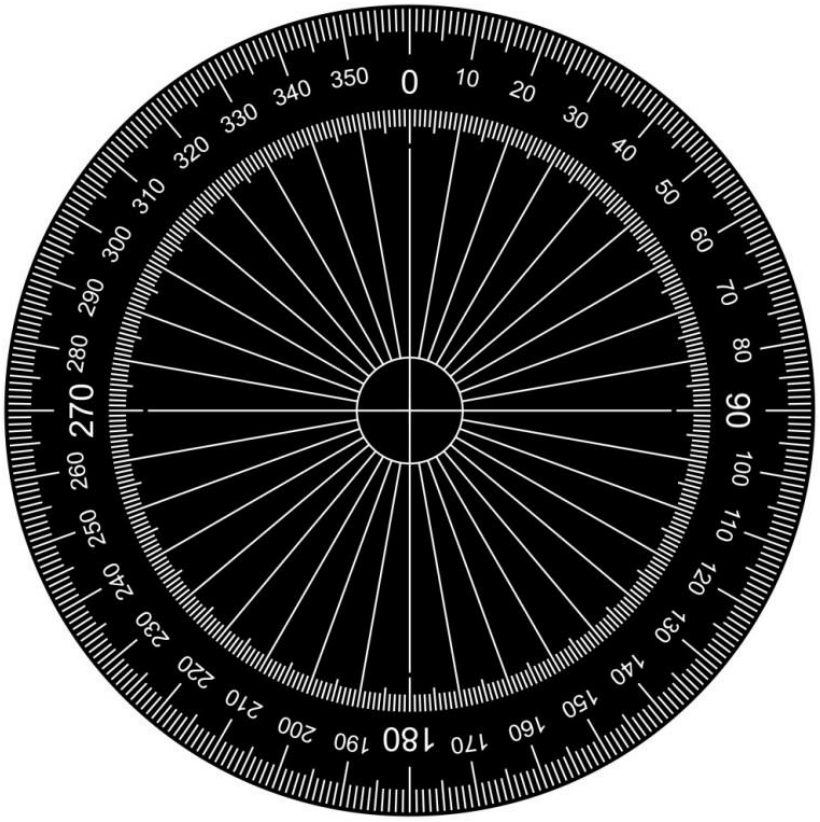
This is also why when buying property, in the Northern "Hemisphere", people look for south facing land. The sun rises and sets in the southern direction from east to west. This makes sense if the Sun is small and revolving on a flat Earth in a circular pattern. If you lived in the Southern "Hemisphere" like in Australia, you would look to buy NORTH facing land.



Now we have 12 hours of daylight and 12 hours of darkness, and we have 12 months, so time and months are both represented on a clock. So “days” should be represented on this same “clock”.



So, you would think we would have 360 days, a complete circle, and not 365 to fit perfectly as well. We know there are 365 days in a year, however, as we said, a perfect circle is 360. So how are the five extra days explained to make it fit in Wralda’s perfect design?



If we look at the Sun from the Winter Solstice, usually from December 21st or 22nd until December 23rd or 24th, we see that the Sun does not change position for roughly three days. This is when the Sun is at its outermost point on its path. This is where it adjusts itself to change from going outward to taking an inward path once again. Since the Sun is not changing its position at this time, we can safely say that these three days would be three of the five extra days of the year.

What about the other two days?

Solstice is Latin for SUN STANDING STILL. This would mean the Sun ALSO stands still on the Summer SOLSTICE. Two days for summer, three and a quarter days for winter. THEY (Magy) knew this! They hide it today by telling us it is the EARTH that stands still, and it just 'appears' that it is the Sun! What nonsense!

It does exactly the same thing for the SUMMER solstice, although the Sun's position there would be at its northernmost position. They conveniently omit this from the definition.

The Sun 'Stands Still'

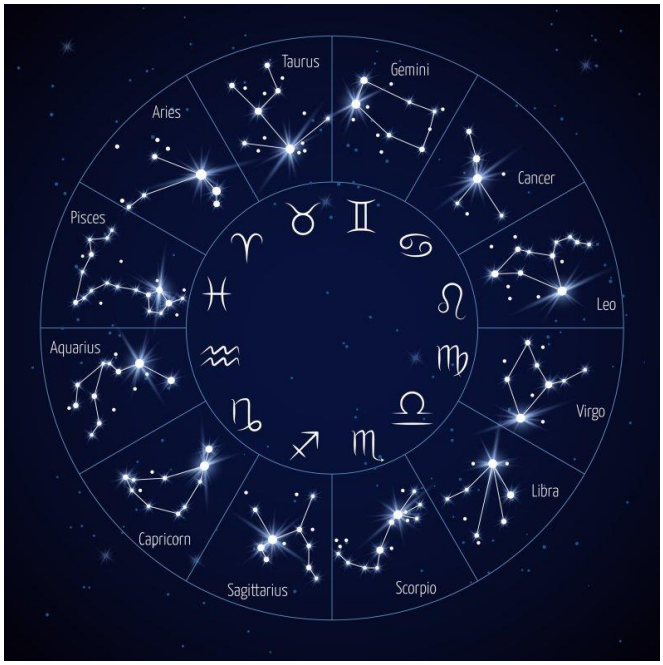
The term solstice comes from the Latin word solstitium, meaning 'the Sun stands still'. This is because on this day, the Sun reaches its southern-most position as seen from the Earth. The Sun seems to stand still at the Tropic of Capricorn and then reverses its direction. Dec 21, 2020

And the Sun actually takes five and a quarter days each year (three and a quarter at the Winter Solstice, two at the Summer Solstice). This quarter is then removed from the year and added at the end of February, every fourth year, known as Leap Year. 2020 was a Leap Year, so instead of 365 days we had 366.

So, we can see how Wralda's system of 365 days STILL fits His perfect circle of 360 degrees, because five of the days added are days when the Yule, the carrier wheel representing the Sun, is NOT spinning. The Sun stands still and so the Yule technically is not revolving. So really on December 22, it should be 72 hours long, and on June 22, it should be 48 hours long. This would have our calendar reflect 360 days, a perfect circle.

And remember in the sky above we have Noah's real ark, the Zoo de Arc, the Zodiac, which has 12 constellations, to match the 12 months and the 12 hours of day and 12 hours of night.



Zodiac constellation map

AND I believe, the 12 appear in the MICRO as in 12 tribes (clans) of each of the three races, Frya, Finda and Lyda. I know in the Oera Linda Book, it mentioned several of the different clans of Fryans, such as the Danes, the Scots, the Gertmanna, the Angles, the Saxenmanna etc.

Each tribe had distinctive features, such as green eyes and red hair, or blue eyes and blonde hair. Some had skin so white that it could never tan, only burn in the Sun, while others have white skin that can tan.

By the way, tanning is what is done to leather. This is more propaganda to make White's not love their fair skin. Trying to get them to darken their skin.

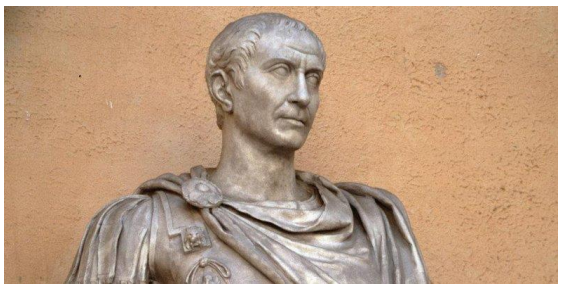
Now if we take a closer look at the current calendar, we will notice some anomalies. We know "Sept" in September means "Seven", but on the current calendar it is the ninth month. "Oct" actually means "Eight", but October is the tenth month. "Nov" means "Nine", but November is the eleventh month, and "Dec" is short for "Ten", but December is the twelfth month. However, the true eleventh and twelfth months are January and February. March would be the first month of the year because it represents new beginnings, the spring, the Baby, and should optimally start on the Vernal Equinox.

The Gregorian calendar was put in place by the Pope (are we surprised?) with the excuse that it was to help us determine Easter Sunday. What? Supposedly we had ten months previously, but guaranteed during the time of the Oera Linda Book they used a 12-month system since the Yule is based on 12, not ten.

In 1582 AD, those pesky Catholics (Magy/ Finda People), trying to hide the truth about our world, changed our calendar under Pope Gregory, giving us the Gregorian calendar where they made January 1st the beginning of the year, when traditionally it was March 25th, just after the Vernal Equinox.

Pope Gregory changed the calendar from the Julian to the Gregorian on October 4, 1582 AD.

The leap year was created in ancient Rome circa 46 BC, when Julius Caesar decided that the length of the calendar year had to be both standardized and kept in line with the actual solar year. Before Caesar established the Julian Calendar, the Roman year was 355 days plus an extra 27 or 28-day month every other year, for an average year of 366.25 days. Remember too, that Caesar added the months of August and July to honor himself and his son, Augustus. Julius- July. Augustus- August.



The Fryans would NEVER do something like make themselves as gods like Caesar did. They named the months after the growing seasons or after animals that are symbolic of that time of year. From the Oera Linda Book, we get some of the names of the months, but unfortunately not all.

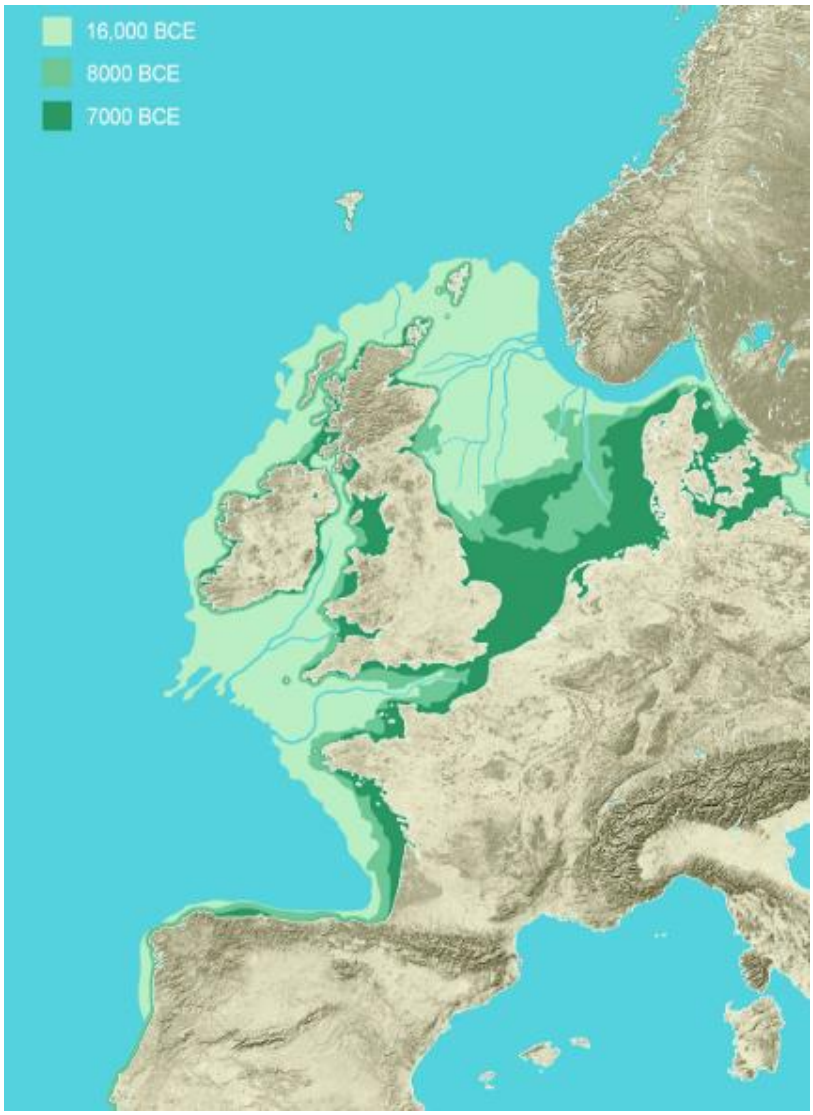
We have Arnemaand, which means Harvest Month, Wolfamaand (Wolf) for Winter Month, Herdemaand (Louwmaand) is January, Sellemaand (Sprokkelmaand) is February and Winne or Minnamaand (Bloeimaand-Bloom's) is May.

The CORRECT order of the seasons in a year, Spring, Summer, Fall and Winter.

But you can see that neither the Julian calendar or the Gregorian calendar truly reflected the Yule.

Also, for the Fryans, time started being kept from the sinking of Aldland onward, because before that each day was perfect and there was no need to track time. But once the disaster hit, the survivors started to keep time from the day of the disaster. Since the event happened in the year 2193 BC, by the Christian calendar, we add this to the year 2021, which gives us 4214 for the true year. I like to add AA after it, which would stand for After Aldland.

So, our current year would be 4214 AA.



Frya's Land, including Aldland that sunk at what today is known as the Doggerlands

Now in keeping with His perfect design, God made four seasons, and had it coincide with the four stages of man. These are Spring, which is the Baby, Summer, being the Adolescent, Fall, as the Adult, and Winter as the Wise Old Man. Remember Old Man Winter? (The Elderly used to be respected and admired for their knowledge and wisdom, yet today, in our inverse world, we treat them as a nuisance and hide them away in Old Folk's homes.)

So along with the Yule, Wralda gave us time. The Yule is the carrier. It depicts the Circle of Life of Man. Literally. Our offspring enter the Yule in our place and carry on in the circle.

Here it depicts seven, but there are really four, baby, adolescent, adult and old man.

Now these same four seasons are HIDDEN in the Last Supper painting. Did Leonardo DaVinci know the truth about our Earth? Now some would say it shows January, February, March, on Jesus' right, and you would read the months from there, in groups of three, marking each season, but I would say March would be the first, following by April and May, making Spring, then Summer, then Fall on Jesus' immediate left, followed by Winter, being December, January and February.

That would make AUGUST, the Virgin, and the only female in the painting, seated directly to Jesus' right, the sign of VIRGO. Da Vinci knew!

Notice also that Jesus, sitting in the middle with both red and blue on, represents both Anode and Cathode and the magnetic mountain in the middle. Above him is the domed earth. Also, in front of him we can see the table is carved in a semi-circle, depicting this table should be seen as a circle, NOT a rectangle.

Leonardo Da Vinci's Last Supper, painted in 1498 AD

The Fryans had a festival that lasted from the Winter Solstice, until January 1st, celebrating the Yule in the winter season. When the Sun continues its path BACK to them.

And in the Oera Linda Book we have mentioned Friendship month, also known as Harvest month, Arnemaand. Notice that FRY AN is very close to FRI END, we get FRIEND from FRYAN. The Fryans wanted the world to know they came as friends, and this would be most fitting with their culture and attitude.

FRYAN ~ FRIEND

And as Friend is from Fryan, Wheel is from Yule. The Wheel IS the Yule, Wralda's carrier wheel.

WHEEL ~ YULE ~ HJUL

The Yule IS the Wheel, the carrier that we are riding on. I always think of a Merry-Go-Round that we hop on. We have various amounts of time on this wheel before we "hop off" or die.

Notice too that the Yule is in the symbol on the Tarot card. TARO is also an anagram for ROTA which means Circle or Wheel. So, we know THEY know the truth about our world as well.

And TORA, is their law, used to control us.

TARO ~ ROTA ~ TORA ~ AORT(a) ~ HEART

They even call it the WHEEL of Fortune.

They add THEIR name for THEIR God, YHWH, written in Hebrew, instead of the name of the Alvater, Wralda, as we saw on the original wheel.

> On the wheel, alternating with the letters T-A-R-O are the Hebrew letters ה-ו-ה-י, usually transliterated as YHWH (Yahweh - Hebrew for God).

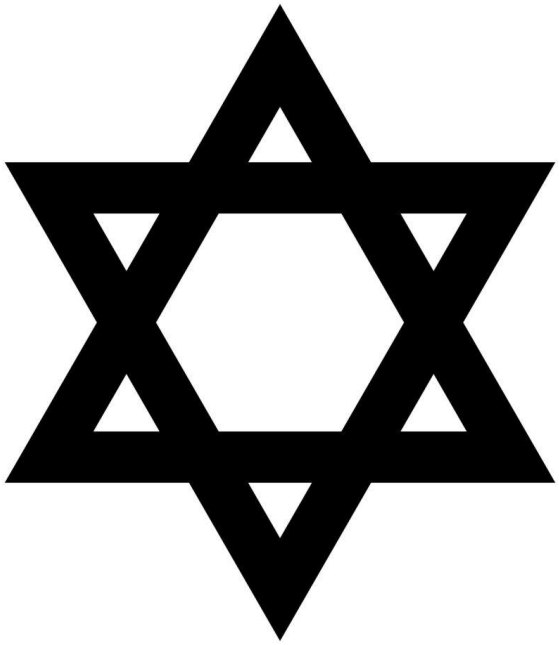
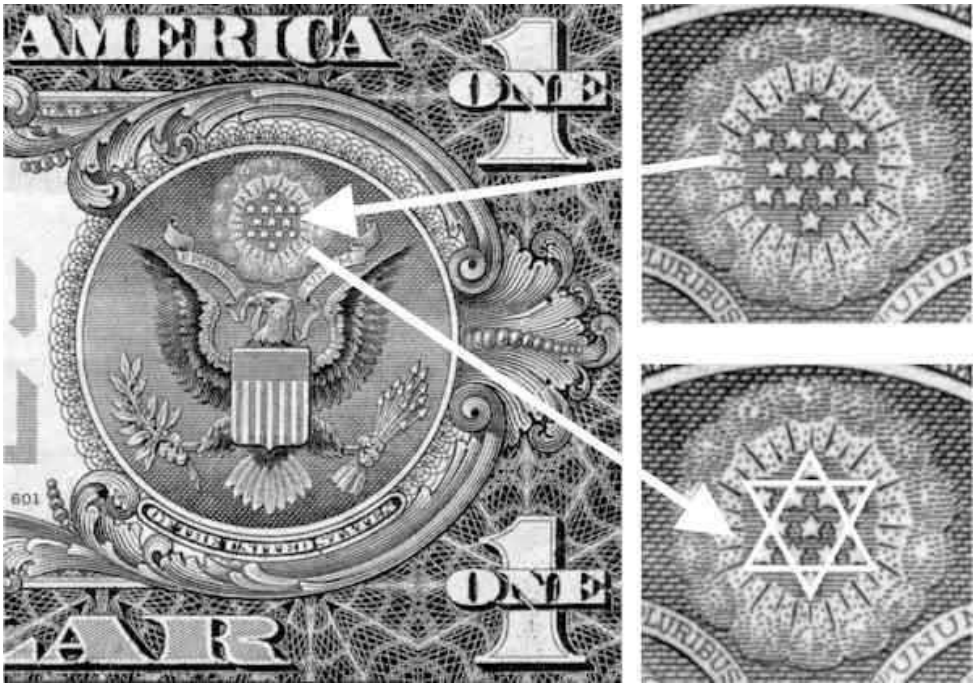
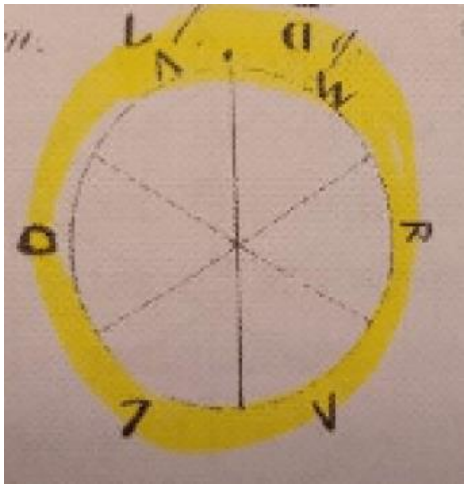
And their six-pointed Star is based on the six-pointed Yule. Hiding truth in plain sight.



Shown here on the Dollar bill.



If we look at the original Yule, we see that WRALDA is written on it. So, they usurped WRALDA with THEIR god and the TORA, THEIR laws.



Also, the Burgh Matron Athena used the EULE as her symbol because EULE is so close to YULE. EULE is the word for OWL in German. The owl is connected to the Yule. The owl would be the animal symbol for the Yule.

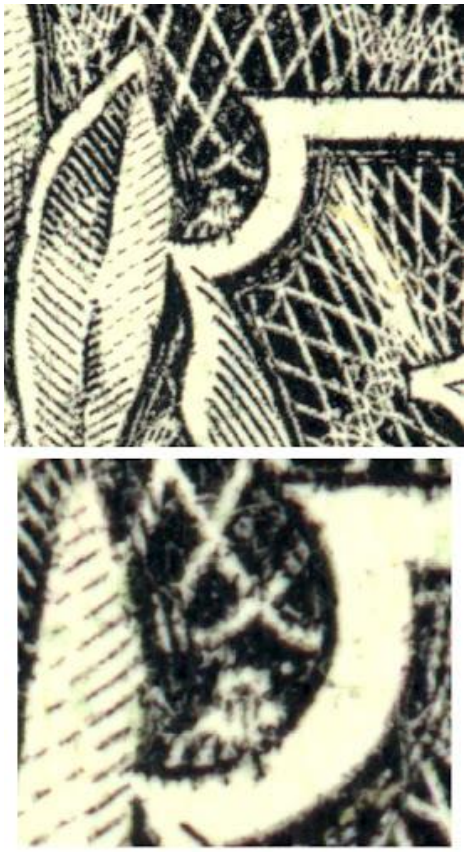
OWL ~ EULE ~ YULE

The priests ask Athena, tell us what is the meaning of the night owl that always sits above your head? Is that light shunning animal perhaps a sign of your clear vision?

No, answered Athena, he helps to remind me that there are people roaming the Earth who, like him, live in churches and holes. They keep to the dark, though, not like him to rid us of mice and other plagues, but to invent tricks to steal other people's knowledge that they may get a better hold to make slaves of them, and to suck their blood like vampires do.

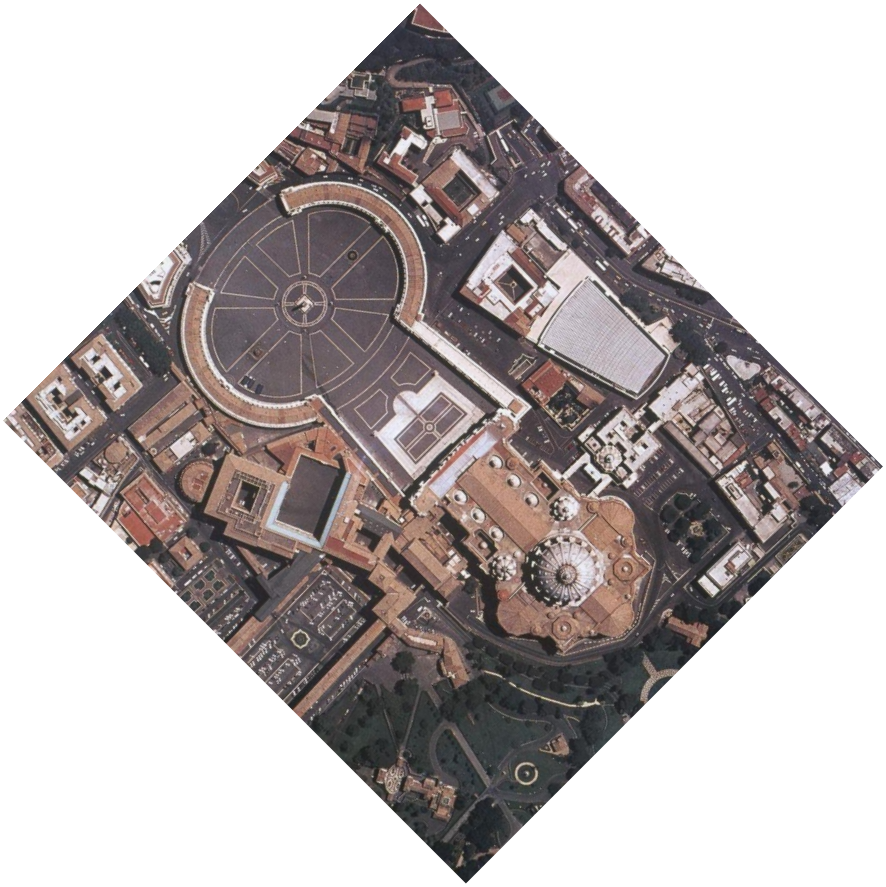
We can see how the Mason's usurped this sacred symbol for the Yule and use it for their secret society.

See the hidden owl on the one Dollar bill?



Just like the Statue of Liberty was usurped, a FRYAN symbol of the original flame from the beginning, they have a Burgh Matron holding the torch. Remember that the Burgh Matron's would NEVER let a statue be made of themselves. This is blasphemy, a false idol. They were completely opposed to this.

And they have the Burgh Matron standing on a Star Fort. Remember, the center of every Fryan Star Fort is the YULE. And the shape of this is similar to the Vatican. But they have a serpent there instead of the Fryan Burgh Matron.



PART 12 ~ TWELVE, THE CIRCLE AND THE SPRING EQUINOX

I always knew I wanted to end this series on a Part Twelve. Twelve fits in with Wralda's design and is most auspicious. But I wasn't going to make a Part Twelve until I had something really important to share. And so, here we are. My Part Twelve is, in part, on the number TWELVE.

So, let's take a closer look at how TWELVE is incorporated in Wralda's design.

Only in America (Liberia and Myanmar) do we still use the old English System of Measurements. And its funny how people in other countries laugh about this. Those oddball Americans! BUT, this system IS Wralda's system. So, who should be laughing?

In Wralda's system we have a measurement called a Foot, which is TWELVE inches long.

And if we take 5280 Feet of those, we get a Mile, which is also base TWELVE (5280/12=440).

We can see how practical Wralda is. He gives us a system that we can do without having to grab a tool to measure. We can measure an Inch with our index finger. An Inch being the length between the knuckles. A Foot was literally, on average, an adult male's foot, and a yard was an adult male's arm length.

Imagine having a size TWELVE foot, you could measure anything by "the foot" just by walking it.

A Mile was a “twenty-minute walk” on those feet. So, if we have three miles, we have a sixty-minute walk, or one hour (60/12=5).
Base TWELVE once again.

In the Oera Linda Book we see how these longer measurements were done in time as well. Athena/Minerva tells us how the wall from the harbor to Athens was an hour long. So, we know the wall was approximately three miles long.

From the OLB we read, We then built a burgh at an HOUR’S distance from the harbor. On Minerva’s advice it was called Athenia, because she said, those who come after us should know that we did not come there out of greed or by violence but were received like friends.

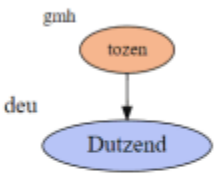
And we count eggs by the dozen, which of course is TWELVE. Why always TWELVE eggs? Because we had a strong connection with the Yule in our past and knew that Wralda's world was made in base TWELVE. So, we incorporated base TWELVE in our everyday lives. So, we crated eggs by the dozen because they are a symbol of fertility, and so it reminds us of the original TWELVE tribes of Frya, and our first mother.

They'll try and tell you that the word "Dozen" is from Old French dozaine, and that came from Latin duodecim, but it actually was Germanic and thus a Fryan word.

Dutzend etymology

Home → German → Dutzend

German word Dutzend comes from Middle High German tozen



Detailed word origin of Dutzend

Dictionary entry	Language	Definition
tozen	Middle High German (gmh)
Dutzend	German (deu)	Dozen.

From the OLB we read, Later, in Athens, Minerva gave the following reply to the pagan priests when they asked her about these symbols. Once they came and asked: If you are not a witch, what are you doing with the eggs that you are always carrying with you? Minerva answered, These eggs are the symbols of Frya's councils, in which our future and that of the whole human race lies concealed; time must hatch them, and we must keep watch that no harm comes to them.

Gentlemen give their sweethearts a DOZEN roses as well. This "stems" back to Frya and her "eggs", the original TWELVE Fryan tribes.

In Elementary School we learned our Times Table up to number TWELVE. At thirteen, the numbers change. We enter the "teens".

And TWELVE was considered the last year before we went through puberty or flowered. TWELVE years CIRCUITING the Yule to become a Young "Adult". Not quite a child, but not quite an adult.

A COMPLETE CIRCUIT around the Yule was also reflected in each Fryan's house.

From the OLB we read, Those who by their good deeds had received a piece of land in front of their house, they promised from their side, they would also receive a piece behind; those who had a piece before and behind, would be allocated A COMPLETE CIRCUIT.

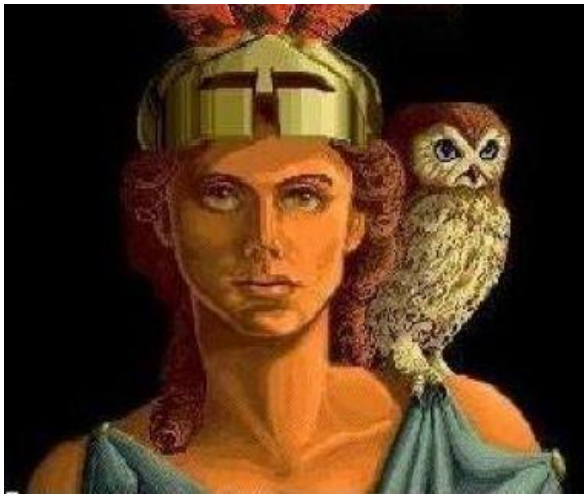
We KNEW our World was based on TWELVE and the CIRCLE. How did we forget? How did we lose our connection to Wralda?

The Owl was a sacred symbol of the CIRCLE, the YULE, as we can see when we look at the German word for Owl, which is EULE. It is phonetically the same as YULE. The owl is a symbol of wisdom. A symbol of the protector watching over us, even as we sleep.

OWL ~ EULE ~ YULE



Another animal symbol of the Carrier Wheel, or the CIRCLE, is the Crow. Yes, another creature of Wralda's that has been taken over by the Cabal and used for bad. The Crow in Scottish is CORMAC. COR means CIRCLE and MAC means CLAN, so CORMAC would mean "Clan of the Circle".

And the Crow, like the Owl, is ALSO a symbol of wisdom.

CROW ~ CORMAC ~ CIRCLE

That is why Odin is always depicted with his two crows, Huginn and Munnin.

And our first “church” was the CIRCLE. The word CHURCH in German is KIRCHE, and in Old English was KIRK. Kirk is CIRC or CIRCLE. So, Kirche means we worshipped the CIRCLE, the Yule, Wralda’s Carrier Wheel, the TRUE Church.

CHURCH ~ KIRCHE ~ CIRCLE

And when it came to Market days in the OLB we read about General Law Number Eight, which states, Market fees may not be more than one-TWELFTH of the transaction, both for residents and outsiders.

So, we see, even in transactions the number TWELVE was sacred.

Also, we learn that within Frya's borders there were TWELVE large freshwater rivers. One to represent each Tribe of Frya perhaps?

From the OLB we read, At the morning boundary (Eastern) we went over the extremity of the Aster Sea (Eastern Sea), at the evening (Western) to the Middle Sea (Mediterranean). Also, apart from the small, there were TWELVE large freshwater rivers given to us by Wralda to help keep our land moist, and to show our seafaring men the way to the sea.

In the OLB, regarding the story of the death of Adela, we learn that during the Harvest month, they had a festival in which TWELVE girls led TWELVE lambs... and TWELVE boys led TWELVE calves.

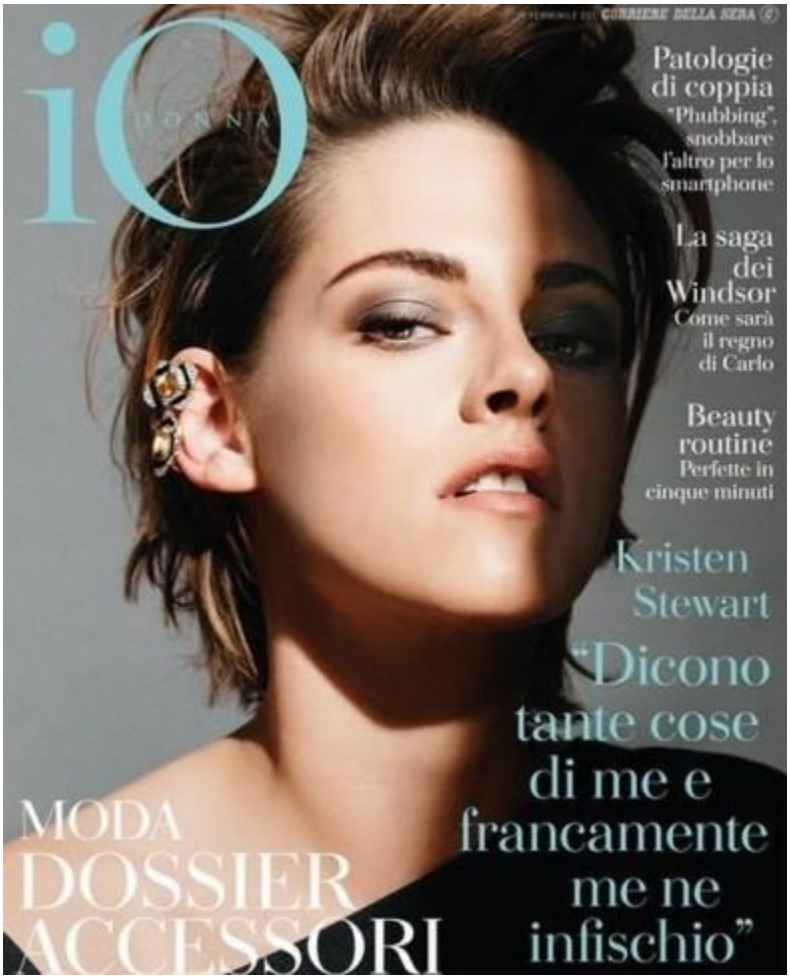
Today they make the excuse that we use the Metric System because it is much more practical. But is it?

We know it's based off of Base 10. Base IO. IO is a symbol for the androgynous male/female Baphomet.



Notice Kristen Stewart doing the One Eye symbolism here.

Here we have the infamous Number 10 or Number IO Downing Street.

IO is also a moon of Jupiter, and a minor goddess in the Greek Mythology pantheon. She is the equivalent of the Egyptian Isis. And we know who worships ISIS ~ the Magy.

IO ~ ISIS

Jupiter and Io, here with IO and her LEFT (Masonic) breast exposed. And she is doing the M hand sign.

Isn't it odd that we don't hear anything about ISIS these days? THEY (the Magy) control what the NEWS will be (North East West South) and focus our attention on the agenda they are pushing. ISIS stands for Israeli Secret Intelligence Service, and their motto is Rule by Deception and also, The Unseen Shield, which we know is another way to say The Hidden Hand.

So just like their BS "Panspermia" in which life came to earth from space on the backs of asteroids, comets and space dust, sperm fertilizing the non-existent space egg called earth…

PANSPERMIA ~ PAN SPERMING

and named after Pan, the Goat God or androgynous IO and his “sperm” all over this theory like an Alpha dog marking its territory, we have them doing the same thing with our system of measurements. To get us off of Wralda’s system, the Natural System and putting us on their artificial system under their control.

Here we have Pan trying to molest Athena Minerva. Just like they do relentlessly to all Fryans today. She’s holding the perpetual flame. The flame given to Fryans to connect them with their original mother, Frya. And notice how tall she is. WE were the ones known as Giants in those days.

National Archaeological Museum, Athens, Greece: a sculpture of Aphrodite, Eros, and Pan was found on Delos Island and dates from 100 BC.

The Metric System, METRIC sounds phonetically similar to MATRIX.

METRIC ~ MATRIX

It IS the MATRIX System that they have put us under.

And yet we still use the old system for time. We have 60 seconds in a minute, and 60 minutes in an hour (60/12=5). There are 24 hours in a day (24/12=2), evenly divided between day and night. We have 30 days in a month and TWELVE of those make a Perfect Circle, the true year of 360 days (360/12=30).

Remember that the “Sun stands still” on the Solstices, so when it stands still three days for Winter and two and a quarter for Summer, that the carrier wheel is technically standing still, thus we have 360 days of movement.

The year is divided into four seasons that show the natural progression of Wralda's creation throughout the year, including the Cycle of Man, from baby, to boy, to man, to elder.

And during the Winter season Wralda let's beautiful snowflakes fall in perfect base TWELVE designs as well (6×2=12).

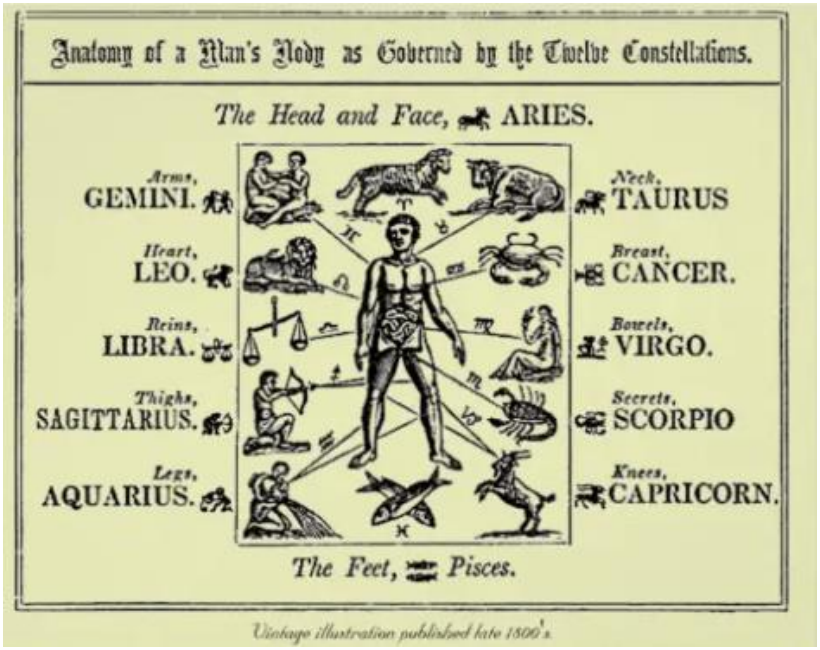
And we know that the true year STARTS on the Spring Equinox, so the Zodiac should START here as well. But does it?

Why yes, yes it does!

Aries is always considered the FIRST sign of the Zodiac and Aries starts on the SPRING Equinox. Bam! Truth hidden in plain sight! If our current calendar was correct then Aries would start in January, but it doesn't. January's Zodiac sign isn't even the last sign but the eleventh! The twelfth would be in February. So, we KNOW they took two months from the back and tacked them on the front of our calendar to throw us off of Wralda's Perfect Design and put us into their false MATRIX system.

Now if we look to the Zodiac signs we will also notice that they correspond to body parts. These body parts go in anatomical order from the top of the head down to the feet. Just like in the order of time we have the baby, then boy, then man, then elder.

So Aries is the head and face, as it should be if it represents the FIRST SIGN and coincides with the TRUE FIRST MONTH of March! Taurus is the neck and throat, Gemini (twins) are the twin arms and hands, Cancer is the breast (breast cancer awareness?), Leo is the heart, Virgo is the solar plexus, Libra is the kidneys and hips, Scorpio is the genitals, Sagittarius is the thighs, Capricorn is the knees, Aquarius is the ankles, and Pisces are the two feet.



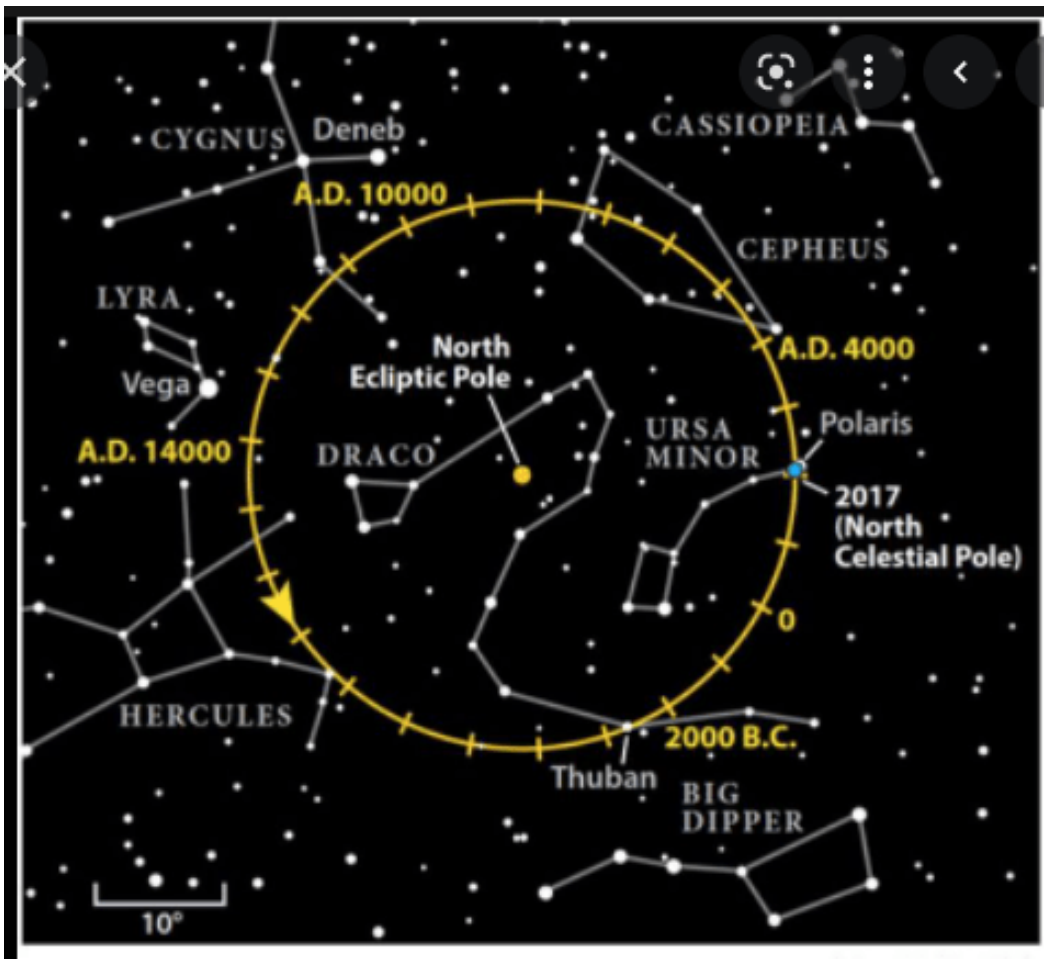
If we look at the dates for each sign, we see that the dates are what the actual True Year is!

Astrology
Aries Mar 21 – Apr 20
Taurus Apr 21 – May 20
Gemini May 21 – Jun 21
Cancer Jun 22 – Jul 22
Leo Jul 23 – Aug 23
Virgo Aug 24 – Sept 23
Libra Sept 24 – Oct 23
Scorpio Oct 24 – Nov 22
Sagittarius Nov 23 – Dec 21
Capricorn Dec 22 – Jan 20
Aquarius Jan 21 – Feb 18
Pisces Feb 19 – Mar 20

And on a side note, if we look to nature, we see that animals are born in the Spring, that plants also come out of hibernation and bloom. And like nature, Man too, was meant to have their offspring in the spring. OFFspring- OF Spring. We should technically ALL be of Aries, the head.

OFFSPRING ~ OF SPRING

If we look to see how many years make an Age we come to 2,160 years, which again is base TWELVE (2,160/12=180). And we know that the Ages run backwards.



These Ages running backwards, known as the Precession of the Equinoxes, was first calculated by Hipparchus around 127 BC. Since each sign of the Zodiac is composed of 30 degrees (Just like each month has 30 days), each Astrological Age might be thought to last about 72 (years) × 30 (degrees) = about 2160 years. This corresponds to the average time it takes for the Vernal Equinox to move from one constellation of the Zodiac into the next. See how it's tied to the VERNAL equinox? The beginning of each Carrier Wheel around the Yule?

The Fryans KNEW how important the VERNAL Equinox was and built Stonehenge and similar structures all over the world, wherever Fryans lived, to honor the most important day of the year.

So, there are TWELVE Zodiacal Ages (like Months) within a Great Year, and those are separated into four “Metal” Ages (like Seasons). So, we know we are in the Iron Age, but what Zodiacal Age are we in? We see a big debate on this, with the majority believing that we are now in the Age of Aquarius. BUT when that actually started is hard to determine. I found start dates in the 1800’s, 1960’s, 2012 and even that it just happened on the VERNAL EQUINOX of March 20, 2021.

Has the Age of Aquarius started?

When does the Age of Aquarius start? The exact starting date of this new age is up for debate. Some astrologers suggest it starts on the vernal equinox on March 20, 2021 in the northern hemisphere, while others, such as Kelly, focus on the conjunction that occurred in December 2020. Jan 30, 2021

When we have the Precession go through all TWELVE signs this is called a Great Year. One Great Year equals 25,920 years, which is a complete precession through the Zodiac, and is again, Base TWELVE (25,920/12=2160).

Traditionally this 25,920 year-long cycle is calibrated, for the purposes of determining Astrological Ages, by the location of the sun in one of the TWELVE Zodiac constellations at the Vernal (Spring) Equinox, which corresponds to the moment the sun crosses the Celestial Equator, marking the start of Spring in the Northern Hemisphere each year. Every 2,160 years the sun's position at the time of the Vernal Equinox will have moved into a new Zodiacal constellation.

So, we can see how important the VERNAL EQUINOX is and why they would want to hide the importance from us. It's basically our base, where we start on Wralda's wheel, and where significant events will happen at particular intervals, both minor and major events.

We know that TIME is actually CIRCULAR, just like everything else making up Wralda's creation, and NOT linear, as in a straight line, but a curved line, When we complete a Great Year we start over at year one. So it might be hard to grasp that we are infinitely on this Circle, with civilizations rising and falling, and ours will too.

From the OLB, Athena/Minerva says, Frya has brought us to the path and the carrier, that is Time, must do the rest. For all calamities there is counsel and remedy to be found, but Wralda wills that we should seek it ourselves, in order that we may become strong and wise. If we will not do that, he leaves us to our own devices, in order that we may experience the results of wise or foolish conduct.

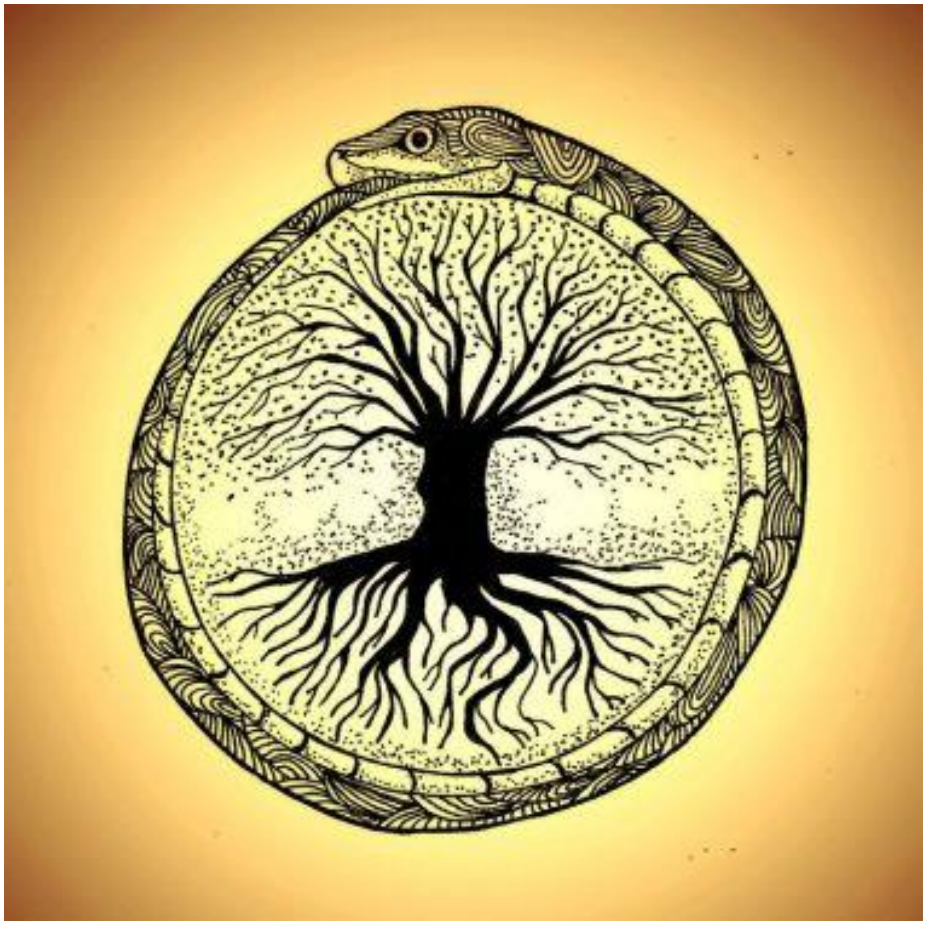
Reincarnation is real because like time being circular, so are our life cycles. I think our ancestors knew this and thus used the symbol of the Ouroboros to represent this.

So, we come into the Carrier Wheel as a baby, and if we don't get killed prematurely by man or by nature, we would die an elder. Then, eventually, we would come back in again.



Our Ancestors were proud to die a noble and brave death. And to die an old man or woman was not desirable. They must have known that life does not end in death. That true warriors, of the sword, of the pen, of the heart, go to Valhalla.

When we observe Wralda's Perfect Design, we can see truth in plain sight. Ever wonder why Christians are told not partake in astrological topics? Is it to keep them in the dark? (Pun intended.)

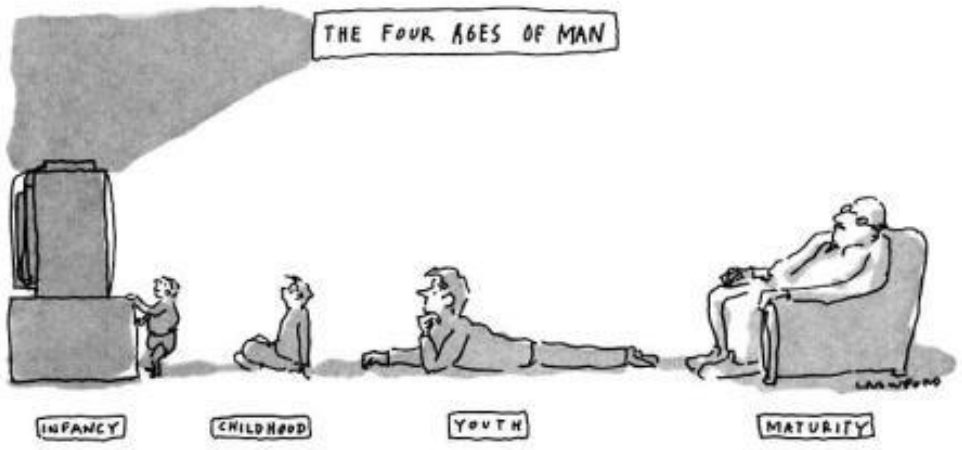
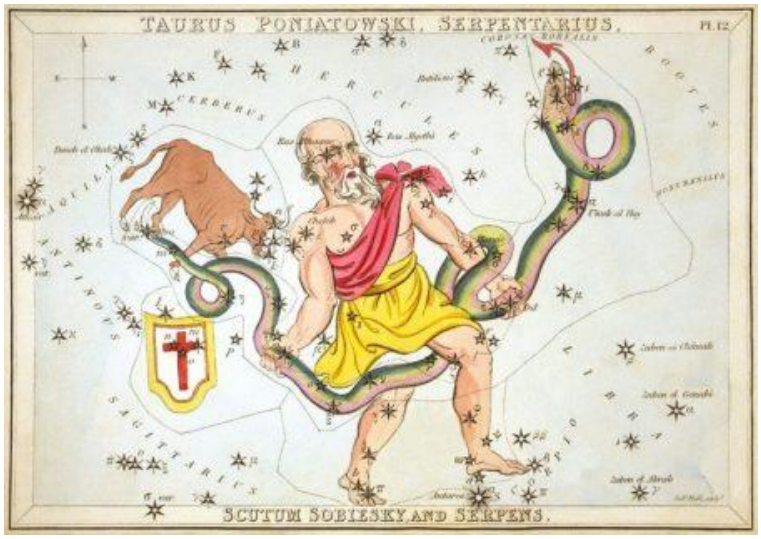
christians say not to practice witch craft or astrology but celebrate the resurrection of a dead guy on the sunday after the first full moon of the equinox and then they drink wine & bread as his blood and body and incant over their animal sacrifices before they feast.

So, like the four seasons in a Year, we have four ages in a Great Year. These Ages coincide with the four seasons. The Golden Age would coincide with Spring, the Baby, the beginning, where everything is healthy, fresh and new. Then we have the Silver Age, which coincides with Summer, the Youth, where things aren't as new, there are slight growing pains, but it is all together a good time to be alive. From there we have the Bronze Age, which coincides with the Fall, and the adult, where we have responsibilities now, and have to take control of our actions and accept whatever consequences come from them. Issues do arise, but we can deal with them and still have a decent quality of life. Then, finally, we come to the Iron Age, which coincides with Winter and the old man. Here, our bad actions have caught up with us and things are going downhill fast. We can't fix our problems and at best we place bandages where we can. We are in this Age now.



To cover up the natural order of things with the Four Ages, they add an additional Age, called the Heroic Age. But this shouldn't be here. It's put there just like a 13th Zodiac Sign was added between Scorpio and Sagittarius called Ophiuchus, the Serpent-Bearer. This would change the Zodiac from Wralda's Base TWELVE to Base Thirteen. Notice its symbol is the SERPENT, a symbol used by the same people trying to complete their New World Order.



With each Age, Golden, Silver, Bronze and Iron, we have an Earth calamity, a reset. When we have the ending of the Great Year, we have the biggest reset imaginable. A complete do over.

Even the Wiki tells us that, Astrologers believe that an astrological age affects humanity, possibly by influencing the rise and fall of civilizations or cultural tendencies.

We know from the OLB that there was a Great Flood in 2193 BC, which sunk our original homeland of Aldland, and another catastrophic world-wide event, but to a lesser degree, around 500 BC. But could either of these fit with the changes of the Ages? And most importantly with the end of a Great Year? Something we still need to figure out.

Is a clue in the name? The GREAT Flood, for the GREAT Year?

GREAT FLOOD ~ GREAT YEAR

We do know that the Sun's path started close to the North Pole because the Fryans, when living in Aldland (Atlantis), in that Golden Age, had a Mediterranean type climate. Fruit trees were in abundance and every day was as beautiful as the next. They had no need to keep time because they had a leisurely life full of abundance and could do as they pleased.

When Aldland sunk, the weather changed and there were many Earth calamities. Land rose and fell, tidal waves hit the shores and volcanoes spewed forth ash and rock. We know the North became cold and covered with ice, so we know the Sun's path had widened.

Today it is in between the Tropic of Cancer in the north, to the Tropic of Capricorn in the south. Just a couple hundred years ago Samuel Rowbotham was relaying how the closer the ships came to the Antarctic rim the more wild and treacherous the weather got. That it was an environment in the extreme and only the strong-hearted sailors would dare sail there. But we know currently that the seas have calmed at the Antarctic shores, that they do get some sunlight and mild days.

So, it seems to me the Sun's path is ever widening and eventually it will get to its outermost circumference. Once there, this will end another Great Year. Earth calamities will be extreme. And a Great Reset will happen once again. The Sun will eventually change its course, like it does on a smaller scale during the Winter and Summer Solstices and start to go on an inward path once again, ever tightening until it reaches its innermost circumference. This is a natural occurrence and part of Wralda's Perfect Design, but it would be nice if we could calculate when these occurrences will happen in our future.

Our ancestors were very wise and knew much more of Wralda's creation than we do today. I do take comfort in Frana's dream that our people will NOT perish, and that we will eventually live in peace. A fresh, new start, in another Golden Age. Time controls the Carrier Wheel, and although civilizations rise and fall according to its rules, we know that our suffering is temporary.

From the OLB we read, When the Magy tried to get Frana to declare him master over Fryan lands she instead told him of her vision, she said, My eyes are dim, but the other light dawns upon my soul. Yes, I see it. Hear, Irtha, and rejoice with me.

At the time Aldland sank, the first spoke of the Yule stood at the top. Then it went down, and our freedom with it. When two spokes, or two thousand years shall have pass, the sons shall arise who have been bred of the fornication of the rulers and priests with the people and shall witness against their fathers.

They shall all succumb to murder, but what they have proclaimed shall endure and become fruitful in the bosoms of bold men, like good seed which is laid in your lap. The spoke shall descend for a further thousand years and sink deeper in darkness and in the blood shed over you by the wickedness of the rulers and priests. After that, the dawn shall begin to glow.

Seeing this, the false rulers and priests will all together strive and wrestle against freedom, but freedom, love and unity will takt the people under their protection and will rise with the Yule out of the vile pool. Justice, which at first only glimmered, shall then become a flame. The blood of the wicked shall flow over your body, but you must never take it for yourself. At last, the poisonous animals shall feed thereon and die of it. All the disgraceful histories that were contrived in praise of the rulers and priests shall be offered to the flame. Thenceforth, your children shall live in peace.

All the best, Kat the Fryan
